TO MILK CONSUMERS.

I will commence delivering milk to customers on Monday, Dec. 10, and shall adopt the system of delivering the milk in individual cans, each customer being supplied with two cans, thus avoiding the necessity of coming to the wagon in stormy weather. This system has been adopted in Bowling Green and many other cities and has proven very successful. None but the best of dairy stock will be kept and milk will therefore be rich and healthful.

ART FINKBEINER.

—Chas. Lawrence and Walter Brey visited friends in Lindsay last Sunday.

—The Misses Maddy have rented Wm. Kazmeier's residence on Louisiana avenue.

—A white bear and a homely looking Italian amused the children on the streets Wednesday.

—Mrs. Jefferson has moved to Toledo and will again reside in her old home at 525 Vance street.

—Prairie Depot's new brick hotel is a sure thing and will be completed soon. The foundation is now being laid.

—Ask Ed. Hollenbeck about that package of dead he was seen carrying through the streets a few days since.

—The electric cars were crowded every trip on Sunday last. The management will soon put on additional cars.

—Architect A. E. Hitchcock of Toledo, was in town Wednesday looking after the progress being made on Wm. Veitch's new residence.

—The Sunday School convention held at Weston the 24th and 25th inst., was a great success and well attended. A very interesting session was held.

—The social of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Evangelical church, will be held the first Friday of May at Mrs. J. Hufford's and all are invited to attend.

—The Sentinel says "Sam Oswald of Weston drove over to Bowling Green to get some fresh COUNTRY AIR." This is the first time the Sentinel ever acknowledged being located in the country.

—Majestic Steel Ranges at J. Davis'.

—Social at the M. E. church parlors Friday evening, May 3d. Refreshments will be served. Budge and Toddy with their rag babies will be there with all their playmates. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

—Get your photograph enlarged to life size, free of charge, by trading at C. A. Hoffmann's grocery. Ask Mr. Hoffmann how it is done. 5ft

—The three students who succeeded in passing the Boxwell examination were F. E. Smith, Minnie Foss and Bessie Loan. Complaints were made that the examinations were too severe. Only 56 failed.

—Passengers on the C. H. & D. will observe a change in the appearance of our depot. The side window that has been open all Winter is now closed. We take special pains to note all improvements about our grand central passenger station.

—Mrs. H. M. Morse will offer for sale on her farm, five miles east of Perryburg, on Stone Pike, on Monday, April 29, the following property: Two fresh milch cows with calves, eight-year old mare, buggy, single harness, cook stove and other household goods.

—Majestic Steel Ranges at J. Davis'.

—Miss Anna Webber of Toledo, who shot herself about three weeks ago, died on Wednesday. The young lady was highly respected and it is believed her rash act was prompted by disappointment occasioned by the breaking of a marriage engagement, at the request of her parents.

—The agitator in the factory of the Ohio & Indiana Torpedo Co. at Lima exploded Tuesday with terrific force, the shock causing hundreds of plate glasses to be broken and buildings to tremble. The force of the explosion was noticeable in Ada, Van Wert, Delaware and other neighboring cities.

—Majestic Steel Ranges at J. Davis'.

—The 76th anniversary of Odd Fellowship will be celebrated in Perryburg on Sunday, April 28, by the members of Ft. Meigs lodge, No. 774, who will attend the First Presbyterian church, where they will listen to a sermon by Rev. G. S. J. Browne, the Chaplain of the Grand lodge, I. O. O. F., of Ohio. The services will be held at the usual hour for morning service, and all people are invited to attend.

—Buy your groceries of C. A. Hoffmann. He will give you a ticket and when you have purchased goods to the amount of $10, you can have a photo of any member of your family enlarged to life size in crayon, free of charge. 5ft

—The different wedding anniversaries are as follows: First year, cotton; second, paper; third, leather; fourth, book; fifth, wooden; sixth, garnet; seventh, woolen; eighth, bric-a-brac; ninth, topaz; tenth, tin; twelfth, silk and fine linen; fifteenth, crystal; twentieth, china; twenty-fifth, silver; thirtieth, pearl; thirty-fifth; sapphire; fortieth, ruby; fiftieth, golden; seventy-fifth, diamond.

—The new school house in Perryburg is rapidly assuming shape. The foundation is completed and the brick laying has commenced. Contractor Kerrush will not allow any delays, and proposes to have the work completed as soon as it is possible. Architect Bacon and the contractor were greatly pleased with the foundation which they claim could hardly be better if the excavation had been made down to the solid rock. Perryburg will soon have reason to be proud of an excellent and magnificent school building.

—Mrs. Fred Hillbrand is visiting in Wauseon this week.

—Andrew Adams of Toledo was a Perryburg visitor Sunday.

—Chas. Hoffman, wife and baby Leonidus, spent Sunday at Pemberville.

—James Savory of East Toledo, was calling on Perryburg friends this week.

—W. E. Escott of the Sentinel, was home on Monday last for a day's rest.

—Those who have read Helen's babies will be pleased to see and hear them in person at the M. E. church parlors, Friday evening, May 3d.

—The electric car leaving Toledo at 9:00 will wait until 9:45 next Monday evening to accommodate those who wish to attend the Young People's Union Gospel Rally at the Auditorium.

—The township teachers' reading circle enjoyed a very pleasant session at the town hall on Wednesday night of last week. Papers were read by Prof. Ward, Misses Binn, Veitch, Chutzer, Escott and Clayton Kohl.

—Prof. Leeson of Chicago, has engaged rooms at Mrs. Smith's where he will be located, together with his wife and son, for several months. The Professor is employed as historian by Beers & Co., the Chicago publishers of the C. W. Evers history of Wood county, and is now engaged in examining newspaper files and other records for the purpose of securing the necessary data for the forthcoming work.

—H. E. Peck has in his possession a copy of a paper—"The Courier"—printed at Norwich, Conn., dated October 11, 1798. It is certainly a curiosity in its line. Among the advertisements is one which reads as follows: "Wanted—two lads, as apprentices to the Seafaring business. Enquire of the Printer." Another reads—"David L. Dodge gives information that he will wait on those at his school house, who will favor him with their attendance for the purpose of improving in reading, writing, English grammar and Geography. Terms of tuition, one dollar and fifty cents per quarter.

—Birkenhour's Vienna bread fresh every day at Boetsch's and J. G. Hoffman's. 3c and 5c.

—Buy a "Reliable" Gasoline Stove and you get the best. Sold by J. Davis.

—Brass Extension Curtain Rods at J. Davis'.

—The business of the Maumee House is rapidly increasing. First-class accommodations are provided, and the house has a large list of boarders.

—Lime City is on the boom this Spring. Five of the lime kilns are now in operation and several more will be started in a few days, and Hasel Hamilton, who is in charge of the cooper shop is turning out over a hundred barrels per day. He is a hustler, but says it will be necessary to increase his force if business continues at its present rate. Geo. Breed's new residence is ready for the plasterers who will be at work in a few days. Trade in all lines is good and the little city is enjoying peace and prosperity. Long may it continue.

—Majestic Steel Ranges at J. Davis'.

—If an agent comes to your house and offers to sell 36 pieces of soap for one dollar, and give as a prize a rubber door mat with your initials on it, don't trade with him. He is a fraud. The soap is no good. He gets the dollar and promises to send the mat as soon as it can be made, with the initials thereon and departing leaves behind some poor soap and a duped customer. The mat never comes back.

Still Improving.
The people of Perryburg have caught the spirit of improvement and are putting forth their best efforts to make the village appear as nicely as possible. New buildings and repairing can be seen on every hand.

Mrs. A. G. Williams is having a new fence constructed around her residence property.

Geo. LaFarree just finished a new roof on Capt. Wetmore's residence and a new porch in front of Marshal Thornton's residence.

Frank Powell has purchased the Front street residence that for many years has been the property of Mrs. J. M. Hirth, and will greatly improve it. His son William and family of Toledo, will move into the house as soon as repairs are completed.

N. Teft is improving his residence by building new porches, putting in new windows and giving the building a coat of paint.

Mrs. Hannum's residence has been improved with new roof, new chimneys, etc.

Wm. Kazmeier is making very substantial improvements in the Fairbanks house that he recently purchased.

The Exchange hotel is receiving a new coat of paint which greatly improves its appearance.

Wm. Schlect will have his business block newly painted.
