Washington's Birthday, February 22nd is a legal holiday...

Senator Underwood, in his last speech on the Underwood tariff law, averred that "it is a competitive bill, it will mean competition between the foreign manufacturers and ours."

Now comes the "Secretary of Peace" William J. Bryan, and finds basic fault with the plan of the "President of Humanity," Woodrow Wilson, to establish peace by force, in the following words:

"If I know the sentiment of the American people, it is inconceivable that they should be willing to put the American army and navy at the command of an international council, which should necessarily be controlled by European nations, and allow that council to decide for us when we should go to war."

With a great flourish and amidst thunderous applause of real estate men, expectant architects and men whose property holdings would be nicely enhanced, Governor Cox declared at a Columbus banquet this week that the state would soon have a new office building and that it could be worked out in a Columbus civic-center plan. He has not given up that idea of the million dollar office building upon which he once set his heart. Now he feels that all that is necessary is to arrange matters to suit Columbus. Of course, the taxpayers over the state foot the bill but then what's a little matter of a million dollars if the Columbus papers give him plenty of real nice publicity.

The last Wilson Congress, in enacting the Underwood law, refused to adopt an amendment prohibiting the entry into the United States of the product of child labor or convict labor. In Hungary child labor is the rule. In Budapest alone among the registered workers 3000 were even under twelve years of age. In the munition plants 4000 unregistered workers under eight years of age are putting in twelve hours a day at work. It is said that large numbers of children under seven years work long hours. Female labor has increased from 16 to 39 cents. How is American labor going to meet competition like this when the war ceases? Certainly not without a protective tariff.

Neglected Colds Grow Worse. A cough that racks and irritates the throat may lead to a serious chronic cough, if neglected. The healing pine balsams in Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey—Nature's own remedy—will soothe and relieve the irritation, bringing will be easier, and the antiseptic properties will kill the germ which retarded healing. Have it handy for croup, sore throat and chronic bronchial affections. Get a bottle today. Pleasant to take. At all Drugists, 25c.

Get Baby The "Right" Food. The baby's health depends on its food. Get a food nearest mother's milk. A food with proper nourishment. Secretary, Gladstone Stutzman, Thompson, Leon Millman, Donald Henry, Orpha Barthe, Arietta Goodson and Floy Doublet.

1st and 2nd Grades. Esther Blair Brown and Marjorie Lane are back at school this week. Bonnell Miller visited our room one day last week.

CHESTERFIELD

Many words of praise are heard from the Tribune Almanacs. They are full of practical knowledge. Thanks to the Editors.

The young men that attended the Y. M. C. A. Conference at Morenci met last Friday night at the home of Glad Stutzman and with the assistance of Mr. Arno A. Adrian, Secretary of Lenawee County, an organization was formed here with the following officers: President, Harold Barthe; Vice President, Bryant Johnson; Secretary, Glad Stutzman; Treasurer, Arthur Terry; Leader, John Dixon. The boys are very much interested in the work and have the hearty cooperation of the entire community. If there is another organization or group in Fulton county let us hear from you.

The expected summons of the passing away of Mrs. Bertha Donovan occurred Sunday afternoon at 1:30 at her home near Decon. She was afflicted with a complicated disease following pneumonia. Our hearts go out in profound sympathy to the sorrowing friends. To say we loved her we but echo the sentiment of all who knew her. The funeral will be held at the East Chesterfield church the date not yet fixed. Her brother Bert Lee is coming from Oregon. Obituary next week.

Some of the pupils of our room are getting very friendly lately.
