Dayton is engaged this week with her chicken and pumpkin show, and claims unrivaled exhibitions in both departments.

Governor Hoodly takes refuge behind Dr. Leonard with as much assurance as if he had put the reverend gentleman up for that purpose.

General Beaver and Hon. Charles Townsend will speak at the republican wigwam on Saturday night. The plug hats are expected to parade.

The sheriffs throughout the state are afraid to go to their post offices, because the invitations to the hanging parties at Columbus give them the horrors.

Dayton had a rousing republican meeting Tuesday night. On Saturday night, Senator Sherman is to speak there and the boys propose to "point 'er red."

The International Students' concert at Anzinger's hall, last night, was well attended, and the social dance after the concert was enjoyed by all.

A man named McDermott, living on East Main street, reported to Officer De Lacy last night that about ten bushels of corn had been stolen from him this week.

Republicans will rally at the wigwam Saturday night. Bring along the white plugs, and join the parade. Gen. Beaver and Hon. Charles Townsend speak.

Judge J. E. Hawes, of Xenia, came up yesterday to try two cases, which were assigned for him. The cases, however, went over till next Monday, when the judge will return.

Rev. Jesse Richards, pastor of the German Reform church of Lindsey, O., is the guest of Adam Noff. He will visit the Soldiers' Home, at Dayton, today, and return home on Friday.

Dr. Russell has in his office a very wide and sedate horned owl. His worship is seriously contemplating, through a pair of eye glasses, the following political "straw": "Forsaker first, Leonard second, and Hoodly last."

Down at Xenia, they have just given a ball for the purpose of providing overcoats for the policemen, and one of the local papers suggests that they get up another ball and buy overcoats for the mayor, city solicitor and city clerk.

James Ryder, the Irish blacksmith of Dayton, presented Judge Forsaker a horse shoe of his own make, with a photograph of Forsaker neatly set in. This is the same smith that presented Blaine and Logan with horse shoes for "good luck."

The arrest of the fair colored Springfield men in Cincinnati, was made simply because they were colored and were shouting for Forsaker. Mallen was rewarded for arresting and imprisoning colored men, by Hoodly, hence colored men are asked to vote for Hoodly.

William S. Skardon, for many years connected with the Champion Machine Company, as foreman of the repair room, leaves this morning for Cincinnati, where he has accepted a position with the Singer Manufacturing Company. His family will not leave for several weeks.

Harry Fisher received a message last evening from the Shamrocks, with which Sullivan, Clark and Thue are playing, asking if a game could not be arranged for this city between that club and the Zinesvilles or a Springfield picked nine. Game to be played either this week or next.

The cigar-makers are vigorously kicking against the cigar manufactory at the Ohio penitentiary, under the Hoodly administration. They are made and sold for $8 per 1,000, as a reform and economical democratic measure. A drummer was in this city today selling the penitentiary cigars.

Dayton Journal: The Springfield Plug Hat Brigade took Cincinnati by storm on Monday to the delight of republicans and the demoralization of the democrats. The desire to "paint 'er red," is almost as strong this year as it was last. Springfield republicans do that sort of thing in a very artistic way.

The committee of awards of "the World's Industrial and Cotton Centennial Exposition" have forwarded to the Superior Drill Company, of this city, a certificate of award for the best seed sower and fertilizer distributor. This is additional evidence that the Springfield manufacturers always come to the front, on a test of merit.

Last night a little girl named Maria Sweeney dropped a gold ring on Spring street just north of High. A long search failed to turn up the ring, and it was finally given up as lost. A young man named John Dunwood found it afterwards, and turned it over to Col. Deane. The little girl called shortly after and got it.

Jacob Baker and Fred Schaller were run in last night by Officers Nicklas and Waskey on a warrant charging them with disorderly conduct on last Saturday night. Both men claim that a crowd of fellows jumped on them without any cause, and that they only defended themselves. Schaller carries his left eye in a sling as the result of the fight.

A few members of the Jefferson club met last night at the club rooms. Nothing of importance was done except to arrange for a public meeting on the Market square next Monday evening. Either Hon. John F. Follett or Hon. Samuel F. Hunt, of Cincinnati, will speak, and it is whispered around that Gov. Hoodly will accidentally drop down, and be called upon for a speech.

ELIFRITZ INDIGNATES, AND SO DO SOME OF THE OTHER CITIZENS OF THE FIFTH WARD.

Over Their Imaginary Wrongs in the Action of the School Board on the Mixed School Question—Outrage Upon Free Speech—Refused a Hearing.

An adjourned meeting of the indignation society of the Fifth ward was held at Spencer Grove last night. B. O. Elifritz, an alleged prohibitionist of democratic antecedents, brought the indignation with him, and proceeded to disseminate it by calling the meeting to order. There was a strained effort made by Mr. Elifritz and other indignants to put forward conspicuously the few republicans who were present. Accordingly, C. Hanika, in spite of his own protestation of incompetency, was nominated by Mr. Elifritz and elected chairman. In return, the latter was chosen secretary, and proceeded to run the meeting. He made a verbal statement of his intellectual effort to get the school board to reconsider its action on the school question, and suggested that a systematic poll of the ward be taken to discover the sentiment of the people upon that question. Mr. Elifritz also suggested that steps be taken to secure the resignation of certain members of the board "if they won't fulfill their duty."

At the suggestion of Chris Hax the secretary read the truthful account of the action of the school board published by the Globe-Republic Tuesday morning. A discussion of the question was then entered upon and participated in by several of the persons present, among others by Mr. Newberry, a representative of the colored people, who was present and said:

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Meeting: I wish to make a few remarks, as there was something said as to the colored people, I am one of them. I just want to say a word, believing that I know something about the subject as to mixed schools. Being in the city for eight years, and my wife being among them and associating with them every day and working in regard to this matter, it seems to me as if I ought to know something about how they stand. I say, Mr. President and gentlemen, the colored people are almost a unit for mixed schools in this city. I say it because they have no school facilities of their own, and they are getting sicker and sicker. I have talked with more than three-fourths of them on the subject. I have circulated petitions among them upon the question, and the reasons why they are in favor of it we need not discuss, because they have no school facilities in the city, and have not had since I have been here. And that is the reason why I am in favor of mixed schools. I was very glad to hear the chairman say that he would hear any citizen. I say, gentlemen, in my belief, that this is a mistake, holding these meetings and opposing the rights of little children of citizens of our city. The reason why, gentlemen, that I believe this is a mistake is because I find nothing in history like it. There are in Ohio eighty-eight counties. Out of the eighty-eight, sixty-eight have mixed schools tonight, and I am sure, gentlemen, that we ought to be different from all other people. I fall to understand why it is that in the great city of Springfield, that has boasted of its liberty and freedom to all who would come here, having the appearance of an indignation meeting, against a certain class of citizens enjoying the rights of the schools, who pay taxes. I just say this, in all good feeling, gentlemen. We are here for the purpose of explaining our views, and now we have only to say to any gentleman here this evening who is opposed to mixed schools: I read the report of the superintendent to the board the other night. He says that sixty-two colored children have been admitted into the schools in the city, and everything works smoothly and nobody is injured by it, and they are getting along well. Now, then, it strikes me, I would like to hear some gentleman state whether we are asking an unjust thing, when the little children have no other means of getting to school, and the little children would have to go through the snow a mile and a half? I thank you, gentlemen, for your kindness in hearing me." (Applaud.)

Mr. Elifritz thought that the schools could spare their $2,500 superintendent, and somebody else thought that the school board might issue bonds to erect new buildings. Mr. Jackson then rose to explain his remarks, but was unceremoniously set down upon Mr. Elifritz giving Mr. Jackson to understand that it was Elifritz's meeting, and he didn't want any argument upon any such irrelevant subject as the mixed school question. Mr. James Taylor of large proportions, but without any cause, and that they only defended themselves. Schaller carries his left eye in a sling as the result of the fight.

A few members of the Jefferson club met last night at the club rooms. Nothing of importance was done except to arrange for a public meeting on the Market square next Monday evening. Either Hon. John F. Follett or Hon. Samuel F. Hunt, of Cincinnati, will speak, and it is whispered around that Gov. Hoodly will accidentally drop down, and be called upon for a speech.

The Plug Hat Brigade of Springfield made a magnificent demonstration in Cincinnati, on Monday. Their reception was of the most enthusiastic character. The compliment which was paid to Judge Forsaker by this special visit of more than 2,000 Springfield Republicans in a body was fully appreciated by that gentleman and by the republicans of Cincinnati. Their reception was of the most enthusiastic character, and indicated in a pronounced manner the untold popularity of the republican candidate for governor. The reception was held in the park, more than five thousand people participated in the grand ovation. Speeches were made by the judge and other prominent republicans. It was a memorable occasion, and Springfield comes to the front with distinguished honor which the republicans of Ohio will recognize and applaud.

The Funniest of All Comedies. "Over the Garden Wall" is one of the funniest comedies on the road. It has made George S. Knight (the author) a fortune. It has been played in New York, at the Fifth Avenue Theater, eighty consecutive nights. It is a play to please the masses. The company that appears here this evening at Black's Opera House, is the best that could possibly be had. The play is full of brand new fun and full of new songs. Seats at Pierce's.

ACCIDENT IN THE YARD.

An I. B. & W. Engine Backs Into Two Freight Cars on the C. C. & I.

Yesterday afternoon, shortly before four o'clock, an accident happened in the railroad yard, a short distance west of the High street bridge. From the best report that could be gotten it seems that the I. B. & W. yard engine was switching in the yard and had run up on the south side of the Y that is formed by the divergence of the tracks at that point. After switching several cars, the engine started to back down to the main track. At the same moment the yard engine of the C. C. & I., with several cars, backed down on that track. Either through a failure to obey the signal, or through the carelessness of the engineers, the I. B. & W. engine backed down at a pretty lively rate and collided with the freight cars attached to the C. C. & I. engine. Two of the cars were thrown from the track and one of them was knocked in and damaged slightly. A hole was also knocked in the tank of the I. B. & W. engine. Aside from this no damage was done, and fortunately no one was hurt.

Snakes. A young man by the name of Bresselman had a bad case of delirium tremens yesterday morning, in Sheets' saloon. His mother died about three months ago, leaving him a small property, which he has since squandered for drink. Before his mother's death, Bresselman was a sober young man. Dr. Reynolds was called and has the case under treatment.

Travelling Physicians. The community has often been afflicted by visits from unscrupulous pretenders who travel from town to town, gathering all the ready cash they can raise, and then leaving them, and then leave the country for other fields and pastures new, without regard to the suffering they left behind them. In this connection we can say a word of praise in favor of Dr. Albert, of Cleveland. He has been in this city several times, and has done some good. He is at the head of a medical institute well known to our citizens, many of whom have visited the institute at Cleveland. The fact is Dr. Albert does not come under the head of a "travelling doctor."

Thousands say so. T. W. Atkins, Grand, Kan., writes: "I never hesitate to recommend your Electric Bitters to my customers. They give entire satisfaction and are the best medicine I have seen. No family can afford to be without them. They will save hundreds of dollars in doctor's bills every year. Sold at 50 cents a bottle by Charles Ludlow."

Free From Malaria. In the fall of 1881 I was taken with a case of malarial fever which prostrated me both body and mind. I was dragged after the old fashion with mercury and other mineral mixtures, but with no good result. My health was shattered, and my energy gone. My legs and feet would swell, and I would faint. I was unable to get up. These symptoms alarmed me, and I was ready to grasp at any remedy suggested. A friend advised me to try S. S. S. I procured three bottles and commenced its use. The swelling soon subsided, and I commenced to feel better. I have taken the S. S. S. ever since, and I feel like a new man today. There never was a more meritorious medicine I feel to suffering humanity. It has wrought wonders for me. W. J. J. Mann, No. 1417 St. Atlanta, Ga., May 13, 1885.
