TROOPS IN POSSESSION

Gen. Carnes in Full Control at Coal Creek.

HOW CAPT. ANDERSON WAS FREED.

One Hundred of the Villagers Were Seized as Hostages and Threatened With Death if the Captain Were Not Produced—He Was Immediately Surrendered—The Brave Defense of the Fort—Volunteers Fell Into an Ambuscade.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 20.—General Carnes is monarch of all he surveys at Coal Creek. He occupies a meadow midway between the village and Fort Anderson. Passengers on the last train, which left there at 6 o'clock, say that he had about 100 of the insurgents prisoners and is guarding them near his camp. The garrison at Fort Anderson has been increased to 200 men and 100 picked men are guarding the depot and railroad property. Soon after his arrival he demanded the release of Capt. Anderson, and gave the miners until 1 o'clock to produce him. One o'clock came, and 2 and 3 o'clock passed by and the miners had not turned over the captive. He then ordered his men to arrest all suspicious looking persons in the village.

They went around the village and arrested men promiscuously until 100 had been taken into camp. He addressed them as follows: "You promised to release Capt. Anderson at 1 o'clock. You have broken faith with me. You shall produce him in one hour, or I will proceed to burn every house in town and will shoot every one of you down."

In less than an hour a committee sent out for the purpose marched into camp and surrendered the prisoner. He immediately resumed command at Fort Anderson. He had been concealed in a little farm house on the outskirts of the village.

When the special train bearing the bodies of the two volunteers who were killed in the battle at Coal Creek yesterday and the volunteers who went to the front rolled into the depot, 3,000 people were gathered about the station, and the excitement was higher than at any time since the trouble began. When the train stopped the men, who bore every evidence of actual service on the field of battle, poured out of the coaches and formed in a line through which their two dead comrades were carried in military style.

Not until the arrival of this train was it possible to get a direct statement of the battle and the exciting incidents leading up to it. Five men were killed in all. The dead militiamen are: John T. Walthall, of this city, railway clerk, aged 22. Bruce Givens, farmer, Knox county, aged 39.

Militiaman of the Second Regiment, (name unknown) and supposed to be from Chattanooga. The wounded on the side of the military are: Thomas L. Carthy, lawyer, S. G. Heiskel, lawyer and politician; John Milton, laborer. Two miners were killed. They are: George Miller, Coal Creek. George Neil, Oneida, Tenn.

The volunteers and 100 soldiers of the Second Regiment reached Oneida, a small village four miles this side of Coal Creek, about 11 o'clock at night. They left Oneida about 2 o'clock and went across Walden's Ridge by a circuitous route, so as to reach Fort Anderson from a point farthest removed from the village of Coal Creek. The night was dark as pitch and the loneliness of the road was depressing.

Fell Into an Ambuscade.

Just after they started down the mountain on the north side towards Fort Anderson the men were divided into three squads. Soon afterwards three men, all uniformed and claiming to be friendly to the soldiers, appeared, and offered to pilot the regiment down the mountain. Without suspicion the troops followed them into a well planned ambuscade. The Stars and Stripes at Fort Anderson were in full view and the men were feeling relieved at the near approach of fortifications and were joking with each other when bullets began whistling about their ears.

Part of the men had passed the ambuscade before being commenced, and they received a volley of bullets in the back. Capt. Walthall, Givens and Heiskel were all in this party. The other companies faced about at once and opened fire on the ambuscade. Major Carpenter seeing that the odds were greatly against him, ordered all three companies to retreat, and the long march over the mountain was commenced again. The regiment reached Oneida at 10 o'clock thoroughly exhausted.

LINDSAY UNDER ARREST.

He is the Man Who Wanted to Hang Capt. Anderson. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 20.—Gen. Carnes has had Lindsay, leader of the miners, under arrest at Coal Creek. He is a deputy United States marshal and a thoroughly desperate character. He has killed several men. It was he who proposed hanging Capt. Anderson and was only prevented by his brother, who is a good citizen and postmaster at Coal Creek.

Later particulars of the Coal Creek fight say that 18 of Col. Woodford's regiment, under Major D. A. Carpenter, were captured early in the morning, and Bruce Gavin and Tom Carter, of Knoxville, were killed. Woodford is Colonel of the Second Regiment and under him were the Knoxville volunteers and deputy sheriffs under Major Carpenter. They left the train at Oneida and went by a roundabout way to relieve the garrison at Camp Anderson. In crossing Walden's Ridge they were fired upon from ambuscades. They made a good fight, but 18 of the volunteers were captured in trying to recapture their comrades.

Threatened With Violence.

JAMPER, Tenn., Aug. 20.—Threats have been made by unknown men who visited the village that Circuit Judge Koon and Attorney General Brown had better be careful or bullets would be put through their heads. This threat was made because these officials are using every means to bring the members of the lawless mob to justice, having ordered the sheriff to make 50 captures. The rioters and their friends are bound to retaliate.

MONTREAL, Que., Aug. 20.—The Montreal bankers have made a move in the way of lessening what they call the American currency evil in Canada. At the next meeting of the Dominion Bankers' Association a motion will be made proposing a discount of from 1 1/2 to 2 per cent. There is about four million

THE FIRST SKIRMISH.

The Thirteenth Meet a Mob But Desist from Attack. BUFFALO, Aug. 20.—The 13th regiment of Brooklyn, under command of Col. Austin, has earned the distinction of being the first of the National Guard to meet strikers. The latter were bold to desperation, and chose for the attack an hour when the situation looked calmest.

All through the evening trains had been loading in the Central yard for transhipment. Everything was going on swimmingly until a few minutes of 11 o'clock, when suddenly hundreds of strikers appeared on the overhead bridge of the Lackawanna and began a vigorous fusillade on the men loading the cars. Cobblestones and bits of scrap iron were fired, forcing the men to retire.

Col Austin with his entire force came to the rescue, but the odds were overwhelmingly against him, and spread out as his troops would necessarily be with the skill and further disadvantage of his being unable to charge the men because of their position. The 13th was full of fight, however, and as they trained their guns on the men on the bridge the latter fled to sheltered places, but did not entirely abandon their position. Col. Austin dispatched a messenger to Gen. Doyle, asking him to send reinforcements at once and they would capture the mob. Gen. Doyle replied that he did not consider the circumstances warranted the ordering out of a large number of tired troops, adding that the work, in his opinion, had better be stopped until morning.

Non-Union Men Stopped. Camp Four, the important part of the Central elevators on Ohio street, guarded by a battalion of the 23d Regiment, had a lively shake-up just before midnight, when the strikers at the Elk street crossing stoned non-union switchmen, who were making up a train. Some of the missiles hit the soldiers of the 23d, but none of them were seriously injured.

THE ERIE HOPEFUL.

Officials Say Freight is Moving and the Worst is Over. NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Erie officials express confidence that the backbone of the strike is broken and that there will be little if any trouble handling freight hereafter.

"We moved considerable freight at the Buffalo yard yesterday," said one of them, "and we will still more to-day. We do not anticipate any trouble with the trainmen and no disturbance is feared at this end of the line. There is no doubt that with proper protection we will soon have a regular force of men at work. "The worst of the strike is certainly over."

Troops on Guard at Waverly.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Aug. 20.—Sheriff Geer, of Otsego county, having made three efforts to move engines and freight cars through the yards at Waverly, telegraphed for the 50th Separate Company and the 5th Battery of this city to come to Waverly. Both companies reported and began preparations. The troops arrived early this morning and are now on guard in the yards.

Hiring Men in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 20.—An agent of the New York Central Railroad is here attempting to hire men to take the places of strikers at Buffalo, and has met with some success. "Switchmen" in general, that there will be trouble if the men employed here are taken over the roads from this city. The Order of Railway Brakemen will likely take prompt action in the matter.

THIRTY WERE DROWNED.

Wreck of a Steamship Off the Coast of Russia. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 20.—The steamer Grigoriev, plying upon the Volga and its tributaries, has been wrecked off Nijni Novgorod. The vessel carried a number of passengers and great excitement prevailed among them when the vessel struck. A heavy storm was prevailing at the time, and many of them jumped overboard and attempted to reach the shore by swimming. Many of the crew also jumped overboard. Thirty of the passengers and crew were drowned. Many of those on board floated ashore on chairs, tables, etc., while the more cool-headed, who waited for the small boats to be launched, were landed without difficulty.

To Celebrate San Diego's Discovery.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Aug. 20.—At the celebration of the 350th anniversary of the discovery of San Diego Bay on Sept. 4 (1615), Markham will preside. It is expected to assume command of the squadron composed of the Baltimore, Charleston, San Francisco, Yorktown and Boston, will be induced to bring the vessels here to take part in the celebration.

London "Standard" on Protection.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The "Standard" says editorially: "The labor troubles in the United States are a vivid commentary on the ignorant and dishonest plague of political jackals who have led Americans into the fetid marshes of protection. For the protection and passion there is plenty, but for the laborer whose earnings are finished there is hunger, which develops the spirit of the ravenous wolf."

PROMPT ACTION TAKEN

Turkey Must Pay For Outrages to Americans.

CRUISERS TO BACK UP THE DEMAND.

The Hearing of Missionary Bartlett's Resolutions Has Aroused the State Department of Washington—Complaints Have Been Accumulating for Years.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The Secretary of State, on receiving the cablegram from the United States Charge d'Affaires at Constantinople, informing him that the house of Dr. Bartlett, an American missionary at Bourdur, Province of Konia, Asia Minor, had been burned, and that the lives of the missionaries were in danger, promptly cabled the Charge to make urgent demand for effective protection, indemnity, punishment of the guilty parties, and reprimand of the authorities if found remiss.

The United States cruisers Newark and Bennington, now on their way to Genoa, to enforce the vicinity of the outrage, to enforce this demand. The building of Dr. Bartlett's residence was originally stopped by the local authorities. On application being made for permission to complete the same, it was refused unless Dr. Bartlett would furnish a bond or guarantee to neither hold religious worship nor instruct children on the premises.

The withholding of the permit was claimed to be under orders from Constantinople. The legation applied to the Porte for such permission, claiming that treaty rights of Americans extended not only to the purchase of land, but to the enjoyment of the same. The permit was finally granted by the Sultan, and it appears that after the receipt of this permit by the local authorities the house was burned.

Secretary of State Foster says that the complaints of infringements of treaty rights of American missionaries in Turkey had been accumulating since 1888, and in one notable instance, that of the outrage upon Rev. Mr. Knapp and Dr. Reynolds by Moussa Bey, in this same province of Asia Minor, it had taken seven years to secure the punishment of the offender.

The United States is now determined to see if American citizens have any treaty rights which the Turkish authorities are bound to respect.

CRESPO CAPTURES VALENCIA.

But Little Resistance Made—The Famine Continues. PANAMA, Aug. 20.—Advices from Caracas state that Gen. Crespo has captured Valencia. His storming force consisted of 1,500 men, with about the same number held in reserve. There was but little resistance.

Only 800 soldiers occupied the city at the time of attack, and they retired after a short and feeble street fight. The city has been expected at Cabello next. The city has been barricaded since Aug. 4th, when an attack by a small revolutionary force was repulsed. Cabello has two cannon and the garrison is armed with repeaters. It is thought that there will be hard fighting before Crespo can capture it.

In Lagayra and Caracas everything is quiet as the grave. The famine continues and the poor people are dying in unusual numbers. Throughout the country bands of marauders still seek plunder, but as all the wealthy families have been impoverished or driven away already, they find and reward for their enterprises and are gradually dwindling away. Bloodshed is seldom reported. In fact the country has been devastated and starved until there is little or no spirit left outside of the principal military camps. The growing conviction is that Crespo is slowly conquering all before him and soon will be in complete possession of the whole field.

Later advices from Caracas state that on Aug. 10 Crespo met with reverses at Cortada. Crespo commanded about 4,000 troops to which the Government opposed 8,000. There was heavy skirmishing, and about a third of the forces on each side was engaged. Crespo, however, seeing that he was overmatched, refused to give decisive battle, and in the evening he withdrew.

Fire in a Summer Resort.

DANBURY, Conn., Aug. 20.—Lake Mahopac, N. Y., a summer resort a few miles west of this city, was the scene of a fire early in the morning. The flames started in the stables adjoining the big Schmeidler Hotel, and destroyed them, together with the Town Hall and Welch's wheelwright factory and dwelling house. There is no fire department, and the hotel narrowly escaped destruction. Loss, $10,000; partly insured.

The Borden Hearing Next Monday.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 20.—The story given currency here that shortly before the Borden murders old man Borden concluded to a friend that his daughter Lizzie was cruel to him and would not eat at the same table with him, and said, also, that she told him one morning that she hoped he would become a corpse, is vouched for by the best authority. The case will have a hearing next Monday.

Com. McCurdy's Sentence Commuted.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The sentence of the court in the case of Commander McCurdy, of the Alliance, who was court-martialed for ramming his vessel ashore, was 18 months' suspension, to retain his present number and to receive three-fourths of his pay. The Admiral on the station has commuted the sentence to 12 months' suspension, to retain his present number and to receive full pay.

Charters on a German Steamship.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—Wilhelm Ferdinand, a Bremen on the steamship Ellen Duibar from Hamburg for Grampouth, Scotland, died of cholera on the way. The disease was of the Asiatic type. It is believed, and is supposed to have been contracted from Gaidon emigrants at the Hamburg dock. The steamship has been disinfectant.

Released From an English Prison.

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The "Morning Post" states that James O'Neil and Hill, who were accomplices of Bidwell in the bank forgery in 1874, had been released on bail.
