

A WEEK'S RECORD

All the News of the Past Seven Days Condensed.

HOME AND FOREIGN ITEMS

News of the Industrial Field, Personal and Political Items, Happenings at Home and Abroad.

THE NEWS FROM ALL THE WORLD

DOMESTIC.

Gen. Funston is soon to return to the United States on leave of absence.

The president has appointed John W. Riddle, of Minnesota, to be secretary of the United States embassy at St. Petersburg.

Four prominent young men of Michigan, George W. Levin, Abel Levin, Emil Carlson and Albin Carlson, were drowned in the lake by the upsetting of a boat.

An unknown negro who assaulted a white woman was burned at the stake in Perry county, Mississippi.

Dan M. Hogan, Sr., a well-known bookmaker, was shot and killed by his son at Wilmington, Ill., while in the act of abusing and beating his wife.

An engineer of an Erie train was stricken with paralysis near Corning, N. Y., and the train ran for miles while he lay unconscious.

Thirty persons were hurt in a train wreck at Bedford, Ind.

Argument was begun in the Schley Inquiry, Assistant Prosecutor Hanna making the first speech.

Lord Pauncefoot called on the secretary of state and assured him that there is nothing in the way of an agreement upon a canal treaty which will satisfy the senate.

A delegation from the Porto Rican chamber of commerce called on President Roosevelt to urge protection for the coffee industry of the island.

Union carpenters in Chicago have declared war against owners of buildings on which nonunion labor has been employed.

Scott Witt, a farmer from Kinsley, Ill., declared he was robbed of $40 and a gold watch in Chicago by a policeman in full uniform.

Fire destroyed two large grain elevators at Port Huron, Mich., entailing a loss of $300,000.

The business portion of Clifford, N. D., was almost entirely destroyed by fire.

The twelfth death from lockjaw, resulting from the treatment of diphtheritic patients with anti-toxin supplied by the city, occurred in St. Louis.

Roy Knee, of Rock Falls, Ill., returned after tramping for five years. His parents thought he was dead.

Robbers smashed the show window of a jewelry store at Cincinnati and stole diamonds worth $10,000.

Antonio Natoli, an Italian, was murdered by unknown assassins, his body put in a barrel and taken to the prairie in Chicago.

Archibald Savage, secretary of the Hannah & Hogg company in Chicago, was declared to be short $30,000 in his accounts.

In the Schley court of inquiry Mr. Hanna, for the government, concluded his argument, and Capt. Parker, junior counsel for Admiral Schley, began his presentation of the case.

A silver service for the battleship Illinois is to be presented on November 16 at Old Point Comfort.

The private bank of O'Donald & Marston at Whitehall, Mich., was robbed by burglars of $2,000.

Ten persons were killed and four injured in fire following carousal at a theater and dance hall at Hurley, Wis.

Commissioner Evans in his annual report places as the chief of pension evils the army of attorneys and solicitors who fatten on patriotism by persuading returning soldiers to file claims when they have no intention of doing so.

The exchanges at the leading clearing houses in the United States during the seven days ended on the 1st aggregated $2,095,185,094, against $1,998,452,815 the previous week. The increase compared with the corresponding week of last year was 25.3.

A 12-year-old boy at Great Falls, Mont., kidnaped a five-year-old child and tried to get $1,500 ransom.

Judge John Paul, United States judge for the western district of Virginia, died at Harrisonburg, Va.

Government boards will recommend to congress that 40 vessels of all classes be added to the navy, making it superior to that of any European nation.

Labor troubles in Great Britain and France are creating a demand for American coal.

Eastern capitalists paid $3,500,000 for control of the Elkhorn Gold Mining company, of Colorado, on the property of which a rich strike was made recently.

W. C. Whitney leads in the list of eastern turf winners this season, with $108,000 to his credit.

Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, refused to honor a Kentucky requisition for ex-Gov. Taylor and a fellow-fugitive.

The bank at Black Rock, Ark., was robbed by burglars of $2,000 in cash and $10,000 worth of pearls.

Rev. S. C. Swallow, of Harrisburg, Pa., once prohibition candidate for president, has been unfrocked by a jury of Methodist ministers for lying.

Felix Belanger, aged 55, living 26 miles southwest of Houghton, Mich., killed his wife and seven-year-old child with an ax and then killed himself.

The thirteenth fatal case of lockjaw resulting from the injection of anti-toxin occurred in St. Louis.

W. H. Lewis, the colored ex-center rush of Harvard football team, was elected to the Massachusetts legislature.

San Francisco elected as mayor Eugene Schmitz, a machinist and musician.

Oberlin M. Carter, convicted army officer, stakes his fortune of $700,000 on the result of a rehearing in civil court of the charges of embezzlement.

A thrilling scene marked the close of Attorney Rayner's defense of Admiral Schley in the court of inquiry. The court joined in the demonstration of congratulation to the admiral and his counsel.

The statistics of the growth of rural free delivery service shows that on December 2 next there will be 6,000 carriers throughout the country.

J. Meredith and M. Holman quarreled over a game of poker at Marion, Ill., and engaged in a revolver fight, in which both were fatally wounded.

Three trainmen were killed in a wreck at Springfield, Mo.

Charles Dunn, aged 61, of Wallen, Ind., was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of ten-year-old Alice Cothrell.

The president's sister, the wife of Commander Cowles, either lost or was robbed of a $5,000 diamond brooch at Farmington, Conn.

C. B. Thompson, of Port Huron, Mich., supreme finance keeper of the Knights of Maccabees, confessed a shortage of $37,000 in his accounts.

Labor unions have begun a campaign to secure reenactment of the Geary Chinese exclusion law.

A herd of cattle once owned by Queen Victoria sold for fancy prices at the stock yards in Chicago.

Argument in the Schley inquiry ended with the address of Capt. Lemly. Admiral Dewey and his associates declared that it would take two months to digest the evidence before rendering a verdict.

The safe of the bank at Hinton, Ia., was blown open by cracksmen and $1,500 secured.

Convicts at the Fort Leavenworth (Kan.) federal prison mutilated and 26 escaped after a fight with guards, in which one of the convicts was killed, one guard fatally shot and three other officers badly wounded.

Germans will accept the invitation to participate in the St. Louis exposition, but her exhibit may suffer because of the financial depression now prevalent in the empire.

A coming interstate commerce inquiry is said to be due to the determination of President Roosevelt that the commission must accomplish something or be done away with.

Senators Pettus and Morgan are the oldest members of the upper branch of congress. The former is 80 and the latter 77. Bailey, of Texas, who is only 38, is the youngest.

A giant tree in the Mariposa grove, California, has been selected to be named William McKinley. It stands between the Washington and Lincoln trees and is estimated to be 3,000 years old.

Concerning the much discussed question of the annual allowance made Charles M. Schwab for his services as president of the United States Steel Corporation, the New York Herald announces that Mr. Schwab's salary is $100,000 a year, but that he is allowed a contingent fee and receives in addition to his salary 1/2 of 1 per cent. of all the corporation may earn over and above its fixed charges. This contingent amount is estimated at $125,000.

A speed of 105 miles an hour has been attained on an electric railway between Marienfelde and Zozen, Germany. Engineers are convinced that this speed can be increased. Running at this rate the air pressure was found to be equal to a wind force of 12 feet a second—a force which, on the German coast, has only been registered once.

The bank at Plymouth, Ia., was dynamited by robbers on the night of the 11th and the vault and building badly wrecked. The robbers secured $15,500 and escaped.

Hon. Henry Clay McDowell has been selected to succeed Judge John Paul as United States district judge of the western district of West Virginia. He is a great grandson of Henry Clay.

Forest fires are raging in the vicinity of Redbud and Alto Pass, Ill., Poplar Bluff, Mo., and Sedgwick, Ark. North of Redbud, the woods along the Black creek and Richland creek bottoms are on fire and the farmers are fighting hard to save their homes.

In his annual report, which will be completed soon, Postmaster General Smith will ask for an increase of the appropriation for the rural free delivery service from the present sum of $3,500,000 to $6,000,000, and will advocate the extension of the service as far as practicable.

A number of English coast towns have suffered damage to their sea walls and houses as a result of the recent gale and several rivers have broken their banks and seriously damaged the low parts of inland towns. Traffic in some of the streets of Blackburn has been stopped. Belfast is flooded and elsewhere mills and schools are closed on account of the floods.

The mining town of Thomas, W. Va., on the West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh railway, was almost wiped out by fire on the 12th. The town was without fire protection and the frame houses fell easy prey to the flames. Twenty business houses and 70 dwellings were consumed.

Colombians made a night attack on Venezuelans crossing the river near Rubia and many of the latter were drowned.

The Aero club of Paris awarded M. Santos-Dumont the 100,000 francs offered by M. Deutsch for a dirigible balloon.

The worst fog London has experienced in years stopped business and street traffic.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, in a speech at Bristol, declared that the cost of the Boer war is enormous, and intimated that taxes will be increased.

Admiral Caillard and his French squadron have arrived at the Turkish port of Smyrna, which they seized to enforce French claims.

A plot to massacre the American garrison at Moncada, Island of Luzon, was revealed by the wife of one of the conspirators.

The French squadron under command of Admiral Caillard took possession of the three principal Turkish ports of the island of Mitylene.

Gen. Botha, in a proclamation replying to Gen. Kitchener, called the British troops outlaws.

Vital statistics of Europe show a decrease in the birth rate in all countries except Norway.

Na Tung, former leader of the Boxers, has been made a member of the Chinese foreign office.

American Consul Dickinson was reported to have failed in an attempt to secure Miss Stone's release.

The British cabinet decided to send 4,000 more cavalry to South Africa.

Li Hung Chang, the best known, the ablest and the shrewdest man in China, died in Peking, aged 79 years.

France has decided to establish in this country a school for the industrial education of her young men.

Consul General Dickinson and Miss Stone's captors are said to have reached an agreement on her ransom.

Li Hung Chang's death is believed to be a blow to Russia's schemes to get Manchuria.

Chili has offered its services to settle the differences between Venezuela and Colombia.

Samar rebels were starving as a result of the blockade by American warships.

Miss Kate Greenaway, the famous artist, died in London.

France and Russia have reached an agreement to force Turkey to make reforms in Armenia and other provinces.

An American who recently returned to London from Congo State charged Belgian troops with slaughtering hundreds of the natives.

MINOR NEWS ITEMS.

It costs four dollars for ten words by the new telegraph line to Yukon. The supply of silver bullion in the treasury has dwindled until only about $42,000,000 worth is left.

The census of 1900 shows that there are 13,197 negroes to every 100,000 whites, compared with 13,575 in 1890.

Delaware will be, at the beginning of the next congress in December, entirely unrepresented in the senate.

A hotel to cost $2,500,000 is to be erected in Park avenue, between Forty-first and Forty-second streets, New York.

The money in circulation November 1 in the United States is put at $2,346,300,542 by the treasury department, which is $28.73 per capita.

Grover Cleveland was the guest of honor at Carnegie Institute Founders' day exercises in Pittsburgh and talked on duties of citizenship.

A delay of one year in the St. Louis fair is urged by the chairman of the foreign relations committee. He predicts failure unless this is done.

Rev. J. B. Dunwoody, who married President Roosevelt's parents, is still living in a little town in Colleton county, S. C.

A preliminary census report on clay products in the United States shows a total capital of $147,913,323 invested in the industry in 1900.

Mrs. May Preston Slosson, wife of the vice president of the faculty of the University of Wyoming, is the only woman chaplain of a prison in the United States.

Germans will accept the invitation to participate in the St. Louis exposition, but her exhibit may suffer because of the financial depression now prevalent in the empire.

A coming interstate commerce inquiry is said to be due to the determination of President Roosevelt that the commission must accomplish something or be done away with.

Senators Pettus and Morgan are the oldest members of the upper branch of congress. The former is 80 and the latter 77. Bailey, of Texas, who is only 38, is the youngest.

A giant tree in the Mariposa grove, California, has been selected to be named William McKinley. It stands between the Washington and Lincoln trees and is estimated to be 3,000 years old.

LATER.

Concerning the much discussed question of the annual allowance made Charles M. Schwab for his services as president of the United States Steel Corporation, the New York Herald announces that Mr. Schwab's salary is $100,000 a year, but that he is allowed a contingent fee and receives in addition to his salary 1/2 of 1 per cent. of all the corporation may earn over and above its fixed charges. This contingent amount is estimated at $125,000.

A speed of 105 miles an hour has been attained on an electric railway between Marienfelde and Zozen, Germany. Engineers are convinced that this speed can be increased. Running at this rate the air pressure was found to be equal to a wind force of 12 feet a second—a force which, on the German coast, has only been registered once.

The bank at Plymouth, Ia., was dynamited by robbers on the night of the 11th and the vault and building badly wrecked. The robbers secured $15,500 and escaped.

Hon. Henry Clay McDowell has been selected to succeed Judge John Paul as United States district judge of the western district of West Virginia. He is a great grandson of Henry Clay.

Forest fires are raging in the vicinity of Redbud and Alto Pass, Ill., Poplar Bluff, Mo., and Sedgwick, Ark. North of Redbud, the woods along the Black creek and Richland creek bottoms are on fire and the farmers are fighting hard to save their homes.

In his annual report, which will be completed soon, Postmaster General Smith will ask for an increase of the appropriation for the rural free delivery service from the present sum of $3,500,000 to $6,000,000, and will advocate the extension of the service as far as practicable.

A number of English coast towns have suffered damage to their sea walls and houses as a result of the recent gale and several rivers have broken their banks and seriously damaged the low parts of inland towns. Traffic in some of the streets of Blackburn has been stopped. Belfast is flooded and elsewhere mills and schools are closed on account of the floods.

The mining town of Thomas, W. Va., on the West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh railway, was almost wiped out by fire on the 12th. The town was without fire protection and the frame houses fell easy prey to the flames. Twenty business houses and 70 dwellings were consumed.

BUCKEYE MENTION.

Chronicle of Current Events in Ohio.

A Great Fire at Cleveland.

Cleveland, Nov. 13.—The big shoe store owned by N. O. Stone at Nos. 46 to 50 Euclid avenue, caught fire late Tuesday afternoon and the entire building, a five-story structure, was completely gutted. The blaze began in the basement and shot up the elevator shaft, cutting off the escape of many persons on the upper floors, some of whom were compelled to jump into nets held by firemen. Two firemen were badly injured and four persons were hurt by jumping from the windows. The loss on the building and store, together with a number of offices on the third, fourth and fifth floors, is at least $200,000.

A Church Fight Carried to the Grave.

Columbus, Nov. 13.—The split in the Independent German Lutheran church of this city is to be carried to the grave of Rev. Christian Haddens, its former pastor, who on Monday was found dead near New York. When Rev. Haddens grew old and became "queer" the younger members of the congregation forced his retirement from the pastorate. With Haddens there went out of the church most of its old members. Now these old members do not want Haddens' body buried from the Independent church and have arranged for funeral services to be held at the First Universalist church.

Benties the Rumors.

Cincinnati, Nov. 13.—In addition to the recent rumors of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton system being acquired by the Erie, it was also reported that John W. Gates and associates were negotiating for this system to be used in connection with lines that the Gates syndicate has secured west of the Monon and the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton system. President Woodford is here. He as well as other officials of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railway deny the reports about the Gates as well as the Erie deal.

Appointed a New Receiver.

Columbus, Nov. 13.—After two years of warring, the differences between the Columbus and Cleveland stockholders of the Federal Gas and Fuel Co. have been settled. Judge Badger yesterday took the plant of the company out of the hands of Receivers Lampman and Stoddard and placed it in the hands of F. M. Peet, E. M. Poston and Charles Kurtz, of this city, have sold out their interests to Cleveland capitalists whom the new receiver represents. The company will now extend its local mains.

Organized to Oppose a Trust.

Cincinnati, Nov. 13.—At yesterday's session of the cracker bakers the report of the committee on permanent organization was adopted and an organization effected in opposition to the National Biscuit Co., under the name of "The Biscuit and Cracker Manufacturers' Association of the United States." Secretary Callahan, after the convention adjourned, said: "Fifty firms paid the initiation fee at this meeting and are now enrolled as members."

A Fierce Gale.

Cleveland, Nov. 13.—A fierce west to northwest gale raged on Lake Erie Tuesday. A heavy sea was running, the waves dashing over the breakwater and leaping 20 to 30 feet in the air. Capt. Motley and the entire life saving crew put out in one of the large lifeboats and rumors were current that they had gone to the relief of a steamer in distress, but the crew was only taking its regular weekly practice.

Convicted of Forgery.

Cleveland, Nov. 13.—Lafayette Willson, a young man from Lorain, who is charged with forging his father's name to a money order and who answered to the charge in the United States district court, was found guilty of uttering forgery on the second count Tuesday. His counsel asked for three days' suspension of sentence in which time to file a motion for a new trial. The time was granted.

Didn't Spend a Cent.

Columbus, Nov. 13.—J. B. Holman, of Brown county, ran on the state board of public works, without spending a single penny, according to his statement, filed with the secretary of state. He didn't even pay an assessment to the state committee.

Was Fined $100 and Costs.

Cleveland, Nov. 13.—Huber Trifflinger, living three miles from Lisbon, paid a fine of $100 and costs in United States district court, Tuesday, as the penalty for destroying a rural free mail delivery box in front of a neighbor's house. The costs amounted to $60.

Killed by a Falling Brick.

Steubenville, Nov. 13.—On Tuesday while Jasper Starr, an employe of Sharp's foundry, was cleaning out the cupola, a brick fell from the top, striking him on the head and inflicting injuries that resulted fatally.

Settled by Arbitration.

Columbus, Nov. 13.—At the meeting of the executive board of Ohio Mine Workers yesterday it was announced that the strike of 250 miners at the Milton Coal Co., in Jackson county, had been settled by arbitration and work resumed.

Bishop Dropped the Suits.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 13.—Bishop Bonanum, of the Catholic diocese, announced last night that he had dismissed the civil suits which sought to oust Father William Murphy, late parish priest at Seward, from the church property. Father Murphy was excommunicated by the bishop several weeks ago, but he refused to vacate the church property and in this was supported by a number of the parishioners.

Mrs. Kate Berg, Secretary Ladies' Auxiliary of Knights of Pythias, No. 58, Commercial Hotel, Minneapolis, Minn., After Five Years Suffering Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Whatever virtue there is in medicine seems to be concentrated in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for five years with profuse and painful menstruation until I lost flesh and strength, and life had no charms for me.

Only three bottles of your Vegetable Compound cured me, I became regular, without any pains, and hardly know when I am sick.

Some of my friends who have used your Compound for uterine and ovarian troubles all have the same good word to say for it, and bless the day they first found it."—MRS. KATE BERG.

$5000 FORFEIT IF THE ABOVE LETTER IS NOT GENUINE.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues, and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address Lynn, Mass.

W.L. DOUGLAS SHOES. $3.50-$5.00. SOLD IN OUR 63 RETAIL STORES. SOLD BY OVER 5,000 DEALERS. W.L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass.

FAVORITE HYMNS OF PRESIDENT MCKINLEY. ABSOLUTELY FREE. McKimley Music Co., Chicago, 303 Walsh Ave., New York, 24 Park Ave.

HAZARD GUN POWDER. THE POWER OF A PENNY. 10 STORY BOOK.

HAZARD GUN POWDER. DON'T BUY SEVERAL CHARGES AND POSSIBLY LEAVE IT TO STAY AND BURN. HAZARD GUN POWDER, WHETHER BLACK OR SMOKELESS, AND KILL AT FIRST SHOT.

THE POWER OF A PENNY. It will buy a charming story if invested in 10 STORY BOOK.

Money-Money FOR SALE.—Small mortgages interest on irrigated farms in the Great Platte Valley of Nebraska, where crops never fail. Write for information JAS. H. CASSELLMAN, President of the Irrigator's Bank, SCOTTSBLUFF, Nebraska.

READERS OF THIS PAPER DESIRING TO BUY ANYTHING ADVERTISED IN ITS COLUMNS SHOULD INSIST UPON HAVING WHAT THEY ASK FOR. REFUSING ALL SUBSTITUTES OR IMITATIONS.

PILES ANAKESIS. RHEUMATISM. DROPSY. STARK TESTES.

PILES ANAKESIS. RHEUMATISM. DROPSY. STARK TESTES. THE MEN ARE GETTING THEIR RIGHTS.

PILES ANAKESIS. RHEUMATISM. DROPSY. STARK TESTES. REVENGE IS LIKE A MULE—IT WORKS BOTH WAYS.—Chicago Daily News.