There will be a Thanksgiving concert in the Presbyterian Church Thanksgiving evening.

See Barney's huge advertisement this week. Ladies will discover something of interest in it.

A horse fell through the R. & O. railroad bridge Tuesday night and broke its neck. It belonged to John Schull.

Shields & Krider have on hand a well selected assortment of L. Canada's pure Gum Boots, at $4.00 per pair.

Another car load of choice eating and cooking apples, just received, at P. Snyder's. Will sell by the peck, by the bushel, or by the barrel.

There are to be made thirty-three speeches for and against the bill repealing the suspension act. Windy times about Washington.

If you ask anyone where you can buy the best and cheapest hats for ladies and girls, they always point you to Young's. They go there at once and get them.

Common sense teaches us that a good article is better than a poor one. Therefore, do not buy a cheap or shoddy article with but a few others - a barrel filled with water - but go to O. P. Snyder's and get a can full of oysters, or a quart of tub oysters.

The best butter in the market at J. B. Wilson & Son's.

Remember Dr. Viller's tooth-paste. His extractions exceed anything of the kind ever given in this city. He is a hummer in the highest and best way of the form. He fails to attend this, the last night.

You should always buy from parties whose standing is a guarantee of the quality of the goods you need. Therefore go to O. P. Snyder's for your tub and can oysters.

F. Schell is making a splendid lot of those ladies' overcoats, which are so fashionable. He has a large and well selected stock of ladies' overcoats of the best material, and they are busy this week filling orders. Call and see them.

The Crowning Glory stove, sold only by Geo. Ernest, is the best in the market. It is beautiful in appearance, and a good baker on a very small amount of wood. Mr. Ernest has sold a large number of them, many more than he had calculated on. Don't fail to see this splendid cooking stove.

The Thanksgiving proclamation being issued by the President and the Governor of the State, is hereby published for the information of the public that I shall receive an extra large lot of Standard and Select tub oysters for that day. Parties wishing any quantity will please write their orders a few days before, at O. P. Snyder's Fruit Store.

Harper's Publications. - We publish elsewhere the advertisements of Harper's Magazine, Harper's Bazar and Harper's Weekly, three publications that are not equalled in the world. The reading of any family cannot be complete without them. They are very low for their value and persons making up their reading for the year should investigate.

We call the attention of our readers to the prices list of the Buffalo Clothing House, and think they should avail themselves of the opportunity of getting ready-made clothing at prices never heard of before here. Marcus Frank has opened a store at 102 N. 2nd St., and is offering a large stock of goods at very low prices. He is offering a large stock of goods at very low prices.

The best 50-cent tea in the market at J. B. Wilson & Son's.

See advertisement of the "Headline" Saloon and they give them a call.

Water is freezing. See that your fire is in good order.

J. J. COLLIER, of Adams township, has moved to Africa, Indiana.

Major Armstrong, of the Cleveland Cavalry, was in this city yesterday.

Wherever L. Weirick offers a few lots for sale. Bargains can be secured.

There are a few cases of diphtheria in this city. It is generally of mild nature.

The best crackers, oyster and butter, always to be had at O. P. Snyder's, by the peck or barrel.

A. C. BARBOUR elsewhere offers some rare bargains in real estate. Call on him.

R. SIMONS, who was shot recently, is able to go. His injury is rather severe.

The Baptist Church is closed one week for repairs. No services next Sabbath.

Rev. Mr. Williams places us under obligations for a copy of the Patent Office Gazette.

You can buy buffalo robes fifteen per cent cheaper in Leiner's than at any other place in the city.

Samuel Smoyer, a former resident of this city, now of Marion, Iowa, is here visiting friends.

See advertisement of the Philadelphia Times in another column. It is a good independent paper.

If the lady who is sending oysters will give us her name we may take notice of her productions.

A few more of those cheap market baskets at J. B. Wilson & Son's.

Crash. - Pure gum boots, $3.75; rubber boots, $2.75; lip boots, to close out, $3.00. SROKASKA & ROSS.

We are glad to be able to state that Mr. Simon is improving. He has been seriously ill, but indications are that he will be around soon.

Always keep it in the house. A few doses of Denig's Worm Syrup may save you a world of anxiety about your children. Only 25 cents a bottle.

It is their earnest wish to serve their patrons in an honest and prompt manner, that is why you should always go to O. P. Snyder's for a quart of "solid meat" oysters, cranberries, candied, honey and winter apples.

The Register reports that two old citizens of Sandusky, Peter Welton, aged seventy-eight, and Timothy Farrell, aged fifty, dropped dead from apoplexy. Both died from apoplexy.

Misplaced confidence. - Monday forenoon, M. Beckley, who does business on North Washington street, sent his clerk, Wm. Elkoff with the delivery wagon, to deliver some goods on this side of the river. At the same time he gave him $10 in money and checks amounting to $50.00 to deposit in the bank. Noon came and the clerk did not return, and Mr. Beckley started to hunt him up. He could not get track of him, and went to the bank to see if he had been there. He found that the clerk had been to the bank, but that instead of depositing anything, he had got the checks cashed. It was also found that he had delivered the goods before going to the bank. Further investigation proved that the fellow had run away with the money and the horse and wagon. Policeman Sweeney and Mr. Beckley started in pursuit. They traveled several different roads but could not get a clue. In the afternoon W. Lepper, a learned transaction, and as he had the following driver out Market street towards Foster, he started in pursuit and when within three blocks of Foster, he found the horse hitched in a lane on the farm of Mr. Hartley. The wagon and everything was unharmed. Mr. Lepper went to Foster, but could get no clue of the thief. He brought the horse and wagon back.

Council Meeting. - Council met in regular session Monday evening, with Messrs. Andre, Crawford, Fanning, Gilliland, Grammes, Kintz, Livers and speaking members. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A petition from the residents of West Ferry street, praying for the widening of the street, was presented by Mr. Lepper. A resolution for extending the gas main to College Hill and on Mill street was presented by Mr. Myers and passed.

A resolution to erect five lamps along said gas main was presented by Mr. Myers and adopted.

A resolution by Dr. Fanning, requesting the City Commissioner to get a jury to condemn property for the opening of the alley between 10 and 11; also lots 169, 170, 50 and 79, for the purpose of a street, was presented by the following: Messrs. Andre, Crawford, Fanning, Grammes, Kintz and Myers; Nays - Crawford, Gilliland and Livers.

On motion of Mr. Kintz, the bill on order of exchange dealing with the Toledo, Tiffin and Eastern Railroad Company was referred to the City Solicitor, he to report as soon as practicable.

An ordinance, providing for lighting railroad crossings, was passed its first and second readings. Adjourned.

Probate Court. - Nov. 21. - The will of Nathan Bingham was admitted to probate. The testator gives to his wife, Mary, all the property he has during widowhood, and at her marriage or death, to his children equally. James R. Bingham was appointed executor. Bond $5,000.00.

Nov. 20. - The will of Mary Benson, of Foster, was admitted to probate. The testator gives to her husband lots 45 and 78 in Foster, on conditions, during his natural life and 80 per cent on $1,000 during his life and all the residue to her daughter, Hannah. Augustus, Andrew Emerine was appointed executor. Bond $6,000.00.

Nov. 12. - The will of Francis Bell was admitted to probate. The testator gives to Peter Bell $500, and $200 each to fifteen grandchildren, and the balance of his estate in equal parts to three children. Philip Bell was appointed executor. Bond $15,000.00.

Dr. Crawford met with what might have proved to be a very serious accident, while driving a team along the Greenfield road, Thursday night. It was very dark, and the team was going a smart pace, when they ran into an uncovered culvert, and Dr. Crawford was thrown from the buggy, and fell into the ditch on his back. He gathered himself up as soon as possible and found that he had sustained a slight damage to one of his hips and that a good coat was nearly torn off him. One of the wheels of the buggy was broken. Mr. Cahill was thrown to the ground and rendered insensible. He was cared for at once, and was found to have received several cuts about the head and to be considerably bruised. The tongue and other parts of the wagon were broken.

Samuel Flanagan, who has filed over fifteen different buildings in the last twenty-five years, and was suspended until about the time of his arrest, a few months ago, plead guilty to a crime Tuesday, and was sentenced to a term of two years in the Penitentiary. He was probably the most remarkable case of continued incarceration, unsuspected, that ever occurred in this country. A very dangerous man is disposed of for two years. There are several indications that will be held over him so that at the end of that time he will return to this country.

See notice. - To-morrow (Friday) evening, at 8 o'clock, the following will be read: Cecile Rush, will appear in the character of Rose Michel in a play of that name. Cecile Rush is a most accomplished actress and has a reputation that warrants our saying that she has few if any equals in her line. She will be supported by "Walter's Metropolitan Company" which is an excellent one. Mrs. Rush and the entire company are highly recommended and are worthy of the patronage of all lovers of the drama. They should have a good house.

Now that we have had the first touch of winter, it will make folks commence to think of their coats and their winter clothing, and it is an undoubted fact that the Buffalo Clothing House is the best and cheapest place to get such goods, as they will need to protect themselves from the cold. They have sold an immense quantity of goods in the past few weeks of their great closing out sale, and it would be advisable for those who intend to purchase a good suit, or a heavy overcoat, to call soon, before it is too late, as they must and are bound to sell out their stock before leaving for Texas. Rather than to pack up the stock, they offer extraordinary inducements to close out, at and below cost. Remember this is a bona-fide sale and no humbug. So convince yourselves that such is the case by always going to the Buffalo Clothing House to see and examine their goods before it is too late.

Gen. Tom Thum and Wife. - On Monday next, the 19th inst., Gen. Tom Thum and suite will give two of their pleasing entertainments at the Grand Hotel, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. The General will be accompanied by his wife, Miss Minnie Warren and Major Newell, who is said to be a very lively individual. The Montreal Herald in noticing their appearance at the Theatre Royal, Oct. 23th, says: "The theater was packed from floor to roof with enthusiastic audiences. The little fellow received thunders of applause in their songs cannot speak too highly. The General and Mrs. Thum sang the most pleasing songs in the repertoire, and the latter, who is extremely funny in her different characters, and kept the audience in a roar of laughter. Mrs. Newell has no equal as a comic singer, dancer and actress. Her performance and don't fail to let the little folks attend the entertainment."

List of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tiffin Postoffice, Seneca county, O., November 18th, 1877.

James Baker, of this place, had his hand badly injured while working at the factory of J. Farnsworth & Co., recently.

Miss Jennie Smith, of this place has gone to Garret, Ind. She intends spending the winter at that place. John Noah has purchased a building on Wm. Frey and has moved the same on his premises and intends opening a meat market.

C. O. Grove returned from the East, after an absence of six weeks, with a wife. The happy couple have a pleasant journey down the stream of time.

This week's Letter. The snail and blind factory of J. Farnsworth & Co. will shut down in a few days, and will not resume work until next spring.

A young man on our vicinity met with quite an adventure a few evenings ago. It seemed, from a few facts given us, that he intended taking his lady love to a party, and being all ready for a good time, he was thinking he might want his overcoat, alighted from his buggy and ran into the house without stopping to hitch his horse. When he returned he found his horse and buggy missing. Starting at once in pursuit, he walked about two miles, but finding no trace of his missing property, retraced his steps and retraced his road. He had gone but a short distance when he discovered his horse in a fence corner, the horse having jumped a ditch four feet deep, leaving the buggy in the ditch a complete wreck. He got the buggy home as he best could, and started again on a one-horse wagon. He had gone but a short distance, when his horse, not getting over his fright, made several desperate leaps, throwing our hero out into the mud. He picked himself up, climbed into the wagon, and a few minutes' drive brought him to the house of his sweetheart. Upon calling for her he was informed that she could not go on account of having teeth extracted the day previous. Resolving not to be outdone, he went to the party alone. This young man does not want to get married now, and advises all young men to go with girls that do not have to get their teeth extracted, and furthermore, to be careful to hitch their horses when they leave them.

The smiling countenance of Colonel J. Root beamed in upon us as we passed. He has just returned from Cleveland where he has been visiting friends. He will doubtless spend the winter at the place.

L. Huber and brother are moving a saw mill on the vacant ground where the old Buckeye mill formerly stood.

Our public schools will close their full term of school on Friday, Nov. 23d. The winter term will commence on the Monday following.

The exercises of the 25th students of the high school will give an entertainment at the Presbyterian Church. The drama entitled, "Bread on the Waters," "The Sea of Trouble," and "No Cure no Pay," will be presented, including several tableaux, by the students. All wishing to see a first-class exhibition will do well to attend the entertainment, as it will be a treat that the citizens of Green Spring seldom get. The exercises will be interspersed with music. A small admission fee will be charged for the entertainment. Doors open at 7 o'clock. C. H. W.

ATTICA NEWS. Many important events have transpired since the last communication from Attica. It is worthy of note that the removal of a clothing store for want of patronage.

The post office was remodelled last week, into what some of our young people would call a "new style" improvement, as the young ladies can not stand and chat but keep their waiting.

Universalist Conference commenced Tuesday evening, Nov. 6th, and closed Sunday evening the 11th. A number of quite interesting meetings were held. Owing to the weather the attendance was not large as it otherwise would have been. The fruits of the meetings were two young ladies united with the church. On Sunday evening a large crowd gathered and a beautiful sermon was delivered by Brother Tomlinson, of Akron, O. REPORT.

At the present writing Mrs. Jacob Hoiler is quite ill with the lung fever.

Mrs. Mary Hill, who has made her home with Wedell since her husband's death, passed away on Saturday night, at 10 o'clock, on Saturday night last.

O. H. Huffman has removed his jewelry store to Elnet & Blaney's clothing room.

J. A. West continues to follow his old profession as an auctioneer. Although living among competitors, he cries nearly all the sales in the country. The best judges are pronounced him equal to the best in the rapidly and dispatch with which he handles goods.

Mrs. Isaac Livensparger died on Sunday night of cancer. He was a native of this place and was a member of the church. He was a very good man and was well respected in the community.

Several young people of this place met at Rev. Mr. Patterson's, on Monday night, and spent the evening in social party.

Prof. Richard, of Alliance, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Last Tuesday evening some unknown party or parties made a successful entrance to the dry good store of H. Mansfield and the drug store of Dr. Noble. Mr. Mansfield lost two overcoats, two pairs of silk handkerchiefs and clothing. His loss is estimated at about $90. Mr. Noble's show cases were relieved of perhaps a dozen boxes of pocket cutlery and a lot of cigars. Fortunately little or no money was to be found in the rooms. The tools which they pried the doors open, a crow bar and a pick ax, were found on the pavement.

Prof. Edwin's writing school was a failure. He could not get scholars enough to make it pay.
