Self help is the best help.

Here is your splendid weather, gentleman.

Nobody will stand by the man who doesn't stand by himself.

Prof. Orton now declares that Indiana is the Ohio gas field.

Recent rains have greatly helped the wheat of the country.

It is thought that Powell, of Delaware, will be the Ohio democratic gubernatorial candidate.

The prospects of the wheat crop, for 1887, are much improved, and grain is actually booming.

The Wellington (O.) Argus has recently appeared in a grand double number, in which the merits of its town have been ably and fully set forth.

As Buffalo Bill is on the other side of the Atlantic, and cannot get back here until fall, American newspapers are vying to print his "portrait."

General Rosser has unwisely revived his discredited military record, when nearly everybody had forgotten it and him, by his foolish talk about General Sheridan.

Father Conaty says, in the Catholic World, that labor's great foe is interference. Mr. Powerly thinks so, too. Interference is also the foe to anybody's true prosperity.

A great poet arises in the Toledo Blade to sing: "Toledo had no gall and yet she got there all the same," or words in that effect. All right, except, possibly, that about the gall.

We are glad to print today an interesting descriptive article concerning the early and present Chautauque, by the Rev. Dr. H.
Richard S. Holmes, D. D., of Plainfield, New Jersey, registrar of the Chautauque university.

The Cleveland Leader, of May 5th, celebrated the fifty-first anniversary of incorporation of its city by printing a magnificent illustrated issue of twenty-four pages, in which the attractive features of one of the world's most beautiful cities are fully set forth.

Will Mr. Gray, of the Atlanta Constitution, please take General Rosser, of Virginia, in charge and hold him tight or keep him "tight," until General Sheridan returns from his southern tour. We are anxious that nothing should "happen" to "Little Phil" or Rosser, either.

The Hon. Buffalo Williams, of the United States, has achieved a feat in statesmanship in England that breaks the record in that country of our cousins across the sea. He has made himself solid with both Gladstone and the Prince of Wales. Now if he could combine and solidify them the job would be complete.

We are sorry to hear of the sudden death of our old friend, Mr. Albert M. Bushnell, of Indianapolis, who resided here a short time, a number of years ago, and who was a brother of General Asa S. Bushnell. The deceased was a graduate of Oberlin college and a gentleman of fine culture, good ability, and attractive personal qualities.

The Ohio State Journal, of May 9th, says:

The unveiling of the monument of Garfield in Washington, City next Thursday will call the attention of the country again to one of the foremost citizens, Republicans and statesmen that Ohio has produced. It will be eminently an Ohio affair. Garfield was an Ohioan, the sculptor Ward was born at Urbana, and the orator of the occasion, General J. Warren Keifer, resides in the neighboring city of Springfield.

It is very seldom that we care to print anything from the pen of Jefferson Davis, but this slant at Lord Wodeley, Grant's military critic, is too good not to be reproduced.

In the comparison instituted between the cases of Generals Washington and Lee, and the hypothesis of a Mr. Davis, the first impression made was how very poor, and then, unable to realize that a British officer of high grade could be so ignorant of the most important differences in the cases, the question occurred, why he should be so perverted and spiteful against one who does not remember ever to have seen him, or to have felt any interest in him, except when report created the unrealized hope that he would save General Charles Gordon from impending sacrifice.

A MAN'S LITTLE AFFAIR WITH NEW YORK BUNCO STEERERS.

The Satchel of Samples—The Three Card Monte Men and the Pretended "Drover" — The Kink in the Card Money or Blood.

William M. Ross is a resident of Liberty Sullivan county. He was in Kingston today. He is a solid built individual, with a somewhat determined expression on his face.
On his vest he wears a gold badge of the Grand Army of the Republic, showing that he is an old veteran. Mr. Ross said to a reporter of the Freeman: "I had a little affair with bunco steers in New York City. It might be well to tell, so as to warn others. I have the dates and other data right here, and I am in New York on business connected with an estate. As I was going down from the city last night, I took the ferry to Kingston, and I was sitting on the pier, waiting for a boat to take me home. I saw a man, who I thought was a stranger, and he came up to me. He said he was a 'drover' and he wanted to see my satchel. I gave it to him, and he took out a card. He said he was a 'drover' and he
