Another Victory! For the Newly & Evans' Piano.

The joint board of the town council and township trustees have by a unanimous vote purchased of W. W. Hughes & Co., a new grand upright Newby & Evans piano.

The Newby & Evans piano is becoming the favorite of the artists and amateurs, especially on account of its carrying and blending quality.

The thermometer marked 88 degrees to 90 degrees in the shade at noon today. A cool stiff breeze relieved matters wonderfully.

Judge Young loves baseball, and his favorite change with the days that come and go. What's the matter with the judge?

Mr. F. V. Hartman, the coal dealer, who has been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism for about two months, is able to walk out again, with the aid of crutches.

The new Bee Line bridge which replaces the one burned last Monday night near Sinto's quarry, now admits of the passing of trains. They began running over the bridge last night at 8:30 o'clock.

Leap year is a sort of wild delusion anyway. The pretty girl of Springfield has never any use for it, and the homely one is afraid to take advantage of its privileges for fear she will be rejected.

Francis Kinney, who was killed near Cincinnati by a train, was a resident of this city. Schindler & Cole furnished the casket, which they shipped. His remains will arrive in this city this evening. Interment will be made at Fernhill.

A question. The inquiry as to whether or not we are being deprived of that saline and oleaginous food of our maternal substance through the excretions of our pellicled cuticle with a sensible condensation of the moisture, is at present pretty generally answered in the affirmative, and in this respect it bears a remarkable analogy to the question as to whether Jason W. Phillips, No. 39 east Main street, is not selling by all odds the cheapest and best-fitting custom-made suits in the city of Springfield.

It is indeed a problem both obscure and profound to figure out any profit on the garments we are turning out at the suicidal price of $30 for a Scotch Cheviot Suit, or $5 for custom-made Trousers, but the popular demand is for low prices and we are endeavoring to meet it to the best of our ability.

MOTH FLAKES!

This is the most valuable article now known for killing both the Moth Fly and Moth Worms. And that without the least injury to clothing. These Moth Flakes are in beautiful white powder, and do not stain like the paper. These Moth Flakes positively kill moths and moth worms and the Buffalo moth. The price is very low - much cheaper than any other moth destroyer. Mr. Casper puts it up in large tin cans at 25c each, or will sell it in bulk in larger quantities. Call and see it at

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

There is plenty of railroad travel now-days. Read Paynter & Co.'s ad. at the top of this page. 'Squire Henry Hallenbeck is still suffering with his eyes. A number of Odd Fellows of Columbus are spending the day in Dayton. The new Lagonda house will open up about the 1st of September next. Mr. Sol Solomon, of Rochester, N. Y., was in the city yesterday on business. Miss Emma Pearce, of Cincinnati, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Henry Hallenbeck. The sale of the Funk lots in the northwestern part of the city yesterday was a fair success. Assistant Surgeon R. H. Grube, U. S. Military Home, Dayton, is spending Wilber week here. Harper's Weekly for June 23, has a picture of the new house owned by Mr. John J. Giessen at Chicago. The big force of men working on the bridge work on the Bee Line, take their meals at the St. James hotel. Dave Wilborn, late head-writer of the old Lagonda-house, is one of the messengers in the Chicago convention. A building permit was issued to John W. Pierce by the city clerk for a frame addition in the Fifth ward, valued at $135. The floral designs used at Colonel D. C. Putnam's funeral yesterday were furnished by the Springfield Seed company. The Wilberforce commencement was attended by a larger number of people yesterday than for many years previous. The thermometer marked 88 degrees to 90 degrees in the shade at noon today. THE ALPHA GAMMA.

The Banquet at the Arcade Hotel Last Night Enjoyed by Forty Students and Their Friends, Who Enjoyed Music, Address and "Dorg."

The most pleasant and enjoyable banquet given by the Wittenberg chapter, the Alpha Gamma Beta Theta Pi, occurred last (Thursday) evening at the Arcade hotel.

About twenty couples were present and the menu, music and speeches all made up an evening that will not soon be forgotten by those present. The tables in the large dining room were handsome and the land-lord covered them with a delicious menu, which was follows:

- "DORG." Mook Tartar, au Quenelle. Sliced Tomatoes. Fillet of Sole, a la Rochefort. Parmentiere Tomatoes. Broiled Spring Chicken on Toast. Fresh Peas. Sweet Bread Larded. Ham.

The programme was then made up with toasts and addresses, which were well received and in the order given below:

- PROGRAMME. TOAST MASTER, G. L. Ort, 78. Welcoming Address, L. D. Worms, 78. "Fraternity Bonds," A. H. Smith, 78. "Ye Beta Girls," S. S. Keller, 78. In Alpha Gamma's Future," Rev. S. E. Greenwalt, 74. "Beta at the Bar," E. P. Otta, 72. "Beta in the Pulpit," Rev. D. H. Bunker, 70. Reminiscences," James P. Whitmore, 68. Music by Prof. Rice, 68.

IT WOULD SET 'EM WILD.

Meaning the Chief's Opinion of Hi Men on the Springfield Police Force.

How many people wonder what Chief Ambrose thinks of his men on the force? This question is often asked in the minds of those who know the chief's power in the appointments and has to take what the mayor and council's police committee give him.

A policeman's job is mostly secured by political influences and is therefore not always made up of the biggest, best and strongest men. There was Captain Hogg, for instance, who served a long time, when he had one foot in the grave. He had influence, and excited enough sympathy for himself, and was allowed to remain. The force at present comprises many good men, but in the estimation of some who are on the inside, the force has as many worthless subjects as it has good, solid, sensible policemen. Chief Ambrose, in a social talk with a Republican man gave his own private opinion of each and every man on the force, of course, on the promise that he would not put it in the paper. The chief's level is level, and makes no mistake. He knows what good lumber is for a policeman, and if he had the appointing power Springfield would have a very fly force of coppers.

WANTED-A PAPA.

Restless Suit Against a Former Member of the Cadet Band.

It leaked out only today that a bawdily suit of a sensational character was brought in 'Squire Stout's court a few days ago, which was carefully kept from the active and ubiquitous reporter.

Miss Cora Bauer, a bright and good-looking girl living in the west end, swore out a warrant for the arrest of Robert A. Hansell, a former member of the Cadet band, charging him with responsibility for her soon-to-be-consumed maternity. Miss Bauer works at the tailoring trade, is modest of demeanor, and is less than 16 years old. She comes of very respectable parents and was always regarded a good girl. The girl is now very plainly a cadette. Hansell was released on $500 bonds furnished by relatives. He also comes from a good family. Hansell is now in Dayton working for the Pastur Filter Co.

Royally Entertained.

The third of the series of delightful informal musicales was held last evening at the charming residence of Miss Alice Bennett, on Maple avenue. The evening was ideally moonlit, the place a charming one, with its verandah and wooded lawn, and the musical programme all that could be desired. The "crowd" has never been more successfully entertained than last evening, and the occasion will certainly be memorable in the annals of the organization. Music was furnished by Mrs. John Webb, Miss Bennett, Mr. Bertie Skinner, Mr. Denny Thomas, Mr. E. A. Moran and others. The feature par excellence of the evening, however, were the recitations of Miss Liz Gale. They were recitations of skill, power and versatility to the audience.

Burn Burned.

A good-sized frame barn on a farm owned by John Pearson, five miles east of the city, burned Wednesday forenoon. It was entirely consumed. No one was at home at the time but the children of the family who are tenants on the place, and no assistance could be rendered. It contained nothing of value; insured in the Ohio Farmers'. The origin of the fire is not known.

CALLED TO REST.

Death of the Aged Father of Oscar T. Martin, Esq. of this City.

David M. Martin, the aged and honored father of Oscar T. Martin, esq. of this city, died at 8:30 last (Thursday) evening, at his home at Osborn, of a complication of lung and heart trouble. He was confined to bed only two weeks. The deceased was born in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, on June 25, 1818. During his early life he occupied the official position of probator, and in later years, after which he removed to Osborn, where he spent the remainder of his life, honored and respected by the entire community. He combined legal ability to a singular degree with legal information, and his counsel was constantly sought. Particularly was he efficient in the settlement of estates, and as appointed executor and administrator in many cases. His aptness and thoroughness in this particular made him consulted in hundreds of instances, where a legal practitioner might have been.

Mr. Martin leaves a wife - his second - and three children - Mrs. M. Miami Dougan, of Lancaster county; D. B. Martin, general passenger agent, of the C. C. & I. and Oscar T. Martin, of this city. The funeral will take place at 10:30 tomorrow. A special train will leave for Woodland cemetery at Dayton, where the interment will take place. The burial will be private.

SUCCESSFUL BURGLARY.

Second-Hand Store on West Main Street Entered Last Night.

Burglars raised the back window of a second-hand store at 102 west Main street last night, supposedly kept by W. D. Duckwall. They got away with a silver watch, a pocket watch, a number of razors and some other goods, aggregating about $50. A lot of silver plate was overlooked.

Township Trustees Lookout.

Auditor Service received a postal card today from the auditor of Fayette county saying to warn the township clerks to be on the lookout for a person representing himself to be an agent for school supplies. His name is L. M. Harvey. He first gets the signatures of local directors, in a book and then travels from door to door, and in some cases where he was paid by checks he raised the check to $50.

A Reporter's Mishap.

Mr. John Raper, a Times reporter, met with a mishap last evening, that will lay him up for several days. He stepped upon a fragment of glass bottle, and the sharp edge cut through the sole of his shoe, crumpled his foot, making a deep gash, which was stitched up. Student Clayton Russell rendered the essential assistance.

A Wheelman Tourist.

Mr. C. C. Hopkins, a bicyclist of Denver, Col., passed through the city Wednesday and penetrated his foot, making a deep gash, which was stitched up. Student Clayton Russell rendered the essential assistance.

Adjudged Insane.

Lizzie Shay, who attempted suicide at the station house, was brought before Probate Judge Miller last evening and adjudged insane. She will be sent to the Dayton asylum. Her insanity is not violent, but she manifests a constant disposition to run away.

A Broken Leg.

Mrs. Wm. McGree, living at 250 east Columbia street, fell over a fence last evening and broke her leg about two inches below the knee. Dr. McLaughlin and Student Clayton Russell attended the difficulty.

The Experiment Not Over.

The rush at T. J. Casper's drug store, 41 east Main street, still continues and daily scores of people call for a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Kemp's Balsam, the standard family remedy, is sold on a guarantee and never fails to give entire satisfaction. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial size, free.

FREAKS OF INSANITY.

A DISEASE MORE PREVALENT IN WOMEN THAN MEN.

Insane People Not Deceived by the Delusions of Their Fellow Patients - A Novel Experience - Mental Diseases Almost Unknown Among Savage Nations.

Insanity is a peculiar disease, more prevalent among men than women. As a rule, insane men either die or are cured in the course of a few years, and of the few who probably 90 per cent. die of general paralysis. It is the result either of overwork or bodily excess, and generally attacks a man between the ages of 30 and 40. An interesting fact in connection with the insane is that great age to which so many female lunatics live. A mad woman is really a first class insurance risk. In almost every lunatic asylum the women greatly outnumber the men, not only because they are so long lived, but also because they are so seldom cured. It commonly surprises visitors to a lunatic asylum to find the men, and not for a moment deceived by the delusions of their fellow patients. Each will think himself perfectly sane and healthy while knowing that the others are hopelessly mad. Although a lunatic's mental freedom may be destroyed, it does not follow that his consciousness is abolished. A minister who was called upon once to preach to a congregation of lunatics treated them to a sermon he had written for children. Much to his surprise, he received a very eloquent letter from one of his listeners afterward, reminding him that while they might be insane, they were not idiots, and that many of them were fully his equals in education and in intelligence.

It is a novel experience to attend a religious service at an insane asylum. Imagine a congregation of lunatics and imbeciles, men on one side, women on the other, in all stages of physical decay and all degrees of madness. Helpless, old, gray haired fellows, with staring sunken eyes and hollow cheeks, mumbling and groaning to themselves, in utter unconsciousness of their surroundings. Gaunt and emaciated women, with nothing but humanly about them, but the others are Wellington and Napoleon, Elizabeth and Mary Queen of Scots, Catherine de Medicis and Diana of Poitiers, in full costume, traveling in carriages and driving by side, restless girls, who make their handkerchiefs into dolls and rabbits and talk baby talk to them, occasionally beat their heads against the wall. Interspersed throughout this motley crowd are bright, keen, young faces, with no apparent trace of their terrible curse. In the most obscure, reduced and neglected asylums, who in their lucid intervals are as pure and spiritual minded as angels, and yet are like the devil in their relations here. ... Curran Lock, one of London, O., spent Sunday here. ... Several parties from Mechanicsburg attended the festival here Saturday night. ... In the evening the total receipts were nearly $125, with about $80 clear. ... On Tuesday evening, 12th inst., Mrs. B. Laughlin gave a birthday surprise in honor of her husband's 5th birthday. A few of the neighbors and friends were there, and also a few of his brother I. O. O. E. Among those present were E. H. Erwin and wife, J. Pearson and wife, J. M. Ryan, wife and daughter, C. O. Yezell and wife, E. L. Tucker and sister, Mary, D. T. Gordon and wife, Clay Page and wife, J. H. Baumgartner and family, J. O. Alexander and wife, P. Alexander and wife, Thos. Everhardt and family, P. Ellsworth and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richie, Miss N. New and Rev. J. A. White. The surprise was complete, he not remembering that it was his birthday. He was also surprised when he was presented with an easy chair. Rev. J. A. White made the presentation speech, after which the friends were then invited to a table where they partook of tea, strawberries and cake. ... The crowd left wishing him many a happy birthday in the future. ... The M. P. church had their children's day exercises on Sunday last. The church was beautifully decorated and the exercises very good. The solo by Mrs. Anna Page and Miss M. Burger was complimented very highly. The church was filled to overflowing, and the collection for missionary purposes was a little over eight dollars.

GREENE TOWNSHIP.

GREENE TOWNSHIP, June 20. - We see a notice in the Transcript that the Hon. Captain J. B. Patton, of this township, will tell the Jefferson Democratic club what he knows about it as it is laid upon the farmer and the laborer. The speech is to be made June 23, at the club's room, in the Buckingham building and not on the cellar door. ... We saw Charlie Todd passing through here Saturday en route for home; he had been in the western part of the county, getting himself a wife, who, by the way, is a charming young lady. May their life be one of happiness. Say, Charlie do you remember of reading twenty-five years a sleep at Hopewell? It appears that you are the first to make up to the farmer and there was quite a surprise on Mother Albin last Thursday evening. ... Mrs. Reese, of Carlisle, visited her daughter, Mrs. Chris Ziegler, Saturday. ... Charles Olet took in the Chicago excursion, but we didn't go, but remained to go for the opposite party, the demmons. ... Mrs. Davis, living on the Clifton, was insulted by a young man. She had been to the city and on her return the young man passed her, he driving a spring wagon. He began with some very insulting language, and not satisfied with the first attack, he came back with the second and third, and every time became more abusive. His name we have not yet learned, but it has come to a pretty pass that women have to be insulted while traveling alone. ... J. B. Sparrow says a sure sign for rain is when the female sex does much visiting. Let them commence now. ... Mrs. L. H. Stratton had another stroke of spinal fever this week. ... The cottage prayer meeting next Wednesday night at Mrs. Belle Ledford's. ... The children's day at Emory last Sunday was a success. ... In the first week of this month $6,000,000 was sent out to settle up the balance of trade with foreign countries, and also in the month of May our national debt was increased $4,000,000. Some one has been using luxuries. ... A marriage took place in which one of the parties was from this township. ... Neither party has a brother or sister, and if they be so fortunate as to have a posterity they will be like Adam's family, including aunts, uncles, and cousins. This is the first of such happenings in this township. ... The official reports show that Cleveland's combined population in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut were 6,785, and in Indiana alone it was 6,512, or 273 votes less than the other three states. Why then waste powder on Indiana, unless it would be to carry every northern state and Tennessee, for no doubt more than 9,180, which was Cleveland's majority, are in favor of tariff and protection in that state. And there is Virginia, with a Cleveland majority of 6,141, which could be wiped out on a full vote and a fair count. We ask largely that our joys may be full.

The Unique Cornet band will give a musical concert on that night free of charge. ... Mr. Benton Davis and family took dinner at Mr. William Jordan's last Sunday. ...
