

CITY MATTERS.

Capt. A. S. Bushnell left for Cincinnati this morning. Frank Capen, of Bloomington, Ill., is the guest of Fred Laddlow. Morris Bradford, of Lincoln, Iowa, is visiting friends in the city.

A POPULAR EXPRESSION.

(Continued from Third Page.) necessary noise or other disturbance on the streets and highways, arising from whatever source, and in so much as we have no ordinance which will efficiently apply to the unnecessary noise and disturbance made early in the morning of Sabbath, and during hours of Sabbath-schools and public worship, by the vendors of newspapers, we hereby urge our City Council to enact an ordinance which will, without injustice to any, cover the case.

Wonderful.

From the Pittsburgh Courier, Sept. 25th, 1885. A very seldom do we read of an actual case of recovery, where hope had altogether been lost, to parallel that which was Monday investigated by a Dispatch reporter, who had heard in various quarters, several little bits of marvelous, that had been performed. The plain facts in the case referred to, without exaggeration, are these, as they were learned from the mother of the young man, his pastor and other persons well known in the community.

THE WAY OF LIMITED MEANS SHOES AND SLIPPERS OF MEDIUM PRICE!

These goods are substantially and neatly made, and combine great durability with genteel appearance. Economy could desire nothing better, as the stock is the best for wear that enters into any shoe, while the prices are far below those of shoes of extra fine and really unnecessary finish. They can be worn on any occasion—at home or on the street, at church or party—and will look dressy and respectable. Good shoes could not be made for less than the prices we ask for these. They come in all styles and sizes for men, women and children. Prudent buyers, and particularly heads of families, are invited to examine these goods.

Midnight Flames. Last Night's Illumination on the North Side. Probably the Work of a Fire Bug. Shortly before twelve o'clock last night a fire broke out, in some mysterious manner, in the lot of the stable at Mr. Charles Fisher's residence, on North Limestone street, just across Buck creek. The fire was first discovered by the family and Mr. Fisher, with the help of his servants, succeeded in getting out the three horses, buggy, wagon, carriage, harness, and bed of the man who was last in getting the alarm in as the man who keeps the key to box 5, corner Limestone and Chestnut avenue, was sound asleep. The first alarm was turned in by Inspector Boyd from the corner of Main and Limestone streets, from which point the flames bursting through the roof could be seen plainly. The alarm came in from Box 5 while the other was ringing and caused a moment's confusion. The Department made remarkably good time in getting on the scene and laying the hose lines, particularly the Southern reel, which was only about two minutes behind the Central. The wooden structure and the straw burned like tinder, and the whole thing was a mass of flames in less time than it takes to tell it. However, so efficient was the work of the firemen that the fire was subdued in ten minutes and completely quenched in ten minutes more. The whole second story of the pretty stable was burned but the first story and all the stock was saved. Mr. Fisher estimates his loss at about $500 or more. The stable was insured for $500 and there was the same amount on another. As there was nothing in the lot but a half ton of straw it is hardly possible that the fire started from spontaneous combustion. Every thing was all right when Mr. Fisher was in the stable at 11 o'clock, and he supposes that it was set on fire by an incendiary after that time. The stable was insured in the Western Mutual, of Urbana, for $500. The adjuster, Dr. J. S. Carter, was telephoned at 9:30, came here in 10:30 and had the loss settled and money paid by 11 a. m.

Excursion Rates for Fourth of July, 1885. The Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railway and the Chicago, St. Louis & Pittsburgh Railroad Companies—Pan-Halle Route—will sell cheap excursion tickets to and from all stations on all their various lines, on July 24, 31 and 4th, good to return until July 6th, inclusive. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Conder, of Clinton, visited J. E. Smith, of South Factory street, yesterday.

Mr. F. D. Sheehan, of West Washington street, is very proud today. The little girl weighs 16 pounds.

Died.—Of consumption, Sunday, Albert E. Palmer, aged 41 years and 5 months. Funeral this afternoon.

A large number of colored people from this city attended a basket meeting yesterday in a grove near South Charleston. The meeting will continue over another Sunday.

Miss Bertha F. Pierce has gone to Lima to be present at the wedding, Wednesday, of her friend, Miss Iva Nichols, daughter of Mr. W. G. Nichols, formerly of this city.

The family of Rev. H. W. Tate, accompanied by Miss E. Buchanan, who has been visiting them for several weeks, have gone to Wheeling, West Va. Miss Buchanan's home.

Wallace & Co., agents Ohio Farmers' Insurance Company, have paid nearly a dozen small losses by lightning on live stock and buildings, within little more than a week. Only one or two exceeded $50 in amount.

Officers Norton and Mast found two saloons open yesterday, Sprague's, on Main street, and Dick McBrean's, on the Levee. Affidavits were filed against the proprietors this morning and the warrants were served by Marshal Hughes.

Mary and Hattie Thompson and Jake Moran were found loafing about the woods yesterday evening and run in by officers Caldwell and Bass for loitering. Moran put up his watch and offered as bail and got out, but the girls are still in durance vile.

On complaint of Henry Harris, Squire Stout this morning issued a warrant for the arrest of John Roberts, for abusive and threatening language. This the result of a wordy war between the two farm hands yesterday afternoon, about 2 miles out on the River pike.

There will be a special communication of Clark Lodge No. 101, F. and A. M., at Masonic temple tomorrow evening, for work in the degree. Also stated convocation this evening of Springfield Chapter No. 48, R. A. M., for conferring degrees. Visiting companions are invited.

Nevia Requier special. "The testimony in the James divorce case was concluded last night in the Common Pleas Court, with Judge White of Springfield, presiding. Judge White took all this mess of contradictory evidence home with him and will say which of the twins shall have the divorce next week.

Rev. H. W. Tate, pastor of Wesley M. E. church, administered the rite of baptism by immersion, to eight converts, the ceremony taking place at seven o'clock Sunday morning, in Buck Creek, between Market and Limestone streets, in presence of several hundred spectators. These converts all unite with Rev. Mr. Tate's church.

Mr. D. S. Morrow has leased a portion of the King property on the northwest corner of Market and High streets, and will proceed at once to erect two or three story brick building, with a front of 29 feet on Market street and 100 feet on High street. This will be a decided improvement over the unsightly frame shanties that now occupy the ground.

Frightened Away. About 4 o'clock this morning Mrs. Daniel Brunner, residing at No. 82 West Mulberry, was awakened by a noise in the room, and found a burglar just beginning to search for plunder. She screamed and he fled the way he came, out of the window to the kitchen roof and thence to the ground. Thirty cents and a knife are all that are missing. All that Mrs. Brunner remembers about the man is that he wore brown pantaloons and as this is not a very definite description the police have no clue to work on.

The Day We Celebrate. Saturday evening last Mr. W. N. Whiteley presented to the employees of the East Street shops with 2,000 tickets for the great Fourth of July Celebration. These tickets were placed in handsomely printed envelopes, reading: "Compliments of Whiteley, Fessler & Kelly. Please be on hand to take part in an old-fashioned 4th of July celebration."

Messrs. Warder, Bushnell & Gleesner have decided to close up their factories on the 4th, and present each of their employes tickets for themselves and families to attend the great Fair Grounds celebration July 4th.

Mr. O. S. Kelly has purchased tickets for all the employees of the Springfield Engine and Threshing Co. for the great celebration at Fair Grounds, July 4th.

There will be no charge for admission of vehicles to the Fair Grounds on the 4th. It was inaccurately stated in the Sunday Globe-Republic that Mr. W. N. Whiteley has presented his employes with 1,000 tickets—it should have read 2,000, as that was the number.

Parties have already ordered in kets for the great 4th of July at Fair Grounds from Sidney, Troy, Xenia, South Charleston, Dayton, and quite a party from Cincinnati are also coming. Surely Springfield is in the lead in all things.

The President's Firm on Health. I was struck with a well-known Democratic Congressman's talk, says a Washington correspondent to his home paper. "He called at the White House to pay his respects, and while there observed to the President that he was the very picture of perfect health." "Yes," was the reply, "despite the tremendous strain and incessant work of listening to clamorous office seekers, I believe there is no man in the United States who enjoys better health than I do." "But still this to three things," said the narrator, "first, he takes plenty of outdoor exercise, second, he rises early and retires early; and, third, I believe he fortifies his system by a dose of Dr. Perry's Pink Malt Water every whenever it requires a tonic. He probably gets as much to the last as to the other two causes. Always found at any first-class druggist's or grocer's."

Gen. Keiter, in seconding the motion, thought the meeting and adoption of the resolutions would be valuable in effecting the desired end. Mr. C. M. Nichols also seconded the motion to adopt, disclaiming responsibility for Sunday papers or their sale, and adding his testimony as to quiet prevailing in London and New York on the Sabbath.

Rev. Dr. Marley, of High street M. E. church, suggested a strong vote and that the ladies be requested to unite in such expression. The resolutions were then, in that manner, unanimously adopted, and on motion by Dr. Falconer the chair appointed Oscar T. Martin, Esq., John H. Thomas and P. P. Mast a committee of three to take charge of the resolutions and present them to the City Council and Mayor. After Mr. Warder, on behalf of the people, had thanked the Ministerial Association for having in this manner brought this matter to the attention of the community, the meeting adjourned after singing the Doxology, Rev. Dr. Marley pronouncing the benediction.

"The Third Resolution." To the Editor of the Globe-Republic. Not wishing to prolong the proceedings any longer than necessary, I desire to say just a word on the third resolution adopted. Several speakers dropped the remark that our present ordinance are sufficient if they were enforced. This is true in a general way, but with reference to the noise and disturbance arising from the sale of newspapers, there is not much margin for debate. The law against common labor would not apply to boys under fourteen years of age; the law against disturbance of the public peace would apply only to such disturbance as would be an offence on any day of the week, while the law against disturbance of public peace would not apply to the disturbance of our rest early in the morning. Therefore, let the Council give us a brief, clean-cut ordinance covering this specific case.

Yours, W. G. FALCONER.

Informal Marriage. A Midnight Interview With the Judge—Bastardy Suit Hagan—Preferred Matrimony to Imprisonment.

A very romantic and somewhat sensational marriage took place in the Probate Court Saturday afternoon, and though all the parties concerned in the affair are well known, their names are withheld in the hope that they may keep out of such scrape in the future. The groom is a young blacksmith, something of a dandy in his dress and personal appearance, aged 19 years, and the bride is an ignorant looking girl of 19 summers. About 10:30 Friday night a party came up and awakened Judge Miller from the sleep of the just in order to procure a marriage license for the young man without the knowledge of the young man's intending to go to the gay deceiver with the license in one hand and a shot gun in the other and allow him to take his choice. Unfortunately for the success of the above mentioned party's original plan, however, it was discovered that the young man was not yet of age, and a license could not be procured that night. The next (Saturday) morning the desired husband was interviewed but swore that he would never marry the girl, that he had no parents nor legal guardian to procure a license for him and much more to the same effect. Proceedings for bastardy were immediately instituted in Squire Stout's court. A warrant was issued, and the young man was much more content in his talk when interviewed by Constable Tom Jewett just after dinner. He still objected strongly to being yanked into matrimony in this abrupt manner, but when he got it clearly through his head that a minor is liable for bastardy and that it was simply a question of domestic or State imprisonment, he being rather young and inexperienced, concluded to accept the former. Word was sent to the young mother and in another hour she and her mother met the Constable in company with the bridegroom-to-be and his older brother at the probate court. There a license was procured by the intervention of the bride's mother and the boy's big brother. Squire Stout was telephoned in haste and the knot was tied with rather more attention to the legal correctness of the contract than to the solemnity of the occasion. See Sinner Admits.

The Koehler Estate. Since the announcement of the adjudication of the estate of George F. Koehler, was made in a recent issue of the Enquirer, a new and nearer family of claimants thereto, have been discovered. These are the issue of F. W. Koehler and Penelope, his wife, the former of whom was the grand nephew of the testator. George F. Koehler died in the year 1890 and in the same year F. W. Koehler was born. In 1832, with his family, he settled in Philadelphia and in the following year purchased the farm in Crawford county Pa., upon which he continued to reside until his death, which occurred in 1884. His sons and daughters who still survive are as follows: Anna, Frederick P., William, Charles C., Catherine, Lizzie, G. H. G. Koehler, of Lexington, Ky.; Augustus, Mary, Lydia, Ella and Henry. As the value of the estate is estimated to be $2,000,000, a considerable amount of anxiety to secure its equitable division exists among the several claimants, who have secured the most indisputable evidence of the validity of their claims. The final disposition is expected to be made very shortly, when we shall be enabled to present the whole matter to the public.

Camp Meeting. The North-West A. M. E. church will hold its sixth annual camp meeting on the Clark county fair grounds, commencing Friday, July 10, 1885, and continuing three or four weeks. Many of the ablest and most eloquent ministers of the A. M. E. church will be present. The citizens of Springfield and vicinity are very respectfully invited to attend. F. G. MITCHELL, Pastor. M. BROWN, Secretary.

Drops of Water. St. John addresses the mass meeting of delegates and citizens on Wednesday night. Mr. Woodbridge, of Ravens, talks on the same evening. The committee requests all citizens to come to the front and decorate their premises for the good name of the city.

Dr. Leonard, Temporary Chairman, will have a hard time to keep off the head of the ticket. It is practically settled that he will be made Chairman of the State Executive Committee if he is not nominated for Governor. This will bring the State headquarters to this city from Cleveland where they have been for the past three years.

All the decorations of the Wigwam will be by voluntary contributions. The owners of the hall charge the Prohibits, $250 for the use of the concern, leaving them no extra money to squander on beautifying the interior. The decorating will be begun this afternoon.
