Good Portion of the Business Center of Elizabethtown Burned—Loss a Hundred Thousand.

Insurance, $50,000 Railway Manager, Tammage, Dixon & Co., of Peru, Indiana, Brights Disease and Percutaneous. All the News.

By the Associated Press.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky., June 29.—A lamp exploded at the store of E. F. Elliott & Co. last night, and started a conflagration that swept away nearly one-fourth of the business portion of the town and defied all efforts to arrest its course. Charles Scott's confectionery establishment was the first victim after the drug store, then Bennett's saddlery shop. The bank of Elizabethtown building, in which the Messinger newspaper office was located, J. W. Black's store, Virgil Churchill's and Joseph Scott's residence, with law offices, postoffice, Quigley's furniture store and smaller buildings occupied as offices, were burned. The loss will amount to $100,000—with insurance for half that sum.

THERE'S MILLIONS IN IT.

The Stockman Privateer De Brack Said to Have at Last Been Located—Story of the De Brack.

NEW YORK, June 29.—The submarine divers of New York were somewhat excited over a great hunt inaugurated in Philadelphia for treasure trove. The schooner William P. Orr has started fully equipped to raise the British privateer De Brack, which is supposed to have been sunk in 1798 in the Delaware with two Spanish galleons containing $5,000,000.

The story of the famed De Brack is as follows: The privateer discovered that the British galleons were carrying treasure, issued by the British government, was sunk in the Delaware River, off Lewes, in company with two galleons from the West Indies. Dr. Panovet made a critical analysis of the situation, and by the aid of history and tradition, finally located the exact spot where the De Brack sank, with its millions. All his searches were conducted with secrecy, and several months ago were rewarded with success.

The divers that go aboard the William P. Orr are virtually prisoners for three months and sworn to secrecy. The crew is composed of three divers, three attendants, the engine room and millers, all in all, several months ago were rewarded with success.

SATISFACTORILY ADJUSTED.

Harmonious Meeting on Tuesday of the Creditors of Whiteley, Fessler & Kelly.

Resolution Passed Approving the Action of the Champion Bar and Knife Company and Endorsing Mr. Whiteley as Receiver.

A satisfactory adjustment of the affairs of Whiteley, Fessler & Kelly has been made, and business will be continued at the old stand on East street as if nothing had happened.

The good news spread rapidly last night and was received throughout the city with manifestations of pleasure. All day long people had been, as it were, on a fever of expectancy. The probable action of the creditors of the corporation was the chief almost the only topic of conversation on the streets and in the business houses and saloons. Anxiety to know the result was depicted on every countenance, and when it became known that the creditors would not meet until a late hour in the afternoon the strain became positively distressing.

At four o'clock p. m. the creditors who were in the city met in the directors' parlors of the East street offices, and began formally to discuss and consider the situation of affairs. About thirty creditors, besides the members of the firm and their attorneys, were present.

"MICKY" WELCH DEAD.

The Good Irish Landlord Passes Away Last Evening at About Sixty Years of Age.

"Micky" Welch is dead. The announcement of the death of this noted local character and citizen, cannot fail to be the most general interest. For years his striking figure, vigor and his remarkably dilapidated form have been daily features of the street panorama of the busy town and they will be missed by a not a few.

Michael Welch died at 4:30 yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Tolan, No. 16 north Spring street. Death was sudden. The result of a cerebral hemorrhage, which occurred upon old age and active life of any special disease. He was in his 60th year, and had led a life of remarkable activity.

He was born at Millersburg, Crawford county, Ireland, January 19, 1788, and emigrated to this country in 1848, when he was already an old man. He had some means upon his arrival at Springfield, and entered at once into speculation in the city with remarkable success. He purchased real estate, and was a successful speculator in the "bull" and "bear" market, and was constantly on the move at the time of his death, he and his sons, Hugh, and John, were among the largest speculators in the city.

He owned a large tract of land on East Monroe and Shaffer streets and on the hill. His property is usually divided into two parts, one of which is usually thickly settled tenement houses of the commonest order.

Several years ago, fearful of a suit for damages which had been brought against him on account of the conduct of his business, Mr. Welch transferred a great portion of his property to the name of "Micky" Welch, who is now worth probably $5,000.

Mr. Welch was married four times—once in Ireland and three times in America. His first wife was a young girl, Thomas Tolan, a very much of a little lady, is a child of his first wife. His last wife was Bridget Downey, who died about a year since.
