FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1910.

The events of the last week indicate that American affairs, political and ecclesiastical, occupy attention on both sides of the Atlantic. The Roosevelt Vatican incident is discussed not only in Washington and in every city and home in the United States, but also in Rome and all European capitals and centers.

The Washington Board of Trade and its Chamber of Commerce have enthusiastically undertaken the work of promoting an international exposition to be held at the capital of the United States in 1915 in celebration of the completion of the Inter-oceanic Canal at Panama.

PIONEER SCRAP-BOOK

Contains Important Historical Incidents Connected with Wood County and Maumee Valley.

The Pioneer Scrap-Book, compiled from papers and material by the late Charles W. Evers, and edited by F. J. Obinger of Toledo, has just been issued by H. S. Chapin of The Wood County Democrat.

A striking feature of the Pioneer Scrap-Book is the notable address delivered by Gen. W. H. Harrison on the occasion of the great political meeting at Fort Meigs during the "Hard Cider" campaign of 1840.

Mr. Evers was a close student of the history of Wood county and the Maumee Valley, and during his life wrote and compiled a vast amount of intensely interesting historical matter included in this work.
