

SPRINGFIELD GLOBE, Vol. XL, No. 43. SPRINGFIELD REPUBLICAN, Vol. XXXI, No. 1422.

FRIDAY, Dec. 18, 1885.

A desire for trade proportionate with the facilities we offer prompts the asking of every individual within hearing distance to visit our great outfitting store.

We are making here such a mark as we believe to be good for our city, good for our country, and good for ourselves.

There is nothing mysterious about it. It is only a place where many sorts of merchandise are gathered together, many grades of a sort, everything called by its true name and everything sold for as little as our enormous advantages will allow; a place where a great many wants are supplied, and no cheating done; a place where all the skill you need in buying is to know what you want or be able to recognize it when you see it.

Such a place and stock we ask you to see.

Our turning goods stock is managed just as the rest of the store is managed. We gather the best of the world's goods; we buy in large quantities; we have advantages in buying; we pass the advantage over to you in several ways—prices, obligingness, liberality, all sorts of practical service, responsibility.

What a stir we've made, though, in Christmas things. Gentlemen's fine Silk and Cashmere Mufflers, 50c to $5. Handsome Brocade Satin and Silk Handkerchiefs, 50c to $2. Silk Handkerchiefs with fancy colored borders. Silk Handkerchiefs with fancy borders and the initial you want ready worked in the corner. Another with wreath of hand work and a spot left for initial. Suspensives 5c to $1.50. Silk Umbrellas, Fur Caps. Fresh Neckwear, a choice for 25c and 50c. Fur Caps. Scotch Caps 40c. We doubt if there is a better buying spot in town than

OWEN BROTHERS

Springfield's Only One Price Clothiers.

AT THE ARCADE GROCERY

Confectioners' Sugar. For making Candy.

NO BOILING.

Fresh English Walnuts, Almonds, Fard and Persians.

- Dates. Raisins. Currants. Citron. Sweet Cider.

13 East High.

J. M. NUFFER.

BLACK'S OPERA HOUSE

Popular—10, 20, 30c.—Prices.

Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 21 and 22.

Special Holiday Matinee Tuesday, 2:15 p. m.

S. DRAPER UNCLE TOM'S CABINET

AND BRETHERTON QUARTETTE.

IRELAND'S VICTORY.

Home Rule for Ireland Now Looks Up in a More Substantial Form in the Liberal Camp.

Mr. Gladstone's Plan Meets the Approval of Earl Granville and Lord Salisbury. War Predicted if Ireland Claims Independence.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT FOR IRELAND.

FRIDAY, December 18.—A special dispatch from London, England, by the London Journal says: "Earl Spencer and Earl Granville approve Mr. Gladstone's scheme of Home Rule for Ireland. Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Sir Charles Dilke and the Marquis of Hartington are wavering in their objections to the scheme."

A London dispatch, which the Irish Times says is an advance scheme to give the government of Ireland, Mr. Gladstone will move an amendment to the royal address, stating such a measure for Ireland is necessary to the peace and stability of the empire. Mr. Gladstone will take office and introduce a bill granting Home Rule to Ireland.

LONDON, December 18.—The proposed scheme for Home Rule for Ireland, which is published in yesterday morning's Standard, and is accompanied by a telegraphic account of the debate in the House of Commons, has caused the greatest sensation in political circles. A correspondent sought to obtain the opinion of the leaders by communicating with them by telegraph with a view to the prominent Liberals and Conservatives who could be reached. The main points of their replies are as follows:

The Pall Mall Gazette has stated that Lord Spencer had acquiesced in the proposed scheme, a dispatch was sent to him asking as to the truth of this statement. The late Viscount of Ireland replied by telegraph: "No scheme for Home Rule for Ireland has received my approval."

Mr. Herbert Spencer, the late Chancellor of the Exchequer, telegraphs that he has no knowledge whatever of Mr. Gladstone's scheme, and that he has no objection to it.

Mr. Charles Dilke, late President of the Local Government Board, answers that it is premature to discuss a question which is before the House of Commons. Mr. Chamberlain, says that he cannot express an opinion until the Irish Parliament has been convened.

Mr. Thomas Power O'Connell, President of the Irish National League, says that Ireland will not be satisfied with any less degree of independence than that which is proposed. He will refuse any terms which involve contributing from Irish lands to the support of the British Government.

Mr. T. D. Sullivan, M. P., Lord Mayor-elect for Dublin, telegraphs: "I cannot understand how any assembly can vote the Home Rule bill. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence."

Mr. Chamberlain made a startling speech at Birmingham last night in which he claimed that the bulk of the Liberal party in the House of Commons had taken the Home Rule side. He said that the Whigs and Radicals would equally maintain the integrity of the empire.

The Standard in commenting upon the reported Liberal scheme for Irish Home Rule, declares that it calls Gladstone's position in the House of Commons into question. The Morning Post predicts civil war as a result of the encouragement of Ireland's claims to independence.

The Standard's correspondent of the Express telegraphs as follows: "There is no longer any doubt that Mr. Gladstone has approached the members of the royal family regarding the Home Rule bill, and is seeking to enlist the Prince of Wales and his son in removing the obstacles thereto."

The editorials in the Freeman's Journal and United Ireland regarding the situation agree in the statement that the Marquis of Salisbury should offer only a nominal support to the Home Rule bill. The Conservative Government will inevitably be defeated by the combined efforts of the Liberals and the royal family.

There is no doubt that Mr. Gladstone is selling Ireland to the British people. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence.

There is no doubt that Mr. Gladstone is selling Ireland to the British people. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence.

There is no doubt that Mr. Gladstone is selling Ireland to the British people. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence.

There is no doubt that Mr. Gladstone is selling Ireland to the British people. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence.

There is no doubt that Mr. Gladstone is selling Ireland to the British people. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence.

There is no doubt that Mr. Gladstone is selling Ireland to the British people. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence.

There is no doubt that Mr. Gladstone is selling Ireland to the British people. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence.

There is no doubt that Mr. Gladstone is selling Ireland to the British people. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence.

There is no doubt that Mr. Gladstone is selling Ireland to the British people. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence. It is a measure of national independence, and it is a measure of national independence.

SEIZING CUBA.

A Large Quantity of Arms and Ammunition Found in the Hold of a Vessel Bound for Cuba.

NEW YORK, December 18.—The steamer City of Mexico, lying at Bond's wharf, Brooklyn, was boarded by the customs-house officers Wednesday and a large quantity of arms and ammunition found in the hold. It was taken out and another placed in charge of the ship. The loading of this steamer with arms is but a part of what is going on in an extensive scheme to seize Cuba. The City of Mexico has been used on the Alexander line between this city and Havana until October 29, when she laid up and November 30 was sold for $25,000 to a Spanish merchant, who could not be traced. The steamer was repaired and taken to Bond's wharf, where 600 tons of arms were shipped. A picked crew of forty men were engaged for a voyage "not to be made until Monday."

Orders were issued that no one connected with the vessel should give any information or answer any questions asked by the customs-house officers. The vessel started out, but instead of going to sea backed into another dock and began to load a number of mysterious cases. The cases were taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

The vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers, but before they were examined the vessel was taken to the Custom House and examined papers.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

Bill Authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to Contract With Manufacturers for Ordnance.

Adapted to Modern Warfare and Other Naval Purposes—Increase of the Hardware Trade in New South Wales.

BETTER PROTECTION.

WASHINGTON, December 18.—Among the bills introduced in the Senate yesterday is the following: By Mr. Cameron to authorize the Secretary of the Navy to make contracts with steel manufacturers for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

The bill is designed to protect the interests of the steel manufacturers of this country, and to provide for the supply of rough rods, rough turned and finished steel for the fabrication of heavy ordnance.

A GREAT STROKE.

Black's Opera House Seizes the Swift (The most Amusing in the Mikado for a Week) on the 17th.

The management of Black's Opera House have secured for their new attraction of the season the great opera of the year, the Mikado, to be given New Year's eve, New Year's night and New Year's day.

This company is organized entirely from local talent, and is one of the most promising in musical and social circles of Cincinnati. The cast of characters is as follows: The Mikado, Wm. J. Tobin; Nanki-Poo, E. L. O'Connor; Ko-Ko, Milo Meleher; Posh-Bah, Albert M. Reinhardt; Posh-Tosh, Fred S. Smith; Yum-Yum, Miss Ella Kravitz; Piti-Sing, Miss Cassie D'Hotte; Poo-Poo, Miss Yessie Brown; Katsiba, Madame Helene Van Doolhof. They bring with them a magnificent chorus of thirty-five talented voices, and are supported by the famous Cincinnati Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Lemmy Jackson. Though the members of the company draw no salaries, the superb costumes and regular expenses are met by the management, and the management under a heavy expense, and it is to be hoped that they will be well supported here. The musical training of the company is infinitely better than that of the ordinary professional traveling opera company, and as they have made a thorough study of the Mikado, Springfield will be afforded an opportunity to see the splendid opera put and shown in a way which since the true conception of its originator.

MIN YOUNG'S CROOKEDNESS. Further Developments Brought to Light by a Divorce Suit. Readers of this paper will remember a large amount of money in Mr. Min Young, who was arrested here the 20th of last September for keeping a house of ill-fame. He pleaded guilty to the charge, and was fined $100. His wife, Lizzie A. Min Young, nee Biggers, at Warren, O., filed a petition in the common pleas court asking a divorce from him. Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

Her grounds were adultery, and perjury. She also asked for custody of her two children, a son and a daughter, and for the return of her property. She also asked for the return of her property, and for the return of her property.

TODAY'S NEWS.

The Rev. Dr. Conaty, Roman Catholic Bishop of Kilmore is ill.

The Bank of England rate of discount has advanced to four per cent.

The French Government has concluded a treaty of protection with the Sultan of Angola.

James Ginter was abusing his wife at Big Laurel, N. C., on the 17th, when his eight-year-old son shot him dead.

Governor McHenry, of Louisiana, has granted a respite of thirty days to John Murphy and Pat Ford, who were hanged at New Orleans on the 15th.

The Western Export Association at Chicago have advanced spirits from $1.00 to $1.10, and the running capacity reduced thirty-three per cent.

William Wagner, who shot and killed Ambrose Anderson last March at the "Haymarket" in Baltimore, was found guilty of manslaughter and sentenced to two years in jail.

Henry McKee, president of the Globe Printing Company, St. Louis, and commercial editor of the Globe, died in that city on the 17th. He was sixty-one years old.

Michael Lowrey, a blacksmith's helper, employed at the Hudson River repair shop, Greenbush, N. Y., was cut in two by a locomotive on the 16th. Deceased leaves a wife and three children.

Bishop F. X. Krauthamer, of Green Bay, Wis., was found dead in his bed at the parsonage of Toledo, Wis., on the 17th, as a result of a stroke which occurred on the 15th.

A death by John Wheeler, referee, to the United Lines Telegraph Company of all the rights, franchises and franchises of the Bankers & Merchants Telegraph Company, has been filed at Albany, N. Y. Consideration will be given to the application.

A green tank at Hart & Hensley's packing establishment, Nashville, Tenn., exploded on the 17th from an excessive collection of gas, killing Henry Warnock and seriously injuring James McWhorter, and wrecking the buildings.

David Carey, the young man shot by Officer Mahoney on Peace Street, Buffalo, N. Y., on the morning of the 17th, is recovering with some ease, but his injuries at the Emergency Hospital last evening. The police officers are still.

Mrs. Hendricks filed her bond at Indianapolis on the 17th, in the sum of $17,000, as executor of the will of her late husband. Her affidavit states that, to the best of her belief, the personal estate of the late W. J. Hendricks is worth about $85,000.

J. L. Gaultin became involved in a quarrel with a man named Henney, at Marshall, N. C., on the 17th, and becoming exasperated leveled a gun at the latter and fired. The charged missed Henney and struck Mrs. Henney, who was standing by, killing her instantly.

Adm. Feltrich, aged 54 years, died last night at his residence, 341 West Columbia street. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at the German Lutheran church, at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

Abraham Klumbro died last night at his residence on Pleasant street, second house east of York. The deceased was 75 years of age. Funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Juvenile Surprises. The popularity of surprise parties seems to be on the increase among the juvenility of South Street street and Western avenue. Last night May, little daughter of Upton Elfritz, was rather ceremoniously pounced upon by about twenty of her school mates, who took possession of the house for the evening. Mrs. Elfritz served a tempting supper, to which all did ample justice. The little folks are unanimous in the opinion that they had a most delightful time.

Clipped His Fingers. This morning while Lewis Toms, an employe of the Tricycle works, was cleaning a lathe, his helper connected the machinery and the knife caught Toms' right hand, scoping the nails of three fingers. He went to Dr. McLaughlin's office where the hand was dressed. The accident will lay him up for a month or so.

The Xmas Torlight says: "The youngest conductor running into the city is Conductor Cogswell, on trains one and two, on the Springfield branch of the Little Miami. Conductor Cogswell's whiskers are snow white, but a more gallant, courteous gentleman cannot be found. He is the oldest man on the Pan-Handle, and has earned the name of the youngest old railroad coming into the city."

Seventh Ward Associated Charities. The ladies of the Seventh ward are requested to meet tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Philip Weimer, 304 East High street, for the purpose of effecting a ward organization to cooperate in the work of associated charities. A large attendance is earnestly requested.

At the Grand Monday. Go and have a style of entertainment that is new, novel and varied. Reserved seats only 50 cents. Donavans at the Grand next Monday evening, Dec. 21st.

Donavans Original Tennesseans at the Grand, Monday evening, Dec. 21st.

Don't fail to hear the Original Tennesseans at the Grand, Monday evening, Dec. 21st.

TROY. Troy, Dec. 18.—Mrs. John Collins, of New Carlisle, died on the 17th.

The fatal burning of Josie O'Brien was not through coal oil, as reported; her clothing caught from the stove.

H. A. Ketchum, of the Chronicle, of Springfield, who has been visiting here yesterday—Everybody last night at the Mikado mistook Frank Talbot, "No-Bah," for Dr. H. G. Goodrich, of the Chronicle.

Many of our citizens went up to Piqua last night to hear Rev. T. Kierwitz, of Piqua, who is back from Lima, Mrs. Chas. Mayer, Mrs. John Kierwitz and daughter, Minnie, are visiting in Wapakoneta.

Henry Graf has the nearest and best furnished barber shop in town. A gentleman feels that he can sit there five minutes without being insulted by the usual low talk of barbershops. He is very credit for his reform, and here it is—Nick Braun, Jr., is almost a week old.—L. L. DeFrees, of the Union, was in Columbus this week.—Mrs. Ellen Church, of Springfield, who has been visiting here yesterday—Everybody last night at the Mikado mistook Frank Talbot, "No-Bah," for Dr. H. G. Goodrich, of the Chronicle.

Many of our citizens went up to Piqua last night to hear Rev. T. Kierwitz, of Piqua, who is back from Lima, Mrs. Chas. Mayer, Mrs. John Kierwitz and daughter, Minnie, are visiting in Wapakoneta.

Henry Graf has the nearest and best furnished barber shop in town. A gentleman feels that he can sit there five minutes without being insulted by the usual low talk of barbershops. He is very credit for his reform, and here it is—Nick Braun, Jr., is almost a week old.—L. L. DeFrees, of the Union, was in Columbus this week.—Mrs. Ellen Church, of Springfield, who has been visiting here yesterday—Everybody last night at the Mikado mistook Frank Talbot, "No-Bah," for Dr. H. G. Goodrich, of the Chronicle.

Many of our citizens went up to Piqua last night to hear Rev. T. Kierwitz, of Piqua, who is back from Lima, Mrs. Chas. Mayer, Mrs. John Kierwitz and daughter, Minnie, are visiting in Wapakoneta.

Henry Graf has the nearest and best furnished barber shop in town. A gentleman feels that he can sit there five minutes without being insulted by the usual low talk of barbershops. He is very credit for his reform, and here it is—Nick Braun, Jr., is almost a week old.—L. L. DeFrees, of the Union, was in Columbus this week.—Mrs. Ellen Church, of Springfield, who has been visiting here yesterday—Everybody last night at the Mikado mistook Frank Talbot, "No-Bah," for Dr. H. G. Goodrich, of the Chronicle.