

THE BIRD OF PARADISE

Seldom does a play, especially a drama, play overtime in any large city, and if it does, there must be something especially pleasing to the theatergoers, and this is the case with Richard Watson Tully's mystic play of Hawaii, "The Bird of Paradise," which opens a week's engagement Sunday evening at the Valentine Theatre, Toledo. This is the third visit to Toledo and the sixth of the season.

Mr. Tully seems to have struck a popular vein in his story of the pathetic little Hawaiian, Luana, who meets an American with whom she falls in love and they eventually marry. She then learns like many others before her, that marriage between the dark-skinned race and the white is seldom of lasting nature, and when cast aside by her white husband, she returns to her people and makes her reputation by sacrificing herself to the Goddess Pele to save her people from the volcano's wrath. He also tells another story which deals with a drunken beach comber, who has sunk as low as man can sink through drink, but is brought "Back to the Light" through the good influence of an American girl, and they go out into the world happy in each other's love. These four people form the main theme of the play, but it is surrounded by both American and native characters that help to form a pleasing dramatic background.

Oliver Morosco, under whose personal direction the play is produced, has become known as a daring manager, inasmuch as each year he has given his public a new Luana, and this year will again offer a newcomer, Miss May Buckley, who has appeared here in several New York successes, and who has also had a wide stock experience. She will be supported by David Landau, in his original part of the beach comber; Ethel Remy, as the American girl; Forest Stanley, the white husband of Luana; Robert Morris as the Yankee trader; James Nelson, the high priest; Laura Adams as the foster mother; James Applebee, the missionary; Fanny Yantis, as the wife; Mabel Emerson, Hawaiian girl; John Gribner, the Hawaiian lover, and last, but not least the Hawaiian singers and players whose sweet plaintive music is one of the important parts of the drama. The scenery is a striking feature and each and every act is a triumph of scenic skill, especially the last scene, showing Mt. Kilauea in volcanic eruption. A popular priced matinee will be given on Wednesday, and the regular matinee on Saturday.

How Catarrh is Contracted Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucous membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's bane. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pinholes—habitual look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

WILSON STRIKES WHEN THE IRON IS COLD.

President Wilson refused to speak in Independence Hall on the one hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence in that hall, and he so refused because inasmuch as ever one hundred of our men, women and children had just been murdered on the high seas he regarded it as "the very moment when he would not care to arouse the sentiment of patriotism." Mr. Wilson has a positive genius for striking when the iron is cold and fearing to strike when the iron is hot. If one hundred and twenty-eight years ago Washington and Jefferson and the other men who signed the Declaration of Independence had felt the same way about patriotism, and the same way about fighting as Mr. Wilson does, we would never have had a country. Had Lincoln felt the same way, there would be no such thing as the American Republic now in existence. From the Speech of Colonel Roosevelt at Battle Creek, Michigan, in Behalf of Mr. Hughes.

INCREASE IN REGISTRATION The total enrollment to date of the Ohio State University has been swelled by late registration to 4562, an increase of 118 over the figures of the same day a year ago. The College of Arts is still in the lead, with the Engineering College holding its own, and the College of Agriculture still a close behind. Medicine is somewhat behind the figures of a year ago, while Dentistry is showing an appreciable gain. It is expected that close to 4600 students will be registered by October 1, which is the last day in which candidates for a degree may register, including the summer session, the registration is almost sure to reach the 6000 mark.
