Mrs. Walter Early, of Washington, C. H. Ohio, says:—Words cannot express my gratitude for the good your Persian Cough Syrup has done me—I took a violent cold which produced an incessant coughing day and night until my throat and lungs were so sore I could scarcely live and after using one 25c bottle was entirely cured. Sold by A. R. Champney.

It Will Pay You.

The roads are bad, too bad almost to go to a railroad station much more to think of driving to Toledo. It is most too far to walk and if you did you would need high top boots, but nevertheless it pays you to go to Toledo to buy dry goods when you can have the privilege of trading at such a store as Lamson Bros. An old saying is, be sure you are right then go ahead. You cannot help being right if you are in Lamson Bros. The goods are right and the prices are right and you need have no fear that possibly you could do better somewhere else. That is out of the question. Their constantly improving trade proves that people appreciate their efforts. Go onces and you will always be a customer. Remember the place 833 & 385 Summit St., Toledo, O.

We have just received from the publishers, E. R. Curtis and Co. 51 West 4th Street, Cincinnati, a copy of the Life of Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon, a most excellent work, bound in fine style. The work should be in the library of every house.

—How pleasant it is for people who have complied with the orders of the officials and have repaired their side-walks to notice that other people, who are better able to build walks, are not compelled to comply with the laws, but let their break neck walks go without repairs.

—Now many physicians make great therapeutic discoveries. For the most part they content themselves with administering judiciously what is prescribed in the books. To Dr. J. C. Ayer, however, is due the credit of discovering that greatest of blood-purifiers—Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

—"Encourage the blackbird," says an exchange, as it is believed he is a deadly enemy to the pestiferous English sparrow. The jolly Robin red breast is also a terror to the sparrow, as it is said he is fond of cracking the sparrow's head and picking out his brains; he then throws the carcass on the ground, and after it has lain long enough to draw a swarm of ants around Robin comes back and scoops in the ants also.

—His honor, Mayor Roach, is not to be fooled with. Joe Hilbert was brought before the Mayor on Friday morning on the charge of disturbance and was fined $10 and costs, and as Josie was being taken away by the Marshal, he indulged in calling Mayor Roach a few high-sounding names, which Joe found in a private dictionary of his own. The Mayor and the names didn't correspond and he again order Joseph to appear before him, and as a mark of special favor, gave the frisky Joseph 60 days in the Toledo work house. He was taken to that rocky Summer resort on Saturday last, where he will be "rocked to sleep" for sixty consecutive evenings. The longer he continues to "rock" the better it will be.

—The remedy for bleeding at the nose, says a physician, is a vigorous motion of the jaws as if in act of mastication. In the case of a child a wad of paper should be placed in its mouth, and the child instructed to chew it hard. It is the motion of the jaw that stops the flow of blood.

—There will be more circuses on the road the coming summer than ever before. The Buffalo Courier, which turns out most of the large colored show bills, says there will be over 100 in all. Many of them have already started on their travels—these, however, being mostly "railroad shows." Wagon shows seldom venture out before the first or second week in May.

—D. K. Hollenbeck recently closed the sale of 280 acres of land, which is located one-half mile west of Dunbridge and known as the Freyberg & Worker property. Mack Gorrill of Dowling, procured 160 acres of it and Lew Spafford of Dunbridge secured the remaining 120 acres. The land is covered with good timber and Mr. Gorrill has purchased the timber on Spafford's 120 acres.

—The Influential Editor of the Waynesburg, Pennsylvania, Independent, Mr. W. W. Evans, states:

—The Political Equality Club hold their next meeting at the residence of Mrs. D. K. Hollenbeck on Saturday May 14th at 2 p. m. a general attendance is desired as there will be an election of officers for coming year. At the last meeting Mrs. Jennette Charles, Mrs. Frank B. Hollenbeck and Miss Nellie Adams were appointed as delegates to the W. S. State Convention at Salem, Ohio, May 22d and 23d.

—After the close of work on Tuesday evening last, the K. P. boys enjoyed a social session. Cigars, pipes and an "impromptu" lunch were provided and the occasion was a very pleasant one. It was a draw between those two valiant knights, Bowers and Saddler, as to who could dispose of the greatest number of sandwiches. Saddler's size would indicate that his capacity was the greater of the two but Bowers is very elastic and his size is no indication of his capacity. George Hoffmann proved himself a splendid soloist, while knights C. A. Hoffmann, Cornelius and Pison, make a great chorus. As chief story-teller knight Hollenbeck is a dandy. A. W. Degner brought in a box of his elegant Cally Lilly cigars.

—The Vendetta At the Peoples theatre all next week, with Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday matinees. Prices, 15, 25 and 35 cents. "The Vendetta" is one of the very few new plays to meet with instant success this season. * * * Not to be wondered at—it contains everything that the people want. A good plot, strong sensational climaxes, pure, simple dialogue. * * * The scenery is wonderful, indeed, and the company excellent.

—Sleep on Left Side. Many persons are unable to sleep on their left side. The cause has long been a puzzle to physicians. Metropolitan papers speak with great interest of Dr. Franklin Miles, the eminent Indiana specialist in nervous and heart diseases, who has proven that this habit arises from a diseased heart. He has examined and kept on record thousands of cases. His New Heart Cure, a wonderful remedy is sold at A. R. Champneys. Thousands testify to its value as a cure for Heart Disease. Mrs. Chas. Deuoy, Loveland, Colo., says its effects on her were a marvellous. Elegant Book on Heart Disease free.

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

P. M. Puhl is agent for the new fly-shuttle loom for weaving carpets and rugs. He is selling large numbers of looms. Call at his weaving rooms in Maumee and see the new loom work.

We return thanks to A. G. Williams, lay delegate to the General conference of the M. E. church at Omaha, for copies of the Dally Christian Advocate, which has been published at Omaha, during the conference. It is a large paper and filled with information connected with the conference and the church. We feel proud to be thus kindly remembered by our friend and worthy citizen during his absence.

Chas Lawrence has a birthday every year lately, and his latest came around on Wednesday, and a large number of his friends were invited to quietly call at his home in the evening and surprise him. When Charlie discovered certain friends of his in town with their soft clothes on he "smelled a mice" and concluded he would go to his surprise party with the rest of the people and he was there as prompt as anyone. The
