OUR MEDICATED BOUGIE NEVER FAILS TO CURE

THE FRANCE URETHRAL TREATMENT is a medicated Bougie for the cure of Stricture and all forms of Diseases of the Bladder, Urethra, and Prostate Gland. The Bougies are inserted into the urethral canal upon retiring at night, and slip into position without the slightest effort, requiring a short time to dissolve. They act like a mild electric current, invigorating and imparting vim and snap to the entire body. The curative effect is felt from the first application. Our special treatment completely dissolves the Stricture and permanently removes obstructions from the urinary passage.

Treatment by Correspondence. Every one applying for Medical Treatment should receive a careful chemical and microscopic examination. We have cured thousands of cases we have never seen. Write for book of 100 pages and 100 questions. Correspondence, Consultation and Examination free and strictly confidential. No names published without the written consent of the patient. Treatment sent by mail or express to any part of the United States.

GEN. ANDERSON.

Views of the Veterans at the Sandusky Home.

PARTISAN SLANDERS REFUTED.

Resolutions Adopted Which Set Forth the True Condition of Affairs at the Institution.

Some little time ago the Democratic newspapers of the state made a virulent attack upon General Anderson, commandant of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, at Sandusky. These false and outrageous charges were promptly resented by the veteran inmates of the institution, as the following letter, received by Governor Nash, testifies:

Hon. George K. Nash, Governor:
Dear Sir—At a meeting of the sergeants of the several cottages of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, held on Sept. 3, I was chosen as chairman of the committee on resolutions, and was instructed to forward you a copy of the resolutions adopted at that time. I now have the honor and pleasure to comply with instructions, hoping they will meet with your approval. Respectfully and sincerely yours,

A. A. POMEROY,
Sergeant of Cottage N.
"Whereas, Maliciously false articles are being published from day to day in certain partisan papers in some sections of Ohio reflecting against the government of the O. S. & S. Home, as conducted by Major-General Thomas M. Anderson, commandant; and
"Whereas, These same utterances falsely and maliciously designate General T. M. Anderson as being a cruel and harsh disciplinarian of the martinet school, treating the retired veterans of three wars with the severe and rigid code that obtains over a camp of regular army soldiers in active service; and
"Whereas, It has been wrongfully asserted with the same degree of malice that General Anderson persecutes and oppresses the members of the O. S. & S. Home in divers ways to the detriment of their comfort and good health; and that in his judicial capacity he is positive and unmerciful in his sentences of punishment; therefore, be it

Resolved, That while Major-General Thomas M. Anderson, as commandant of the Home, is not presumed to consider the will of the members in commendation, approval or blame of the course of administration which his judgment and experience prompt, we have the honor and pleasure to assure him of our sincere respect and confidence, and take the liberty to express our satisfaction with the methods he has adopted to insure the greatest good by the wholesome enforcement of the established rules as they apply to the several departments of the Home.
Resolved, That we take this method of informing the public at large, and especially the immediate friends of the old veterans of the Mexican and Civil wars, that we now enjoy all the privileges and comforts for which the O. S. & S. Home was instituted by generous and admirable provisions of the state legislature, and not as a habitation of charity, political rancor or army discipline, but as an evidence of the appreciation and honor in which the surviving veterans of our volunteer armies are held by the patriotic people of Ohio.

Resolved, That we denounce as false all the published aspersions that have been directed against Commandant T. M. Anderson, reciting that he has inaugurated a system of persecution and oppression against the aged and infirm retired volunteer soldiers in both his executive and judicial capacities.
Resolved, That we, the members of various cottages, hereby assert, on the strength of individual knowledge, that the commandant, Gen. T. M. Anderson, has endeavored to improve the condition of the members as a whole body; that we have found in him an officer of congenial personality; that he invites a degree of fraternity with the veteran members unusual for an officer of his exalted rank in the army, and that he is a gallant gentleman, and a brave and efficient officer, which is demonstrated by the fact that he fought his way from the station of a private soldier to the rank of major-general.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be tendered to the board of trustees, the governor of the state of Ohio, and the commandant of the O. S. & S. Home, and that copies be furnished the press for dissemination throughout the state of Ohio.
Signed by the sergeants of the various cottages as follows:
A. A. Pomroy, John Collins, John Edsall, C. W. Thomas, James Malone, John McCowan, A. M. Wharton, William Whorley, eGeorge Heckman, William Whorley, George Heckman, William Whorley, C. G. Bartlett, Philip Loge, C. E. Chapman, George Richards, W. A. Gray and James Dunn."

In the first eight months of this year, 1901, 63 new factories have been built or are under construction in Philadelphia at a cost of $1,438,765. This is nearly double the amount spent for the same purpose in that city during the entire year of 1896, the last of the Cleveland regime, which was $898,400. Philadelphia voters naturally favor the McKinley policies that have given them such great benefits.

THE FREE TRADE CRY

Again Made Their Battle Cry by the Democrats of Ohio.

THEY FORGET THE WILSON BILL.

But the People Want No Return to Business Depression and Will Not Permit Tariff Agitation.

Do they mean it, or do they not? Was it put into their party platform for 1901 by the Ohio Democrats for real business, or for buncombe?

These questions are vital to the pending campaign. They can not be set aside, or put into the background by any Democratic clamor over other matters. They relate, and rightfully, to that plank of the Democratic platform in Ohio for the present year, which not only declares for "the abolition of the so-called protective system," but also insists upon "the substitution in its place of the traditional Democratic policy of a tariff for revenue." There are other words wrapped around these to conceal the nakedness and ugliness of the same old Democratic free trade doctrine, but they can not hide it. The evil is there, and it is in the campaign.

If it is not in the campaign, then the Democrats of Ohio stand self-confessed as frauds, seeking to deceive the people by putting forward issues in which they have no faith themselves. If free trade is not to be fought over once more in Ohio, why did the Democrats bring it out to the front again, from the partial obscurity in which they put it during the years in which first free silver, and then opposition to the expansion of the territory of the United States were made "paramount?" Reputation in all its forms has been made a party principle by the Ohio Democracy in past years, and that party has been driven from one guise of it to another, until at last even the most sacred shibboleth of free silver has been dropped in silence, but through it all, and all the time "the traditional Democratic policy of a tariff for revenue" has been clung to. Always and everywhere, Democratic power meant Democratic free trade. No matter what bait for sardines has been used when it caught them they were thrown into the free trade net, and used to destroy "the protective system."

The very word "traditional," used by the Democrats in their declaration of policy, describes and fixes it most completely. From it there is no release or escape, and their return to it in full force this year ought to warn every worker and wage-earner of the risk he runs in adding to put such a party-back into power.

Does any man need any demonstration of the dangers to him and his earnings that the "traditional Democratic policy of a tariff for revenue" involves? Who has forgotten 1893 and the years after it so soon? Did not the Democrats defeat of Harrison's re-election in 1892, stop the prosperity of that year under "the so-called protective system," supported, enacted and enforced by the Republican party, and sound the signal to stop it, and reverse it and throw it down? Cleveland's election checked all progress and he was president barely two months when the panic of 1893 swept destruction over the land. Who can recall those recent years without terror at the thought? Who would vote to-day to bring back those times? And yet the Ohio Democrats make the very demands in their present platform, that they did in 1892, and all over the country there is a revival within that party of the supremacy of its free trade element, of the prominence of that "traditional Democratic policy" Will Ohio give its vote to increase such peril to our own people?

To Ohio, be it remembered, was given the honor in an election for governor, of first turning the tide of Democratic distress towards Republican prosperity. In the darkest days of '93, when the Democratic panic was at its height, the Republicans of this state nominated William McKinley for governor, and his election that year by 80,995 plurality was the signal that the country had already repudiated "the traditional Democratic policy," and was the first streak of daylight in the clouds and darkness that hung over the land.

Farmers would be the first to feel any reduction of duties upon articles that are now exported, because farm products are numerous upon the list. Yet it is "the traditional Democratic policy."

Because the farmers of the United States furnished 24,000,000 bushels of barley for export last year, shall the duty upon this product be taken off as the Democrats demand, until we get back to the place where barley becomes an import instead of an export, as it was under the Democratic tariff that brought in 11,000,000 bushels of barley from Canada in a single year?

LIST YOUR PRODUCTS. Just let the Ohio farmers make the list of their own products that would go on the free list, under "the traditional Democratic policy" demanded by the Ohio Democrats this year, and the claim that every exported article must have the tariff removed that protects it. Cattle and meats of all kinds, barley, fruits and all vegetables, cheese, butter and eggs, all come under this head. The removal of the
