THAT CROSSING

The C. H. & D. Guard Their Tracks.

Two Freight Trains Ready to Hold the Crossing.

The Toledo and Bowling Green papers have been devoting much space and very large head lines to the situation along the electric line in Perryburg and the prospects of a row with the C. H. & D. R. R. over the right of way across their tracks on Louisiana ave.

There has not been the least excitement or even prospects of a row over the matter.

As previously reported by the JOURNAL a watchman has been "holding the fort" day and night for the purpose of giving the alarm in case any attempt was made to steal across without giving notice to the railroad company, but no attempt was made to cross, neither was it the intention of the electric people to do so.

As the track was being graded the railroad people hustled two engines with gondolas and caboose attached to Perryburg and kept them here until Tuesday afternoon ready to run across the tracks in case any effort was made to cross. The train crews waited and smoked their pipes and were entertained by Contractor Bick who regaled them with stories of how he had dumped trains off the track and put in crossings in the face of thousands of men who were ready to fight, and other equally fishy stories, but there was no fight nor excitement until Sunday at midnight when "Silver," the man who does the bonding of the rails, made a little fun by driving up with a team and hustling around as if preparing for action. The watchmen became excited, sounded the alarm, the engineers rolled out of their bunks and backed their trains across the track, just in time to be given the laugh.

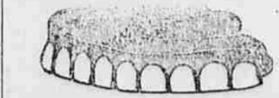

Bick politely informed the official in charge of the trains that he might just as well take his little trains and go home and he would give him 24 hours notice when he intended to cross and that he would cross just as soon as he got ready—trains or no trains.

On Tuesday morning Sheriff Biggs presented an injunction to Mr. Bick and then the trains and the clouds rolled away.

The people have no grounds for fear over the result—the tracks will be completed, the poles erected and wire placed in position and cars will be running to Bowling Green in two weeks.

LATER.—An amicable adjustment has been reached and the injunction withdrawn.

DEMOCRATS

MEET IN CONVENTION

They Endorse Bryan and Nominate a County Ticket.

The County Democratic convention was held at Bowling Green on Tuesday. There was a good attendance and a very harmonious meeting.

There are supposed to be about 600 Populist voters in Wood county and the Democrats are trying to get them. Hon. J. W. Canary was temporary chairman and John presided in his customary able manner, also made a red hot speech and stirred up considerable enthusiasm by pounding the Republican party.

Our old friend D. C. VanVorhis of the Democrat was made Secretary with C. L. Huddle assistant, and the necessary committees appointed as follows: Committee on permanent organization and rules—S. P. Harrison of North Baltimore; Charles Woodford of Harkins; Paul Greulich of Troy; Vincent Fisher of Bloom; George Dewese of Weston.

Resolutions—L. C. Cole of Bowling Green; J. C. Peters of Henry; Thomas Mawer of Washington; Capt. H. Nelson of Liberty; Nathan Stafford of Liberty.

Committee on Conference—Chris Lehman of Bowling Green; J. M. Brown of Perryburg; Ashel Sanglier of Liberty; Louis Baker of Weston; Levi Wooster of North Baltimore.

The permanent organization made Hon. L. C. Cole permanent chairman and C. L. Huddle secretary.

The resolutions were as follows: First, The Democracy of Wood county in convention assembled most heartily endorse the platform adopted by the National Democratic convention at Chicago, and also the platform of the state convention; and we call upon all patriotic citizens, irrespective of party, who believe in lightening the burdens of the people, to join with us in the struggle to wrest the government from the hands of the gold syndicate and trusts now in full control of the Republican party, aided by a few so-called Democrats.

Second, Owing to our fertile soil and favorable climate our agricultural interests should be the most prosperous in the country, and so closely connected and interwoven in agriculture with all other industries that any depression of agriculture means a corresponding depression of all other interests. That agriculture being now more depressed than ever before in our history we believe that a speedy return to that financial system in vogue for the first 80 years of our existence as a nation, and under which agriculture had its equal share of prosperity, will again revive, and we appeal to the farmers of Wood county to thoroughly investigate these questions before casting their ballots for a single gold standard, which will ultimately make your children and children's children tenant farmers.

Third, We denounce the late Ohio legislature for its failure to reduce county official salaries in the face of the full knowledge of the fact that the price of all labor and products have fallen nearly one hundred per cent. in the past 20 years.

A conference committee presented the following report:

Your committee recommended that the county ticket be placed upon the Democratic ticket for Wood county, and that the peoples party withdraw all nominees except Wm. Dunipace for commissioner and Alva Koons for clerk.

The chairman explained the report by saying that it was desired to have the Populists drop all of their candidates except Commissioner and Clerk who would be placed on the Democratic ticket thus drawing many Populist votes to the aid of the Democrats.

The report was then adopted.

The following ticket was then placed in the field:

Clerk—Alva Koons, Populist.
Auditor—W. A. Esterly of Portage.
Probate Judge—F. E. Bowers of Perryburg.
Sheriff—Bruce Rockwell of North Baltimore.
Prosecuting Attorney—J. W. Canary of Bowling Green.
Commissioner—Wm. Dunipace, Populist.
Infirmary Director—Joseph Metzger.

The only office for which there was any strife, was that of Prosecuting Attorney for which Hon. J. W. Canary and A. J. Mears were candidates. The ballot resulted Mears, 165; Canary, 218.

KILLED HIMSELF

D. W. Easley of Bloomdale Found Dead

In the Woods, a Bullet Having Pierced His Brain.

Supposed to Have Been Dead About a Week.

Found dead in the woods. A bullet hole through his brain. A revolver lying near the body.

The above tells the tale of the death by suicide of Webster Easley, an industrious, hard working young man and brother of J. N. Easley of Bowling Green.

Three young lads were passing through a woods pasture, and discovered the dead body. They immediately informed the authorities.

The body was identified as that of D. W. Easley, the clothing, watch and chain furnishing proof of identity.

The bullet had entered just above the left ear, evidently producing instant death.

The reason for the act is not known. He had several hundred dollars in the bank and was an industrious young man.

It is supposed the suicide took place on the 16th of the month, as he left home on that day in a temper, but it was supposed he would return as soon as he got over his petulance. The fact that he spent part of his time with other relatives caused no uneasiness on account of his absence, hence it was that he was looked for by his relatives.

THE NEW CARS

For the T. B. G. & F. Electric Road Have Arrived.

Four new cars for the Toledo, Bowling Green & Fremont electric line have arrived and are in Perryburg awaiting completion of the new line between Perryburg and Bowling Green.

They are christened as well as numbered. No. 100 bears the historic name of Commodore Perry and was named in honor of Perryburg and the gallant commodore for whom our beautiful village was named. No. 101 has been christened "Gen. Harrison" while 102 carries the name of "Mad Anthony Wayne" and 103 is labeled "Bowling Green" in honor of the village whose people have thus far declined to give either the car or the road upon which it is expected to run, a very cordial welcome.

They were built at the Pullman shops and are finished in the highest order of the finishers art.

Their color is dark olive green on outside, while the inside is of natural finish in oak and cherry.

Their length 42 feet, just six inches longer than old Nos. 1 and 2 of the Valley line, and four feet shorter than Nos. 7 and 8.

These cars have Westinghouse 50-horse motors, electric call bells, the same as are used in all late style cars in larger cities, and are heated by steam, which is generated by means of water supplied from a tank on the top of the car, and a small cylindrical coal burner heater, the fire pot of which is located beneath the floor of the car and the cylinder by which the heat is generated is about six inches in diameter and located on the inside of the car extending from beneath the deck of the coach.

The seats are a trifle wider than those of the first cars on the Valley line and are finished in rattan instead of plush as are Nos. 1 and 2.

A Toledo paper says the cars can be converted into summer cars by means of the patent windows. The only difference in windows lies in the fact that the transom can be lowered if desirable. The cars have straight sides, full vestibules and are very neat in every respect, although in no manner superior to the better cars of the Valley line.

Everybody will be pleased to see them whizzing over the line at an early date.

There was about 25,000 barrels of oil in the tank at the time and it's owners had no hopes of saving it, but the top of the tank being in a good condition, the fire confined in it, and about four o'clock Sunday morning, through the agency of the steam it was extinguished.

When a man starts out for blood he generally has to furnish it.

Of all pests the man who has nothing to tell, and tells it in a whisper, is the worst.

People who work for the love of it are generally people who are working for themselves.

There is some comfort in knowing that you can do things that others consider worthy of imitation.

An eastern paper says salt is good for army worms. The farmers want to know what is bad for them.

It is said that on bicycles women look better than men. The fact is that women look better than men anywhere.

Women lead in many advances. No dude has yet been bold enough to wear his necktie on the back of his neck while sober.

A man is either rich or poor according to what his ideas of life are, independent of the amount of property he may possess.

Considering all the things that are either done or attempted with reference to him, the rich man deserves praise for not having a worse opinion of the world.

The United States secret service officials have made a raid on a campaign button factory in Newark, N. J. The buttons being issued were exact imitations of gold and silver dollars, depending upon which party they were intended for, and this, being a plain violation of the law, they were all seized and destroyed.

The appellate term of the supreme court of New York has rendered an important decision regarding the liabilities of savings banks in paying money upon mere presentation of a pass book Justice Daly has handed down a decision saying that this is ample authority for the bank to pay, and that every depositor, by becoming such, agrees to submit to the existing rules of the bank.

People get divorced for all sorts of remarkable reasons, but there is a certain amount of novelty in a husband's suing for absolute divorce because his wife refused to mend his socks. This is the reason alleged by rich Gilbert Forham Archer of Westchester county, N. Y., for desiring to part from his spouse who has become too much of a "new woman" for his views of proper domesticity.

A new anecdote about Henry Ward Beecher tells of his prediction in 1853 that free labor would ultimately drive slavery "into the Gulf of Mexico." A friend who heard the prophecy recalled it to him while the secession war was ravaging the country. Mr. Beecher replied, "I am three years older and know more." A smaller man would have hesitated to own that he was ignorant and had learned something.
