Says Tradition Centuries Old Makes Holland Refuse for Vanquished in International Military Conflicts—Cannot Betray Faith Now.

The Hague, Jan. 26.—The official note of the Netherlands government in reply to the demand of the allies for the surrender of the ex-kaiser for trial is dated January 21 and reads: "By a note verbal dated January 15, 1920, and handed to her majesty's envoy in Paris, the powers, referring to article 227 of the Versailles treaty, request the Netherlands government to deliver into their hands the Kaiser of Hohenzollern, emperor of Germany, in order that he may be put on trial. "In support of this request they observe that if the emperor had remained in Germany the German government would have been obliged, according to article 228 of the peace treaty, to hand him over.

SOCIALIST TRIAL ON "FLU" IS SPREADING

New York Assembly Body Probes Tenets of Socialism.

Hillquit Counsel for Defense Instructs Witnesses Not to Deliver Documents into Hands of Prosecutor.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 23.—The first witnesses testified in the investigation by the assembly judiciary committee of the loyalty of the five suspected socialist members of the lower house.

Committee counsel began presentation of evidence after Chairman Louis M. Martin had denied an application by Morris Hillquit chief counsel for the defense, to introduce certain "admissions of fact" which he said would serve to clear the issues and save calling of a large array of witnesses.

Object was taken by John B. Stanchfield, committee counsel, on the ground that his side considered it able to select what evidence it thought necessary to establish the desired facts.

As soon as former Secretary Gerber had been sworn, Mr. Stanchfield obtained from him a copy of the national platform of the socialist party in 1917, which was introduced in evidence without objection by the defense.

Mr. Stanchfield also introduced in evidence the state constitution of the socialist party, from which he read excerpts, including one providing that candidates for public office should, on receiving nomination, leave their resignations with the party to insure their fulfilling party demands.

The by-laws of the New York county socialist organization were introduced.

Hillquit instructed socialist witnesses who had been summoned by the state, not to deliver documents into the hands of the attorneys for the state.

Chairman Martin ruled that the attorneys for the state had the right to demand that witnesses surrender all documents desired by the committee and be given an opportunity to look over before presenting them as evidence.

Two Yanks and Five Russians Killed—Americans Capture Slav General, Six Other Officers and 48 Men—Attack Unprovoked.

Washington, Jan. 24.—As a result of a clash between a detachment of American soldiers and Semenov forces on January 10 near Podosolskaya, one general, six officers and 48 men of the Russian forces were captured and still are held, the war department was advised by Major General Graves, commander of the Siberian Expedition. General Graves described the attack as entirely unprovoked.

The American casualties were one man killed, one man dead of wounds and one severely wounded, while five Russians were killed and one severely wounded.

The opposing forces were mainly armed trains. General Graves said the Russians attacked 38 Americans, who fought off the Russians and then in turn attacked. The Russian car and its crew were captured.

General Graves expressed the opinion that the matter could be "adjusted peacefully with Semenov, who could not have been responsible for the attack. The Russian car and its crew were captured.

Holland Unwilling to Surrender Former Kaiser for Trial—Admiral Sims' Sensational Charges Against Navy Department—Administration Opposes Booms Hoover for President.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD.

Soviet Russia's threat against Persia, and consequently against all of southern Asia, was foreseen, has so alarmed the British that they are hurrying to the defense of their great Indian objectives, and that they are willing to submit the entire of the League of Nations. The supreme council on Tuesday sent a note to Belgrade which, it was said, gave the Jugo-Slavs four days to reconsider their refusal, and threatened that if the sanction of William's refuge is to be preserved, the principle set forth in the pact of London would be applied to the territories in dispute. This is more even than Italy now is asking.

The long awaited demand on Holland for the surrender of the former German emperor was dispatched by the allies, and near the end of the week the reply was received by the supreme council. Though at this time the reply had not been made public, it was generally understood that in it Holland refused to give up the refugee for trial, considering that this is her international duty and bearing in mind the fact that the Dutch constitution forbids extradition. The Dutch press denies that feelings of sympathy or antipathy have anything to do with the course adopted by the government. If the sanctity of William's refuge is to be preserved, one wonders how Lloyd George can carry out his pre-election promise to bring him to justice. The possibility of trying and condemning him by default has been considered.

Politics, especially in a presidential election, seizes on nearly everything for its own uses, and that is the fate that has befallen Admiral Sims' scathing criticism of the navy department and its chief, Secretary Daniels. It is being treated as a partisan matter by the senate, whose naval affairs committee has it in hand. The Republicans—excepting Senator Borah—are supporting the admiral, and the Democrats by the same token have rallied to the defense of Daniels. The most sensational charge made by Sims was that on his departure for England a high official of the department said to him: "Don't let the British pull the wool over your eyes. It is none of our business pushing their chests out of the fire. We would as soon fight the British as the Germans."

Secretary Daniels flatly denies having said this, or anything like it, and the admiral said he would tell only the committee the name of the man who did. More important was the general charge that Sims never was given whole-hearted and efficient support by the department in the prosecution of the war at sea, and that the cost of Daniels' policy, or lack of policy, was the loss of many lives and much shipping. All of this was contained in a letter from Admiral Sims to the department, which the admiral made public at the demand of the senate subcommittee investigating the matter of naval decoration awards. The whole scandal will be given a thorough airing, and the Republicans will not overlook the additional material it may give them for the campaign.

The sensation of the week in domestic politics was the announcement of the New York World that it was for Herbert Hoover for president, on a ticket, "on a platform representing the kind of government which Mr. Hoover has exemplified in his public career."

States Position of Italy. Premier Nitti Asserts Country Desires Only Friendly Relations With the Jugoslavs.

Paris—Italy will demand of France and England the carrying out of the treaty of London only when all other means of settling the Adriatic question have been tried and found futile, according to a statement made by Premier Nitti to a reporter at the Echo d'Paris. The correspondent accompanied the Italian premier by this city to Nice, and was told by Signor Nitti that his trip to Rome was brought about solely by the railroad strike in Italy.

"The reply of the Jugoslav government to the note of the supreme council relative to conflicting claims on the eastern shores of the Adriatic does not satisfy us," the premier is quoted as saying, "but we have gone to the extreme limit in making concessions. The world should realize that for the sake of Fiume we renounce Dalmatia, which was given to us by the pact of London.

"This new people is in the course of formation and the exaggerated impulsiveness characteristic of youth is naturally present, but we are anxious to consider the Jugoslav friends. They and we occupy the greater part of the Adriatic coast and have mutual interests. I wish to facilitate these relations. We will find an agreement. It must be found. We will demand execution of the London pact only at the last extremity."
