MRS. FRANCES HARRISON.
A Beautiful Tribute to a Noble Christian Philanthropist.
The following beautiful poem, of which the late Mrs. Frances Harrison, wife of the late Hon. Richard D. Harrison, is the subject, is a fitting tribute to the worth of one of the noblest, most devoted and most active Christian women who ever lived: Gone from "the burden and the heat," gone with the falling leaves, and the fading flowers, She stands before the Master with her wealth of ripened sheaves.
While yet a loving worker in His fields, He called her home.
To hear the words, "Well done"—oh, sweet ch, blessed recompense!
"Where paths were rough and thorny—over the stable and the stone." Through the byways of temptation you have sought My struggling ones: The cry of lonely children never reached your ear in vain.
While your words of cheer to weary hearts fell like the summer rain.
Gone "from the burden and the heat," and yet her work goes on.
"On," cries the memory of her life as stamped each heart upon.
While "Love" is God's great secret, unselfish hearts must still Be found to do the Master's work—be found to do His will.
Oh! the beauty of unselfish lives, would there were more to show How near to heaven man may live, and like the angels.
Inspiring us with faith and hope, that other To show us hearts as true to right, as free from self as this.
The remains of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison were brought today (October 27th) to their old home, and interred in Ferncliff.

OAK GROVE.
OAK GROVE, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Johnston, after a lingering illness of nearly six months, departed this life October 19. Funeral services were conducted by Rev.
Wildes on Thursday. The body was taken to Clinton county for interment on Friday.
Mr. John Myers and wife, who have been traveling for nearly six months, through the west, while on the road back to Pennsylvania, spent a few days with their cousins, A. H. and family. The recent winds have scattered the fodder in some of the corn-fields so badly that there seems to be no way of saving it except with a horse-rake. William Brown and family have moved in with Grandfather and Grandmother Folmer. Mr. Schenck, at the last business meeting, was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy at Bethel for the coming year.
Mr. George Hill has recently purchased, at a reasonable figure, a valuable driving horse, which is now in training under the supervision of Mr. Jeff Smiley, our village jockey. The boys of this vicinity expect to have a shooting match at clay pigeons on November 5. The shooting will be held on Mr. Sandley's farm, and persons desirous of participating or simply coming to witness the sport are cautioned against approaching from the east or by Knott's woods, as they will shoot in that direction.
George Miller and his sister Ida, from New Orleans, spent Saturday and Sunday with Gerhardt and Shigley's. They went to Springfield Saturday evening to attend an opera. Rumor has it that a couple of young men are making frequent visits to Love Joy. Mr. A. M. Turner and wife and Mr. J. Petrie and wife enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. Montgomery Patton and family last Saturday evening.

PITCHIN.
PITCHIN, Oct. 27.—The farmers are busy gathering corn. Mr. R. S. Marshall moved from Pithin last Wednesday to his farm near York Springs. M. E. H. Harfield returned home from Illinois, Saturday, with his wife, who has been sick for the last six weeks with the typhoid fever.
Mrs. Harfield went west in August to visit a friend, and took sick. Master Harry Todd, of Springfield, was in Pithin Saturday and Sunday. Gus Hatfield is very sick with the fever. Miss Peterson, of Springfield, visited at Dr. Dillman's last week. David Kirk called on some of his old friends last week, in Pithin.
Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, who have been stopping at Granville Elliott's for the past three weeks, went to Covington, Ky., last Saturday. Last Saturday night the democrats held a meeting in Pithin, which was not very enthusiastic and the attendance was very small. The meeting was addressed by Abel and Morris. Mr. L. G.
Hatfield and Sallie Little are on the sick list. There was a basket social held at the school house last Thursday night for the benefit of the church. The old folks sang a part as well as the young. Charley Marshall of Cedarville, Louis Marshall of Pithin, and Andy Fink of Springfield went up to the reservoir fishing last Monday. They expect to be gone a week.

MEDWAY.
MEDWAY, O., Oct. 27.—Medway is busy with the fall harvest. Frank Bird started for New York last Tuesday morning. John Johnston is delivering trees in Indiana.
James Harsh visited Indiana with a view to move to that state as soon as he disposes of his property in this place.
Charlie Shortle and Nick Monk are creating great havoc among the rabbits in our section of country. Rabbit skins will not be cheap if these young men intend to hunt all fall and winter. Our village doctor is visiting at Dr. Peterson's. A good restaurant near some thing that was recently needed. Lincoln Brehm and Henry Bolinger are the proprietors. The brick makers will finish the walls of the new school house this week.
Jacob Schock contemplates going into the fruit trade business. Reuben Aston writes from California that he was married at his trade. He is a good carpenter, and will not be successful. Mr. McClain and family left Tuesday for California, their future home. David Harsh purchased their property here. There will be a democratic meeting at the school house on next Saturday evening. Look out.

GREENE TOWNSHIP.
GREENE TOWNSHIP, Oct. 27.—Abell called at a residence in this township but the middle made such fine music that it was hard for him to get away. He was a very fine musician and the club is in good working order. Pithin is to be visited Saturday by Pringle and Coleman. Hopewell October 28, Rockwell and Young. Mrs.
Belle Waddle gave a surprise dinner to quite a number of Miss Nellie Waddle's friends last Saturday. Mrs. Waddle was thrown from her wagon Monday and his face and body somewhat bruised. His horse took fright at some school children.
Wm. C. Kelley and wife gave R. H.
Kelley and wife a china reception dinner in honor of their twentieth wedding anniversary last Tuesday.

habitual constipation, will find the pleasant cial in effect than any other remedy. It
