THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1917

There is no necessity for letting the draft give you cold feet.

Even the patient consumer will turn if you tread on him long enough.

Would it be strange if "Peace without victory" should be the answer after all?

Another pathetic sight is a man bragging about the way he managed to get exempted.

"Scandinavian food shortage causes unrest," says a headline. Food shortage generally does.

That story about Nicholas Romanoff shoveling snow was probably started to make people envious.

Raising a war loan may present its difficulties; but it isn't half so hard as financing a vacation.

It is noticeable that the animals which grow furs are not wearing them very much this summer.

Defying the draft is a good deal like defying lightning, because if it hits you it's going to get you.

There is not court plaster enough in the world to cover all the wounds dealt to absolute monarchy.

The fellow who chops his trigger finger off to escape the draft will never point with pride to his record.

The girl who wears furs when the thermometer is above ninety doesn't run any great risk of brain trouble.

And, of course, in the meantime you are saving up your money so that you can get in on the next Liberty loan.

Nicholas Romanoff presents another case of the obscurity into which political prominence may suddenly relapse.

American soldiers do not like the name "Sammy." Very well, let them choose a name. It is their lawn party.

To any visitor from Mars this generation would have difficulty in explaining the jazz band as a symptom of sanity.

The household census in the interest of food conservation work should not be misunderstood. Its object is to help America.

When the family pup shall be taught to grow wool on his back he will have a better excuse for a continued existence.

The circulation is now $46.53 per capita. Perhaps you have noticed it spinning by as you were standing on the side lines.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Most Reliable.

After many years' experience in the use of it and other cough medicines, there are many who prefer Chamberlain's to any other. Mrs. A. C. Kirstein, Greenville, Ills., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my mother's home and mine for years, and we always found it a quick cure for colds and bronchial troubles. We find it to be the most reliable cough medicine we have used."

COLUMBIA TRIO CONCERT.

On Friday evening, October 5, at the town hall, Perryburg, the Columbia Trio will give one of their splendid musical entertainments.

The Columbian Trio Concert Company consists of Alva C. Fuhrman, violin, virtuoso, baritone and whistler; Charles J. Myers, flute soloist, piano and tenor; B. F. Williams, tenor soloist, humorist and piano accompanist. These celebrated musicians received their education and musical training at the Ohio Institution for the Blind, at Columbus, Ohio, and have traveled together twenty years, touring the United States from coast to coast, and from the gulf to the Great Lakes.

Their repertoire embraces over three hundred vocal and instrumental selections ranging from the popular hits of the day to the classic works of the old masters, which make the audience cry with laughter, and last, of the old-time melodies, which never fail to touch the most hard-hearted.

Admission, 25 and 15 cents.

Foot Ball Note.

Perryburg play at Liberty Center Sunday.

THE ORIGIN OF CHIROPRACTIC

The first Chiropractic adjustment was given in September, 1895, by Dr. D. D. Palmer, founder of the science.

In 1903 B. J. Palmer, D. C. P. H. C., son of the founder of the Chiropractic Science, became interested in the work of his father and has since devoted himself exclusively to the developing of it into a well defined non-therapeutic health system that bears no resemblance whatever to any other therapeutical methods.

Chiropractic is not medicine, surgery, mental suggestion or osteopathy. Samuel H. Weed, A. B., A. M., B. D., named the newly discovered health science Chiropractic. He translated the name from the Greek word "Chiro," meaning "to do by hand," and "Praktik," meaning "done skillfully," thus coining the word Chiropractic.

Sour Stomach.

Eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, abstain from meat for a few days and in most cases the sour stomach will disappear. If it does not, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. Red meats are most likely to cause sour stomach and you may find it best to cut them out.

In over one million homes—in all sections of the country, from Maine to California— FAVORITE BASE BURNERS are providing warmth, comfort, satisfaction, and are saving money every day they are in use. There are scores of such Favorite homes right here in this town and vicinity.

If you will go into any one of them you will be invariably told that the Favorite saves from 2 to 3 tons of coal every year, keeping the entire house luxuriously warm and comfortable, day and night, in blizzard weather.

We sell Favorite Base Burners because we know they are the best heating stoves built in history of beauty, durability, and fuel-economy. Let us show them to you. You may as well save three tons of coal this winter with a Favorite, and you will get more heat and satisfaction, too.
