GILLETTE IS ELECTROCUTED

MAN WHO MURDERED SWEET-HEART MEETS DEATH CALMLY.

He Makes a Confession—Most Successful Electrocutation Ever Had in Auburn Prison.

Auburn, N. Y.—Chester Gillette was successfully electrocuted in Auburn prison on Monday morning at 6:18. It was the most successful electrocution ever had in Auburn prison. One contact of 1,800 volts at 7 1/2 amperes was all that was necessary to kill. This was turned on at 6:14:03 and off at 6:15:06 and Gillette was declared dead by Warden Benham at 6:18.

Gillette went to the chair unmoved and without showing the faintest sign of emotion. But one contact was required to make the slayer of Grace Brown pay the penalty of his crime. The electrocution lacked solemnity, and during most of the time, except for the brief space when the electric current was coursing through the man's body, there was a hum of voices in conversation. This grew so marked during the time that the physicians were making the examination of the body for life that the warden pounded on the tile floor of the chamber for silence.

The Rev. Henry MacIlvray, who had been with Gillette, was so overcome at the electrocution that he was taken from the death chamber. Fearful that he would collapse, he started for the door leading to the prison yard. Keepers walked beside him. Gillette walked firmly and briskly into the chamber. Chaplain Herrick and Rev. MacIlvray accompanied him. Gillette made a confession to his spiritual advisers. Regarding this the Rev. MacIlvray gave out this statement:

"Because our relationship with Chester Gillette was privileged we do not deem it wise to make a detailed statement, and simply wish to say that no legal mistake was made in his electrocution."

"HENRY MACILVRAY." Besides the confession Gillette left a communication with Warden Benham for young men.

LOVERS ARE FOUND DEAD

Found in Woods and Both Shot Through Head—Had Met in Secret.

Cleveland, O.—The tragedy of a Cleveland school teacher's love for a married man was disclosed on Monday morning by the discovery of the lovers' dead bodies in a field on Euclid Heights.

The dead woman was Miss Lena Ziechman, 31, a teacher in Mayfield school. She lived with her parents at 6520 Quincy avenue S. E. The man was Carl Bernthaler, 52, 1763 E. Thirty-third street, a music teacher. At one time he played in the Opera House orchestra and he was well known to musicians. Miss Ziechman was one of his pupils.

Both had been shot through the heart. Deputy Coroner Harry McNeill believes the man shot the woman and then committed suicide. Failure to find any trace of the revolver, after a thorough search, throws a shade of mystery about the affair and leads some to believe that both victims were murdered by a third person.

Evidence that the couple were at the fatal spot Saturday night was disclosed Monday. Charles Peters, foreman of the grading gang on Cedar avenue, was hanging signal lamps on the road Saturday at dusk. A man and a woman who Peters identifies positively as the murdered couple approached him at the corner of Cedar and Coventry road. They spoke to him, Peters says, and walked on. Dr. W. J. Rosenberg, 4405 Windsor avenue S. E., the Bernthalers' family physician, says he was acquainted with Miss Ziechman and that he believed her to be unbalanced mentally. "I am positive Miss Ziechman committed the tragedy," he said.

TO LAY DOWN THEIR PICKS

Union Miners in Most of Coal Fields of Country Will Quit Work—250,000 in Ohio.

Indianapolis, Ind.—The union miners in most of the coal fields of the country will lay down their picks and shovels Tuesday night. Almost 250,000 of them will stop work in Ohio, Western Pennsylvania, Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas and probably in Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, West Virginia and Kentucky. The mining contracts under which they are now working expire at midnight and, except in Central Pennsylvania and in the Indiana block coal district, no contracts have been made nor have the miners and operators yet entered into district agreements providing for the operation of the mines after April 1 pending agreement. This is a possibility in the Indiana bituminous coal district, in Illinois, Michigan and West Virginia. The Indiana bituminous, Western Pennsylvania and Illinois miners and operators are in joint sessions at Terre Haute, Pittsburg and Springfield. Technically the miners will go out on strike but in reality they stop work because the operators, except in Indiana and Illinois, show no real intention of meeting and treating with them, though no question of wage or principle is at stake.

The Mayflower at New Orleans. New Orleans, La.—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt and her children on Monday disembarked from the yacht Mayflower, in which they are making a trip down the Mississippi river, and spent several hours inspecting a Louisiana sugar plantation. The plantation visited was the "Evan Hall," owned by Harry McCall, collector of customs of New Orleans.

NEW YORK SCENE BOMB THROWING

HUNDREDS SINGING THE "MARBELLAISE" CLUBBED BY POLICE—A WILD MOB.

WOMAN LENDS HER HELP

Dying Man Says He Had Commission to Kill Police, but Will Not Implicate Others—Several Arrests Are Made.

New York City.—Anarchy red hatted and red handed Saturday night hurled the bomb of death into the very center of New York.

A bomb, intended to annihilate the police squad that had been sent to prevent an unlawful gathering of agitators, masquerading under the title of the "unemployed," killed Selig Silverstein, the man who hurled it. It also killed his companion, so far unidentified. Fifty people, clubbed to the earth by the attacking police, were added to the list of injured.

Ten thousand people, jammed and packed in the confines of Union square, furnished the audience. Behind the actor of the leading role in this tragedy of a great city there stood a woman. She watched the bomber throw a brass cylinder from his pocket. She even smiled as he took a match, struck it and lighted the fuse. She moved back a few feet to allow him room to swing his murderous arm. She stood unabashed as the engine of death and destruction blew to bits the companion of the murderer and then, captured by the police, hysterically refused to say who she was or whence she came.

Union square, the scene of this terrorism, is in the center of downtown New York.

For a week the meeting of the "unemployed" had been scheduled to take place in this square. The police had refused permits for the meeting. Agitators, taking advantage of the business and political conditions in the country, had picked the day and the spot to make socialistic capital. In the early afternoon it rained. The meeting was delayed. The sun came to push away the clouds and the leaders took their hosts to the square in little knots. Red hats, red cards, incendiary mottoes and all of the letter and spirit that defies organized society under whatever name appeared on the scene.

LAWSON'S STOCKS SOARED

Riotous Scenes on New York City Curb Market—Millions of Dollars Change Hands.

New York City.—With the windows of 20-story skyscrapers serving as the amphitheater from which an enormous throng viewed the riotous scene hatless, coatless and collarless curb brokers pulled off a near riot Saturday while Thomas W. Lawson gathered in some of the $2,500,000 of public money in the bargain counter rush for Yukon Gold.

A conservative estimate places the total sales at $50,000 shares at an average price of $6. The contest swung between 5 1/2 and 7 1/2, with the bulk of the trading at the 6 figure. Never before has the value and effect of newspaper advertising been more thoroughly demonstrated. With $3,500,000 of Yukon in hand Lawson set out to sell it at one swoop. While $10,000,000 had been spent in the development of the property by the Guggenheims no gold has ever been taken from the mines. It was a prospect, and the public that fell over itself stood identically in the light of a combination that "grubstakes" a prospector for the people sharing his winnings or bearing his losses.

With this fully understood, 5,000 people surged about the curb where the ropes that are used to hold the brokers in check were swept aside and the most riotous scene was enacted that has ever marked the handling of a single stock.

WOMAN AND LOVER DEAD

Believed that Woman Killed Man and Then Shot Himself—Were Old Time Friends.

Cleveland, O.—A double tragedy which disclosed as it ended the double life of E. J. Glendinning, traveling salesman, 1045 East Fortieth street, was discovered Sunday at Sandusky, when Glendinning and Mrs. Kathryn Hughes, dressmaker, were found dead in her apartments.

Mrs. Harry Hickman, a sister of Mrs. Hughes, knocked at the door, then pushed it open. The woman was sitting in a chair before the mirror with a bullet through her temple. Glendinning lay dead at her feet with a wound through the temple. A revolver was on the floor.

Just which one did the shooting perhaps will never be known, but Chief of Police Weingates is of the opinion that it was the woman.

Glendinning, a salesman for the Fried Cloak Co., West Ninth street, was expected home by his wife at 3 o'clock yesterday. At 2:45 she received a telegram telling her of her husband's tragic death.

Went Away to Kill Himself.

Warren, O.—"I am going away from here and kill myself," wrote Verna Champlin, 18 years old, of DeForest Wednesday. Friday she was found in a deserted building, unconscious and with an empty carbolic acid bottle in her hand. A physician from this city was summoned and after a brief examination he said the "suicide" was a fake. About 18 months ago the girl attracted considerable attention as her case in that type of hysteria that enables her to lie in a trance for weeks at a time. At that time, after a sleep of about three weeks, she was discovered one afternoon still asleep on her bed with her mouth and cheeks burned with an acid.

His mother attempted to wrench the bottle from his grasp, but failed.

Wheat Looks Best in Years.

Chardon, O.—Fall sown wheat is looking as green as velvet and the outlook for a heavy crop is better than for years. This is due to two reasons. It has been a mild winter, and many farmers followed the advice received from the state agricultural station and drilled in wheat as late as September 28 and October 1, thus escaping insects. Late planting in this region, it is said, will insure a third larger wheat crop.

"Rookey George" Missing.

Cadiz, O.—Three Italian sector workmen who lived in a shanty near Miller's Station were shot and killed Sunday. "Rookey George," who also lived in the shanty, is missing. The men who were killed were supposed to have had a considerable amount of money on their persons. Their money belts were rifled and their pockets turned inside out.

Nearly $2,500 has already been raised and in the hands of the Chamber of Commerce for this purpose.
