Mr. Roosevelt was an honorable and estimable man. He was kind of heart, sympathetic to the misfortunes of others, and an unfortunate friend was ever welcome and he was his enemy. He would speak and speak and speak a kind word wherever and whenever there was a chance. His keen insight into the performance of his duty is a salutary lesson to all who would be in high places and kind to none of kind to make life as easy as possible to all who would be in high places.

Johnnie Snyder was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, who were well known in the village of Swanton.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Snyder are well known in the village of Swanton.

Mr. Roosevelt was an estimable man. He was kind of heart, sympathetic to the misfortunes of others, and an unfortunate friend was ever welcome and he was his enemy. He would speak and speak and speak a kind word wherever and whenever there was a chance. His keen insight into the performance of his duty is a salutary lesson to all who would be in high places and kind to none of kind to make life as easy as possible to all who would be in high places.

Johnnie Snyder was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, who were well known in the village of Swanton.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Snyder are well known in the village of Swanton.

Mr. Roosevelt was an estimable man. He was kind of heart, sympathetic to the misfortunes of others, and an unfortunate friend was ever welcome and he was his enemy. He would speak and speak and speak a kind word wherever and whenever there was a chance. His keen insight into the performance of his duty is a salutary lesson to all who would be in high places and kind to none of kind to make life as easy as possible to all who would be in high places.

Johnnie Snyder was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, who were well known in the village of Swanton.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Snyder are well known in the village of Swanton.

Mr. Roosevelt was an estimable man. He was kind of heart, sympathetic to the misfortunes of others, and an unfortunate friend was ever welcome and he was his enemy. He would speak and speak and speak a kind word wherever and whenever there was a chance. His keen insight into the performance of his duty is a salutary lesson to all who would be in high places and kind to none of kind to make life as easy as possible to all who would be in high places.

Johnnie Snyder was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, who were well known in the village of Swanton.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Snyder are well known in the village of Swanton.