PRESIDENT CORBIN'S VIEWS.

He Says He Will Stand by the Men Who Stood by Him.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Austin Corbin, president of the Reading railroad, plainly defined the position of the company towards its employees in a letter sent at noon today to A. A. McCloud, general manager, with instructions to communicate the contents to the men.

He says: To such of our old employees who have stood faithfully by us in our trouble, we are obligated and thankful, and shall not forget them. The men that stand by us will have employment, with reasonable hours and good pay.

Men who do not, will never be allowed on this road again, under any circumstances. We have never objected to labor organizations, and do not now. Every man shall be free to belong to one, or not, as he pleases, but the heads of such orders cannot and shall not dictate to this company as to whom it shall employ, or how it shall operate its property.

The places left in obedience to orders of the Knights will be filled with new men and such men will be retained, and under no circumstances will be discharged to make room for men who have left their place. There has never been a moment which would arbitrate any question growing out of this strike. There has been nothing to arbitrate. It is only a question as to whether the company shall be permitted to operate its own property, in which there is invested over $300,000,000, or whether that property shall be controlled by the Knights of Labor. It may as well be understood now, and from this time on, that every wheel which is turned on the Reading system shall be turned on orders of that company, and under orders from nobody else.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 29.—Superintendent Swigard this morning refused to accept the committee of two from the Knights of Labor, saying he would see no committee, but would talk to them as individuals. The committee left.

MASQUERADE PARTY. A Number of Springfield People Took Part in a Notable Social Event at Yellow Springs.

The masquerade party given by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hirst, in honor of their daughter, Miss Anna, at their home in Yellow Springs, last Tuesday evening, was one of the most successful and enjoyable social events of the holiday week.

About fifty guests were present in costume from the Springs, Xenia and Springfield. The costumes were excellent and the disguises perfect.

The most notable were those of Miss Anna, as Mother Hubbard, in black velvet trimmed with swansdown, Miss Yoeko as a Spanish girl, and Miss Sizer as a young girl.

Miss Sizer, as a young girl, was the best of the lot, being mistaken for a boy by almost every one.

After partaking of the beautiful refreshments offered and listening to the delightful music, the party broke up at about 11 o'clock, and the guests returned home with a delightful time.
