OLD FASHIONED WINTER

Six Weeks More of Snow and Blizzard Weather.

Did he see his shadow? No! He (Mr. G. H. Woodchuck) was snowed in and couldn't get out; and from present appearances he will have a long six weeks before the snow and ice will be melted sufficiently for him to dig out of his winter quarters. Here's hoping he laid in plenty of flour, sugar and coal before Garfield opened his little "order" book.

The writer has been located in this Maumee valley for nearly 60 years and his memory reaches not far enough backward to call up a winter that equalled the present for downright cussedness in the brand of weather apportioned to this section.

For the first time in our recollection it has been necessary for farmers to plow a passageway along the river road in order to be able to drive to town. Many of the roadways leading to town have been impassable for more than a month, except where detours have been made around mountainous drifts.

The "January thaw" that usually occurs, froze up before it reached here and the river in many places is frozen to the bottom while 24-inch ice covers the channel.

A sudden rise in temperature with a few days of rain and thaw might cause great damage and suffering. Of this, however, there seems little chance, as Hicks, the great weather prophet, who predicted all this severe weather and blizzards, hands out little hope of betterment during February and the old proverb—
"On Candlemas day
Tis half your wood and half your hay" stands to prove a very true statement this year.

Where are all of those old frost-bitten sinners who, early last fall, predicted a "mild winter?"
Oh, you old "goosebone," "corn husk," "muskrat house," "squirrel" weather prophets, gather up your old "indications" and implements of prophetic wisdom and "get thee hence;" go, thou, to a climate that is always hot and return not to deceive a suffering people with your ancient lore and lies.

THE SAVING HABIT

Will the War Make Us a Saving Nation?

Few of us appreciate how great a part habit plays in our lives. We fall into a habit unconsciously. And the first thing we know it has fastened itself upon us like a leach.

Unfortunately most of our habits are not beneficial. Somewhere along the line most good habits entail personal sacrifice, and the average mortal is not long on denying himself any of the joys of life.

So it is with the habit of saving. Few of us ever reach the point where we may be charged with being slave to it. It is only where we obligate ourselves, where it becomes a matter of duty, that we really buckle down conscientiously and make good.

Through the Liberty Bond issues more of us will eventually obtain diplomas from the school of thrift than ever before. The savings stamps and the savings certificates also will help. And bond issues yet to come may keep us in line.

Already something like twelve millions of us are saving on Liberty Bonds.

If the war serves to give us the saving habit, and makes America a nation of thrift where formerly extravagance ran amuck, it will have served a purpose not usually classed among the ambitions of armed conflict.

LISLE PETRIE DECEASED.

Lisle M. Petrie passed away at his home, 804 W. Gauson street, Jackson, Mich., Wednesday p. m., January 30, 1918.

Deceased was born at Adrian, Mich., July 2, 1897. He moved from that city to Toledo with his parents, where he was united in marriage to Helen Hillbrand. One child, Gertrude Ione, was born to this union.

In 1916 the deceased's health began to fail, tuberculosis finally claiming him as its victim. Besides his widow and daughter he leaves his parents and many loving relatives and friends to mourn his loss. The remains were laid to rest in evergreen cemetery, Ridgeway, Mich.

Only for a little while
Sunny days consent to smile;
All their charms must fade away
In the mists of wintry gray;
Flowers must wither, leaves must fall
Hushed must be the robin's call.
Summer blooms but to beguile
Only for a little while.
But the snows will melt at last
Days of storm are quickly passed—
Just the same as days so gray—
Sun and shadows shift at play.
Quaff the pleasures while you can,
Bear the sorrows like a man.
For a tear is like a smile—
Only for a little while.

When You Have a Cold.

It is when you have a severe cold that you appreciate the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Frank Crocker, Pana, Ill., writes: "Our five-year-old son Paul caught a severe cold last winter that settled on his lungs and he had terrible coughing spells. We were greatly worried about him as the medicine we gave him did not help him in the least. A neighbor spoke so highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that I got a bottle of it. The first dose benefited him so much that I continued giving it to him until he was cured."

About Constipation.

Certain articles of diet tend to check movements of the bowels. The most common of these are cheese, tea and boiled milk. On the other hand, raw fruits, especially apples and bananas, also graham bread and whole wheat bread promote a movement of the bowels. When the bowels are badly constipated, however, the sure way is to take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper.

Thrift Stamps Will Help Win the War and Start You to Prosperity

THAT INCOME TAX

Pay Up or You Will Regret Your Failure.

Somebody is going to tell on you if you don't pay your income tax. Congress has fixed it so that somebody must tell, whether he wants to or not.

One section of the War Income tax, exhaustively comprehensive in scope, requires every person, without exception, and every corporation partnership, association and insurance company, in whatever capacity acting, who paid $800 or more to another person, corporation, partnership, association, or insurance company as interest, rent, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensation, remuneration, emoluments or other fixed or determinable gains, profits, and income, to report the name and address of the person, corporation, etc., to whom the payment was made, together with the amount of the payment, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington, using a form prescribed for the purpose—Form 1099, now to be had from all collectors' offices. The forms must be filled out and returned on or before March 1, 1918, accompanied by Form 1096, which is a letter of transmittal and affidavit certifying the accuracy of Form 1099.

DEATH OF MRS. SIELING.

The deceased, Mrs. Mary Sieling, nee Winter, was born February 2nd, 1840, in Minden Westphalia, Germany. Shortly after her birth she received holy baptism February 1, 1840. In the year 1847 she came with her parents to America and settled at Woodville, O. At the age of 14 years she was confirmed according to the custom in the Lutheran church by pastor Cronnswett of Woodville, O. On November 4th, 1862, she was united in marriage to Mr. Conrad Sieling in Salem Lutheran church at Woodville. This union was blessed with eleven children, of whom seven are still living; namely, Mrs. Mary Schramm, Mrs. Jacob Schramm, Mr. Christ Sieling, Mrs. L. H. Limmer, Mrs. Harry Sheldrich, Mrs. Chas. Hufford and Mr. Fred Sieling.

Mrs. Sieling has been a devoted member of Zoar Lutheran church of this place ever since it was founded. She enjoyed very good health until the last few years when the infirmity of old age and the results of hard work became manifest. Her death, however, came sudden and unexpected. She died last Saturday, January 26th, 1918, at the age of 77 years, 11 months and 24 days. She leaves besides her husband and children 34 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, two brothers, John and Fred Fahle, and two sisters, Mrs. Cary Rolf and Mrs. Henry Hotmer.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Sieling and at Zoar Lutheran church, Wednesday, January 30th, 1918, Rev. P. Kluefel officiating. Burial took place in Fort Meigs cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our many friends and neighbors for the sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, also the choir for the beautiful songs and for the many floral offerings. MR. CONRAD SIELING AND FAMILY.

HARD TIME DANCE.

Get out your old clothes and come to the Hard Time Dance at the Perrysburg town hall, Saturday night, February 9. Come and have a good time and win a prize.

A Hint to the Aged.

If people past sixty years of age could be persuaded to go to bed as soon as they take cold and remain in bed for one or two days, they would recover much more quickly, especially if they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There would also be less danger of the cold being followed by any of the more serious diseases.

"WAY DOWN SOUTH"

Hayes Cromwell Writes From the "Land of Cotton."

Camp Stanley, Texas,
Jan. 27, 1918.

My Dear Mr. Blue:—At last, after so long a time, I find time to write to you.

I am attending the third Officers' Training Camp, and it surely is some strenuous life. We arise at 6:30 and are on the go until 9:30 every night but Saturday and Sunday.

Last week our principal work was in equitation, and I am pretty sore from it, but expect it will work out soon.

We have an ideal camp with the exception of the alkali. It has my lips cracked open and face chapped, but one has no time to pay attention to any little thing like that.

I wish you had some of our surplus heat. It is as warm now as in Ohio during June and July. We have five captains and a lieutenant for instructions, and I assure you they keep us busy.

Thanks for the Journal, which seems like a letter from home.

How is everything in the burg? I saw several of the boys from there while at Sheridan.

Sincerely,
SGT. R. H. CROMWELL,
5th Battery, F. A., Leon Springs Training Camp.

(Sergt. Cromwell was formerly foreman of the Journal office and made many friends in Perrysburg during his residence here.—Editor's note).

IN DAYS OF OLD.

Sanford L. Collins, along in 1837, was treasurer of Lucas county. Samuel M. Young was auditor. Young lived in Maumee and in the winter found it necessary to make the trip to Toledo to settle with the treasurer.

The only direct road between the villages was a bridle path on the west bank of the river. En route, Delaware Creek had to be crossed. Rain and a thaw had made it bank-full, with a strong current.

It was too deep to wade. Young dismounted, got a log, drove the horse in ahead, caught hold of his tail, and so was pulled across on the log.

"Though cold, I was none the worse for this little trip and I considered the transit a success," Young said, in telling of his experience.—Blade.

OVER THERE.

(By Bertha Bolling.)
Over the ocean, under the sky:
Here on the field, I lie.
Somewhere above, are the stars, I know;
Somewhere, the mountains' cooling snow,
And the green corn, growing, row on row.

I look to the sky; but it all shows red—
Dark as the blood that my breast has bled.
I catch at my throat, and gasp, and choke—
There is no air—only stench of smoke,
And wounds that sicken, and drip, and soak.

I look again! There's a gleam of light—
Of something as clean as the snow, and white.
It touches me on my breast, and head—
I think it an angel, with bright wings spread.
To bear me to heaven, when I am dead,
I kiss the cross—and the Cross is Red!

Budd of Perrysburg, solemnized at 7:30 at the McNeil home. Rev. Vernon Phillips, pastor of Tenth Avenue Baptist church, read the service.
