Miss Hazel Steckel of Toledo was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Whiteman Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Mr. Clyde Onweller, of Fayette, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Onweller, of Moroni, were the guests of Wauseon friends Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Gingery attended the funeral of Mrs. Gingery's brother-in-law, Mr. Strechberry, in Wood county last week. Mr. and Mrs. John Holman, of Toledo, and Mrs. William Wolf, of Pettoville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Leininger last Saturday. Charles P. Graiser in company with L. P. Charpout, of West Unity, left the first of the week for a trip to Cuba. They expect to be gone about five weeks. A birthday surprise was given Mrs. C. L. Stevens last Sunday. Those present from out of town were: Mrs. J. L. Newcomb and sons Paul and Charles, Rose Newcomb and family and Geo. Stevens and family, of West Unity. Julian C. Aldrich, youngest son of Rev. Benj. F. Aldrich, of Chicago, arrived at his grandmother's last Saturday evening and will remain with her during the absence of his parents who leave on Friday, February 27th, for a four months' travel in Europe. Mrs. C. J. Van Schoick, of Jackson, Mich., and her daughter, Mrs. O. D. Heavner, of Detroit, formerly Miss Carrie Van Schoick, who was a teacher in the Wauseon public school, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Tuttle on Wednesday of last week to the first of this week. Among those who saw "Joseph and His Brethren" in Toledo last Friday were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Gen. Oakley, Mr. and Mrs. John Hatt, Mrs. Anna Ruppert, Miss Margaret Berry, Mr. Carl Gingrich and Mr. Norman Bean. David Hagerman, of Ann Arbor, Mich., visited friends here from last Wednesday until Saturday. The Misses Lena and Mary Reichardt spent Sunday with their sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Roth near Stryker. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gerhardt, of Woodburn, Ind., spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Henry Reichardt and family. Miss Sallie Grubb left for Cleveland Thursday morning where she will have a position in the millinery business. Mr. George McLain returned to his home at Renssler, Ind., for a few days having been called here by the serious illness of his mother, whose condition at this time is not much improved.

Mr. Frank Harper entertained at 6 o'clock dinner Friday evening. An 8 pound son, Paul, was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Connin Monday morning. The Xi Delta Pi's had a pot luck supper at Mrs. Dr. Hutchins' in Delta Tuesday evening. Mrs. D. B. Dill entertained the Married Ladies Thimble Club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Frank Larned and family have moved into the C. P. Reynolds home on East Leggett street. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rupp of near Lena are rejoicing over the arrival of a son born Tuesday the 24th. Save your labels and help the ladies of the Christian church win $500 in Gold. For further information phone to some of our live wires. The ladies of Wauseon Chapter, D. A. R., will be entertained on March 6th by Mrs. Orpha Dimke and Mrs. Elsie Campbell at the home of Mrs. Dimke. The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church will hold their next meeting with Mrs. C. M. Sprung on Franklin street, Wednesday afternoon, March 4th. Henry Ruppert and E. L. Barrett of Toledo, are working on the finishing of the new Peoples Bank building; seems good to see our old townsmen on the streets once more! The latest arrival in remembrance of Mrs. Aldrich's 90th birthday was a box of eighty luscious oranges from San Bernardino, Calif. sent by her granddaughter, Mrs. Paul Conant. The farm house of Mrs. George Harris, six miles south of Lyons, was burned to the ground Tuesday as the result of stoves becoming over heated. But little of the household goods were saved. Superintendent Wyandt and teachers of Wauseon schools are making arrangements to entertain the Northwestern Ohio Round Table of Superintendents and Principals, in that city, March 27th and 28th. I suppose the groundhog beholding his shadow on that fateful day is the underlying cause of all this severity of weather—hope the groundhogs will be exterminated—not one left to see his shadow before another year. A party of his old comrades called on Jacob Shindler last Thursday evening to remind him of his birthday anniversary, recall the experiences of the "sixties" and to leave with him a good hosted game as a mark of their esteem and comradeship. The Volunteer Firemen report their annual dance given at the City Hall last Monday evening a financial success and desire to extend their hearty thanks to the public for their patronage and to Heist and Hill for a check and box of cigars.

Hanson & Bressler, the feed store men, have purchased the old bakery building on North Fulton street and are remodeling the building preparatory to moving their store and office to that building. They expect to be installed in their new premises in about a month or six weeks. Rub it In Thoroughly. A sprain or strain should have immediate attention to check the swelling. Rub on, and rub in thoroughly Hanford's Balsam of Myrrh and you will have quick relief. Always have a bottle on hand for accidents.

LOCAL BRIEFS

LEGAL NOTICE Reuben Tiffany, Mrs. Reuben Tiffany whose christian name is unknown, wife of Reuben Tiffany; Reuben Tiffany whose christian name is unknown widow of Reuben Tiffany; James B. Aldrich and E. D. Callender whose christian name is unknown, the surviving spouse, executor, administrators, children, beneficiaries assignees, creditors and successors in interest of and to each and all of the following deceased persons: Reuben Tiffany, Mrs. Reuben Tiffany Thomas Watkins, David Reuben Tiffany, James B. Aldrich and E. D. Callender, the names of all of whom are unknown, and all of the above named deceased spouses of each and all of the above named deceased and designated persons, the names of whom are unknown, to the plaintiffs; the places of residence of all of whom are unknown, and all of the above named persons last known place of residence was within the State of Washington who died on or about January 21st, 1914. William W. First, J. Croninger and Stephen W. First filed their petition as plaintiffs in the Court of Common Pleas of Fulton County, Ohio, in cause No. 281 in which Court said cause is now pending, against the above named described and designated persons as defendants alleging that the plaintiffs are in fee simple and are in the actual possession of the following described real estate situated in the Township of Pike, County of Fulton and State of Ohio, and being the one-half of the west one-half of the Southwest 1/4 of Section Thirty-one, Township eight North, Range Seven East.

The said defendants and each and all of them claim some interest in and lien upon said real estate which is adverse to plaintiffs said title that said defendants and all of each of them have no estate or interest in or lien upon said real estate or any part thereof; that such claims and pretended liens are wholly untrue and without any part thereof; that said defendants and each of them have fraudulently cast a cloud upon the plaintiffs title to said real estate. The prayer of said petition is that the said defendants and each of them may be compelled to show their estate or interest in or lien upon said real estate or any part thereof, and that the said defendants and each of them and that said defendants and each of them may be forever barred from asserting any estate or interest in or lien upon said real estate or any part thereof and that said plaintiffs be decreed to be the owners of said premises and to be relieved of all claims and claims of ownership for more than twenty-one years next preceding the filing of their petition and for all other relief as is proper and equitable.

Said defendants are required to answer in the Court on or before the 28th day of March, 1914, or a decree may be taken against them as prayed for in said petition. William W. First, J. Croninger and Stephen W. First, Plaintiffs. R. B. Darby, Attorney for Plaintiffs. 45-4

HAVE PRETTY HAIR Thick, Soft, Fluffy, and No Dandruff —Use Parisian Sage. If your hair is losing its natural color, coming out and splitting, or lacks that enviable softness, gloss and beauty, do not despair—pretty hair is largely a matter of care. If it is too thin make it grow. If it is harsh and brittle soften it up—luscious it. If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp with Parisian Sage—all dandruff disappears, falling hair and itching head cease, your hair is doubly beautiful. Parisian Sage, sold by Read & Wager and at all drug stores, is just what you need—a large bottle costs but 50 cents. It surely makes the hair lustrous and seem twice as abundant. You cannot be disappointed in Parisian Sage.
