WASHINGTON'S EXAMPLE

An Oration Delivered by Marjorie Whitman Before the Wauseon Chapter D. A. R. at their Guest Night Meeting February 20th, 1914.

One of the objects of the Daughters of the American Revolution is to educate the younger generation in the history of America and her patriots and as well to incite in them a love for their country. Some time ago the pupils of the High School under the direction of their teacher, Miss Eastman, prepared orations in the style of Webster's Bunker Hill Oration; at the request of the local Chapter D. A. R. the best of these orations which were upon some historical or patriotic subject were selected and the authors were invited to give their orations at the Washington Reception of the D. A. R. given by the Chapter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ham last Friday evening. The Misses Marjorie Whitman and Rosemary Blair were selected and gave their orations at the place and time mentioned. The orations do credit to their authors and reflect honor upon our schools. We give herewith the oration given by Miss Whitman and we hope to publish Miss Blair's production in the near future.

"The society in whose presence I am, is a society of an extraordinary nature. 'The Daughters of the American Revolution' does not have the very name of this society signify this? This society has more than a mere name. It has certain purposes in view at all times. One of these purposes is to stand at all times for personal liberty. The love of personal liberty caused the American Colonies to take up arms against Great Britain. In order that this spirit may not be forgotten this society has been organized. A second purpose of this great and patriotic society is to glorify the men who fought in the American Revolution. A third purpose is philanthropy. It is a good and great work. When any body or any group of people are in a needy condition this society endeavors to help them. In our cities these societies perform much work for their field of activity is greater. Another purpose which is last but not least is to keep alive respect for Revolutionary women and girls. Many women and girls who remained at home had burdens to bear. They had to care for the children, and do a large part of the husband's work. They waited patiently for the issue of the battle, along with which might come news of the death of some friend, neighbor, husband or brother. These lines I think clearly show their condition.

He offered himself for the land he loved. But what shall we say for her? He gave to his country a soldier's life; Give honor to her today!

He went to the war while his blood was hot. But what shall we say for her? He saw himself through the battles flame; A hero's reward on the scroll of fame; What honor is due to her?

He offered himself but his wife did to Give honor to her today; For dearer than life was the gift she gave. In giving the life she would die to save; What honor is due to her?

He gave up his life at his country's call. But what shall we say for her? He offered himself as a sacrifice; But she is the one who pays the price; Give honor to her today.

We see clearly that the women are not only ones to be given due praise. The brave men who gave their own lives, fearless of death, are to be honored. Put yourselves in their position. Give up your all for the war, may be forever. Go in to battle, imagine your surroundings; what if you are on the losing side? We cannot fully conceive your condition then brave men. But as long as the ocean rolls your deeds will be remembered. They will be like the waves on a mighty ocean, rising up at various intervals. In the one hundred years war fought between England and France, there was really nothing so remarkable but at the American Revolution, in which you fought, the world will ever own.

OLDEST BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS

The ownership and management of the Wauseon Electric Light Plant has passed to the new company headed by D. D. Schenk of Toledo. For twenty-four years this plant was owned and operated by H. H. Williams and W. H. Hubbel of this city, who have devoted their best efforts not only to give Wauseon a modern, efficient lighting system for the streets but to meet the requirements of every citizen at the lowest cost possible. This service was appreciated and the meager plant that it was twenty-four years ago, has grown until today it is one of the most modern to be found anywhere. The few patrons which the company had at first have grown in numbers until today it has more than 600. During the nearly quarter of a century that Williams and Hubbel operated this plant they never lost but one patron and he only quit the company for a short time. Messrs. Williams and Hubbel deeply appreciate the large patronage that has been given them and in retiring from the electric field they wish to thank every citizen of Wauseon and vicinity for the loyalty and support given them and they ask that this same loyalty be given the new company. This is an electrical age not only for lighting purposes but for domestic; the home is not only lighted by electricity, but the washing, ironing and cooking is being done by electricity. The use for which electricity can be applied are boundless and as suggested, "Do everything electrically" will be a reality in a few years. The new company will retain all of the old employees. And as one of the retiring firm members of the light company said, "No more faithful, honest and devoted employees ever worked for any company or firm than those we had and it was due in a large measure to this honesty and faithfulness that our company became the success it was".

ROLL OF HONOR

The List of Patriotic Citizens Who Desire to Honor the Boys in Blue Continues to Grow—Fulton's Soldiers' Monument Will Become a Reality.

Our roll of honor has grown to such proportions that we are obliged this week to omit the names previously published in order to make room for those that have not as yet been published and as well the names of the later contributors. The secretary wishes to remind all contributors and subscribers that a careful record is kept of all who are helping in this movement and that a certificate will be issued to each person or organization that pays a $1.00 or more for the building of the monument. We feel sure that the monument will be built and we know that the people of Fulton county will take pride in this memorial when they have completed it. Let us not grow weary in well doing and remember there is room on the list of contributors for every person in the county who wishes to give.

HON. FRANK B. WILLIS

An Ideal Candidate for the Head of the Republican State Ticket in 1914. Mr. Willis to Speak at Republican Rally in Fulton County Some Time in the Near Future.

In its issue of February 19th the Paulding County Republican makes the announcement that Hon. Frank B. Willis, Representative in Congress from the 8th Ohio District, will stand for and accept the Republican candidacy for governor, if the people who are opposed to a continuation of minority control of nation and state express themselves favorably to him. Mr. Willis is well and favorably known among the citizens of Fulton county and scarcely needs an introduction. He is a man who meets the requirements of the present situation admirably; a big man in every sense of the word, with a clean life and a record for signal and efficient service in the 74th and 75th General Assemblies where he was instrumental in placing on the statute books of Ohio, taxation laws that have been of great benefit to the people of this state.

In congress where he is now serving his second term he has made a record of consistent progressiveness. A firm believer in the principle of protection to American labor, he voted against the reciprocity agreement with Canada and supported the bill of establishment of the Children's Bureau and Department of Labor; the proposition to provide for the direct election of U. S. Senators by vote of the people; bills for shortening hours of labor and securing better conditions for working men; for the betterment and extension of postal facilities; for the extension of the work of the Department of Agriculture and all measures which tend toward the more liberal treatment of our soldiers and sailors, their widows and orphans. Mr. Willis was born in Delaware county in 1871, so that he is now in the prime of a remarkably useful life, educated in the common schools of Delaware county, Galena high school and Ohio Northern University, a teacher for several years in the last named institution, he takes a keen interest in all educational matters and is a great friend of the common schools and the teachers.

A Republican in every best sense of that term and holding the firm conviction that the Republican party should keep pace with the demands of the times, ever ready to carry forward such reforms and changes in government affairs as will best serve the greatest number of people. Mr. Willis seems to us to be the man for the hour in Ohio and we predict that he will be chosen as the standard bearer of the Republicans of Ohio in the 1914 campaign. A date for the get-together meeting in Fulton county at which Mr. Willis will speak will be arranged by the committee this week.

K. OF P. GOLDEN JUBILEE

Wauseon Lodge No. 156, Knights of Pythias, celebrated the 50th anniversary of the founding of their order in a most fitting and happy manner at their Castle Hall last Thursday evening. Through committees arrangements were made for a program and supper and invitations were extended to the Wauseon Temple No. 357 Pythian Sisters and to all resident Knights and their ladies.

There were 275 present and the hall which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with the national and Pythian colors was filled to its capacity. Mr. F. H. Wolf acted as the Toastmaster and music was furnished by the high school orchestra under the leadership of Supt. C. J. Biery. Mr. Wolf gave a brief history of the founding of the order and its growth from a membership of 52 during the first year to the present membership which approximates 900,000 members. The speakers who were introduced by Mr. Wolf gave in short addresses the salient features and work of the order. F. E. Kenyon, F. S. Han, F. H. Reighard, H. D. Merster, Chas. Stahl and C. J. Biery speaking for the Knights and Mrs. Lother Shadle speaking for the Sisters of the Temple. Mrs. W. A. Wood and Miss Florence Files rendered a beautiful piano duet. Mr. Walter Caddell, accompanied by Miss Florence Gingrich, sang two selections; these numbers and the music furnished by the orchestra were highly appreciated. At the conclusion of the program a lap supper was served which also claimed a large share of appreciation. The balance of the evening was enjoyed by those present in the club rooms upstairs and in the hall and the company dispersed somewhere near the midnight hour with pleasant memories of a most enjoyable evening and best wishes for the continued prosperity of the Knights of Pythias.

THE G. A. A. BANQUET

A unique little banquet was given by the Girls Athletic Association of Wauseon high school Friday evening in honor of George Washington. The girls and their guests assembled in the lower hall of the high school building about 7:30. The hall was artistically decorated with American flags and red and white streamers.

After partaking of a delightful two course dinner the company listened to toasts given by Mrs. Alstetter, Miss Sweeney and Mrs. Biery. Each was a small oration in itself, Mrs. Alstetter speaking of health as the paramount factor in a girl's life; Miss Sweeney of Washington's education and interest in that line of work, and Miss Sweeney of American patriotism. We were also entertained by a piano duet given by the Misses Harrison and Logar. The G. A. A. girls were very fortunate in obtaining the services of two noted artists, Madame Schuman Bunk Outzok and Lapazinni Bennet in their music we again heard the whisperings of zephyrs wooing Aurora. After being "flashed" the girls all witnessed a play given by the W. H. S. and the little place cards. It was a pleasant evening, not only to the guests but also to the entertainers. It was one of the many good results of Miss Eastman's labors in our high school and will be remembered with pleasure.
