OHIO SUPREME COURT

Sustains Decision of Probate Judge Nearing of Wood County.

The supreme court of Ohio sustains a recent decision rendered by Probate Judge Nearing in which he held that it was unnecessary to surrender a prescription.

The question arose in the case of the state against George Rogers, a Bowling Green druggist, who was charged with violation of the Rose law. A man had got a prescription from a physician and got it filled at the Rogers' drug store. Among the ingredients was whisky, the man doing the mixing himself.

Prosecutor Dunpace contended that the prescription should have been surrendered after it had been filled the first time and should then have been cancelled by the druggist and kept on file by him. The defendant demurred to this interpretation of the law and Judge Nearing held that the prescription need not be surrendered. Prosecutor Dunpace took the case up to supreme court for its interpretation of the law and that highest court of Ohio has just rendered the same decision as given by Judge Nearing.

For a mild, easy action of the bowels, a single dose of Doan's Regulets is enough. Treatment cures habitual constipation. 25 cents a box. Ask your druggist for them.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

First of Week Spent in Trying will Case.

Court opened Monday morning with Judge Duncan of Findlay on the bench. The forenoon was occupied in securing a jury before whom the case of Ophelia A. Lusk against George W. Hedge is being heard. This case was heard in common pleas court over a year ago and resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff. It was carried to the circuit court and remanded for second trial in common pleas. The plaintiff, the only girl in the family, was given $100 by the will, while the balance of the property was divided among four brothers. The plaintiff claims undue influence was used to have the testator favor his sons and practically cut off the daughter. It is being stubbornly contested by the attorneys on both sides.

R. F. Baker, the ex-saloonist of North Baltimore, is in the Wood county jail.

Some time ago Baker was convicted of violating the Rose law. There were two counts against him, one for selling liquor and the other for keeping a place where liquor was sold. For the one offense he was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs; for the other, $50 and costs.

Baker did not show up in court at the time he was to be sentenced and his bond was declared forfeited. Friday he returned to North Baltimore and his bondsmen delivered him into the hands of the sheriff. He stated that he had been out west.

Non-Support.

Palmer Wilson of Luckey, has been sentenced to four months' imprisonment in the workhouse for failure to support his children, but the sentence has been suspended to give him opportunity to make good his pledge to do better.

Leonard Taylor of Bloomdale, has been arrested also for non-support.

Mary Long has brought suit for divorce against John W. Long to whom she was married December 20th, 1908. They have no children. She accuses her husband of non-support and using insulting language. The Exchange Bank of Bloomdale, and Daniel W. Long are made party defendants, she alleging that they hold money belonging to her husband. She asks for alimony and restoration to her maiden name of Mary Hurst.

George A. Kellogg and Mattie Krieger have brought suit against Mattie Dolan to recover full title to 12 acres in section 24, Plain township on which they state defendant has a defective tax title.

Irene A. Uhler wants a divorce from William A. Uhler to whom she was married March 11th, 1898, in Toledo. They have two sons aged ten and eight. She charges habitual drunkenness, threats of death, striking of her, etc., so that she was compelled to leave him two years ago. She also states that when he is sober, he can earn $20 to $25 per week, but that he fails to support his family. She asks for alimony that will enable her to give her children a comfortable home of whom she asks the custody.

Answers.

Answering the suit of George C. Emerick vs. Clarence F. Wetmore et al., Exea Ducat presents a claim of $309.73 on a note given February 3rd, 1909, by the Wetmore's and secured by chattel mortgage. He charges that they are giving other chattel mortgages on the same and are not taking care of the property. In answer to the suit of Wm. H. McMillen, as administrator of the

ANOTHER SHOOTING

Portage Woman Shot and Narrowly Escapes Death.

On Wednesday evening last, the village of Portage was almost paralyzed over a shooting affair which occurred there, when Guilbert Warner shot Mrs. Bert Philo. The shooting did not terminate fatally although it was evidently the intention of the man who did the shooting.

Warner had evidently been drinking and returning to Portage from Bowling Green, he drove to the Philo residence and, alighting, walked in at the kitchen door without knocking. He found Mrs. Philo busy getting supper and her husband in an adjoining room. Without any preliminaries he pulled out a revolver and fired at the woman, who threw her arm up over her head, and to this fact probably owes her life, as the bullet struck her arm near the elbow and glanced off.

The wounded woman rushed from the house and hid in the weeds along the ditch until Warner drove away, then went to the residence of Gust Maurer, near by.

When Mr. Philo heard the shot and saw the cause of the trouble, he jumped through the window and ran for help. With the assistance of other citizens he went back to the house to find it deserted.

In the meantime Warner had gone to the Maurer house and asked for Mrs. Philo and displaying a revolver declared he intended to kill her. Before he could find the woman Sheriff Roach and Deputy Davenport arrived and secured the belligerent gentleman and marched him over to Bowling Green, where he is now thinking it over in the county jail.

He was given a hearing before Justice Reid and plead not guilty to the charge of shooting with intent to kill, and was bound over to await the action of the next grand jury, which will probably take up his case in January.

WOOD COUNTY MAN

President of a $10,000,000 Window Glass Corporation.

Report comes from Pittsburg, Pa., that a consolidation of all the window glass factories in this country that do not use the machine blowers will be consolidated with a capital of $10,000,000, and will probably begin a war against the American Window Glass company's machine-made product.

Myron L. Case of Bowling Green, was made president of the new company.

FUNERAL OF JOHN KOHL.

The funeral services conducted at the home by Dr. N. B. C. Love, who preached the sermon, with reading the scripture lesson and prayer by Rev. E. T. Webster, pastor of the Methodist church. A very large concourse of people were in attendance. The interment was in Ft. Meigs cemetery.

OBITUARY.

John Kohl was born in Nurnberg, Germany, March 10th, 1848. When four years old he came with his parents to Berea, Cuyahoga county, Ohio, where he resided twelve years. On October 19th, 1864, the family moved to a small farm three miles south of Perrysburg, where he began his life work. On October 16th, 1872, he was married to Caroline L. Davenport, and three years later they purchased the Davenport farm, a mile to the south, where they still lived at the time of his death. He was taken to his sick bed on the thirty-seventh anniversary of his marriage, and passed away on the forty-fifth anniversary of his coming to this country. Four children were born to him: Edward and Earle, who died in infancy, and Clayton and Meltha, who survive him. These two with their mother, a daughter-in-law, and a grandson, bearing his grandfather's name, mourn his loss. Three brothers, Conrad, Henry and William, and two sisters, Caroline Schaller and Lizzie Pruden, also survive him.

The deceased was a man of simple and pure habits, devoted to his family and fond of his work. A few weeks before his death he said if he had his life to live over he would again be a farmer. His strong and healthy body made him crave manual labor, and his pride in his work caused him always to do things well. Although his activity was largely physical, nevertheless there was a sentiment in his nature that scarcely anyone knew. He loved the woods and fields of grain and he delighted in seeing things grow. Although he professed no religious creed, he had a faith in God that was almost primitive in its strength and simplicity. He was certain of his death months before it occurred, and yet he never complained or manifested any fear. His last days were admirable examples of calm and courage. In his moral life, his maxim was honesty. He had a perfect contempt for the man who took that which he had no right to take. In all his public service, he tried to do for society as he would for himself—he cared not to reap personal benefit. His greatest legacy to his family and friends is the memory that he tried to do right as he saw it.

THE NEW EXCHANGE

Another Ohio Telephone Company Making Haste with New Quarters.

It makes no difference, whether the reported consolidation of the Bell and the Independent telephone companies is true or false, Perrysburg is to have a new telephone exchange just the same and the Northern Ohio Telephone Company of this place is rushing the work on their new headquarters and are rapidly getting in shape to transfer the business to the new offices.

The cable has been laid along Main street; the new switch board has arrived and will soon be ready to connect up and by the middle of next month everything will be ready to turn the former Centennial hall into a first-class "Hello" headquarters.

The hall is a splendid location for an exchange and with the new equipment which is of the very latest and most approved style there will not be a better appointed telephone exchange of its size in Ohio.

Manager Jerrett is busy from early morn till late at night with the work and when he is located in the new offices will have reason to feel proud of his work.

The room soon to be occupied by this company has had a varied career. Scarcely had the building been erected when it was rented by the Presbyterian church and was occupied by them for many years. Later it was used as a public hall until leased to Perrysburg Lodge Knights of Pythias and was occupied by that order until leased by the telephone company, and will now be the central point for the exchange of talk of the community.

PERRYSBURG FOOT BALL

The Perrysburg foot ball team has now re-organized and the prospects are that they will have one of the strongest and fastest teams ever turned out on the local gridiron.

The old saying that "in union there is strength," seems to apply very well to the team that is to represent Perrysburg for the balance of the season. Two teams were organized here this fall and neither seemed to be very successful. The newly organized aggregation constitutes the best of the material in the other two teams and as they have been practicing faithfully for the past three weeks under the direction of John Amon, who has been elected captain, they should be able to give a good account of themselves. It is contemplated that during the week the services of a coach will be secured to take charge of the team.

Next Sunday afternoon they will line up against the fast Ann Arbors of Toledo. Ladies will be admitted free and it is hoped there will be a large attendance. The following players are trying out for the team:

Bert Honnor, Chester Mills, Harold Munger, Fred Cranker, George Dibling, Chas. Noble, Chas. Munger, Henry Stewart, Louis Hillabrand, Wm. Heckler, Chas. Mills, J. Long, Chas. Ries, Ralph Wolf, H. Powell, John Amon, Capt., A. J. Hahn, Mgr.
