WEDDING BELLS. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion McCance in the Lena neighborhood was the scene of a joyous wedding festivities Tuesday evening August 24. Howard Myers of Wauseon was the happy groom and Miss C. Virginia McCance the fortunate bride. Nature was at her best furnishing fair cool weather and a golden full-moon which did her utmost to enrich the occasion. Relatives and friends gathered at the close of day and promptly at quarter before seven the bride and groom, preceded by their pastor Rev. O. P. Hoffman and attended by Mr. Fern Harrison and Miss Nola Reed, best man and bridesmaid, came down the open stairway to the strains of music and presented themselves under a beautiful arch of plants, vines and flowers. The select and sacred ceremony of the Methodist church was used closing exactly as the clock struck seven. After congratulations the guests were led to the dining room to a bountiful two-course supper which was concluded by sharing the bride's cakes and distributing souvenirs. The evening hours passed all at quickly with music and joyous fellowship. The bride was beautifully gowned in blue silk poplin and wore a corsage bouquet of white roses. Miss Lois Hoffman presided at the piano playing for the occasion the famous wedding march from Lohengrin by Matthew Prior, also the Flower Song by Gustav Large and the Wedding March by Mendelssohn. The general color scheme of the evening was yellow and white. The out of town guests were: Charles Newhart of Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania; Mrs. John Myers and daughter of Indianapolis, Indiana; Mrs. A. M. Rogers of Delta and O. McCance of Holland, Michigan. The bride and groom will live with Mr. and Mrs. McCance's. The best wishes of their many friends attend them.

DIES SUDDENLY.

George W. Stegall a former resident of Dover township died very suddenly while superintending some mason work at Liberty Center, last Friday. Death came without warning, Mr. Stegall was over 60 years of age. The cause of death is attributed to heart disease with which Mr. Stegall has been afflicted for some time. Funeral services conducted by the Liberty Center Lodge of Oddfellows were held Sunday. Mr. Stegall was an uncle of Mr. G. E. Stratton of this city. He moved from Fulton county to Liberty Center about twenty years ago, where he has continued to reside and follow his trade as a brick mason. He will be remembered by many old friends and neighbors in this county. His wife preceded him in death some fifteen years ago. He is survived by one son, Orlo of West Toledo, four sisters and two brothers.

JORDAN FAMILY REUNION.

Mr. E. H. Jordan and family, Rev. Martha Moore and Miss Lillian Hough attended the annual reunion of the descendants of Josiah Jordan at the home of H. E. Jordan, Sandusky, Michigan, last Wednesday. There were sixty present including members of the family from the states of Oregon, Iowa and Illinois, from Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor and Adrian, Michigan and Toledo, Ohio. The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner. The program was as follows: H. E. Jordan of Sandusky, Historical President; G. E. Jordan of Iowa; Vice President; G. E. Jordan of Adrian, Michigan; Secretary; B. F. Jordan of Ann Arbor, Treasurer; H. E. Jordan of Sandusky, Historian; Miss Lillian Hough and Chaplain Rev. Martha Moore both of Wauseon. Next years reunion will be held at the home of Mrs. Mary Chapman in Adrian, Michigan.

SEVENTY FIVE.

Last Sunday Abram Sams reached the seventy fifth milestone on the journey of life and to help him remember the day fifty-eight members of the family gathered at his home on East Chestnut street in Wauseon. Those who were present from a distance were his son B. L. Sams of Offerle, Kansas; John Sams and family and Harry Sams and family of Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kaiser of Gibsonburg and Mrs. Sams, a sister of Mr. Sams, of Paulding county. The assemblage enjoyed a sumptuous dinner and best of all the pleasure of being together and having the privilege of wishing Mr. Sams many happy returns of the day. Mr. Sams has a large collection and took several photos of the group.

CORRECTION.

The Tribune stated last week that the response to the Mayor's address of welcome at the Reunion of the 68th Regiment was made by T. Levi Hoy. This was an error as the response was given by Conrad C. E. Reynolds of Napoleon. The Regiment Association elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, J. H. Sams, of Wauseon; Ohio; Vice President, J. Wolfe of the same place; Secretary, Simeon Gillis of Bryan. The next Annual Reunion will be held at Oakwood, Paulding county on the third Wednesday and Thursday in August, 1916.

ENJOYING THE SIGHTS.

We note among recent registrations at the Ohio Building at the San Francisco Exposition the names of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Moyer of Wauseon. Last week we received a copy of the Mount Lowe, California Daily News, "printed a mile above the sea," from Mr. Moyer and concluded that he and Mrs. Moyer have taken the twenty-five mile trip into the clouds and enjoying some of the most wonderful scenery in America.

AMBOY GOES DRY.

At a special election held in Amboy township last Wednesday on the Wet or Dry question the township was voted dry by a majority of 18. Total vote was 226; Dry 122, Wet 104. This puts the saloon at Whiteville out of commission. REPUBLICAN CAUCUS. The Republicans of Pike township are requested to meet at Pike township hall Monday August 30, 2 p. m. for the purpose of nominating township officers for the November Election.

WILLIAM H. KARSCHNER. Mr. Karschner was called to Liberty Center last Saturday afternoon on account of the serious condition of his father William H. Karschner, who for the past seven years has been afflicted with paralysis. Mr. Karschner passed away Sunday morning and the funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon conducted jointly by the Adison Clark Post No. 151 G. A. R. and the Liberty Center Lodge I. O. O. F. Mr. Karschner leaves his wife, two sons, Ira of Wauseon and A. L. of Tiffin; one daughter, Mrs. Sophronia Beacher of Liberty Center and one foster daughter Mrs. Myrl Spake of Grand Rapids, Michigan. The family had been anticipating the celebration of the Golden Wedding of the father and mother which would have come on the 26th of September but the Father was called away only a little more than a month before that date. William Karschner was born in Pennsylvania January 1st, 1838 and came to a child with his parents to Seneca County, Ohio. He came to Liberty Center in 1861 but returned to his home county at the outbreak of the Civil War to enlist in Company G of the 56th Ohio Volunteer Infantry, which organization he served for three years, re-enlisting at the expiration of his first enlistment and serving to the end of the war. His was a record of many campaigns and battles, he marched with Sherman to the sea and was present to participate in the Grand Review at Washington, D. C. in 1865. The late A. S. Bloomer of this city was a member of this same company and Mr. Karschner has often been in the assembly present at the Grand Review during Mr. Bloomer's life. Returning to Liberty Center after his discharge from the service at Louisville, Kentucky he was married September 28th, 1865 and this village has been his home since that time. Mr. Karschner was a contractor and builder and followed this business until stricken with paralysis about seven years ago.

FESTUS FUNK CANED.

Last Monday evening August 23rd, Comrades of Lousure Post No. 35 Brgd. with members of Ladies Relief Corps No. 29, totalling in all 60 in number, met at the home of Comrade and Mrs. Festus Funk, this was Comrade Funks 70th birthday anniversary. His good wife and companion of course was put wise on the 50th anniversary of their marriage with her ever pleasing personality that was a welcome to all and made this occasion one long to be remembered by all present. The evening was spent in a very social way interspersed with songs and recitations that even surpassed the Chautauque. There was so interestingly entertained the citizens of Wauseon so recently. There is but one personal comment that I will allude to and this is, that I will guarantee that there is no one else in any way comparable to our most esteemed and honored soldier Boy Billy Wier in his quaint Scotch elocution which he rendered in such a mastery way, that brought forth an applause from the assembly present that he was the most entertaining. He is nearly eighty-two years old and I think the rest will adopt and emulate him the Boy Mascot of Lousure Post No. 35. There were other good talks given by Comrades present which I cannot comment on for account of space. In behalf of the comrades of Lousure Post the customary cane was presented Comrade Funk by associate J. H. Williams. His speech was well worded and delivered in an impressive manner making all present feel that they were in the presence of a host and hostess in a bountiful way after which all departed to their respective homes wishing Comrade Funk and wife many years of happiness to be continued to be shared in a happy mood by the kind hospitality rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Funk.
