

OWEN BROTHERS. WASHINGTON, May 23.—Ohio Valley and Tennessee, local rains and partly cloudy weather, variable winds, stationary temperature.

EVERYBODY. Buys clothing outfits from Owen Brothers, the manufacturers. Why? Because every profit here or is cut out between the manufacturer and the consumer.

Seersucker coats and vests, our own make, our own price. In any dealer sells for less, we've yet to know it. On May 1st, 1884, we began selling seersuckers for half the usual going prices.

Black Alpaca, Mohair and Drap'de coats at our usual saving prices. Linen dusters, and others not linen at all, $1.50, $2, big or little. White vests and others in hair line plaids, buff and such.

Straw hats, look at them if you please under strong electric light till ten o'clock this Saturday night. A small room to pick from. Several shades, several grades, several different prices.

Fine suits for men, for youth, for boys, for children. New lines from our factory this week. New jerseys, new sailor suits, new shirt waists.

OWEN BROTHERS, Springfield's Only One Price Manufacturing Clothiers and Retailers at Wholesale Prices.

THE END OF A TRAGEDY.

A Young Lady Testifies to Her Father's Crime.

And Afterward Marries the Man who Defended Her and Shot Her Father.

Funeral of the Victims of the Cincinnati Fire.

The Presbyterians Make a Contribution to Bereaved Friends.

A Curious Ending.

NEW ORLEANS, May 22.—A curious ending was reported yesterday to the trial of D. Henckell, for the murder of Conrad Burgmuller, at Emerie's mill race, in Iberia parish, in March. The story, as first told, was that Burgmuller lost his life in attempting to defend his daughter from being outraged by Henckell and Van Horne.

Straw hats, look at them if you please under strong electric light till ten o'clock this Saturday night. A small room to pick from. Several shades, several grades, several different prices.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 23.—Last fall, by an accident on the Indiana, Bloomington & Western Railroad, Wm. O. Whitehead was injured so badly that he has not since been able to leave his bed.

RECEIPTS. The receipts from all sources during the past year were $103,745. Resolutions of sympathy with the sufferers by Thursday's fire in this city, offered by Dr. Dana, was adopted, and a collection was taken up for their benefit.

IN HONOR OF FREELINGHUYSEN. WASHINGTON, May 23.—The Department of State closed today as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Secretary Frelinghuysen.

NEW NOTES. Miss Cleveland, the mistress of the Executive mansion, is about to publish a book.

REDEVELOPMENT. At Stony Creek, Caswell County, John Pinnock knocked his two little children, a boy and a girl, on the head with an ax Thursday night, and then ran to the creek and drowned himself.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The family of the late Secretary Frelinghuysen make no secret of the fact that the first serious illness of Judge Frelinghuysen was due to the accumulation in some unaccountable manner with bottled with the mineral water he used, and Dr. Lincoln, of Washington, says that there was enough left in the bottle to kill four men.

NEW YORK, May 23.—There was some unusual irritation in General Grant's throat last evening, attended by frequent attempts to clear the surface of mucus. These efforts further irritated the parts and the General was apprehensive of a weakful night.

STRAZBURG, N. Y., May 23.—Rev. Thomas J. Flaherty, a Catholic clergyman, living near here, and well-known throughout Central New York, reported to the police Thursday that his two nephews, Vincent and Fred O'Flaherty, aged sixteen and fourteen, had mysteriously disappeared. They left a note in their room saying that they had gone away and would receive good care.

WASHINGTON, Pa., May 23.—Professor Samuel Jones, Professor Emeritus of Physics and Chemistry in Washington and Jefferson College, died at an early hour yesterday morning.

Postmasters Must Not Use the Department Funds for Private Purposes and Will Have to Renew Their Bonds Every Five Years.

FIRING A LOGAN SALUTE IN THE WHITE HOUSE GROUNDS.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Lieutenant Guy, who has been investigating the firing of the Logan salute, which occurred in the White House grounds, on Wednesday morning between two and three o'clock, has sworn out warrants for the arrest of Albert P. Cunningham and William Lee. An officer was sent to serve the warrant, but was unable to find Mr. Cunningham. The Post says: "Cunningham has been heard to say, since the cannonading, that he fired the salute close to the White House on purpose to arouse the President and let him know that Logan's election meant a Republican success in 1888."

A delegation of Ohio Indians had an interview with Assistant Secretary of the Interior Muldrow yesterday. They desire that their annuities shall be paid in money instead of goods.

Secretary Hayard left here yesterday to attend the funeral of the late Secretary Frelinghuysen.

The President appointed the following named gentlemen to be collectors of internal revenue: William C. Bishop, First district of Ohio; Asa Ellis, First district of California.

In the Wales' court-martial the examination of Mr. Cook, of the Fourth Auditor's office, was continued. Nothing of importance was elicited.

The Senate and Chamber of Deputies, after listening to addresses, adjourned as a matter of course, at eight o'clock.

NEW STRATSVILLE, Ohio, Tuesday. Albert Guess, who shot Henry Avers and Hugh McTague Thursday, was taken out of jail and hanged to a chestnut tree, twenty shots were fired into him.

REDEVELOPMENT. At Stony Creek, Caswell County, John Pinnock knocked his two little children, a boy and a girl, on the head with an ax Thursday night, and then ran to the creek and drowned himself.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The family of the late Secretary Frelinghuysen make no secret of the fact that the first serious illness of Judge Frelinghuysen was due to the accumulation in some unaccountable manner with bottled with the mineral water he used, and Dr. Lincoln, of Washington, says that there was enough left in the bottle to kill four men.

NEW YORK, May 23.—There was some unusual irritation in General Grant's throat last evening, attended by frequent attempts to clear the surface of mucus. These efforts further irritated the parts and the General was apprehensive of a weakful night.

STRAZBURG, N. Y., May 23.—Rev. Thomas J. Flaherty, a Catholic clergyman, living near here, and well-known throughout Central New York, reported to the police Thursday that his two nephews, Vincent and Fred O'Flaherty, aged sixteen and fourteen, had mysteriously disappeared.

WASHINGTON, Pa., May 23.—Professor Samuel Jones, Professor Emeritus of Physics and Chemistry in Washington and Jefferson College, died at an early hour yesterday morning.

VICTOR HUGO.

The Renowned Poet and Novelist Died at Paris in the Eighty-Third Year of His Age.

The France to be the Grandest Seen in Europe for a Century—Lips Tail Leading an Army into the Upper Congo Region.

VICTOR HUGO DEAD.

PARIS, May 23.—Victor Hugo died at 1:30 p. m. yesterday. Victor Marie Hugo was born in Beaucaire February 26, 1802. He was the son of a military officer, and lived in his childhood in Elba, Corsica, Switzerland and Italy.

After Napoleon's coup d'etat he was proscribed and fled to the island of Jersey, where he published a number of bitter satires on the Napoleonic dynasty. "Les Miserables," his most famous work, appeared in nine languages simultaneously at Paris, London, Brussels, Madrid, Berlin, St. Petersburg, Turin and New York in 1862. In 1859 he returned to France and was elected to the Chamber of Deputies.

The evening newspapers appear in mourning for the death of Hugo's funeral will be the grandest seen in France for a century.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The Times says: "It is impossible to estimate the magnitude of the anxiety and uncertainty still growing from the scanty information given by the Ministers. It is evident that we are no nearer to a satisfactory settlement than we were at the beginning of the month."

NEW YORK, May 23.—E. W. Goddard, formerly clerk for Austin, Corbin & Company, bankers, and who ran away thirteen years ago with $12,000 of their money, was committed to the Tombs Thursday under an indictment for larceny.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Charles Angell will be released from the Illinois penitentiary on May 28. He entered it in 1878, on a ten years sentence, for embezzling $125,000, while secretary of the Pullman Palace Car Company.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The family of the late Secretary Frelinghuysen make no secret of the fact that the first serious illness of Judge Frelinghuysen was due to the accumulation in some unaccountable manner with bottled with the mineral water he used, and Dr. Lincoln, of Washington, says that there was enough left in the bottle to kill four men.

NEW YORK, May 23.—There was some unusual irritation in General Grant's throat last evening, attended by frequent attempts to clear the surface of mucus. These efforts further irritated the parts and the General was apprehensive of a weakful night.

STRAZBURG, N. Y., May 23.—Rev. Thomas J. Flaherty, a Catholic clergyman, living near here, and well-known throughout Central New York, reported to the police Thursday that his two nephews, Vincent and Fred O'Flaherty, aged sixteen and fourteen, had mysteriously disappeared.

WASHINGTON, Pa., May 23.—Professor Samuel Jones, Professor Emeritus of Physics and Chemistry in Washington and Jefferson College, died at an early hour yesterday morning.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES.

An Insane Woman Fires a Barn and Ten Acres of Land, and the Carcasses of Ten Horses and Sixteen Head of Cattle Found in the Ruins—Other Fires.

LANCASTER, Pa., May 23.—Eli R. Myler's barn, on the Quarryville Railroad, six miles south of this city, was set on fire, at nine o'clock Thursday night, by Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, the insane wife of his tenant, Albert Martin. Her remains and the carcasses of sixteen fat cattle and ten horses were found in the ruins. Loss $6,000; insurance $2,600.

MILES CITY, Mont., May 23.—Fire destroyed about $50,000 worth of business property here Thursday night, taking a block on Main Street, between North Fifth and Sixth streets. The Stock Growers' National Bank was slightly damaged.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

BATTLEFORD, N. W., May 23.—Poundmaker sent in a flag of truce Thursday night along with the captured teamsters, two women and a priest, to ask upon what terms he would be allowed to surrender.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The forest fires above this place have broken out with renewed fury, and along the south side of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette Railroad they are burning with great ferocity.

MURPHY & BRO.

WHITE GOODS, LACES AND EMBROIDERIES.

MURPHY & BRO. 48 & 50 Limestone.

ECRU and Cream Laces and Flouncings, White Laces and Flouncings. Magnificent variety of Swiss and Nainsook Embroideries in Cream and White.

EVERYTHING new and desirable in Flain White Goods, soft and medium finish, 10c up. Fancy Lace Effects in White Goods. Striking Novelties at moderate prices.

NEW PARASOLS, New Sun Umbrellas. We have opened an exceedingly attractive line of Evening and Dress Fans, Plain and Hand Painted, and at extraordinarily low prices for quality.

AMUSEMENTS. GRAND OPERA HOUSE. THE FAIRY OPERA. THE MAID QUEEN.

THE GRAND ATTRACTION OF MODERN TIMES. Wonderful Mechanism and Marvelous Aerial Effects.

GORGEOUS PAGEANT. SUMMER OPENING OF FINE MILLINERY.

J. E. EHREHART. LATE NEWS ITEMS.

THE total imports of dry goods at the port of New York during the past week were valued at $1,480,588, and the amount thrown on the market at $1,568,753.

HON. S. S. COV. recently appointed United States Minister to Turkey, announced at the Department of State yesterday. He will leave New York for his new post of duty about June 17.

EARL Rogers had a conference with Prince Bismarck Thursday evening. The Berlin press surmise that the Earl's visit has some political significance, and may possibly result in a disappointment for France in regard to the Suez canal.

AMIE E. CUTLER, colored, who, on Monday last, pleaded guilty to the charge of murder in shooting her lover, William H. Knight, at Philadelphia, was brought before Judge Mitchell on the 22d, who adjudged her guilty of murder in the first degree.

THE New York State Legislature passed a census bill on the 22d, which is similar to the one recently vetoed by Governor Hill, and then adjourned sine die. When Governor Hill's attention was called to the bill as amended, he declared that it was more objectionable than the one he vetoed.

LOUIS FRANCIS, the Frenchman accused of strangling his wife at New York Tuesday night, was formally arraigned at Jefferson Market Police Court on the 22d. He pleaded not guilty to the charge of murder, and the magistrate committed him for trial, bail being refused.

A worthless fellow named Jeff Rogers, living near Sikeston, in southeastern Missouri, quarreled with his brother and fatally wounded him. Rogers was traced to a point near Essex on the 22d; on an attempt to arrest him by officers, he resisted and was shot dead by Deputy Sheriff Shelby.

MURPHY & BRO.

WHITE GOODS, LACES AND EMBROIDERIES.

MURPHY & BRO. 48 & 50 Limestone.

ECRU and Cream Laces and Flouncings, White Laces and Flouncings. Magnificent variety of Swiss and Nainsook Embroideries in Cream and White.

EVERYTHING new and desirable in Flain White Goods, soft and medium finish, 10c up. Fancy Lace Effects in White Goods. Striking Novelties at moderate prices.

NEW PARASOLS, New Sun Umbrellas. We have opened an exceedingly attractive line of Evening and Dress Fans, Plain and Hand Painted, and at extraordinarily low prices for quality.

AMUSEMENTS. GRAND OPERA HOUSE. THE FAIRY OPERA. THE MAID QUEEN.

THE GRAND ATTRACTION OF MODERN TIMES. Wonderful Mechanism and Marvelous Aerial Effects.

GORGEOUS PAGEANT. SUMMER OPENING OF FINE MILLINERY.

J. E. EHREHART. LATE NEWS ITEMS.

THE total imports of dry goods at the port of New York during the past week were valued at $1,480,588, and the amount thrown on the market at $1,568,753.

HON. S. S. COV. recently appointed United States Minister to Turkey, announced at the Department of State yesterday. He will leave New York for his new post of duty about June 17.

EARL Rogers had a conference with Prince Bismarck Thursday evening. The Berlin press surmise that the Earl's visit has some political significance, and may possibly result in a disappointment for France in regard to the Suez canal.

AMIE E. CUTLER, colored, who, on Monday last, pleaded guilty to the charge of murder in shooting her lover, William H. Knight, at Philadelphia, was brought before Judge Mitchell on the 22d, who adjudged her guilty of murder in the first degree.

THE New York State Legislature passed a census bill on the 22d, which is similar to the one recently vetoed by Governor Hill, and then adjourned sine die. When Governor Hill's attention was called to the bill as amended, he declared that it was more objectionable than the one he vetoed.

LOUIS FRANCIS, the Frenchman accused of strangling his wife at New York Tuesday night, was formally arraigned at Jefferson Market Police Court on the 22d. He pleaded not guilty to the charge of murder, and the magistrate committed him for trial, bail being refused.

A worthless fellow named Jeff Rogers, living near Sikeston, in southeastern Missouri, quarreled with his brother and fatally wounded him. Rogers was traced to a point near Essex on the 22d; on an attempt to arrest him by officers, he resisted and was shot dead by Deputy Sheriff Shelby.