AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.
What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.
Some fine weather.
Merchants are busy.
Where is the winter staying?
Tramps are becoming numerous.
A third of December gone.
Beautiful moonlight evenings now.
The turkeys this season are a little late in developing.
Sale bills are turned out of this office at short notice.
A white Christmas is what most folks would like to see.
The letter carriers as well as express men will soon be loaded with packages.
Game of all kinds is becoming scarce as the hunting season is drawing to a close.
"Money is trouble," says a millionaire. Maybe, but it isn't borrowed so easily.
A man cannot live without complaining any more than he can fall into a well without getting wet.
A woman's glory is in her hair, but it is a good plan to tie it up when cooking.
Some men think twice before marrying while others marry twice before thinking.
Advertising will not sell goods that nobody wants, but the very best goods can hardly be sold without it.
