"FORAKER DAY."

The General Committee Meets to Make Final Arrangements for the Great Demonstration.

What Factories Will Close—The Cavalry Companies—Visiting Clubs—Program of the Day's Doings—The Governor's Escort Selected—Murrah!

The meeting of the general committee of republicans to make arrangements for "Foraker Day" in Springfield, held at the republican central committee rooms last night, was an enthusiastic one and considerable work was accomplished.

Among those present were R. F. Hayward, J. C. Holloway, General A. S. Bushnell, J. H. Rabbitts, J. F. McGraw, James Foley, W. S. Wilson, P. M. Cartmel, J. L. Kidder, Jason W. Phillips, Colonel W. J. White, Colonel J. H. Arbogast, J. S. Miles, W. T. Sullwell, T. G. Brown and John F. Woot.

It was the purpose of the meeting to receive reports from the sub-committees which had been appointed, and, as nearly as possible, complete the arrangements for the great meeting to be held here next Wednesday.

The mammoth tent in which the meetings are to be held and which is to be a distinctive feature of the demonstration will arrive here from Columbus on Monday night, and will be set up on Tuesday morning, a gang of men, furnished by Miller, Stowe & Freeman, the owners of the pavilion, will proceed to erect the tent on Market Square.

The difficult task of seating the immense tent has been entrusted to a committee, of which Mr. T. G. Brown is the chairman. Owing to the hardness of the ground on Market Square, Miller, Stowe & Freeman's seats cannot be put up, but the committee has a plan for seating the pavilion that will be eminently satisfactory.

Mr. John Foss who, together with Mayor Kelly, was appointed a committee to request the manufacturers of the city to close their factories during the afternoon on next Wednesday, reported that Warner, Bushnell & Gleason, P. F. Mast & Co., The St. John Sewing Machine Co., The Springfield Engine and Thresher Co., Whitley, Fassler & Kelley, and the Springfield Steel Co. had agreed to close down for the half-day, and Mast, Foss & Co. and the Superior D. M. Co. had stated to the committee that they would probably close down.

The committee had not been able to see all the manufacturers, but Mr. Foss said that he would complete the work today. General Bushnell, chairman of the committee on invitations, reported that the Young Men's Blaine Club, of Cincinnati, had notified him that owing to the press of work in Cincinnati, the club as a body would be unable to attend our demonstration, but that quite a number of the club would be here as individuals.

While he had not been notified of the action of the Lincoln Club, of Cincinnati, he had understood, unofficially, that the club would be here in force, headed by the First Regiment band. The Republican club, of Xenia, will probably come, as will also a club from Washington Court House. The Arnet-Harlan club, of Dayton, has accepted the committee's invitation and will be here in force.

Other clubs which have been invited have not yet been heard from, but it is expected that a number will come from Troy and, in all, will be here all day. The other candidates on the state ticket, with the possible exception of Judge Spear, will also be here if they are not deterred by unfavorable circumstances. General Arbogast, commander of all the forces on "Foraker Day," reported that the infantry would form on Center street with the right resting on Main. The cavalry will form on Columbia street with the right resting on Center street and deployed eastward. He had arranged the following line of march:

West on Main to Plum, south on Plum to High, east on High to Lincoln avenue, south on High to Spring, north on Spring to Main, west on Main to Market, thence south on Market to the pavilion.

Colonel White, commander of the cavalry, reported that he had succeeded fairly well with his difficult task of organizing a battalion of cavalry, and that the work of recruiting was progressing very favorably. He said that the townships of Greene, Mad River, Pike, Moorefield and Springfield would furnish companies and that companies would also come from other parts of the county.

On motion of Mr. T. G. Brown a committee of three was appointed by the chairman to draft a programme for "Foraker Day," and have it printed and distributed far and wide. Chairman Hayward appointed Mr. Brown, Colonel White and Colonel Arbogast on the committee, and they immediately retired to perform their duty.

It was then decided to have the battery fire the governor's salute (seventeen guns) on the arrival of the Governor from Troy. On motion of Mr. J. S. Miles a committee of forty-one was chosen to go to Troy on Wednesday morning to meet the governor and escort him to this city. The following committee was selected:

Gen. A. S. Bushnell James Buford Hon. O. S. Kelly Hon. J. H. Rabbitts Hon. C. M. Nichols J. L. Kidder T. T. Harrold Col. D. C. Putnam T. T. Harrold J. S. Miles John Foss B. F. K. Jennings Elt Arbogast Russell M. S. eds Dave Wilbur Christian Faulkner J. H. Rabbitts Wesley McDonald Timmy by Liddy A. Braham Ed. Kinnaman Joe Funk Hon. W. T. Sullwell R. B. Bidlow D. H. Anderson E. D. Bruce E. S. Kelly E. F. Cannon E. M. Campbell James Foley.

T. F. McGraw, Jr. The secretary was instructed to send an invitation to the Henry Heland Garnet club to take part in the parade on Wednesday. The invitation was mailed last night.

The Buckeye club was appointed as a reception committee to meet the visiting clubs and organizations at the trains on their arrival; and to act as an escort to conduct the clubs to the headquarters assigned to them. The Big Six band will act in conjunction with the Buckeye club.

Mayor Kelly was requested to furnish a detachment of twenty police to head the parade on Wednesday. The committee on programme then submitted the following report: General Committee: GENTLEMEN—Your committee on programme would submit the following as the order of rendezvous and march for "Foraker Day," November 3d, proximo:

The forenoon will be spent in receiving and conducting the visiting clubs and organizations to headquarters and in general entertainment. The Buckeye club will act as a reception committee, and will escort visiting clubs and delegations to headquarters. The governor's salute will be fired at 9:45 o'clock on the arrival of the L. B. & W. train from the west, which will bring the governor and escort.

The informal reception of the governor will be held at the Arcade hotel immediately following his arrival. The Plug Hat brigade will assemble at the wigwag at 1 o'clock sharp. The cavalry will assemble on Columbia street at 1 o'clock sharp, the right resting on Center street, deployed eastward. The procession will move promptly at 2 o'clock.

ORDER OF MARCH. Detachment of Police, General Heland and Staff, First Regiment Band, Lincoln Club (in front), Visiting Clubs, Henry Heland, Garnet Club and Buckeye Club, Big Six Band, Plug Hat Brigade, Nelson's College Club, Wittenberg College Club, Governor's Carriage and Guests' Arrivals, First Division of Cavalry, Colonel Putnam, Chief of Staff, Captain Perry Stewart, commanding Third Division, Third Division of Cavalry, Jasper Bodkin, Commander of Fourth Division, Fourth Division of Cavalry, J. L. Kidder, Commander of Fifth Division, First Division of Cavalry.

The line of march to be as previously adopted. Addresses by Governor Foraker and other distinguished speakers at the immense amphitheater on Market square at 3 o'clock p. m., and by Governor Foraker at the same place at 8 o'clock p. m.

The chorus of five hundred voices, under the direction of A. O. Hoffman, will render delightful music at the afternoon and evening meetings. All to terminate with a grand reception to the governor.

The programme was adopted and ordered printed and distributed. The committee then adjourned to meet on Monday evening at 7 o'clock, sharp.

The following general orders appointing staff officers were issued this morning: HEADQUARTERS, PLUG HAT BRIGADE, SPRINGFIELD, O., October 29, 1887. Series No. 1. (General Order No. 1.)

The following appointments have been made for staff duty: Col. David King, Col. James E. Stewart, Major W. T. Stillwell, Capt. S. A. Todd, Lieut. S. A. Morrow. The above details will please report at the wigwag on Monday evening at 8 o'clock for special assignments.

J. H. ARBOGAST, E. M. CAMPBELL, Col. Commanding. Adjutant. HEADQUARTERS FORAKER CAVALRY, SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 29, 1887. (General Order No. 1.)

The undersigned having been elected as colonel of the Foraker cavalry hereby assigns the following staff officers and division commanders as hereby announced, and they will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

Colonel D. C. Putnam, chief of staff. Jason W. Phillips, adjutant. Burt H. Whitley, quartermaster. Dr. W. W. Hall, surgeon. Rev. Frank G. Mitchell, chaplain.

Colonel William Halpin, Ensign. Robert K. Hunt, German township. Lieutenant Chat Ogden, Springfield township. Wm. M. Rockel, Dayton.

DIVISION COMMANDERS. Colonel D. C. Putnam, Captain Jasper Bodkin, J. L. Kidder.

All officers and division commanders are requested to report, properly mounted, to the colonel commanding, at 1 o'clock p. m., on Wednesday, October 30, at the corner of Columbia street, between Market and Center streets.

By order of JASON W. PHILLIPS, W. J. WHITE, Adjutant, Col. Comd'g.

To Meet the Governor at Dayton. It was decided this afternoon that the committee appointed to escort Governor Foraker to this city next Wednesday morning, would go to Dayton at 8 a. m., via the Bee Line and meet the governor there. The committee will then return with the city's distinguished guest at 9:40 a. m., on the Cincinnati paper train. The escort committee will have a special car both going to and coming from Dayton.

BOURBON DOCTRINE. A Lively Democratic Meeting at the Grand Last Night.

The democratic meeting at the Grand last night in point of numbers and enthusiasm, was satisfactory to the party. The meeting was opened by Thomas D. Wallace, acting chairman of the democratic central committee, who announced as chairman Charles E. Morris, esq., democratic candidate for probate judge. Mr. Morris, in a neat speech, introduced Judge Thomas, of Youngstown, Ohio, as the first speaker of the evening.

The Judge who, by the way, is one of the leading orators in his party in Ohio, delivered a forcible speech of some two hours duration, dealing in a statesman-like way with the leading political questions of the day. His argument on the tariff question was regarded as forcible and convincing.

The audience showed their appreciation of the democratic doctrine in a most gratifying manner, by frequent bursts of applause. The speaker dwelt at some length on the alleged corrupt legislature, particularly the legislation which deprived a large number of citizens of Cincinnati of the right of suffrage, holding that the same course might at any time affect Springfield or any other city of Ohio as well as Cincinnati.

The Judge closed his remarks by a peroration in which he called attention to the magnitude of the chief executive of the nation, a party named Cleveland. Judge Thomas may or may not believe all he said about his heaviness.

Judge Thomas was followed by J. B. Abel, democratic candidate for probate judge. Mr. Abel seemed to be hunting for the scalp of the Hon. George C. Rawlins, his chief opponent for legislative honors, and made a blackguard of himself in doing so. Abel detested his position on the mixed school question, saying that he was unalterably opposed to mixed schools for a number of reasons, foremost among which, as he believed and attempted to prove, was that a mixture of the black and white races would be very detrimental to both, and citing numerous medical authorities to prove his position. Abel pledged that if elected he would vote and use his influence to replace the old law in relation to blacks on the statute books. Owing to some misunderstanding considerable delay was had before entrance could be obtained to the opera house, which fact prevented many democrats from hearing the speaking, many leaving for home. Although the opera house was crowded room could have been obtained in the gallery.

Democrats express general satisfaction with the meeting.

Death of Mrs. T. F. McMenar. Mrs. T. F. McMenar, a sister of Mrs. T. A. Wick, died at the residence of Mrs. George W. Boyd, at Nashville, Tennessee, on Friday evening, October 28th. Her remains will be brought to Springfield, where funeral services will be held at the residence of Mr. T. A. Wick, after which the remains will be taken to Triana for interment. Due notice will be given of the time.

YOUNG IDEA PROMOTERS.

Thirteenth Annual Session of the Central Ohio Teachers' Association Held in This City.

Proceedings Friday Afternoon and Evening and Saturday Morning—Officers Elected—Resolutions—One of the Most Interesting Sessions Ever Held.

The Central Ohio Teachers' association met in the First English Lutheran church at 3 p. m. Friday and was called to order by Abram Brown, the president. A disappointment in the music was had at the first. Prayer was offered by Rev. John Pearson. General J. W. Keller was to have given the welcome address, but was unavoidably absent.

Dr. Ort, of Wittenberg college, filled his place and did it well. The response was given by Abram Brown, of Columbus. He said he had a glass of water he would drink to the tune of "Here's to Springfield and her citizens—may they live long and prosper?" This was followed by the introduction of the new president, Prof. J. W. McKinnon, of London. He is a clear and forcible speaker, and his inaugural was applauded. "What Teachers Should Read," by Miss Mary Linn, of Springfield, was a very good paper and was well delivered. She was followed by an appeal from the president for money. There being no membership fee, a collection was taken, which was freely given.

Superintendent P. W. Search, of Sidney, read a paper on "The Cultivation of Literary Tastes in Children." This was one of the best papers ever read before the association. His plans were novel, but if followed, would result in a great benefit now existing in our public schools. He received a hearty applause. Both papers were discussed in a very able and humorous manner by Dr. John Hancock, of Chillicothe. The discussion was very interesting to the members and never failed to please them. His way of speaking is always sure to gain him the undivided attention of all his hearers.

The president announced the following committees: On Resolutions—J. A. Shawan, Charles L. Loos and C. W. Bennett. On Nominations—E. B. Cox, A. E. Taylor, Miss Phillips, C. L. Van Clee and A. B. Schaefer.

The association adjourned at 4 o'clock p. m. The attendance was very large, being one of the largest ever held by the association. At 7:30 a very large audience greeted the Rev. Washington Gladden, D. D., of Columbus, and were well repaid the one hour and a quarter they listened to his fine description of that greatest of English writers, Thomas Carlyle. It was a fine description, and those who were absent missed the best and richest treat of the meeting. The doctor received many congratulations from the leading educators.

SATURDAY MORNING. The teachers were called to order by President McKinnon. On motion, Dr. Washington Gladden was made a topic of discussion. Remarks were made by Mr. Francis of Mechanicsburg, and Mr. Stevenson of Columbus. A detailed report of the doctor's literary, philanthropic and reform work, which was very appreciative and interesting. He had, in Columbus, created great interest among the people of that city. Mr. C. W. Nichols, of the REPUBLIC, was called upon, and spoke of the work wrought by Dr. Gladden, through a little book entitled, "Being a Christian."

Mr. W. McK. Vance, of Urbana, read an interesting paper on "The Province of the High School." It was, first, to train the children into the duties of citizenship. It is an arena for intellectual training and development. It knows no what-a-goods. It should be adapted to the training of the young for practical work in community. The boy must be educated into a man, and the girl into a woman. The high school is beginning to serve as a preparatory department for the college. Too much teaching should be avoided.

The high school should be the center of culture. In it literary taste should be formed and promoted. Especial attention should be given to speaking and writing. A high standard in all branches should be maintained.

Dr. John Hancock, of Chillicothe, led in the discussion of the paper. We multiply specialties too much. We have a profusion of forces and too many branches. Culture is a growth. It cannot be forced.

Dr. Hancock was followed by Abram Brown, Superintendent A. C. Duell, of Urbana, made some remarks upon the studies of the high school, and the student and the principal should study the individuality of the pupil.

The next paper was on "How Shall We Interest Our Pupils in the History of Our State?" read by Superintendent Stevenson, of Columbus. This paper was one of Dr. Stevenson's best. No man in the state is better prepared to talk to teachers upon the study of history than the doctor. The paper was discussed by Superintendent Burns, of Dayton, who felt that we had no great historical events in Ohio—no Lexington or Waterloo—except an occasional political Waterloo. Mr. Burns treated several important points with a great deal of force and good humor. The humor, which excited much laughter in the audience and was rewarded with repeated demonstrations of applause. Mr. Burns said that the state of Ohio was born in 1783, in the transfer of Canada from the crown of France to that of Great Britain. A pleasant allusion was made by Mr. Burns to our local historical character, Gen. George Rogers Clark. In closing, Mr. Burns expressed his faith in the coming year, and the children of Ohio would be taught much about the history of their own state.

Hon. Eli Tappan, school commissioner of Ohio, followed Mr. Burns, speaking of the northern boundary of the state, claiming that it was along the center of Lake Erie. Superintendent Cox, of Xenia, reported from the committee on nominations as follows: President—Abram Brown, of Dayton. Vice-presidents—Samuel March, of Chillicothe; Miss Frances Baker, of London. Secretary—Miss Kate McConnell, of Columbus.

Executive committee—Herbert Kincaid, J. W. Pearce, Springfield; C. L. VanClee, Troy.

The report of the committee was adopted. Mr. Loos, from the committee on resolutions, reported as follows: 1. Resolved, That we extend to the superintendent and teachers of Springfield, our appreciation of the many courtesies received.

2. Resolved, That our thanks are due to the citizens of Springfield for the cordial welcome given at the generous hospitality shown; to the officers and pastor of the First English Lutheran church for the use of their chapel and audience room, and to the quintette for the excellent music rendered last night.

3. Resolved, That our thanks are due to the Springfield press for liberal reports of our proceedings.

4. Resolved, That we favor a law abolishing the district system, and providing for the election of township boards, with power to select teachers, etc., as outlined in the circular of our state school commissioner.

5. Resolved, That we favor a bill permaling the boards of education to purchase books and other utensils for all the pupils under their control.

6. Resolved, That we favor a law providing for the better enforcement of compulsory education.

7. Resolved, That no person addicted to the intemperate use of intoxicating drinks, tobacco, or narcotics in any form, and the use of profane or obscene language, should be granted a certificate by any board of examiners in the state of Ohio.

8. Resolved, That our thanks are especially due to Rev. Washington Gladden for his excellent lecture on Thomas Carlyle.

9. Resolved, That we will do our utmost to create in Ohio the greatest desire for more knowledge of Ohio's history.

J. A. SHAWAN, CHAS. L. LOVE, JUN., C. W. BENNETT.

The convention adjourned, after singing the long meter doxology with an air. The new Carlists corps of teachers were in attendance at the association meeting; also most of the teachers of Bethel township.

GOD SPEED TO HIM. The Local Elks Bid a Fond Good-Bye to Exalted Ruler Goodwin.

Springfield Lodge, No. 51, E. P. O. Elks, gave an informal social session and banquet last evening, as the parting tribute to the Exalted Ruler of the lodge, ex-Mayor James P. Goodwin, who leaves with his bride next Monday for San Diego, Cal., to make the golden coast his permanent home. Like all Elks events, the affair of last night was a very handsome one. Some preliminary lodge matters were first transacted at the Elks hall, where he was one of the most popular men in the grooved copy of the appended resolutions, handsomely bound in an illuminated cover and tied with a pretty bunch of ribbons, entwining an Elk badge of silk. The resolutions were read by Mr. J. T. West, chairman of the meeting, and were as follows:

RESOLUTIONS OF REGRET at the departure of James P. Goodwin, ex-Mayor of Springfield, lodge, No. 51, E. P. O. E. Whereas, Our most worthy brother and exalted ruler, James P. Goodwin, is about to depart for his new home in San Diego, California, it is timely and appropriate that his brother members should express their sentiments toward him as an Elk, as well as their great and sincere regret over his loss to themselves and the lodge. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That Springfield Lodge, No. 51, E. P. O. E., takes sincere pleasure and proud pride in Bro. Goodwin as an exemplary man and citizen, as one of the most faithful, enthusiastic and earnest Deputies of the Noble Order of Elks, whose presence and genial spirit of fraternity have ever been a source of encouragement and inspiration to his brother Elks, one whose services to Springfield Lodge as her most harmonious and successful president officer have been invaluable, and whose welcome hereof is the everlasting gratitude and brotherly love of his fellow members of No. 51. And be it further

Resolved, That while the loss of Bro. Goodwin to the lodge and to his brother Elks individually is indefinable and inestimable, the members of Springfield Lodge are one voice in wishing Bro. Goodwin and his winsome bride God-speed, a safe journey to their new home, and health, wealth and happiness wherever they may be.

D. T. WEST, T. F. MCGREW, JR., THRO. THOMPSON, Chairman of Resolutions. Springfield, Oct. 28, '87.

Mr. Goodwin was also presented with an elegant gold Elk pin, purchased of C. G. Fried, of very handsome design. Mr. West made a graceful presentation speech, and Mr. Goodwin, feelingly responded. The party then adjourned to Adams's oyster parlors, and partook of the following excellent MENU. Stewed Oysters. Raw, Fried, Cranberry Sauce. Boast Turkey, Pickles, Celery, Bananas, Grapes, Oranges.

Mr. West was master of ceremonies, and was extremely felicitous as such. Short remarks were made by Messrs. Fulton, Tramp, R. J. Nelson, Barney Foltz, H. H. Tyner, L. M. Harris, E. A. Morgan, John A. McCarty, Thomas F. McGraw, Charles W. Constantine, Samuel Waldman, Robert Quieser, A. H. Griffith, Thos. Troupe, M. A. Hayward, Judy Aron, Al Clarke and others. All were quite appropriate and many were the expressions of good will and God-speed to Mr. Goodwin.

FORAKER CHORUS. Arrangement for the Memorial Monday Night—The Programme. On Monday evening, at the Buckeye club room, the chorus which is to sing at the Foraker meeting next Wednesday afternoon and evening will meet for rehearsal. The chorus will be very large and will be composed of the best singers in the city. It is earnestly requested that all republicans—ladies especially—who can sing even a little bit, will join the chorus and make it the greatest feature of the day.

Every member of the chorus will be given a reserved seat at both the afternoon and evening meetings, and as the music to be sung is familiar to all there is no reason why five hundred should not join the chorus. At the rehearsal on Monday night the chorus will be assisted by the Big Six, and the Big Six will also perform with the chorus at the meetings.

Director A. O. Huffman has prepared the following programme to be sung: Marching Thro' Georgia—By chorus and the audience. Star Spangled Banner—Solo and chorus. Pre-chorus (from La Marseillaise).

Dr. George Wins His Case. The Findlay Daily Courier of Tuesday, October 25, has the following concerning Dr. George, formerly of this city, that will be good news to his friends here: The case of M. A. Stevenson vs. Dr. George, which was tried at Frequent today, was decided in favor of Dr. George, with judgment against Stevenson for costs. J. F. Leahy and Blackford Bros., of Findlay, and Finestock, of Fremont, were the attorneys for Dr. George.

Died in York. Abram Heistand, father of Cris and Abram Heistand of this city, died Thursday night at his home in York, Pa., and word was received at an early hour this morning. The Heistand brothers left on the 10 o'clock train to attend the funeral, which takes place on Sunday. The deceased was also an uncle of Officer Temp Wilson.

Velvet and Fash Mils. Just received a large consignment of silk, velvets and plushes which we will put on sale for ten days, commencing today Saturday, October 29. Velvets and plushes worth $1.50 selling for 75 cents, at the R. E. Souder store, 33 South Limestone street. This is the greatest cut in velvets and plushes ever known in the history of Springfield.

Furniture. If you need any furniture please remember that Rosensteel & Reinhardt are now giving 25 per cent off for cash. Remember the place, 116 West Main street, Springfield, Ohio.

THE WORLD'S NEWS. The Greatest Fire Ever Known in Los Angeles, California—Loss Estimated at $200,000.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 29.—The most extensive fire in the history of Los Angeles broke out at the California Central railway freight depot last evening. It started in an oil car on the track near the depot. The whole freight depot, over six hundred feet long, was consumed with all the contents. It was full of freight. About twenty freight cars, loaded with various classes of goods, were burned, and four Pullman and several passenger coaches were partially burned. The loss is roughly estimated at $200,000. It is understood that there is no insurance.

A PASTOR SUSPENDED. Rev. H. M. Keck, Charged with Stealing a Fiatron, is Found Guilty. XENIA, O., Oct. 29.—The ecclesiastical trial of Rev. H. M. Keck, at the First M. E. church, for having stolen a fiatron from Joshua Wolfe, a hardware merchant of this city, and of having tried to perjure and carry away a book belonging to the Western Methodist book concern, of Cincinnati, while attending conference in Piqua in September, terminated yesterday by finding the reverend gentleman guilty and suspending him until the next conference. This will be a sad blow to his many friends, as he was one of the most popular men in the Methodist church. He has been located in this county for the past six years. The last conference assigned him to the church at Cedarville.

Rev. F. G. Mitchell, of Springfield, presided at the trial. The counsel for the church were Dr. J. F. Marjary of this city, and Rev. John Pearson, of Springfield, while he was defended by Rev. F. M. Clemens, of Jameson, and Miguel Dustin, of Miamiville. The following are the names of the members of the board that tried the case: E. T. Wells, Urbana; J. H. Middleton, New Moorefield; B. F. Dunnick, Dayton; John Wilson, Bowling; W. H. DeMott, Xenia; L. G. Vaughan, Yellow Springs, and R. K. Deen, Wayneville.

DROPPED DEAD. Young Lady Gets on a Car at Cincinnati and Dies Before Reaching Xenia. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 29.—Just before the limited on the Pan Handle railroad left Cincinnati, eastward-bound, Thursday evening, a beautiful young lady, fashionably attired, boarded a Pullman car. Her home was at Xenia, she said, and being vivacious and an excellent conversationalist was soon acquainted with nearly all the members of her sex in the car. While chatting away she suddenly grew pale, gave a convulsive shudder and fell back in her seat for a moment, writing as if in great pain. The two-striken passengers rendered all possible assistance, but in vain. On arrival in Xenia an old grey-haired gentleman inquired whether his daughter was on the train. "Yes," said the conductor. "Then where is she?" The trainmen hesitated to reply; finally the conductor said, "In heaven, I hope." "My God! Then is she dead?" and the old gentleman fainted away. When he had recovered he was taken to his home, where his daughter's remains had preceded him. The trainmen neglected to ascertain the young lady's name.

His Term is Out But He Will Have to Go in Again. MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Oct. 29.—After serving a sentence of fifteen
