Secretary of War Garrison Increases Estimates for Military Establishment During the Next Fiscal Year.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Estimates to be made for the next fiscal year have been submitted to congress by Postmaster General Burleson. This total, if approved, will be the greatest allowed for this service in a single appropriation since 1910.

The estimates contemplate a substantial increase in the postal service, which is credited with a large part of the surplus of $4,500,000 secured by the postal service for the fiscal year just closed.

Representative Madison of Illinois introduced a bill providing that the position of assistant postmaster and supervisor above the clerical grades in first and second class post offices shall be based on the gross receipts of those offices. Assistant postmasters are now elected in congress by Postmaster General Burleson.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Estimates to be made for the next fiscal year, representing $105,000,000, which is $10,000,000 more than the $95,000,000 provided in a year ago for the postal service.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The currency bill, with the amendments proposed by the divided senate banking and currency committee, was laid before the senate on Saturday. Debate on the measure began, but the final vote is not expected much before February 1.

The two factions of the committee, headed by Senator Owen and Senator Hitchcock, filed their divergent views on the administration measure and the bill as passed by the house was made the "unflashed business" of the senate.

Senator Owen fired the opening gun in the debate for the administration forces. Senator Hitchcock will follow with an attack on the administration's proposals in a speech setting forth the position of his faction of the committee.

From today until the end of the special session, a week off, senators will make set speeches discussing the currency reform program.

Although the administration finally has succeeded in getting the currency bill before the senate, other obstacles which threaten to delay the measure are apparent. On December 1 the senate will set aside the currency bill and by agreement take up the bill to give the president authority to build a government railroad in Alaska.

REBELS ARE VICTORS

MANY CAPTIVES ARE EXECUTED BY GEN. VILLA'S TROOPS FOLLOWING BATTLE.

FAMOUS GENERAL IS SLAIN?

Salazar Reported to Have Been Killed in Battle With Rebels—Appeal is Made to American Red Cross for Aid by Constitutionalists.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 27.—Following fighting 24 hours in front of Juarez, the rebels and federalists held virtually the same territory they held on Tuesday; if anything, the federalists have been driven a bit further from the town now held and being defended by the rebels.

General Villa claims a complete victory over the federalists and sent the following message to his office in Juarez from his position at the front: "I communicate with satisfaction that we have completely routed the enemy. We took all his artillery and three trains. The federalists are in full and shameless flight."

A wounded rebel officer brought to Juarez on Tuesday on a Red Cross train is authority for the statement that thirty or forty of Salazar's federal volunteers, captured in the fighting before Zaragoza, were brought before General Villa, who ordered them executed in the field, the order being carried out at once.

Many rebels are wearing federal uniforms and overcoats taken from prisoners, who were made to strip before standing up to be shot in order that the clothing would not be damaged by the death-dealing bullets.

Even the shoes were taken off their feet, so that they would not be spotted. The shoes were cut off from the main body and taken after a desperate fight. A number of them were wounded; but, knowing the fate that would befall them in case they were captured by Villa, did all in their power to escape falling into the hands of his men.

General Rodriguez, the commander of the right wing, who was wounded in the fighting before Baucha, but who refused to retire, was brought to Juarez for treatment, and reported to Colonel Medina. The jefe, las armas declares that it is beyond doubt that General Salazar, who was hemmed in at Zaragoza by an overbearing force of rebels, has been killed and his army of 2,000 men all but annihilated.

General Rodriguez was succeeded in command of the rebel right by General Ortega.

Gen. Porfirio Talamantes, leader of the Salazar troops fighting under Villa's banner, was killed in the fighting south of Tierra Blanca. His body was brought to Juarez and buried with military honors.

News was received at the Cuernavaca, after the fighting there, which was mysteriously appeared on the scene of Zaragoza and drove off the reinforcements that had been sent to relieve Salazar's command.

Joseph H. Cronwell, who was released from the penitentiary by former Gov. Harmon in 1911 upon representation that he was dying from consumption, is back in the big prison again.

By eating soap he fooled the officials into thinking he had the disease and was in imminent danger of death. Soon after he obtained his liberty he conducted a religious campaign at Troy, and later called at the office of the prosecuting attorney and said that he intended to become a member of the Institute.

At Zaragoza the fighting had ceased entirely, according to reports telephoned. After the fighting he sent a messenger to Clint, Tex., who notified headquarters in Juarez of his arrival in the nick of time to save the left wing from probable defeat.

CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTE IS SOUGHT

Outcome of Suit Will Be of Interest to Bankers.

WAR VETERANS, TAKE NOTICE!

False Teeth, Canes, Crutches and a Wooden Leg Are Found on Place Where Ohio Old Soldiers Camped at Gettysburg.

D. A. DONOVAN, Special Columbus Correspondent.

VERY building and loan association in the state will be interested in the outcome of a suit filed in Franklin county common pleas court Tuesday by the American Savings Co. of Crooksville involving a construction of the state building and loan regulation law.

The loan regulation law, State Building and Loan Inspector J. A. Devine claims that the company has been doing a banking business by issuing negotiable orders for withdrawal of funds and has threatened to have the state proceed against the attorney general unless the practice is discontinued.

The company contends that the orders it issues are not negotiable and brings the suit to restrain the inspector from complaining against its acts to the attorney general. The suit is a friendly one. Non-negotiable orders may be issued, and the question to be settled is what constitutes such orders.

Of Interest to Veterans. Such articles as false teeth, canes, crutches, a pair of women's corsets and a man's wooden leg were found on the place where the Ohio veterans camped at Gettysburg during the famous battle last July, after the dismantling of the camp, and Col. Lewis E. Bettler, secretary of the Pennsylvania Gettysburg commission, has written to Adjt. Gen. George H. Wood to find the owners.

"If any of your veterans are 'shy' any of these commodities let me know and we will try to fit them out," said Col. Bettler. The lost and found department of the commission gathered up a ton of rifles from the battlefield after the 50,000 more or less veterans had left.

Perry county is reported to have been one of the driest of the wet counties Sunday. For the first time in its history the saloons were closed on that day. In the mining towns, where saloons have always been in full blast on Sunday, the word was received that the foreigners were drinking ice water there. The only place in the state where there was any serious violations of the new license law was at Cincinnati, where a number of saloons were made for Sunday selling.

The offenders were saloonists who were not licensed, and the explanation given was that they had kept open in order to dispose of their stock.
