We have passed the state from bankruptcy and maintained and advanced her credit to the highest point it has ever reached.

THE CAMPAIGN IS CLARIFIED. Senator John Sherman and General E. F. Noyes will speak in the wigwag on the evening of November 11th and the central committee are making arrangements to have a big meeting.

Major McKinley and Gen. Wm. H. Gibson will speak in the same place on the evening of the 17th and Governor Foraker will close up the campaign in the wigwag, on the 24 of November.

Governor Foraker made a strong speech at Middletown, Saturday.

The Ohio republican league has 12,000 members. It is largely composed of young men.

The fourth story of the Henry block, on the corner of Main and Spring, will be put up this week.

Powell is too strong a case of crowd for Mr. Sylvanus Johnson of the Cincinnati Enquirer, to swallow.

Analyst Parsons demands an unconditional release. If he will wait until his appointed time he will get it.

Dr. Parker, of London, tried to sell Beecher's shoes, Sunday, with some degree of success. He is a very elaborate orator.

The Ohio State Journal, on Monday, has this nice paragraph:

Springfield is a generous neighbor and one to be proud of. Both the Republic and the Times heartily congratulate Columbus in securing the next national encampment of the G. A. R.

We will do still better. We will help you take care of your crowd if you will send over a few thousands of the boys at night, to return the next morning after breakfast.

The Buffalo News, the paper which first brought out Cleveland as a candidate for the presidency, and which is an independent democratic paper, we believe, speaks as follows of Fred Grant, republican candidate for the office of secretary of state in New York state:

It is highly probable that the "son of his father," particularly in view of the disagreeable slurs that have been cast at that father for political reasons, will find himself honored by the voters of the state with a large majority.

MR. ABELL. We are sorry to learn, through the union labor organ - the Sunday News - if we may be allowed to call that the organ, when the Workingman's Ad-vo-cate presents such vigorous claims in the same direction - that the republican central committee has been discourteous to Mr. Abell, the democratic candidate for the lower house of the legislature - and, coming from a paper which, as a union labor journal, is opposed to Mr. Abell and his party, or is supposed to be, the case has a serious appearance, and it must be looked into. The only ground for this charge is that the committee has not responded to the challenge of the democratic committee that Mr. Rawlins unite with Mr. Abell, in a public discussion. It occurs to us quite possible that the democratic committee were a little unfortunate in the phrasing employed. If its members had sensibly invited Mr. Rawlins to debate with Mr. Abell, the case would have borne a different aspect; but the committee issued a challenge, and, as a matter of fact, there is no courtesy whatever in the issuing of a challenge. It is at best a note of defiance and the issuing of a challenge involves the idea that the party of the other part is to be forced to accept or be branded as a coward. This is the meaning of a challenge, in plain English, and is understood by persons who understand the language. We therefore claim that the republican committee is under obligation to notice the challenge, either as politicians or gentlemen - and their neglect to do so does not involve discourtesy to Mr. Abell, who did not issue the challenge. If any discourtesy can be shown to have been manifested to the democratic committee we would be glad to have some able statesman and journalist show us that it was not richly deserved. We do not propose that our able and distinguished contemporary, Mr. West, of the News, shall exceed us in courtesy and magnanimity to a political opponent. Mr. Abell is a gentleman, and a Christian, who came here a short time ago, from Oberlin college, the former home of Brother Walter Thomas Mills, but let us say in behalf of Mr. Abell that he was not "tired" from the institution, but graduated in due form, upon his merits. That Mr. Abell should come out from such an institution, from which radiates such a flood of political and religious illumination, a democrat, a free trader and an opponent, upon principle, of "mixed schools" is a matter, the responsibility of which rests upon himself. It seems to us that he is shining (politically, if not morally) against great light. Nevertheless, we have a good deal of personal regard for Mr. Abell, and a fair amount of consideration, and as we know that he is very anxious to discuss the "mixed school" question - a dead issue, that has been settled by law, the results of which have been generally accepted by the people - while we cannot entertain much respect for his judgment and must condemn his unwise course in trying to create a disturbance in the schools for merely a partisan purpose and by an appeal to that lowest of personal motives - prejudice - we are still willing that Mr. Abell should be gratified, and have taken pains to accommodate him in a manner which would give to the discussion the greatest possible significance. Mr. Abell is a white man, and he now wishes to appear as the champion of a policy which should drive colored children from the public schools of the state, to which they are now admitted by the provisions of the constitution of the United States, the statutes of Ohio, and the law of God Almighty. We therefore have secured the consent of the most prominent and the ablest of the race in Ohio - wishes to present our views on their legal rights and wrongs - Mr. James B. Aherl - who is abundantly qualified to meet Mr. Abell, and who will, on occasion, give good reasons why the laws of the land, in the interest of fair play and justice, should be enforced in behalf of blacks as well as whites. Mr. Biferi is a gentleman, who holds a county office by the suffrages of the people - which Mr. Abell does not and will not, for some time to come. Now, Mr. Abell will accept an invitation to discuss the matter in which he seems to take such a deep interest, we believe that he can be given a hearing, in the presence of large audiences. As to the republican committee and Mr. Rawlins, we presume they have their arrangements for the campaign completed; but they have provided for a thorough canvass of the county, and that no new feature can now be introduced. And there is certainly no reason or pretext why they should give Mr. Abell the benefit of the large audiences which invariably come out to republican meetings. With all possible courtesy, we may say to the democrats - get up your own audiences at your own expense. The republicans do this. Why shouldn't you? The Irish American Times, of Columbus, Ohio, which has been advocating Home Rule for Ireland and protection for American industry, declares that it must be regarded, hereafter, as a republican paper. Its specialties are as follows: "Our aim shall be to advance the cause of the republican party. "Their cause is our cause. We propose to hit hard. "We shall fearlessly expose the vices of the democrats, and that no new feature. "We hate cunning and treachery. "We hate corruption. "We despise forgery. "To see vice in the stock in trade in the democracy, and through them only do they hope to win. "To our Irish readers we say, follow us. "We are on the ground. "The republican party is 'Ireland for the Irish.' "The democracy proclaims in favor of 'Ireland for the English.' "Choose ye!" "In the state of Vera Cruz, 120 miles from the city of that name, there is a section of country called 'Heaven,' because of its favorable climatic conditions. Its air, water and general environment are conducive to long life. Jesus Valdivia recently died there at the age of 154. He was carried to the grave by his three sons, respectively 140, 114 and 110 years old. To have children married at 12 and 14 years of age is no common thing. The women die young. - Chicago News.

WORKING P.M.'S. The Democratic Idea of Civil Service Reform. The Democratic Executive Committee Writing to Postmasters and Electing Them to Stand in Lists of Republicans to Whom Campaign Documents Are to Be Sent. Special Correspondence. COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 1. - A glittering example of the civil service reform methods of President Cleveland's postmasters is given in the present methods of Mr. Powell's committee. One of the first things Mr. Dungan and Mr. Powell did in starting the campaign was to get into correspondence with the Democratic postmasters throughout Ohio and urge upon them the importance of their aiding in campaign work. Later on other letters were sent to these postmasters. The following is an exact copy of one written on a state Democratic committee letter-head, sent to a Democratic postmaster: "COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 23, 1887. "DEAR SIR: - Will you please send us at once a list of from twenty to fifty republican farmers that get mail at your office so we can send them direct some important documents? Do not fail to do this and it will come. We want to show a gain in your neighborhood. "Yours truly, IRVING DEANMAN. "Chairman." This letter is significant in more than one particular. From the statement in it that Mr. Dungan wants to send documents direct to the farmers. It is apparent that he has been using the Democratic postmasters for distributing documents heretofore, and now wishes them to use their position as postmasters to think of politics during the Fremont campaign in 1866, and has always taken a lively part since. He did much to help elect Col. M. M. Boothman to congress over Bill Hill in the Sixth district, when the democratic majority of 2,000 was overthrown. He carried the northwest corner part of the state claim that they have done good work for the party, and have exerted an influence that has been felt; hence their anxiety to be represented on the state ticket. Mr. Poe is a member of the A. R. Sons of War, Knights of the order, I. O. O. F. and Knights of Pythias, and is very popular among the members of these various orders. IMPORTANT ISSUES NOW. The present attitude of the Democrats of Ohio on the tariff question is a menace to every interest in the state - agricultural, commercial and manufacturing - as well as a dangerous threat to the workingman. The party in its platform boldly declares for a tariff for revenue only. It practically indorses the Morrison tariff, in which wool is put on the free list and the tariff on all other articles either removed or reduced to next to nothing. The wool growers of the state met with a rebuff from the Democratic convention, which not only refused to declare in favor of a restoration of the reasonable wool tariff of 1867, but would not even promise the continuance of the meager tariff on wool which has been in effect since 1882. Instead of this, the platform means, if it means anything, that Democrats of Ohio favor placing wool on the free list and giving our wool-growers no protection against foreign competition. The tariff plank in the Democratic platform is directly in the line of British interests, is non-American and follows the teaching of the London Club of England, which is worsting in its efforts to ruin the business interests of this country that those of England may be built up. What our last experience with the Democrats was, Hon. W. D. Kelley, after speaking in their favor, and the abolishing of National revenues under the protective tariff of 1842, tells as follows: "The prosperity thus produced was, however, to be short-lived, for in 1846 the tariff was reduced for the protective tariff of 1842 the tariff for revenue only was prepared by Robert J. Walker, then secretary of the treasury. The country had never prospered under such a tariff. Was it to do so now? Let experience answer this question. The law went into effect in 1847, and although we mined $1,000,000,000 of gold from the mines of California during the following decade, 1847 found the Nation bankrupt, its workmen and machinery without employment, its banks broken or in a state of suspension, and the government unable to meet its obligations. The condition of things continued until, by the protective tariff of 1861 and its war supplements, we made the duties on imports so high that combined British capitalists (and not only the British, but the French, the Germans, the Austrians, the Russians, the Americans, the Chinese, the Japanese, the Indians, the Egyptians, the Persians, the Portuguese, whose wool husbandry and wool worsted industry were destroyed by the treaty of Methuen, with China, upon whom she forces the opium trade, and to her treatment of the American people, and the people of the United States, whenever, accepting the faith she professes but which she was not government, she has adopted a tariff for revenue only. Ohio cannot indorse British free trade. The voters will vote for the interests of this country by casting their ballots for the republican ticket and protection to American interests and American labor.
