FOOTBALL SEASON

Opened With an Even Score Game With Toledo Navys.

Perrysburg opened their football season Sunday afternoon with the Navys of Toledo, and played a scoreless game.

The Navys showed their strength by bringing a carload of rooters, and their quartette made a great hit.

The game was a see-saw affair as the teams were evenly matched. The visitors made their gains on short forward passes and line plunges.

The locals' gains were on long forward passes.

On November 12 the Navys will be back for another game.

Don't forget next Sunday's game.

The Classers lost their game to the heavy Maumee team at Maumee, 68 to 0.

Next Sunday the Thelma football team will be here to battle with the locals. The Thelmas are a fast eleven and a good game is assured.

The Classers will play the Riverside, Jr. Their game will start at 1 o'clock.

A PERRYSBURG ROBBERY.

One night last week thieves broke into the home of one of our well-known citizens and made their escape with about $35.00 in money together with numerous other articles.

We read every day of hundreds of such affairs but pass over them lightly and give them little thought. However when one of our fellow-citizens meets with a loss of this kind, it makes more of an impression upon us. Little do we know whose home in Perrysburg will be next and if it is yours, will your money be there ready for them or will it be deposited in our bank where your money is protected from such a loss?

We have no higher mission, no greater privilege, than conserving and safeguarding the profits of your labor.

Better be safe than sorry

How Catarrh is Contracted.

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucus membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden. Many persons who have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere.

THROUGH THE AIR

Chicago to New York, Sunrise to Sunset by Aeroplane.

Special correspondence to the Journal from the New York Times says:

Mr. E. L. Blue, Journal, Perrysburg, O.

Dear Sir:—Victor Carlstrom, the aviator, is about to attempt a non-stop, sunrise to sunset, aeroplane flight from Chicago to New York for the New York Times, probably in the week of October 10-17. It is expected that he will fly over or near your town. Should he do so, will you kindly wire "collect" at once a brief dispatch to "The Times, New York," telling where and at what time the machine passed, and your estimate of its altitude and speed?

In the event of descent or accident, please wire a full report.

Yours very truly,

C. V. VAN ANDA,
Managing Editor.

As the editor cannot keep his eye on the heavens every moment during the entire week, we will be pleased to be called by phone by any person who may observe the daring aviator in the air above or within sight of Perrysburg. Possibly he may pass over before this paper reaches its readers.

RESIDENCE BURGLARIZED.

On Wednesday night last burglars entered the residence of Mr. B. Trudeau and appropriated two pocket books containing about $35, and several other valuable articles. They gained entrance through a window. They were frightened away by Mrs. Trudeau, who was up stairs.

THINKING OF HOME.

Redlands, Cal., Oct. 5, 1916.

Dear Mr. Blue:—Enclosed find P. O. money which will pay my subscription in advance for the Journal.

I always enjoy reading the Journal and miss it if it does not arrive on time. Years do not seem to lessen my interest in Perrysburg where I raised the devil in my early boyhood days. I am in hopes I will be able to see all of you again next fall.

Southern California is enjoying the general prosperity of the country (thanks to Mr. Wilson's protective tariff on foreign oranges and lemons—I guess not) by having returned to it very good prices for its citrus fruits on account of the buying power of the east.

I guess the working class have lots of money now, and they are the ones who buy the most of our oranges and lemons.

You all want to buy "Sunkist." With best regards I am,
Sincerely yours,
PIERCE H. NORTON.

A Clogged System Must Be Cleared.

You will find Dr. King's New Life Pills a gentle yet effective laxative for removing impurities from the system. Accumulated waste poisons the blood; dizziness, biliousness and pimply, muddy complexion are the distressing effects. A dose of Dr. King's New Life Pills tonight will assure you a free, full bowel movement in the morning. At your Druggist 25c.

IMPORTANT MEETING

Civic Association Approaching Date of Annual Election.

Perrysburg, O., Oct. 7, 1916.

To the Members of Perrysburg Civic Association and Citizens. Your kind attention is directed to the importance of the next three (3) regular meetings of this Association, viz: Thursday, October 12th, Thursday, November 9th, and Thursday, December 14th, being the election of a board of trustees and officers for the coming year.

The constitution provides as follows:

Article VII, Sec. 1. "At the October meeting of the association a committee of five (5) shall be appointed by the president, whose duty it shall be to nominate as candidates for the board of trustees, twice as many active members as there are places to be filled on said board of trustees."

Section 2. "At the November meeting, this committee shall report their nominations to the association."

Article VIII, Sec. 1. "The annual election of the board of trustees shall be held on the second Thursday of December, and the installation on the second Thursday of January, following the election."

The writer believes this association should be perpetuated, that the citizens should attend its meetings, and take an active part in promoting our common welfare.

Even though you cannot attend all its sessions, it is of more than ordinary importance that you attend these meetings, which shall fix and elect the officers and board.

LEFT HIS CLOTHES

Upon Porch of Preachers Home and Then Departed.

On Friday morning as the family of Rev. W. H. Pheley opened the door leading to the side porch of their front street residence they discovered a man's clothing on the porch. The wardrobe consisted of a hat, coat, trousers and shoes. In the clothing was an Ingersoll watch, $1.35 in change and several handkerchiefs.

Evidence that the man had gone down the hill toward the river led to the belief that he had committed suicide. The river was dragged by A. J. Witzler and others but no body was found.

Whether this fellow was an insane person or one of the old-fashioned kind who believed in making a fall donation to the preacher is not known.

Dependancy.

When you feel discouraged and dependant do not give up but take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you are almost certain to feel all right within a day or two. Dependancy is very often due to indigestion and biliousness, for which these tablets are especially valuable. Obtainable everywhere.

RANDOM RECOLLECTIONS

Some Presidential Campaigns of Many Years Ago.

The Republican party had nominated Hon. Rutherford B. Hayes, of Ohio, for president, and Hon. William A. Wheeler, of New York, for vice president, while the Democrats had nominated the Hon. Samuel J. Tilden, of New York, for president, and Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, for vice president. The head of the Republican ticket had been a major general in the Union army during the war of the rebellion, and had also served as governor of the state of Ohio. The head of the Democratic ticket, while not having a military record, was well and favorably known throughout the whole of the United States, he having served as governor of the state of New York, and during his term as such he had brought about some great and much needed reforms. The Democratic party adapted for its slogan during this campaign the phrase, "Tilden and Reform," while the Republicans had no campaign cry whatever, to the best of my recollection. The campaign was not at all spirited. All of the excitement came after the day of the election.

The electoral college at that time consisted of 369 votes, 185 of which were necessary to a choice for president. On the face of the returns the Democrats had carried enough of the states to give them a substantial majority of the electoral votes, but the Republicans claimed there had been gross frauds and intimidation in the election in several of the southern states. The controversy in regard to the returns from these disputed states was finally left for settlement to a commission appointed for the occasion, called the electoral commission. This commission was composed of five senators, five members of the house of representatives, and five justices of the United States supreme court. Politically there were in the commission eight Republicans and seven Democrats, and in their deliberations all of the matters in dispute were decided in a very partisan—8 to 7—manner, notably in the case of Louisiana, where the returning board had thrown out several thousand Democratic ballots in order to make it appear that the Republican electors had received a majority of the votes.

The other southern states, the returns from which were in dispute, were South Carolina and Florida. The electoral commission decided that the Republican candidates

CROP STATISTICS

Official Report of the State Board of Agriculture.

The reports of township assessors placed the wheat area in Ohio sown for the harvest of 1916 at 1,586,962, but owing to the severe cold weather the latter part of winter, a great deal of the wheat sown was so badly killed as to necessitate plowing up in the spring to utilize the land for other crops, especially was this true in the northwest section of the state, where 9,330 acres was reported as plowed up.

It is true there was a short acreage seeded as compared with that seeded for last year's harvest, but it is also true that there is a shorter product per acre by 8 bushels. Last year we had a crop of 36,030,238 bushels, and this year we fall 17,125,560 bushels below the crop of last year. Crop of 1915 still in producers' hands 13 per cent as compared with 9 per cent one year ago.

Oats show a low production, due to extreme dry weather. Harvest being estimated at 42,090,019 bushels; this is approximately 13,600,000 bushels less than 1915 production.

Barley also shows a decrease in estimated production per acre due to dry weather being 28 bushels as against 30 bushels in 1915.

Rye shows a decrease in area of 67,874 acres compared with 1915. The average production per acre was 16 bushels in 1916 as compared with 15 bushels in 1915.

Corn was very irregular in the early stages of its growth, but during the month of July, under the most favorable weather condition, it made rapid and remarkable progress, but the long continued hot, dry weather during August and September, interrupted and reduced the prospect. Early planted corn on good soil is a good crop and well matured, but the late planted is, much of it, light and many stalks without ears. For the state as a whole about 69 per cent of a full average product is the estimate, and under all the circumstances this is a gratifying showing.

As a result of unfavorable weather conditions at planting time, the ravages of bugs and the injury by drouth, the potato crop is short in most parts of the state very much so.

The Bank Is Safer Than the Stove.

SCARCELY a week goes by that the newspapers don't print a story of some foolish housewife who thoughtlessly started a fire in the stove where she had stored away the savings of a lifetime. Money placed in a stove or in a teapot or under a carpet does not draw interest. It is not safe from thieves. It is not safe from fire. Money deposited in a bank draws interest.
