Shipping of Infected Cattle. DAYTON, O., Aug. 26.—It would probably be just as well for the state live stock commission to know that the Miami county drivers who brought diseased cattle from St. Louis and introduced Texas fever into the herd near Alamo, and sold several car loads of the same range stock here, are still carrying the same infection and shipping range cattle contrary to law.

MEMORIES OF OTHER DAYS. Eighth Annual Reunion of the Fifty-fourth O. V. L. was held at the fair grounds on Thursday, and while the surviving members of the gallant regiment who were present were not great in number or loud in noise they had a most delightful time and renewed the memories of their soldier days with all the enthusiasm characteristic of the boys who were the blue.

About 25 members of the regiment, together with their wives, were present and passed the day delightfully. In the morning quite a number of them visited the East street shops, and although the great works were not running full-handed, the two or three hundred men who were at work gave the visitors an idea of the magnitude of the shops. Others of the visiting comrades who did not care to go to East street, went to the next regiment at Columbus during the Ohio Centennial. Captain Bell, of Columbus, was chosen president, and L. T. McCollum, of Columbus, was chosen secretary.

The Fifty-fourth regiment included companies from all parts of the state, but it was chiefly composed of men from central Ohio. Among those from this city are members of the regiment are: Fire Chief E. L. Henry, Henry Leitch, Daniel W. Wilson, A. A. Alesh and John Eisenberger and Charles Stillman. The Fifty-fourth was one of the very few Zouave regiments from Ohio and it did gallantly.

THE LAMP EXPLODED. A Bad Fire Narrowly Avoided This Morning at North's Grocery. At 6:30 this morning an alarm of fire was received at the Central engine house by telephone from the fire alarm station at the fire to be on South Market street, Box No. 25, corner of Market street and Southern avenue, was sounded, and the Centrals were just leaving the house when one of the boys, who had been out exercising the horses, rode up and said that the fire was in the second story of the room over the Market street, but that it had been extinguished. The machinery was not run out. When Mr. North opened his grocery this morning he discovered that the room was full of smoke. The lamp which had been burning had exploded, but the fire was discovered before it had gotten a good start. The fire was a little and a chimney was burned, but no further damage was done.

IN FLAGRANT DELICTO. Charles Yeager, a West End Saloonist, Caught Dead to Rights by His Wife. A lively case is reported to the police from the west end. Charles Yeager is a well-known saloonist, whose place is corner Light and Main streets. Yesterday afternoon his wife went to a funeral. When she returned she discovered Yeager in bed in a questionable position with a young woman of loose morals named Franklin. Both were in diaboli. Mrs. Yeager has left the house and will apply for a divorce.

Prospective Wedding. Mr. W. H. Garrett, of this city, and Miss Mary McCarthy, of Owasco, Mich., are to be married on the 9th of September at the home of the bride, Mr. Frank Hughes, of New Carlisle, a particular friend of the groom, will act as best man. Mr. Garrett will be accompanied to Owasco by his sister, Miss Maggie, and several friends. The groom is a well-known and popular young man of Springfield, and the bride is not unknown in this city and is a most charming lady. They may joy and prosperity attend the young couple.

A Jolly Crowd. Quite a number of prominent railroad men were in the city last night. Among them were Messrs. Charles Traver, of the Chicago and Northwestern; Colonel Orr, of the R. & O.; and J. J. Ruple, of the Pan Handle, all with headquarters at Columbus, Cincinnati, and C. C. Haines, of the Pan Handle, headquarters at Dayton. It was a jolly crowd.

In Honor of His Birthday. Officer Record celebrated his thirty-third birthday on Thursday, and in the evening he called on "set up" the cigars to his brother officers and to the newspaper boys in honor of the occasion. "Dat" is a good one, and it is to be hoped that he may celebrate many more anniversaries of his birth.

THE PEOPLE'S EXPOSITION.

Scenes and Incidents at the Best Agricultural Exhibition Ever Held in Clark County—Thursday's Big Crowd.

The Best and biggest fair in the history of the Clark County Agricultural society wound up this afternoon. The crowd on the grounds today is not nearly so large as yesterday's, for Thursday has come to be accepted as the typical "big day." But the attendance was by no means small, and 5,000 to 10,000 people made a very good showing.

Yesterday was a corker. On Thursday the fair of 1887 the gate receipts were $1,900, and this was so far above anything that the society had ever taken in before that it was put up as a "high water mark," and a precedent to stimulate future effort. Yesterday the gate receipts took the fair to a new high, for the receipts within a few days of the fair, amounting to $1,900, were not nearly so large as yesterday's. Figuring on a basis of the gate receipts and adding the number of family tickets and complimentary, the attendance must have been in the neighborhood of 18,000. Such an attendance at a Clark County fair is a record.

Notwithstanding the splendid weather and the fact that it was the last day of the fair, the people did not seem to mind the fact that the fair was closing. The fair was a success in every respect. The expenses have been much larger this year than usual. Considerable money has been spent on the grounds, and the present fair is the largest ever held in Clark County. At the meeting of the agricultural board this morning, a written protest was filed by P. J. Agnew, one of the exhibitors in the floral department. He claims that both E. Kisker and Mr. Hagerman, two other exhibitors, purchased flowers from other parties to place on exhibition—a thing which the rules of the board expressly forbid. Action on the protest was deferred until the next regular meeting.

DEATH OF DR. FRYE. Mr. Francis Augustus Frye, of Peoria, Ill., died at his home in Peoria, Ill. Dr. Frye was well known in Springfield and had many friends here. He was a member of the Peoria Medical Association, and was a prominent physician in Peoria. He was a member of the Peoria Medical Association, and was a prominent physician in Peoria.

STRALEY BOUND OVER. He Waives Examination and Gives Bond in the Sum of $500. This (Friday) morning at 9 o'clock the case of W. S. Straley, charged with pointing a pistol at Mrs. Baskerville, was called in the police court. Mr. Straley was present with his attorney, E. S. Wallace, esq. Mr. Wallace stated to the court that as some important witnesses from Madison county, whom they desired to have at the trial, could not be gotten here in time, his client would, therefore, waive examination and be bound over to the grand jury. Mr. Wallace stated further that they expected to produce some racy testimony in regard to the character of the prosecuting witness. Judge Young fixed Mr. Straley's bond at $500, which was furnished by Gus Hibbschman.

CAR BREAKER CAUGHT. Officers Waskey and Warner Get a Burglar Dead to Rights. At half-past 1 o'clock this morning, officers Waskey and Warner made an important and what might be termed a lucky capture. They were going through the "rigger" yards near York street, when they saw a man working at the door of an L. & W. box car. They got very close to him before he discovered them and he gave up without a word. He had broken both seals on the car and was just about to open the door when he was caught. The car was loaded with water meters, pipes and parts. The fellow was jailed for carrying on his trade. He registered as Edward Cass.

Pleasant Reunion. A very pleasant reunion of the Lagoda Avenue Young Ladies' Bible class was held yesterday afternoon and evening at the residence of their former teacher, J. S. Nelson, at 407 East street. The occasion being the forty-first anniversary of the birthday of Mr. Nelson. Croquet, watermelon, swinging, ice cream, conversation, music and yellow-legged chicken were in the program. The evening was spent in an impromptu lecture by Mr. Nelson, together with the old-fashioned games of "Stool of Repentance," "Wooden Spoon" and "The House of Cards." The party broke up with many hearty wishes for the return of many such occasions in the future.

Death of Mr. James Stewart. We learn from the Mt. Vernon Republic that Mr. James Stewart, who formerly resided here and who built a house on Plum street, recently died in Mt. Vernon, and that the funeral occurred at the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. H. C. Hills, on Wednesday morning, at half-past nine, Elder Lindsey, from Cleveland, officiated. The deceased died tranquilly in the hope of a bright future. His illness was a lingering one of consumption, but his patience was good. He was formerly a Congregationalist but about a year ago followed his wife into the Second Adventist church. We understand that Mrs. Stewart has recovered her health.

Ninth Annual Reunion of the Forty-Sixth O. V. L. at Van Wert. The ninth annual reunion of the Forty-sixth O. V. L. was held at Van Wert, Ohio, on the 24th and 25th of August. Mr. Jacob Eggert, captain of the Lagoda Avenue engine house, who is a member of the regiment, was in attendance and presided at the reunion. Quite a number of the members of the regiment passed through this city today, en route to their respective homes. The affair was informal and the twenty or more guests present enjoyed the evening to the utmost. The refreshments, the music and the social amusements were all of the highest order.

Manuscript Display. If the people of Clark county rightly appreciate the good, live, wide-awake, old-fashioned, Downey, Wiseman & Co. will have the biggest trade in manuscripts and hardware that ever been known in the state. The immense display made by them at our fair was beyond anybody's expectations, by a hundred per cent. Traveling men who attend the fair in the interest of various manufacturers, both east and west, unite in saying that they never saw any state fair or exhibition any display made by any one firm that would compare with that made by Downey, Wiseman & Co.—in fact, they were utterly astonished that any one firm should attempt such a mammoth show. But energy and push will accomplish wonders.

YESTERDAY'S RACES. The races yesterday were the most exciting of any held during the fair, and a large crowd that watched them was amply repaid for their stay. The 3 minute trot came first, with seventeen entries. The entries were "Moss," owned by A. B. Kincaid, Urbana; "Red," so m. by C. C. Grove, Urbana; "Daniel Moore," by G. W. Wood, Springfield; "Paragon," by S. W. Taylor, Marysville; "Mammoth," by W. M. Adams, Hillsylvania; "Cherry Bloss," by J. D. Converse, Urbana; "Edwin Denmark," by J. A. Callahan, Minco; "Lakota," by J. E. Johnson, Urbana; "Admiral," by J. E. Johnson, Urbana; "Frank B.," by J. E. Johnson, Urbana; "Excelsior Jr.," by E. Lawson, Paris; "Victory," by H. H. Horton, Paris; "Haystack," by W. M. Adams, Hillsylvania; "Belle W.," by H. W. Weaver, Hillsylvania; "Frank M.," by C. T. Richmond, Urbana.

The 2 1/2 trot came out a poor third in the first heat, but took second, third and fourth in the order, winning first money. "Cherry Bloss" took second money, "Frank M." took third and "Excelsior Jr." took fourth. Following is the summary of the race, showing the positions taken by the four winners:

Table with 4 columns: Name, Position, Money, Owner. Rows include Cherry Bloss, Frank M., Excelsior Jr., and Belle W.

The 2 1/2 trot was left unfinished on account of darkness, and it is to be finished today. "Despatch" owned by G. W. Wood, Jr., of this city, took the first and third heats, and "Captain Monarch," owned by John Allen, of Xenia, the second and sixth heats with ease. The summary is follows:

Table with 4 columns: Name, Position, Money, Owner. Rows include Despatch, Captain Monarch, and others.

OHIO SOLDIERS' MEMORIALS. Beautiful Memorials to Ohio's Boys in Blue Being Erected on the Gettysburg Battlefield—Presentation of the same.

Captain Alfred E. Lee, secretary of the Gettysburg memorial commission, has issued a circular by order of that body, which contains pretty full information in regard to the dedicatory exercises. The circular says:

The twenty beautiful memorials which the state of Ohio is now erecting on the battlefield at Gettysburg, Pa., in honor of the various Ohio organizations, which took part in the battle, will be formally presented to the governor of the state, and by him transferred to the Battlefield Memorial Association on Wednesday, September 14 next.

The exercises will take place on the battlefield. The presentation address, on behalf of the Ohio commission, will be delivered by General James S. Robinson, secretary-general of the Battlefield Memorial Association, who will deliver a presentation address.

The dedicatory and memorial address will be delivered by General S. H. Hurst, late of the Seventy-third Ohio Infantry.

Captain Lee has received a letter from General Francis C. Barlow of New York, who has been spending the summer in Mass., which is in reply to one sent by the secretary, saying that he will try and be present on September 14 at the exercises of dedication. General Barlow commanded a division of the Eleventh corps at the battle of Gettysburg, and when wounded was carried to the same house where Captain Lee was taken when wounded in the same battle. Letters have been received from Gen. H. W. Slocum and General Barlow, expressing their regret that they will be present at the dedicatory exercises.

General Foraker served on General Slocum's staff in the west. General Slocum is a native of Ohio, and it is expected that quite a large per cent of the membership will improve the opportunity to go.

A GREAT SUCCESS. The Fair Drill was a great success at the Washington Entertainment Night. The fan drill and banquet given at the village Thursday night, under the auspices of C. H. Cissel and company of North street church, proved a grand success in every respect. The attendance was very large, and the music, which was furnished by the Little Six band, was fine. The drill corps was composed of the following young ladies: Miss Mary Clay, captain; Misses Bartlett, Moore, Linn, Georgia Boone, Mary Yerkum, Mary Smith, Jessie Page, Emma Linden, Dora Smith, Emma Breckenridge, Lida Dudley, Jennie Whetzel, Elvira Gregory, Susie Brunel, Julia Faye, Eva Burnett, and Katie Ayers. Promptly at 9:30 the charming and efficient captain marched her company out on the floor, where, amid the continued rounds of applause, they executed one command after another with a beauty and precision of movement that some of our military companies would do well to imitate. Each lady seemed to vie with the other in precise movements and graceful carriage. The manner in which the commands were executed showed no lack of preparation, and reflects great credit upon the company, especially the captain, Miss Clay, for the grace and dignity in which she managed her company.

After the company had broken ranks, the band called the immense throng to the delicious banquet, where fully 175 persons sat down to a most excellent repast. The following was the menu:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Item. Rows include Cold Ham, Tongue, Corned Beef, Hot Rolls and Butter, Pickles, Chicken Salad, Apple Sauce, etc.

After the delicacies were disposed of, some interesting toasts were made by Revs. Ross, Vines, Brown and Mr. James Bay. After spending a short time in general merriment the throng dispersed. It was erroneously stated in Wednesday's paper that in the class of standard bred trotters J. D. Boyd's sucking colt took first prize.
