

WEATHER FACTS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Daily slight changes in temperature; in a. m., followed by clearing weather.

SPRINGFIELD, O., October 1, 1887.

THE WHEN

Exhibits the largest stock in the city. We show more Overcoats in fall weights, and more fine and medium Suits for men's, youths', boys' and children's use than any other house in Central Ohio.

Workingmen's Suits.

Stout stuff as to quality. Built for durability: strong seams, buttons well sewed on; the kind of suits that any one wants for service.

Unlaundried White Shirts.

We are selling the unlaundried White Shirt, of New York Mills Muslin, linen bosom, lined with linen, at wholesale prices. That is, you can get a single shirt of us at the rate by the lot. If you need a shirt, come look at these; we have others, of course, and will gladly show you the whole line, whether you want to buy or not.

Generally, we can fit a man out from his worktime needs to his holiday enjoyment and Sunday leisure. Try us; the only One Price and Square Dealing Clothing House in Springfield.

THE WHEN,

25 and 27 West Main Street.

COFFEE

A most important item in our domestic economy, is entitled to more attention than it generally receives. At the majority of breakfast tables, "if the Coffee is good, everything is good;" a fact so significant in itself that no argument is needed to prove the all importance of buying the best, if they do cost a few cents more. Try any of the following:

- Plantation Mocha.
Maleberry Java.
Royal Mocha and Java.
Royal Java.
Mandeling Java.
Old Government Java.
Maracaibo.
Peaberry Santos and Rio.

These Coffees are Fresh and Crisp, and of the best quality.

THE VETERANS.

The Grand Army Boys Have Some Ringing Resolutions Under Discussion Yesterday.

General John P. Rea Elected Commander-in-Chief, and Nelson Cole, Senior Vice Commander—Points of Interest.

St. Louis, Oct. 1.—The encampment was called to order at 9 a. m., yesterday. The report of the inspector general was adopted with slight amendment.

The committee on resolutions reported back the resolution offered by Vandervoort in regard to the veto of the dependent pension bill and a pension to Mrs. Logan, recommending the adoption of that part that referred to Mrs. Logan's pension and the rejection of the balance.

McDonnell, of Indiana, spoke on the same side, and under the operation of the previous question Vandervoort's amendment was overwhelmingly defeated and the report of the committee was adopted by a vote of 316 to 122.

Resolved, That while we recognize that the disapproval of any measure presented to him by congress is a constitutional prerogative of the president, to be exercised by him according to his discretion, yet we cannot but feel that this involves also the privilege of going beyond the bounds of that power to officially censure or censure the broken-down and needy men to whom the nation owes everything.

Resolved, That the dependent pension bill passed by the forty-ninth congress and vetoed by the president was the least measure of justice that could have been asked of the nation for the men to whom it owes its salvation; that it did not represent a tithe of what is due those gallant and brave men who have sacrificed their lives for the nation.

The committee on resolutions presented majority and minority reports on the mouth or service pension bill. The majority of the committee reported against the measure and the minority of five (a committee of one from each department) reported in its favor.

On motion of General Wagner of Pennsylvania a committee was appointed to get up a testimonial to present to Commander-in-Chief Fairchild.

The following were the nominations for the commander-in-chief for the ensuing year: General Slocum, General T. F. Slocum, General A. P. Grier, General Grier and Rea 194. Sherman received 18 and Warner of Missouri 1. Rea was declared elected. He was escorted to the platform by the defeated candidates, Anthony and Grier, and returned thanks to the encampment.

The rules were suspended and Nelson Cole, of Michigan, was elected senior vice commander. The junior vice commander was John C. Linahan of New Hampshire. General Lawrence Donahue was elected surgeon general. Rev. Edward Anderson was elected chaplain-in-chief.

Then the committee on rules and regulations submitted their report on their proposition to enable a class of persons to enter the army who had served in the field but have never been mustered into the service was defeated.

STRAIGHT STATEMENTS.

A Fair and Business-Like Discussion of the Coal Question, as Applied to Springfield.

Proof That Springfield Dealers Are Not Charging Exorbitant Prices—Coal Dealers and Other Businessmen Compared—Liberal Policy.

The interest that has been taken in the coal question in Springfield this season, the amount of newspaper writing upon the subject, and the agitation of the public about its various phases, would seem to indicate that the coal question is a very important one to the citizens of this city.

As most if not all of our citizens well know, an organization of consumers, known as the Union Co-operative Coal Co., has been formed here, for the avowed purpose of breaking down the coal merchants, or the "ring," if one chooses so to term it, by selling coal to its members at, or just above, cost.

The idea actuating the organizers of this company was the oft-repeated and strenuously-urged charge that the "ring" was drawing the life blood of the people by its monopolizing the supply and controlling the price of one of the prime necessities of life.

From the reckless assertions made by word of mouth and scattered broadcast, though the public would have almost imagined that the coal dealer paid nothing for his merchandise and that the admittedly high price of coal was nearly all profit. It was claimed that the coal was sold at a profit of 25 per cent, and that the coal exchange in Springfield, coal was being sold at from a dollar to a dollar and a half less here than was the market price.

Resolved, That while we recognize that the disapproval of any measure presented to him by congress is a constitutional prerogative of the president, to be exercised by him according to his discretion, yet we cannot but feel that this involves also the privilege of going beyond the bounds of that power to officially censure or censure the broken-down and needy men to whom the nation owes everything.

THE VOLUNTEER'S VICTORY.

What the London Papers Have to Say About the Achievement of the American Sloop.

The "Telegraph" and the "Times" Concede the Triumph—Strikers Blow Up a Shop With Dynamite—War in Egypt.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 1.—In commenting on the yacht race the Telegraph says: "We are whipped and honestly beaten, nor ought a single ungenerous word to be uttered impugning the honor and glory of the victor. We are sorry to record the victory, but the Volunteer is a better all-round racing ship. The Thistle could probably out sail the Volunteer on a long sea voyage. The former was defeated, but not disgraced, and we hope to repeat the challenge in 1888."

The President's Journey. INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 1.—Daybreak found the president's train in Ohio, about two hours east of Columbus. A brass band serenade was experienced a little before midnight and from time to time at stopping places. Voices were calling to each other in the darkness, "Where is he?"

About a thousand persons were at the station at Columbus when the train arrived at half past 4 o'clock, to look at the car which carried the president.

At Bradford Junction, at 7 this morning, the president made his first appearance and greeted a little crowd of a hundred which had gathered about his car, with hearty "good morning," and excused his wife, who, he said, was resting.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 1.—Day dawned in drizzle and the outlook for the reception gloomy enough, but the president's good luck brought him a burst of sunshine as the procession marched. The crowd has been exceeded here only by the crowd that greeted Blaine. The line of march was from the railroad to the state house, where he was formally received and held his reception. The view up Main street was an inspiring one, with breeze enough to make a vista of fluttering color.

The procession moved promptly on time, at 11 o'clock, and was composed of mounted police, mounted escort, governor's staff, light infantry, and the president's escort, the Hendrick club to number two or three hundred. The open carriage was drawn by eight grey horses. On the back seat sat the president and by his side Mrs. Cleveland. On the opposite seat was Senator McDonald.

The progress of the vehicle was marked by occasional cheers, but chiefly by shrill cries and cat-calls of boys. Hats were waved and handkerchiefs fluffed from every window as the carriage moved slowly up the street. There was distinctly felt a social atmosphere and greeting, which was a tribute altogether fitting and of finer flavor than the noisy demonstration of political gatherings. The general manner gave this out as the crowd swept over the curbs into the street, making two great streams of people flowing down behind the escorting clubs. Following were carriages with city officials followed by those of the reception committee and those in turn by the Jefferson and Duckworth clubs of Cincinnati, and several other out of town organizations. Governor Gray made the welcoming speech.

The New Dynamite Gun. NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Further experiments in target practice with the pneumatic dynamite gun were made yesterday. They were undertaken to settle the question as to whether the rapidity of fire could be combined with accuracy. Results showed that ten shells, each carrying fifty-five pounds of explosive gelatine, could be discharged in ten minutes and thirty seconds, and the whole four of the projectiles failed in the matter of range going over or falling short, the remaining six would have struck within a space of six yards on the side of a ship.

Union Labor People Arouse in Covington. CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.—The election for ward officers today in Covington, Ky., aroused considerable interest from the fact that the democrats and republicans united on candidates in opposition to those named by the union labor party, and at noon the union labor candidates are much ahead of the opposition, and are confident of a sweeping victory.

Northern and Union Pacific. NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The terms of agreement between the Northern Pacific and Union Pacific railroads are officially as follows: The Northern Pacific joins the Union Pacific in a guarantee of dividends and charges on the Oregon navigation securities, the Union Pacific paying three per cent, and the Northern Pacific three per cent, of the guaranteed dividends of six per cent on the Oregon navigation stock.

Wartime Preparations. CATHO, Oct. 1.—Advices have been received from Massawah to the effect that the king of Abyssinia has ordered his General Rasaloula to advance to Massawah, in order to forestall the Italians, and that Russia has sent 200 officers there, under the guise of priests, to assist the Abyssinians. Active preparations are being made and the campaign will begin about the middle of October.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

They are Getting Ready for a Red-Hot Fight and the Central Committee is Holding Frequent Meetings.

At the republican headquarters this afternoon the central committee is receiving reports from the poll books that have been put out over the county, and transacting such other routine business as comes before them. They are holding frequent meetings and attending strictly to business, with the view of making a good and hot fight. The next rally will soon be announced, and there will be plenty of lively and red-hot speeches at the wigwag.

Andrew Neiland. Friends Not Guilty in the Police Court and Has His Case Set For Next Friday.

In the police court this afternoon Andrew Neiland appeared to answer to the charge of murder, in the mysterious Mahoney case last Fourth of July. He pleaded "not guilty," and had the case set for hearing next Friday afternoon. He was then taken back to jail.

Third Lutheran Sapper and Entertainment. The supper and entertainment to be given by the ladies of the Third English Lutheran church has been postponed from Tuesday evening to Friday evening of next week. It will be held in the new church before the plasterers begin work. A meeting will be held on Monday evening at the residence of Mr. Charles C. Taylor, 210 1/2 Southern avenue, to perfect arrangements for it.

In Convenient New Quarters. Mr. William Thornton, the successful agent of the White Sewing Machine, has moved into his new room, No. 10 north Market street, recently remodeled and fitted up for him. It is a model of convenience, and Mr. Thornton is better able than ever to attend to the wants of his many patrons. His wife will be exhibiting her brilliant embroidery and stamping work.

The Piqua and Troy Branch. The Piqua and Troy branch of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road was completed yesterday, and will be opened for business on next Monday. Work was first begun on this branch road in 1883, but was delayed by injunctions and other causes until last year, when work was resumed. The road is eight and a half miles in length, and extends from Piqua to Troy.

Pleasant Farewell Party. A very delightful party was given last evening at the residence of Mr. Holm, Wednesday, on west North street, as a farewell to Mr. Theo. Burnett, who leaves tomorrow for New York, to enter a veterinary school. About twenty-five guests were present at the party, and the time was pleasantly spent with dancing, music and refreshments.

The Police Court. Nick Jackson was arrested yesterday while at work on a warrant charging him with gambling. This is his first arrest for a long time and his first appearance before a police judge. Viola Dickey, charged with using profane language, was dismissed. No other cases are reported for today.

Funeral of Mrs. J. A. Todd. The funeral of Mrs. J. A. Todd will be held at the family residence on East High street, Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial private.

For Burglars in Anthracite Coal go to Wheelock & Merrill, Grand opera house.

Springfield Lumbermen. The subject of Rev. S. P. Dunlap's discourse tomorrow (Sunday) evening at the Congregational church will be "Alms and Methods of Organized Labor." The discourse will contain incidents of reference to strikers, lockouts and boycotts. All are invited.

ONLY A WRECK.

Two I. R. & W. Freight Trains Come Together and One Engine and Fourteen Cars Wrecked Near Hollandburg, Ind.

At an early hour Friday morning as two sections of freight train No. 14, were nearing the crossing at the station just east of Hollandburg, Ind., on the line of the Indiana, Bloomington & Western Railway, another of the regular wrecks occurred. It was while the first section of the train was standing still and the engine taking water, that the second section dashed into the engine of the first section. Engine No. 134 was pulling the second section and was running at a lively rate of speed when the crash ahead was seen to be inevitable. The engine plunged into the caboose and made it a pile of kindling wood and a row of cars in front and behind it were wrecked in a perfect mass. Fourteen cars are said to be wrecked. The engine is pretty well stripped and must go into the shops at once. One man was hurt, as the engineer and fireman of the 134 jumped and saved themselves.

Passenger trains Nos. 5 from the east and 4 from the west transferred, and the train going to Columbus arrived here at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. An extra No. 4 to Columbus was made up here and sent out on the time of the regular No. 4, thereby accommodating the Springfield business. The wrecked train left for the wreck and it was night before the track was clear.

President Austin Corbin in his private car was coming east on No. 4 and had to be in New York today. A special train was made up at Lima and took him to Richmond where he took the Pan Handle for New York.

YELLOW SPRINGS. Matters About to Come to a Focus in the Mixed School taught on.

Intelligence was received this morning from Yellow Springs by a REPUBLICAN representative that the colored patrons appeared at the Dayton street school with their children, as agreed in the meeting Thursday night, and were again refused admittance. In consequence thereof the colored people will proceed to test the matter with legal assistance, without unnecessary delay. The suit, which will be entered at once, will, no doubt, be a very warm contest, as both sides are determined.

LAST EVENING'S FIRE. A Small Fire, With a Loss of One Hundred Dollars at Lagoda.

At 7 o'clock last evening an alarm of fire was sounded from Box 11 at Lagoda. The Lagoda and Western companies responded and found the fire in a frame house about half a mile north of the shops of Warder, Bushnell & Glessner. The fire was put out by a bucket of water and the chemical engine, as there was no water plug near by. The loss will reach about one hundred dollars. It was a long and hard run but the Westerns made good time.

Not a Carb-stone Broker. In the account of the Robinson forgery case yesterday Mr. Thomas M. Offutt was mentioned as a carb-stone broker. To this Mr. Offutt takes exception and says that he has a regular office with the firm as all his business. In the use of the expression "carb-stone broker" in connection with Mr. Offutt, it was intended merely to distinguish from other brokers. The REPUBLICAN had not the slightest intention of reflecting on Mr. Offutt, for he is a straight-forward, honorable business man and is recognized as such throughout Springfield.

Democratic Nominating Talent. The democratic county central committee has been advised that Hon. Timothy E. Tarney, of East Saginaw, Mich., said to be a very bright young orator, and Hon. James E. Campbell, of Butler county, will speak here October 14. Carlisle and Foran are booked to appear later on.

To Succeed Revolver. There is talk of making Rev. Samuel P. Sprocher, of Cleveland, successor to the late Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, of Plymouth church. The gentleman is a son of Dr. Sprocher, of Wittenberg college. Today's Ohio State Journal publishes his portrait.

Strikers Suspected of Blowing Up a Shop. PITTSBURG, Oct. 1.—A Uniontown, Pa., special says: A large boiler and pumps at Bliss & Marshall's kyle works were blown to pieces by dynamite Thursday night. The employees have been on a strike for several weeks and it is supposed the outrage was committed by some of the strikers.
