THE SURE ROAD TO OPULENCE LIES KNEE-DEEP THROUGH PRINTER'S INK

"AMERICA FOR AMERICANS."

Mr. Owen, Commissioner of Immigration, who framed the present law while he was a member of the present House, says: "We have already excluded the Chinese. The day is coming when, perhaps, it will be a timely question whether some other nation shall not be excluded." This expression finds a wide-spread echo of approval and is one of the leading topics of the day and promises to be among the foremost topics of the questions that will receive the attention of Congress this winter. Of course, we realize that it is a subject that requires delicate handling and the combined good judgment of our wisest statesmen, but it is none too soon to agitate this subject.

The future of this republic largely depends upon the class of men we admit to citizenship, and especially immigration is so largely on the increase. Of late there has been a very large percentage of very undesirable immigrants allowed to land on our shores, and to colonize themselves in quarters which have already assumed too much of a foreign character to harmonize with our ideas of American citizenship.

No other country on the face of the globe would permit this herding together of ignorant classes in this kind of colonial settlement. This class of people are of no value in the country, and, in fact, are a very dangerous element in society. And we are heavily taxed to keep up a police force with which to keep them under control and overawed. No amount of moral suasion serves any good purpose with this class of people when aroused by some fanatical leader, and it is only by a constant and ever present physical force that they are kept in subjection. All these new social conditions of fallen life in America are at utter variance with the constitution of the country, and our forefathers never dreamed that we of this generation would ever have permitted this fair soil to be smirched by these alien hordes, who have gained an abiding place in our great cities, and who are colonizing certain sections of our inland territory.

It is high time that we awoke to the threatening aspect of our relations to the low-class foreigner who has been and is crowding in upon us. It is a matter of vital importance to all who claim to be Americans, whether by birth or by adoption—in the true meaning of the word—and the day will surely come when we shall have serious trouble with this element, if we do not at once set about correcting this growing evil by prohibiting colonization of nationalities, insisting upon one language for all people who come to our shores for permanent residence and compelling them to abandon foreign manners and customs and be like unto us in manners and speech. If immigrants do not wish to conform to our methods let them stay at home.

We don't want any one here who cannot Americanize himself. "America for Americans" means America for not only Americans born but for all those that are able and willing to become loyal citizens of the Republic. Such citizens we need and are glad to receive, whether they come from Great Britain, Ireland, Germany, Scandinavia, Poland, Italy, Switzerland, France, Spain or elsewhere, for the other kind we have no use, and they ought, so far as that can be done by legislation, to be excluded.

REPUBLICAN committeemen should scan the voting lists closely and immediately, in order that no Republican voters may remain unregistered. Let the delinquents be hunted up. Thursday, September 3d, is the last day.

In many localities, September 1st is moving day, and being so close to the 3d, the last day for registration, many voters fail to become assessed, not being familiar with their new voting places. Let all such be looked after without delay.

A WIDOW'S MITE.

TROUBLE OVER PROCEEDS FROM A BENEFICIAL FUND.

PECULIAR POLISH PRACTICES.

A Representative Who Did Not Represent and Who Must Make Restitution to the Widow—Under Arrest.

Roman Yacynski, a Russian Pole of town, is in a box. A widow who has just arrived from Russia Poland is presenting him on one hand, and if he does not make restitution the P. & R. C. & I. Co. will prosecute him on the other.

On the 23d of last February Joseph Kolkapich, also known by the names of "Joe Ketz," "Joseph Ketz" and "Joe Kelle," was badly injured by a shot in the Indian Ridge colliery he died at the Miners' Hospital on March 4th.

Last May Yacynski employed S. G. M. Holloper, Esq., to secure the money due from the P. & R. C. & I. Co.'s beneficial fund upon Kolkapich's death. Yacynski produced several papers of a private character belonging to the deceased, among them a certificate of marriage. He also produced a letter dated March 14, 1891, and purporting to be an authorization to him from Francis Kolkapich, of Gawich, Ruda, Russia Poland, widow of Joseph Kolkapich, to collect the money from the P. & R. C. & I. Co.'s beneficial fund, pay funeral expenses, etc., and forward the balance to the widow.

Upon the strength of these documents Mr. Holloper secured from the P. & R. C. & I. Co. the sum of $98.69, which included the death benefits due the representatives of the deceased for three months, up to June 14th, and also a small balance due for wages.

This week the widow arrived in town. A Pole who went from this place to Russia Poland had informed her that she was entitled to about $250 from the P. & R. C. & I. Co. upon the death of her husband and Yacynski had secured the money. Mrs. Kolkapich at once set sail for this country with money furnished by her father.

Arriving here, the widow sought Yacynski and demanded a settlement. She was offered $50, but declined to accept it. The widow then consulted Mr. Holloper and when told of the letter authorizing Yacynski to collect the money for her she denied all knowledge of it and added that she had never received a letter from Yacynski and had never written to him. The widow then appealed to Squire Mangan and he had Yacynski arrested on a charge of larceny as bailee and false pretense. The accused furnished bail for a hearing on Saturday evening. Meanwhile the P. & R. C. & I. Co. got hold of the case and yesterday District Superintendent Bradigan took Yacynski to Pottsville, to appear before Paymaster J. P. Jones. The result of the conference was of such a character that the paymaster wanted to have Yacynski arrested in Pottsville, but it was finally concluded that, as he was already under arrest on the widow's charges, he should be given his freedom until Monday next. By that time he is to pay back to the P. & R. C. & I. Co. all the money he caused to be drawn from the beneficial fund and the company will then make a settlement with the widow. If Yacynski does not make restitution the P. & R. C. & I. Co. will prosecute him on charges additional to those made by the widow.

Superintendent Bradigan says that Yacynski told the paymaster that had he secured all the money due from the beneficial fund he would have had a little more than enough to purchase a farm in Russia Poland that his father is anxious to sell. The widow also demands the return of two watches, some cash and other personal property her husband left.

This case is but one of scores that arise from the complications precipitated by the peculiar practices of the Poles and Hungarians in the coal regions. Scores of cases escape publicity. If they were all gleaned they would make an exceedingly interesting and somewhat sensational volume.

Last Picnic.

POLITICAL POT-POURRI.

Pithy, Pungent, Pleasing Points Pointedly Paraphrased.

Well's a chestnut, so is George; How they stand it, we can't tell. Should they be elected, How happy they will be. But they'll go to McGinty. At the bottom of the sea.

McKinley is marching through in the old conquering fashion in which Sherman did the act through Georgia.

The Democrats are having a hot contest over the Speakership of the next House. But they will stultify themselves if they fail to put the strongest free trader among them into the chair.

The Republican tariff bill was designed to stimulate American industries by checking imports from competing countries, and encourage our own trade with those countries whose products do not compete with ours. Is this new tariff, which has now been in force less than a year, fulfilling expectation? The government statement of foreign commerce just issued shows that we sold to other nations about $8,000,000 worth more of our products in July, 1891, than in July, 1890, and in the same period we bought about $11,000,000 less from other nations.

By the appointment of Proctor Vermont gains a good Senator and the United States loses a good Secretary of War.

It is presumed that Mr. John Dalzell, of Pittsburg, is imbued with the idea that all Pennsylvania is looking on and applauding his determination to make as much fuss as possible in the Republican League. But he is very much mistaken.

The Democrats of Schuylkill failed to nominate an Irishman for one of the leading offices. John Nash was defeated for Judge by George J. Wadlinger, a German. Mr. Nash is to be congratulated on the narrow escape he has made from entering a canvass which would certainly injure him very much. The Republicans re-nominated Judge Green, as was their duty, and the Democrats will help to re-elect him, as is their duty also. The voters are not ready to exchange Judge Green for a lawyer untried, like Mr. Wadlinger.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

Republicans, a word with you. Do you know that you've got just one week to register, and that those of you who have not done so by Thursday, September 3, will be disfranchised at the coming election?

Now hustle. Don't wait till to-morrow. When to-morrow comes you'll forget all about it and before you are aware your vote will be lost. The county is close this year. It hangs in the balance, and for that reason every Republican should feel it his duty to register promptly. Make it your business to look over the list and if your name doesn't appear there, see that it is put down. This is a duty you can't delegate to any body else. If you don't do it your-elves it won't be done, and the party will suffer in consequence. Register to-day.

SUDDEN DEATH!

A POLE FOUND DEAD IN THE MINES.

HE DIED WHILE AT HIS WORK.

His End Came While He Was Shoveling Coal to a Loader. His Body Was Found by His Butty.

Anthony Dulsky, a Polish married man 33 years of age, was found dead in the mine of the Ellengowan colliery yesterday.

Dulsky was working in a breast of the colliery and was inside the battery, putting coal to the loader. His butty was at the face of the breast.

After they had worked for some time, and just at a time when the work was most needed, the butty noticed that Dulsky had stopped shoveling. The butty called out to ascertain what was the cause of delay and, not receiving an answer, he descended to the battery and was horrified to find Dulsky in sitting position, dead.

The body was removed to the residence of the family in the First ward. Deputy Coroner Brennan will hold an inquest on Tuesday evening. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death.

The Chronicle stooped to a dirty piece of business in making the comment on Major John F. Finney that appeared in last night's issue. Mr. Finney is recuperating at Atlantic City and the leave of absence he is now enjoying is the balance of a vacation that was suddenly cut off by an extra rush of work in the State Treasurer's office, at which time Mr. Finney and others were suddenly called upon to work night and day. This explanation is made for the benefit of those who may be misled by the vicious and despicable attacks of the Chronicle.

FATAL FALL OF COAL.

One Hungarian Miner Killed and Another Injured.

Two Hungarians, residents of the floating sink settlement on South Main street, were victims of a fall of coal in a breast of the Suffolk colliery to-day. One of them, John Mollasofski, received cuts on the head that caused almost instant death. The other man was cut and bruised about the arms, legs and body, but his injuries were not of a dangerous character. He was taken to the Miners' Hospital.

LEAVING VERMONT.

The President Starts To-night for Cape May Point.

PROCTOR, Vt., Aug. 28.—President Harrison spent all the morning at Secretary Proctor's residence. At noon he went to Rutland by special train and held a public reception. After taking lunch with President Clements of the Rutland road he returned to Proctor.

This evening there will be a reception of a semi-public character at Secretary Proctor's.

The President has made a change in his itinerary. It was arranged originally that he was to remain at Proctor until to-morrow morning. As he is anxious to get back to Cape May Point, however, he has decided that it would be better to spend to-night on the cars.

Accordingly, he has arranged to leave Proctor at 11 o'clock to-night, arriving in New York at 6:45 to-morrow morning. A message was sent to George W. Boyd of the Pennsylvania Railroad, asking him to arrange the transportation of the party from Jersey City to Cape May Point to-morrow morning.

CRUELTY AT DANNEMORA.

A Committee Appointed to Investigate the Charges of Inhuman Treatment.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 28.—With reference to certain newspaper articles making charges of cruel and inhuman treatment of prisoners confined in the New York State prison at Dannemora by the agent and warden, keepers and other persons entrusted with care and management of such prisoners, the Superintendent of State Prisons has authorized an investigation and has appointed a committee to conduct it.

The committee is composed of the following gentlemen: Oscar Craig, of Rochester, N. Y., the chairman of the State Board of Charities; W. M. E. Round, of New York city, the secretary of the Prison Association of the State of New York; and Lewis Balch, M. D., of Albany, secretary of the State Board of Health.

This committee is authorized to examine all persons, and will report to the superintendent. The first hearing will be held at Dannemora Prison on September 3 at 10 a. m.

TERRIBLE DEED.

A Woman Poisoned Herself and Her Illegitimate Child.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—Lizzie Wilson, 32 years of age, living at 1507 North Front street, poisoned herself and her illegitimate child early in the morning. The babe was dead when the couple were found, but the mother lingered for several hours before death ensued.

The woman before death made a statement, in which she said a man named Kantz was the father of the child, and his persistent refusal to marry her caused her to commit the terrible deed.

The wrongs of the woman had so preyed on her mind as to cause her to become insane. While in this condition she gave her babe arsenic and then took a dose herself. Kantz has been arrested.

LIVELY PRIMARIES.

Cleveland Delegates Successful in Auburn, N. Y., in Fight Out of Ten Wards.

AUBURN, N. Y., Aug. 28.—The hottest Democratic canvass ever seen in this city were held last night and resulted in an overwhelming defeat for Warden Durston, the Hill leader. Cleveland delegates were elected in 8 out of 10 wards and the other two are contested. The Cleverlands have a majority of the delegates in both districts, but contests are expected which may result in rows at the convention.

In the 4th Ward caucus a riot occurred and the front of the store in which the caucus was held was broken out, the chairman having been thrown bodily through it.

General Longstreet Did Not Attend.

LACONIA, N. H., Aug. 27.—Gen. James Longstreet, who was expected to attend the encampment of the New Hampshire veterans at Wiers, this week, has not yet appeared, owing, it is said, to certain newspaper articles tending to arouse prejudice against the Confederate general. Resolutions were adopted by the veterans condemning the tendency to revive unpleasant memories, and cordially inviting General Longstreet to visit the encampment of 1892.

Arrested for Poisoning Cattle.

NEWARK, N. Y., Aug. 28.—Fred C. Willer and wife and their son Charles were arrested here charged with the poisoning of the herd of Holstein cattle belonging to C. W. Stuart. Some weeks since, 15 of which died. They were held in jail to appear for examination. The arrest caused much excitement in the village. There was a reward of $1,000 for the arrest of the guilty parties.
