The concert to be given in Ferguson's theatre this evening promises to be the musical treat of the season. Mr. James Sauvage, the renowned Welsh baritone, arrived in town at noon to-day and will be on hand with his son, Tonzo, to take part in the concert. Mr. Sauvage was four years a member of Carl Rosa's Opera Company in London, England, and he has supported some of the world's greatest voices. His son, Tonzo, inherits the musical talent of his father and is a pianist of marvelous ability. The Messrs. Sauvage will be assisted in the concert by Mr. Lew Herbert, of Scranton, Signor Cymbria, and the Queen-Glass Society of twenty voices from Mt. Carmel. Misses Edith Morgan and Jennette Bevan, of town, will assist. Mr. Herbert is a famous basso.

Mrs. J. K. Miller, of Vicksburg, and J. D. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained 20 pounds from taking it. Mrs. R. A. Giesner, of Vicksburg, Ind., was cured of 40 to 50 convulsions a day, and much headache, dizziness, backache and nervous prostration by one bottle. Trial bottles, and the books of marvelous cures, free at C. H. Augustach, the druggist, who recommends and guarantees this unequalled remedy.

A Boy's Leg Crushed.

At noon to-day two boys attempted to jump upon a moving coal train near the Lloyd street crossing. One of them, Anthony Rogusky, aged 7 years, fell and the wheels passed over his left leg, crushing it so badly that the limb will very likely be amputated just below the knee. Drs. Kistler and Straub attended the injured boy at his residence in Robbins' row, near the place where the accident occurred.

INJURED IN THE MINES.

John Mullahy Seriously Injured in Shenandoah City.

John Mullahy, a young man residing on East Centre street and employed as a "runner" in a slant of the Shenandoah City colliery, was seriously injured while he was at work yesterday afternoon. When a car was descending the slant it jumped the track and Mullahy, who was running along side of it, was crushed against the coal. The young man was carried out of the mine in a semi-conscious condition. His head, shoulders and body were terribly cut and bruised and it was feared he would not survive, but to-day the reports of his condition were more encouraging. His skull is fractured, however, and his friends fear an ultimate fatal result.
