BREEDING FINE ANIMALS

Horses of Lewis Manor Farms Win Many Prizes.

The recent importation of horses by the Lewis Manor Farm, Perrysburg, is well worth the attention of the farmers and breeders in this neighborhood and a visit to these farms to see the stock will be a pleasant surprise to many. These horses are well worth any man's time to see, whether in the market or not.

The Belgians are a splendid type, with the best of feet and legs, plenty of bone and quality, and have weight enough to suit anybody. These horses show for themselves that careful attention must have been made in selecting them as they show strong individuality of their breed.

The Shires are as good as I have ever seen and fit to show in any class. They are of excellent blood lines that show careful and conscientious matings.

Most of these mares and stallions are only two years and three years old, which was a great surprise to me, as most of them must weigh a ton or over.

The hunters are the first that have ever been imported to this country, and are certainly magnificent horses, showing great staying and jumping power, and built to carry a man the right way, and quite exciting to see the way they take the many different jumps at a gallop.

Mr. Lewis deserves great praise for his skill in securing such splendid stock. It is coming to be recognized by all up-to-date farmers that it is just as cheap to raise good horses or horses of good blood, as to raise the ordinary kind, and it is well known that good horses and the colts, such as Belgians and Shires, bring prices far in excess of the common kind.

There is no reason why this county, with its rich soil, should not become famous, as well as profitable, with its blooded stock. All the horses on the Lewis farms that are for sale should be bought by the farmers of this county, and none of them be permitted to go outside.

When you want a reliable medicine for a cough or cold take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

ATTEMPT TO BREAK WILL.

An attempt to set aside the will of Mary Taylor, who died in Perrysburg, November 29th, 1912, leaving about $1,565.55 in personal property and two houses in Perrysburg worth $3,000, is made in the suit brought by Mary E. Snyder et al. vs. Norman L. Hanson, executor of Mary Taylor, deceased, et al. The plaintiffs are children of John Taylor, brother of Ashton Taylor, deceased, whose widow was the alleged maker of the will which plaintiffs seek to set aside. Mary Taylor left no blood relatives. The will has been admitted to probate. Among the beneficiaries of that will are the trustees of the Anti-Saloon League of Ohio, trustees of the M. E. and Presbyterian church and Board of Education of Perrysburg, also some of the relatives of her husband; all are made defendants.

When you have a bilious attack give Chamberlain's Tablets a trial. They are excellent. For sale by all dealers.—adv.

WANTS $15,000 DAMAGES

Echos of a Disagreement Among Local Stock Men.

Two suits have been brought in common pleas court in which Frederick W. V. Colina is the plaintiff and Donald R. Acklin is the defendant. In one suit the plaintiff seeks dissolution of a partnership and the appointment of a receiver pending the final hearing. He says that in March, 1912, the two entered into an agreement whereby plaintiff was to look after stallions and other horses belonging to the defendant; that he as to receive half of the profits from the former and one-third of the profits by reason of selling the latter at an advance over their cost when purchased in England; also that he was to receive a shire colt born in 1912. He asserts he has fulfilled his part of the contract, but that the defendant has refused to abide by the terms of the agreement and that it is impossible for them to settle. In a second suit Colina asks for $15,000 damages from Acklin for slanderous statements alleged to have been made by the defendant against the plaintiff, $5,000 on each of two counts, and $5,000 for making a similar statement to plaintiffs wife, thereby causing a great nervous shock to her, according to the plaintiff.

WE TRY TO PLEASE EVERYBODY.

No one knows better than the country editor how utterly impossible it is to please everybody.

We are glad to receive items of news from our subscribers and others, and we make every possible effort to write those items as nearly correct as possible. Of course, we make mistakes, but those people who find their items incorrectly reported should please remember that it is not always possible to correctly understand what is said over any telephone.

In the matter of publishing items for entertainments we find we are also frequently misjudged. All who are interested in such matters should please understand that it has become necessary for us to make one universal rule in regard to such matters, and that rule is:

All items advertising an entertainment at which an admission fee is charged, or which is conducted for the purpose of making money, will be inserted only at the regular advertising rate of 5 cents per line.

There will be no deviation from this rule, and we have been compelled to adopt it after finding that every other plan has only made us trouble and proven entirely unsatisfactory in every case.

Wherever charity is needed, the editor will personally attend to his share of contributions, but in business matters, the above rule will be adhered to very strictly, and refers to every class of public entertainment where a price is charged.

This rule is not made through malice or ill will toward any person or class of people. We are very anxious to do everything possible for the advancement of Perrysburg and Perrysburg institutions, but experience has taught us that we only make trouble for ourselves by treating such matters in any other manner.

WANTS A DIVORCE.

Wm. Daniells has brought suit for divorce from Libbie Daniells on the ground of willful absence for three years and gross neglect of duty. They were married at Perrysburg June 26th, 1901, plaintiff says, and have two children, aged ten and six, after whose care and support defendant agreed to look under an agreement entered into after her departure, according to plaintiff's statement. He says the defendant also waives alimony under this agreement.

Persons troubled with partial paralysis are often very much benefited by massaging the affected parts thoroughly when applying Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment also relieves rheumatic pains. For sale by all dealers.

PIGS HAVE RIGHTS

Unfeeling Farmer Compelled to Give Animals Proper Shelter.

Because he afforded no shelter for a bunch of swine, nor a place fit for them to eat or sleep, Humane Officer Gangwer swore out a warrant for the arrest of Gust Kries, who resides on the Winchell farm, south of town. Numerous complaints had been made to the officer, and upon making an investigation he found the hogs covered with mud, part of which had frozen to their backs, and that they had nothing but a mud-hole for a bed. The feeding place was muddy and that mud to a depth of six to twelve inches covered the space in which they were penned.

The case was tried before Justice Plummer last Tuesday, and the accused entered a plea of guilty, and was assessed a fine of $5 and costs, which amounted in all to $10.75. The fine was made light on account of the man having sold out and intending to leave this section. Also that he was a renter and was not provided with material with which to build a decent place for the hogs.—Risingsun Unique.

One Minute Sermon.
Here is a thought for Lincoln's birthday. Lincoln once said this of the Bible—"In regard to this great Book, I have but to say, it is the best gift God has given to man. All the good our Saviour gave to the world was given through this book. But for it we could not know right from wrong. All things for man's welfare here and hereafter, are to be found portrayed in it."

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a world-wide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon? It is known everywhere as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and is a medicine of real merit. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

AWARDED FIVE CENTS

Celebrated Suit Against Standard Oil Co. Finally Closed.

Judge Baldwin presided at the trial of the George H. Phelps vs. The Ohio Oil Co. case in Findlay.

The Findlay Republican said: "The trial of the $100,000 damage case of George H. Phelps against the Ohio Oil Company, the Solar Refining Company the Buckeye Pipe Line Company and the Standard Oil Company came to an abrupt close in common pleas court Friday morning when Judge Frank A. Baldwin of Bowling Green, presiding in the trial, directed the jury to return a verdict of 5 cents for the plaintiff.

Judge Baldwin's action was taken on motion of the defendants who asked several days ago that the court direct a verdict of nominal damages for Phelps. The costs will be taxed against the defendants.

Phelps' contention in the case was that the Standard and its three former subsidiaries had entered into a combination whereby competition was stifled that he had been unable to sell the product of his oil leases for the sum he would have received had there been no "combine."

DEATH OF JOHN BENCH.

Monday, January 29, occurred the death of John Bench, one of Perrysburg township's well known and esteemed citizens, at his home on the Oregon road near Hobart. He was the elder of two sons born to Mr. and Mrs. Job Bench and first saw the light of day August 2, 1855, at East Toledo.

At the age of four years he removed with his parents to Lime City, where he resided for a number of years before and after the death of his parents. In the spring of 1878, April 30th, he took as life's companion Miss Julia, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bauer of Lime City. In later years he removed to a farm east on the Maumee pike at the intersection of the Oregon road. Ten years ago he purchased the fine farm and home where he resided until death claimed him.

During his residence at and near Lime City deceased was active in church work, and for a number of years filled the position of superintendent of the Sunday School of that village.

Mr. Bench was a prosperous farmer and respected citizen. About two years ago he was attacked by cancer and this finally resulted in his death. Patience, good cheer and Christian fortitude triumphantly met the attendant pain and suffering and he was permitted to gently sleep away on the above date, at the age of 57 years 5 months 25 days.

Those who survive him are the bereaved wife, one daughter, Lottie, wife of Chas. Swartz; two sons, William and Edward; four grandchildren, and one brother, of Swanton, Ohio.

The funeral services were very largely attended on the following Thursday morning and were conducted by Rev. J. Born at the Lime City church. Interment took place at Ft. Meigs cemetery, Perrysburg.
