THE SUREST ROAD TO WEALTH IS THROUGH LIBERAL ADVERTISING!

THE question arises, "Is the Fifth ward the Tailor's Hall of the Shenandoah's Democracy?"

THE Democratic threat to make "clean sweep" in school matters next spring is not as terrible in effect as it is in its utterance.

SOME heretofore ardent Greenbackers showed up in true Democratic style before the viewers Wednesday. Their real nature oozed out.

THE Democrats thought the Republicans were sleeping, but they found they had a pretty wide-awake crowd to deal with when the viewers were here on Wednesday.

OUR Democratic friends, the enemy should not count their chickens before they are hatched. Their threat to make "a clean sweep" isn't going to scare anybody, much less the viewers.

PERHAPS the viewers did not understand on Wednesday that parties were to be Democratic candidates next fall were among those most prominent over the boundary lines proposed by the Republicans.

THERE is no disguising the fact that some intend to be Democratic candidates were considerable shocked by the Republican stand on the proposed division of the ward. They will be tipped by a frost when they bloom.

THE Democratic statesman of the "Bloody First" was not slow in throwing out the impression that he owned the town. His cohorts from the Fifth were lucky to get in a word edge-ways, but the poor Third and Fourth warders were left.

"Yes, we'll make a clean sweep next spring and make Miss—principal of the High School," was the remark of a Democratic hanger-on of many years standing a day or two ago. That prophet would do well to wait until the clouds roll by.

It is hard to understand why any fault should be found by Democrats with the recent election of school teachers. The board stands Republican.

THE GOALITES.

LAKESIDE!

The finest in the interior of the State. Only available health and pleasure grounds in the Anthracite region.

Summer Resort, Picnic and Pleasure Grounds!

LAKESIDE (East Mahanoy Junction) midway between Mahanoy City and Tamaqua, now managed by a new stock company, will be open to the public within a few weeks, and dates can now be secured. A number of societies have already been booked and others wishing desirable dates should make application without delay. Under the new management many improvements will be made, some of them being now under way, that will make it the picnic and pleasure grounds of the region. A large dining pavilion and a trotting park are among the new additions. The best horses in the State will be secured to run on trot this season.

The natural attractions and magnificent scenery of the place are unequalled, and a day of recreation and pleasure may be spent in it to advantage. There is good fishing and bathing in the twin lakes surrounding the grounds. Boat houses will be built on the lakeside and regattas will be frequent this season.

For Sunday Schools, Lodges, &c.,

The grounds are most suitable for picnics and outings. For dates and other information, call on or address,

O. A. KEIM, Excursion Manager, SHENANDOAH, PA.

McNULTY'S BODY ARRIVES.

His Mangled Remains at His Parents' Residence.

The remains of the man who was killed by the Lehigh Valley railroad, near Packton, on Monday night, were last night identified as those of Patrick McNulty, a young man of this town. The remains were brought to town this afternoon, on the 1:40 Lehigh Valley train, and taken in charge by Undertaker Lacey, who removed them to the residence of the parents, on South White street.

The funeral will take place to-morrow morning. Services will be held at the Anglican church and the funeral will leave on the 10:15 Lehigh Valley train for Reading, where the remains will be interred. The body is so badly mangled that relatives and friends are forbidden to view it. Its arms were cut off and the head was crushed.

A Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company pay check led to the identification. Mrs. McNulty stated to a Herald reporter to-day that her son left town last Friday, he having been thrown out of work by the shutting down of Indian Ridge colliery, where he was employed as a miner. He left town to take a run about the country and was to have returned to town to-day to receive his check for money due him for the last two weeks he worked at Indian Ridge.

SEVERAL PERSONS DROWNED.

Terrible Work of a Water Spout and Wind Storm.

SALEMSVILLE, Tex., June 12.—News received here yesterday from Frank Green county, of destruction to life and property caused by a terrible water spout, accompanied by a wind storm, which visited that town and vicinity several days ago. Rain had been falling every day and Tuesday night at 11 o'clock the waters burst and in a few minutes the streets were four feet deep in water, presenting the appearance of a rising torrent. All the business houses were flooded. Men secured ladders, and with great difficulty succeeded in hauling the women and children to places of safety.

Three persons were drowned in Turkey Creek. Pumps Pollock, a young farmer, his sister, and a young man named Albright.

The dwelling house of Capt. Phillips was lifted from its foundation and carried nearly a mile when it was hurled against a tree and wrecked. Phillips and one of his daughters caught some floating debris and were washed ashore half a mile from where the house was demolished. Mrs. Phillips and her baby caught a plank and were washed into the branches of a large tree, where they remained till next day, when they were rescued by parties in a boat.

A large number of houses were blown down and many others washed away. Dug-outs were filled with water and hundreds of people rendered homeless, and all their live stock, crops and other property swept away.

A young farmer named Burdette, who was trying to reach the shore in a ferry-boat was thrown from the boat and drowned.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

Proceedings of the Convention in Session at Saratoga, N. Y., June 12.—The third day's session of the Convention of the New York State Sunday School Teachers' Association convened at 9 o'clock. Immediately after the assembling of the convention, the doors were closed and a consecration meeting held, led by T. B. Young of Rochester. After half an hour's session the doors were opened and the following addresses delivered:

"The Literary," Mr. C. P. Cheney of New York, best characteristic of a good library, best method of selecting and distributing, needs of a good librarian. "The Superintendent," his office and his responsibility, by Arthur L. Andrews of Albany. "Town Associations," by Mr. Lewis Haas.

Separate conferences were subsequently held of the Superintendents, Teachers, Primary Workers, Woman's Mission Aid and County Officers and State and County Missionaries. Each conference will adjourn on the completion of its work.

AN OLD VETERAN ATTACKED.

His Jaw Broken and a Rib Fractured in a Fight.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 12.—Major John H. Walker is dying at St. Mary's Hospital from injuries received during an encounter with Alfred Hull on Saturday last. Walker and Hull, who is a painter, 83 years of age, were visitors at the house of an uncle, the former at No. 73 Union avenue. The two men became involved in a quarrel which ended in an exchange of blows.

Walker had his jaw broken and a rib fractured in the fight. He was removed to the hospital.

Major Walker, who is on the retired list of the United States Army, is a veteran of the late rebellion, and has an excellent war record. In Grand Army circles he has been a prominent figure. Hull was arrested for assault in the second degree and was released on bail. He will now be rearrested.

An Old Merchant Dead. ASBURY PARK, N. J., June 12.—John Nesbitt, for many years a prominent merchant of Philadelphia, died at Ocean Grove yesterday, aged 85 years.

ENGLAND'S HEIR!

THE PRINCE WAS HOOTED AND JEERED BY A CROWD.

HE BECAME PALE WITH ANGER.

His Aristocratic Friends Make a Counter Demonstration—England's Religious Papers Criticize Him for Gambling.

LONDON, June 12.—Great excitement was caused here by the news that a disagreeable scene occurred at the Ascot races, an unfavorable demonstration to the Prince of Wales being made. An attempt has been made to hush the matter up, and the newspapers have been solicited from influential quarters to make no mention of the fact, or at least to minimize the importance of the affair.

It seems that as the Prince was driving up with a party of his noble friends, the crowd in the vicinity, composed mostly of well dressed people, but with a sprinkling of a rougher element, hooted and jeered his Royal Highness, making sarcastic allusions to the baccarat scandal. Some cried out: "Have you brought your counters with you?" Others indulged in more offensive thrusts.

The aristocratic group around the Prince thought apparently too astonished and startled to be in full possession of their wits, managed to make a counter demonstration of a rather weak sort in support of the Prince, who was himself paid with anger, and who cast furious glances at his insulters. This is believed to be the first time that a direct appeal demonstration has ever been made against the Prince of Wales by a crowd bearing any claim to responsibility, and the incident is even more significant than the lecturing he has been getting the past few days from religious and secular newspapers.

DENOUNCING THE PRINCE.

The Religious Newspapers Discuss the Baccarat Scandal.

LONDON, June 12.—The "Christian World," a religious weekly paper, representing all denominations of Protestants, says of the Prince of Wales, in connection with the baccarat scandal: "The throne rests upon the foundation of public opinion only. A few more scandals like that of Tranby Croft would destroy this foundation, and Edward VIII would never be crowned."

The "British Weekly" says: "The revelations are enough to sober up the strongest supporters of the monarchy."

The correspondent of the "Times" at Vienna says that the baccarat scandal has caused a sensation in countries where the Prince of Wales holds honorary military rank. The correspondent directs attention to the fact that an Austrian general, who was found to have condoned in a similar manner to that adopted by the Prince of Wales' acts of cheating upon the part of one of his subordinate officers, was compelled to resign from the army to avoid being tried by court-martial.

Demand That Wales Resign.

LONDON, June 12.—The Liberal Radical Society of Scotland has forwarded to the Prince of Wales a resolution, adopted by the Society, condemning his action with the baccarat case, and demanding that he resign from his army commission.

Wales Denounced.

LONDON, June 12.—At the annual conference of the Congregational churches of Glamorganshire, Wales, resolutions have been adopted denouncing the Prince of Wales for his connection with the baccarat scandal.

More Censure for His Royal Highness.

LONDON, June 12.—In the Baptist Conference at Hastings, a resolution was passed regretting that the future king of England had ever indulged in gambling.

To Fight the Whiskey Trust.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Rumors indicate that the Whiskey Trust may not have such a monopoly as it thinks it has. Wholesale liquor dealers and rectifiers are forming a combination to build a distillery of their own, and enable them to make their own whiskey at their own prices. There will be no difficulty in raising the money as the individual tax on each distiller or dealer will amount to something less than $5,000.

Mr. Noble Not to Resign.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 12.—Secretary of the Interior Noble arrived here last evening from Hot Springs and a banquet was given him at the Richelieu Hotel. Secretary Noble declined to be interviewed respecting his alleged retirement from the Cabinet, but a prominent Republican official here, who is intimate with him, said that Mr. Noble emphatically denied any intention of retiring and going abroad in the diplomatic service.

Ex-Senator Ingalls May Accept.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—A special from St. Louis says that it is rumored there that ex-Senator Ingalls has been tendered the Chancellorship of Washington University, that city. A friend of the University recently offered to donate $100,000 if a Chancellor was obtained, and it is believed the Kansas Statesman will accept.

Behanded by a Train.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., June 12.—George Anderson, aged 29, of Asbury Park, was behanded by an express train at Branchport station while walking on the tracks of the New York & Long Branch Railroad.

KEYSTONE BANK AFFAIRS.

Comptroller Lacey's Report to Secretary Foster.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Comptroller Lacey has completed his statement of the connection of his office with the closing of the Keystone National Bank of Philadelphia, and handed it to Secretary Foster for his information.

The statement is very elaborate and contains all the correspondence that has passed between Comptroller Lacey and Examiner Drew.

Mr. Lacey takes the ground that the office of the Comptroller of the Currency can only be investigated by Congress or by United States officials, and that it would be manifestly improper that its business should be subject to inspection by any municipality that desired to investigate it. He cites as precedent the refusal of Superintendent Porter, who refused to turn over certain census returns at the request of the New York authorities, which refusal was based on the opinion of the Attorney-General that United States Government officials should not obey the requests of municipal authorities.

Comptroller Lacey will, in all probability, act on this opinion and refuse to appear before the Philadelphia Council, though his statement may be forwarded to it by Secretary Foster for its "information."

MORRIS RETORTS.

Must Not Go Behind Connecticut Election Returns.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 12.—The replication of Judge Luskon B. Morris to the reply of Gov. Bulkeley in the quo warranto suit has been filed. It is identical with the replication of Dr. Aleo to Lieut.-Gov. Merwin's reply, except that the name of Bulkeley is substituted for that of Merwin whenever the latter occurs.

The replication is a general denial of all the allegations of fact made by Gov. Bulkeley pertaining to the election returns and asserting the right of the General Assembly to go behind the returns. What the next step will be is a matter of conjecture. The issue on the legality of going behind the returns is closed by the pleadings.

THE DEACON'S REVENGE.

He Blows Up a Shanty With Dynamite Because He Had a Grievance.

AVON, Mass., June 12.—A fire alarm at ten o'clock led to the discovery of the blowing up by dynamite of a shanty that has been occupied by the Italians who have been at work on the water system and used as a storage place for tools owned by the town.

While the excitement attending the fire was at its height a sensational feature was added by a public declaration by Deacon M. M. Porter, a well known citizen, that he had purposely blown the building up. He was immediately arrested.

Deacon Porter has for some time harbored a grudge against the town owing to the unsatisfactory award made him when his property was taken for the water works extension, and he has also complained that the Italians were undesirable neighbors. Sympathy is expressed for him, the general belief being that he is mentally unbalanced. He is a deacon in the Baptist Church.

Will Hold Its Church.

PITTSBURG, June 12.—The Rev. O. B. Milligan, pastor of the East End Reformed Presbyterian Church and one of the young ministers expelled from the Church by the Synod, has decided to hold his church. On next Sunday, with 150 followers, he will continue his old pastor, and he proposes to occupy as pastor of the church. The opposition to Mr. Milligan is not very strong, and it is not likely that there will be any further trouble.

Salary Will Rush Through.

BOSTON, June 12.—In the House a salary bill was rushed through under suspension of the rules, and sent to the Senate for concurrence. It fixes the salary of members at $225 per month for January, February, March and April, and $3 per day after April 30. The Cape Cod and New York Canal Company's bill was amended with regard to $200,000 deposit, as requested by the Governor, and returned to him.
