DEAR SIRS—I would like to add my testimony to the almost miraculous effect of P. P. P. in the case of Mary Ingram, a woman living on my place; she had a constant cough, sore throat, debility, etc., and was emaciated to a degree that she was unable to get out unaided, being given up by physicians; she had taken the various so-called Blood Medicines without the least effect, until being put under the P. P. P. she immediately began to improve and is now in as good health as ever in her life. You can refer to me at any time as to the effect of P. P. P. in the foregoing case. Yours truly, SAMUEL CHERRY.

NEW PARTNERSHIP LAW.

It Provides for Filing of Certificate and Publication of Notice Under Certain Conditions.

A law, which seems to have escaped the attention of interested persons in Wood county, was passed at the last session of the legislature. It is known as the "partnership law" and in its provisions affects a large number of firms doing business in this county.

The law reads that every partnership transacting business in this state under a designation not showing the names of the persons interested as partners in such business, must file with the clerk of the court of common pleas, a certificate stating the names in full of all the members of such partnership and their places of residence, and publish the same for three weeks in a newspaper published in the county. The certificate to be filed with the clerk must be signed by the parties and ac-knowledgeed before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments of conveyances of real estate. Whenever a change in the partnership occurs, in which all the names of persons interested in the firm are not shown in the firm name a new certificate must be filed and a new publication made.

The clerk is commanded to keep a register of the names and persons mentioned in the certificates filed with him.
As a penalty for violation of this act it is provided that such firm doing business contrary to its provisions shall not have a standing in law, that is, shall not maintain an action on account or of any transactions had in their partnership name in any court in the state, and this standing shall maintain until such provisions mentioned above are complied with.

The firms that are affected by this law are business partnerships of all kinds, not otherwise incorporated under the statutes of Ohio, which do not specify names of parties interested.
For instance, a firm name ending with "company," such as John Smith & Co., or an oil firm such as the "Honey Handed Oil Co.," all are affected, and must comply with the law as to filing of certificates and publication of notice.

Clerk Baird has ordered a register in which to keep the certificates, and is now ready to do business under the new law. Many counties began recognizing the law some time since.—Sentinel.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Of Interest to Pupils in all Departments.
The public schools of Perrysburg will open for the school year of 1894-5 on Tuesday, Sept. 4.

The high school and the A. B. and C grammar grades will occupy the town hall in the second floor of the old court house building. The D grammar, A and B primary grades will probably occupy the larger rooms in the first floor of the same building. These rooms are too small to be satisfactory in point of ventilation and otherwise but are the best that can be provided at the present time.

Pupils will please bring their promotion cards with them and proceed at once to the departments to which those cards respectively entitle them.

Teachers Meeting.
There will be a meeting of the Per-rysburg teachers on Saturday, Sept.
1, at the town hall. All are requested to be present.

Important to Contractors.
Owing to circumstances it has been necessary to change the time for receiving bids for the construction of the new school house. The date has been changed to Sept. 22d. See Notice to Contractors elsewhere.

Store Burglarized.
On Thursday morning George Wittmann discovered that his store had been entered during the night, entrance being gained through a window. The thieves emptied a small sack of flour upon the floor, evidently for the purpose of carrying off a large quantity of tobacco, cigars and notions.
They also appropriated one jar and several bottles of whisky. The loss will probably amount to $25. A party of B. G. gentlemen contemplate coming over here to go fishing and proposely made a call on George to secure bait.

Judicial Sarcastic.
The sarcastic Justice Mauld did not spare his judicial brethren. "I do not believe," he said to the counsel once, "that any such absurd law has ever been laid down, although it is true that I have not yet seen the last number of the 'Queen's Bench Reports.'" When a witness was telling an impossible story, and declared that he could not tell a lie, for he had been wedded to truth from his infancy, Justice Mauld observed: "Yes, but the question is, how long have you been a widower?" The counsel who objected to a bill of costs in a case before Justice Mauld and a jury, declared that the account was a "diabolical bill." The judge told the jury, however, that even if the statement of counsel were true, it was still their duty to "give the devil his due."—Argonaut.

Dreams and Sound Sleep.
When a student asked the great Professor Marno if dreams were "a sign of anything," he replied: "Yes, a sign that the dreamer was only about half asleep, when some vague idea flits through his brain." An opinion exactly contrary to the above was once expressed by Dr. Tanner.
The faster, When asked if he did not dream of feasts during his long fast, he replied: "The fact is, I did not dream at all, simply because I had no sound sleep during the ordeal.
I was sorry for that, because I had hoped to make a physiological study of myself. My sleep was so disturbed and broken by those constantly around me that I had no opportunity for dreams." Whose theory respecting the dream condition is correct, Marno's or Tanner's?
