SCHOOL NOTES

Items Concerning Various Departments of the Public Schools

High School

We are all entrenched again at our school in preparation for our next battle, after being shot to pieces by the heavy artillery of our last examinations. Some felt retreat would be necessary but our commanders told us to do our best and win the flag of victory—Promotion. Several were rewarded for their good work by a vacation and many have resolved to have a whole week's vacation next semester.

In spite of a badly crippled team and man-freezing weather, the Perrysburg basketball team weathered the cold, and went up to Haskins to play a return game on January 18. The game was sensational—one of the fastest of the season—and "real playing" was the slogan of the sub-players. Charles Marvin did justice to his name as guard, while the remainder of the boys who have had more experience lived up to their name.

Line-up—Boys: Forwards—Charles Roberts and Arthur Reape; Guards—Harvey Haefner and Charles Marvin; Center—Jim Thiser. The score was 36—6 in favor of Haskins.

Line-up—Girls: Forwards—Mary Williams, Mildred Witzler and Dorothy Craig; Guards—Ethel Santschi and Camille Thornton; Center—Marguerite Hufford; Running Center—Mildred Budd. The score was 13—7 in favor of Haskins.

Eighth Grade

The eighth grade held their monthly business meeting last Friday. After the regular class business had been transacted the pupils were entertained by a very interesting program.

It is hoped that the results of the first semester's examinations may prove incentives for more strenuous work.

Rev. W. H. Pheley, Minister. In the Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. we are studying the "busy man's Gospel"—The Straightway Gospel of Mark. The lessons are most interesting and offer a fine opportunity to get a full view of the Life of Christ. The next lesson is "Jesus Forgives Sin"—Mark 2:1-12.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH.

We were all glad to get back to our usual classes last Sabbath, as we were deprived of this one week ago on account of the extreme cold and storm.

Sunday school at 9 a. m.; subject for next Sunday, Jan. 27, "Jesus Forgiving Sin." Golden Text, "The son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins." This is a period of great popularity in the public labors of Jesus. The teachings He uttered and especially the miracles He wrought gave Him great prestige in Galilee.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Danz. Y. P. A. business meeting will be held at James Scott's, Wednesday evening.

Y. P. A. Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Subject for the evening, "Young People's Alliance Goals and How to Reach Them." Pursue a steady purpose in life. Life is very precious in every part of it. There should be a high aim or goal for each one of us and we should struggle hard to reach it, or get as near to it as possible.

There is no room for an aimless, purposeless, goalless life on this earth. Preaching Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. We are glad to have (Continued on page 8.)

SOME OBSERVATIONS

Concerning Nothing Very Serious But Worthy of Thought.

Glibly speaking, a real democrat is a person who does not want to boss or be bossed.

In war, a nation is compelled to do much that it ought to do in time of peace, but does not.

If the German people could live on fine words the kaiser would have them all growing fat.

Germany can keep its autocracy if it will build an impenetrable barrier between itself and the rest of the world.

Apparently the time has come when the genuine American can speak for genuine Americanism without being cautioned that he is stepping on the feelings of an uninvited guest.

Accidents will happen and a girl might as well get used to having her heart broken once in a while.

Our idea of a wise man is one who isn't foolish enough to try to convince a woman by arguing with her.

Canada and the United States as becomes comrades in arms, are now sleeping under one snow blanket.

Washington would have swamped Berlin—sometime ago if we could win the war with official dignity.

More things are happening in Russia than were dreamed of in anybody's philosophy.

How to lose the war. Put Jim Reed, Vardaman and LaFollette on guard.

The ultimate consumer who ventured to complain about the price of coal long ago lost his voice in the rush to get any coal at all.

Passengers on water wagons this year are advised to keep a sharp lookout for hostile periscopes.

Are Your Sewers Clogged?

The bowels are the sewerage system of the body. You can well imagine the result when they are stopped up as is the case in constipation. As a purgative you will find Chamberlain's Tablets excellent. They are mild and gentle in their action. They also improve the digestion.

FOOD CONSERVATION

The report of the committee on food conservation of the Presbyterian church of Perrysburg, shows an average for the number of cards handed in of 8.4 wheatless meals per week and an average of 15.7 meatless meals, thus exceeding in each instance the request of the food administration which asked for 7 wheatless meals and 14 meatless meals.

In total saving the number of wheatless meals exceeded the government request by 401 and the meatless meals by 514.

Prefers Chamberlain's.

"In the course of a conversation with Chamberlain Medicine Co.'s representative today, we had occasion to discuss in a general way the merits of their different preparations. At his suggestion I take pleasure in expressing my estimation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have a family of six children and have used this remedy in my home for years. I consider it the only cough remedy on the market, as I have tried nearly all kinds."—Earl C. Ross, Publisher Hamilton County Republican-News, Syracuse, Kan.

Stomach Trouble.

If you have trouble with your stomach you should try Chamberlain's Tablets. So many have been restored to health by the use of these tablets and their cost is so little, 25 cents, that it is worth while to give them a trial.

AGRICULTURAL NOTES

Prepared for the Journal by Ohio Experiment Station.

Rural and village teachers of Wood County, as well as those of the rest of the state, are going to do their bit toward meeting the alarming seed corn shortage in Ohio. Much of the corn that is thought to be good is not standing the test. To supplement investigations the Agricultural Experiment Station is requesting that a test be made by the rural and village teachers of the seed corn to reveal the situation in their districts and to return the results to County Superintendent H. E. Halk. He will send them to the College of Agriculture, where they will be summarized. If the survey shows that the county faces a serious seed corn shortage, federal money will be used in buying seed corn in localities where it is available and selling it at cost to farmers.

Each rural and village school teacher is asked by the county superintendent to take two kernels from each of 50 ears of corn and to make a demonstration test in accordance with instructions forwarded to them.

Lime, fertilizer and manure are the keys to improvement of permanent pastures having good bluegrass sod, according to specialists of the Ohio Experiment Station who have conducted surveys and tests in seven counties in the southern half of the State. Plowing has proved somewhat detrimental to fields of this sort, but it has given the best stand of grass in the absence of a bluegrass sod.

For land where taprooted plants have out in winter or red clover does not thrive, alsike is recommended as an important clover seed to use in the seeding mixture. Because of its smaller seed it may constitute one-fourth of the entire bulk of clover seed. Where white clover thrives liming is considered unnecessary.

Nitrate of soda has brought a greater growth of grass having a darker green color. Phosphorus and lime thickened up the stand of grass and brought in more white clover, particularly on the Clermont County experiment farm.

Manure has caused a greater growth of grass in every instance. Heavy stocking with farm animals seemed to aid in keeping down weeds and sprouts and was not detrimental to the sward. Clipping pastures in June and August has helped to kill weeds and to cause grass to come up fresh.

CONSERVE THE PORK

Increased Production of Pork in Ohio is Imperative.

A campaign has been started in Ohio by the United States Department of Agriculture to increase the pork production within the state by 15 per cent. This is an emergency war measure caused by the acute shortage of pork products and fats. It is the intention of the government to control hog prices in the future, and for this purpose the enormous buying facilities of the allied governments and our own will be brought into play.

Fully one-third of the young pigs born die within 24 hours after birth. This is an unnecessary loss, and the government makes a strong plea to every farmer to not only keep more brood sows, but to give more careful attention to the sow at farrowing time and immediately thereafter.

An increased pork production in Ohio means the keeping of more sows, the better attention to young pigs and more diligent application of the results of feeding experiments. At the present time far too many pigs are being marketed in an immature state, which is not only unprofitable to the grower, but it is a condition whereby less pork than is possible is produced. Stock weighing 125 to 150 pounds does not dress out well, and because of this fact the top price is not obtained.

The government in this pork production campaign plans to call some of these more important phases of the swine growing industry to the farmers' attention, and numerous men are already working in the field in co-operation with the county agents.

The work of the campaign is being pushed by the Ohio College of Agriculture, represented by Prof. J. S. Coffey, and by the United States Department of Agriculture, of which I am the representative.

DONALD R. ACKIN, United States Field Agent, Pork Production Campaign.

Soon Over His Cold.

Everyone speaks well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy after having used it. Mrs. George Lewis, Pittsfield, N. Y., has this to say regarding it: "Last winter my little boy, five years old, was sick with a cold for two or three weeks. I doctored him and used various cough medicines but nothing did him much good until I began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He then improved rapidly and in a few days was over his cold."
