BRECKENRIDGE likens himself unto Henry Clay—another case of Hyperion and the SATYR.

DEW's first downward step was taken when he became a Democratic member of the Indiana Legislature.

FOR ways that are dark and tricks that is to be hoped will prove vain commend us to the Democratic members of the Tariff Conference Committee.

CHAIRMAN WILSON's health begins to fall him as soon as he is brought in close contact with the noxious odors proceeding from the work of the trusts in his bill.

OIL and water won't mix, but oil and whisky and sugar all commingle in the sweetest harmony in the pending tariff bill at the dictation of the several trusts controlling these articles.

THE meeting at the Cooper Union, New York, at which Henry George made such an exhibition of himself, failed to result in producing the only kind of sympathy with the strikers which talks for itself—cash. All other kinds of talk was too plentiful.

These foreign noblemen and journalists who were a few days ago giving vent to the most pessimistic views about the stability of this Government and the principles upon which it is founded, apropos the strike troubles, must by this time think that they made considerable of an exhibition of their ignorance and prejudice.

THE rejection of a proposed income tax by the French Chamber of Deputies is virtually a repudiation of the Cleveland-ish and outlandish idea that a country can be legislated into prosperity by making thrift unpopular. France evidently does not comprehend the full beauty of the prevalent theory that a nation may profit by enactin laws which make voluntary exile an active to her wealthy citizens.

AS MIGHT easily have been foretold, Dr.
Henry George unhesitatingly prescribes his celebrated mixture of roots and herbs known as "Single Tax" for the evils which have caused the present eruptions on the surface of our industrial system.
If there is any disorder, from chillblains on the Goddess of Liberty's feet to spots on the face of the sun, that Dr. George hasn't guaranteed to cure with his mysterious elixir, it is simply because the victim has not yet presented his case for diagnosis.

FORTUNATE it was that the beautiful White City at Chicago is so well represented by photographs. They are strewn like leaves all over the world. Nothing but pure devilishness could prompt any creature to set fire to the buildings that remained to show the glory of the world's greatest exposition. There was nothing so gain by setting them on fire, nothing for anybody. It could not be revenge that led to the wanton outrage, for there was nothing to be avenged. If the incendiary had been a lunatic, it might account for the fire, but that is not likely.

ALL EXPECTATIONS formed as to the speed of our new cruiser Minneapolis were fulfilled when her official trial trip showed her to be able to maintain an average rate of over 23 knots an hour.
This is a degree of fastness which no other vessel of her big tonnage has ever been able to attain, and leaves her the quickest cruiser of her size in existence.

Under the circumstances, the United States may be congratulated on the latest acquisition to its marine forces, and the builders of the Minneapolis on the handsome bonus assured to them by the Government for every quarter of a knot over the 21 knots an hour fixed upon as the ship's minimum rate of speed.

MAHER'S EASY VICTORY.

He Knocks Out Frank Craig in the Second Round.

BOSTON, July 17.—At Music Hall last night, after two rounds of as hot fighting as Boston has witnessed this season, Peter Maher stood waving his arms over the prostrate form of Frank Craig, the outcast wanderer from New York, whom he had knocked out by a chance right leader.
Craig was unfortunate enough in falling to strike on his face, and lay in that position until long after the ten seconds had gone by.

It took but five minutes to settle the darkey's championship aspirations, but early in the battle it looked like a walk-over for him to win. He was all over his white opponent, but three or four stiff punches that he landed on the Irish lad evidently acted as wakersup for the latter.
In the second round Maher sailed into the negro and for the first minute it was given out take with honors even. Then the battle lulled to the Caucasian, and he followed Craig all over the ring, and finally in the latter's corner caught him a stiff uppercut full in the face.

Before the darkey could get his guard into place Maher caught him a light one with the left. Then Maher shot his right and Craig fell to the floor with a bang that could be heard all over the hall.
There he lay until Timekeeper Dan Murphy notified the referee that the time was up and the negro's seconds lifted him to his feet. He was the first unions club, but a few minutes' careful handling brought him round again.

New York's New Police Chief.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Mayor Gilroy has appointed General Michael F. Kerwin, a police commissioner to succeed John Mc-Clave, who resigned yesterday on account of ill health. General Kerwin was, until a few weeks ago, the collector for the Second internal revenue district of the port of New York. Delaunoy Nicol, Mr.
McClave's counsel, says that his client was suffering from great mental excitement brought on by the dastardly attack made on him before the senate investigation committee.

Robbed by a Woman.

BALTIMORE, July 17.—A woman who passes under the name of Sophia Diamond was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of robbing Samuel Liebman of several gold watches, diamond ring and studs and other jewelry, and a trunk valued in all at $200. The alleged robbery occurred at the National hotel on April 15 last. He says the woman robbed him while he slept. Several pieces of the stolen jewelry were found in her room.

Striking Miners Stand Firm.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., July 17.—The delegates to the miners' convention have again voted to continue the strike. The convention was in session all day, and when the roll was called each delegate handed in his instructions and only two were in favor of declaring the strike off. The delegates from Painter and Bessemer works reported that nearly all of the colored men had left. President Barrett said that he looked for a settlement this week, as he believed the operators were now thoroughly satisfied that they could not operate the works without the old men.

Taken from His Home and Hanged.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky., July 17.—The body of Edwin Teaghter was found hanging to a limb yesterday in a thicket near Adairville. Masked men went to Traugher's home at Adairville, and after calling him out tied his hands and feet and carried him to a thicket near G. W. Hunt's farm, several miles distant, and hung him. The cause of the hanging is not known. Several months ago he was accused of poisoning his father's family, which came near resulting in three deaths.
Excitement is at fever heat in that community.

Confidence Sharp Sentenced.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—Walter Guy Burnald, the young confidence sharp, who has caused much trouble for the police of Chicago, Boston and other eastern cities, and who was arrested in Los Angeles several months ago for complicity in the robbery of Simon Jacobson, a San Francisco pawnbroker, was yesterday sentenced to the penitentiary for four years.
The burglar stole a trunk containing $1,000 worth of jewels from the Jacobson residence.

Colored Farm Laborers Strike.

CHERRYTOWN, Md., July 17.—Kent county farmers find themselves confronted by a novel and at the same time an extremely serious state of affairs. With thousands of acres of wheat unthreshed, colored laborers have gone on a strike, and the situation is daily becoming more difficult. The prices paid have been seventy-five cents per day and the men demand $1 per day.

Mrs. Halliday Adjudged Insane.

ALBANY, July 17.—The governor has convicted the sentence of Mrs. Halliday, convicted of the murder of her husband, to imprisonment for life. She had been sentenced to be electrocuted. A commission found that she was insane.

SEDENTARY CALLINGS

at some time or other bring on a torpid liver. This condition is common to an indoor life; then there follows another condition, anæmia or lack of blood, frequently another worse effect—that of dyspepsia. These conditions aggravate one another.
Your bad temper is likewise aggravating to your friends. No need to go further, the rest is easy. If you buy a vial of Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets you'll find them a natural remedy. Mild but effectual. They have a strengthening effect upon the lining membrane of stomach and bowels, hence their effect is lasting. They cure Constipation, Indigestion, Jaundice, Biliousness and Sick or Bilious Headaches, permanently; because they act naturally.
The best medical testimony proves that these cases are best treated by mild methods.
One tiny, sugar-coated Pellet is a corrector, a regulator, and a gentle laxative. They are put up in glass vials, easily carried and always fresh. They are guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money is returned.

MINERS STORN TO ATOMS

Two Hundred Sticks of Giant Powder Explodes.

EIGHT MEN REPORTED KILLED.

The Accident Occurred at the Stockton Mines at Hazleton, Pa., and is the Most Shocking Which Has Ever Taken Place in the Lehigh Coal Fields.

HAZLETON, Pa., July 18.—Another mine disaster occurred at Stockton No. 5 yesterday, which in detail is the most shocking which ever took place in the Lehigh coal fields. Two hundred sticks of giant powder exploded in the midst of a gang of miners, and not enough of their bodies was left intact to recognize them.
The names of the victims thus far known are Charles O'Donnell, aged 25, married; Andrew Jaboi, aged 38, married; John Pribnow, aged 21, single; John Koshoda, aged 20, single; Anthony Moravits, aged 23, single; John Krinook, aged 28, married; John Motefski, aged 44, married; John Brizon, aged 25, single.

Stockton colliery is about one mile east of this city and operated by Linderman & Kroer. The mine is but part of a series of openings which the company operates in the valley, and is surrounded by hamlets in which the miners live. On account of its isolation from the main breaker it has been customary to send the dynamite and other explosives in boxes to No. 5 and distribute them to the workmen at the bottom of the second shaft as they appear in the morning on their way to work.

Charles O'Donnell had charge of this department, and it was his duty to distribute to the company miners and starters the dynamite and caps. The last man to go down into the shaft were the drivers, and these are the only men to return alive from the opening. How many men or who they were who followed in the next boat is not definitely known, and for this reason the exact number of men killed will not be known until a list of the living is taken.

The drivers went into the stables to harness their mules and it was while thus engaged that the explosion took place.
Charles Shugart says he saw about a dozen men standing about O'Donnell receiving the powder a moment before the explosion took place.

Rescuing parties were quickly formed, and headed by Superintendent Roderick, a corps of miners descended into the mine. The work of recovering the bodies was at once begun, but it was a difficult task. Fragments of human flesh were found some distance up the slope clinging to the rails and ties and sticking to the roof, while everywhere were bones and limbs.

The scenes on the surface were heart-rending. Mothers, with babes in their arms, pressed closely over the mouth of the dark opening, and it was finally necessary to rope off the entrance to the slope in order to prevent the frantic women from climbing down the slope and being dashed to death.

Arrangements for bringing the remains to the surface were then made. Orders for ten boxes were given to the undertakers.
At the bottom of the slope a different scene was transpiring. As each fragment of human flesh was found it was taken to the tumbrel, which is a wide opening. An improvised table was erected there, and the work of sorting out the pieces of flesh was put in charge of several men. As each limb and article of flesh was brought up it was washed and cleaned and placed where it fitted with the body. As each box appeared on the surface an agonizing wail went from the multitude in waiting. Women tore their hair, and shrieks of agony rent the air.

Yale Team Banqueted.

LONDON, July 18.—The Yale athletic team were entertained by 175 members of the American colony in London at a supper at the Criterion restaurant last night.
Ambassador Bayard presided and General Patrick Collins, the United States consul general, acted as vice president. The hall was decorated with the United States and British flags and the insignia of the various stations, including Utah, the bill for the admission of which as a state was just signed by President Cleveland. Toasts were responded to by Ambassador Bayard, Sir Richard Webster and others.

New York Policeman in Trouble.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Jeremiah S. Levy, police patrolman, who until recently was a ward detective under Captain Cortright, of the Eldridge street station, was arrested yesterday afternoon. He is charged with bribery. The warrant for his arrest was issued at the request of Superintendent Byrnes on evidence adduced before the Lexow committee. The sudden arrest of Levy before his indictment by the grand jury is said to have been because he intended to flee the city.

A Dynamite Outrage in Montana.

MISSOULA, Mont., July 18.—An east bound Northern Pacific train, the first in six days, was wrecked at a point about two miles east of here by a dynamite cartridge concealed in the truck, the which shattered the engine. It also broke the windows of the cab and mail car. The strikers denounce the outrage.
A trestle 100 feet long, three miles west of here, and one 150 feet long on the Couer D'Alene branch were burned.

A Singular Mishap.

CHESTER, Pa., July 18.—While squaring posts on the farm of the Sisters of St.
Francis, near Chelsea, Frederick Smith, of that place, fell or was hit with the ax, which entered his body below the breast bone and cut a great gash. Dr. Dickinson found that the ax had entered the young man's lung, and that he was in a dangerous condition.

Japanese Soldiers Attack a British Consul.

SHANGHAI, July 18.—A dispatch received here from Seoul reports that Japanese soldiers have assaulted the British consul at that place and his wife, and that thirty British blue jackets have been landed to guard the British legation.

Surrendered Its Charter.

READING, Pa., July 18.—The Trainmen's Brotherhood lodge of this city has given berger, the convicted murderer of Katie Rupp, was arraigned before Presiding Judge Lippincott and Lay Judge Kenney in the Hudson court, and sentenced to be hanged on Sept. 8.

RIOT AT A BALL GAME

Disgraceful Scenes in the Philadelphia Ball Park—Tucker's Jaw Broken.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—The most disgraceful scenes ever witnessed on the baseball grounds in this city, and which finally terminated in a full fledged riot, occurred yesterday in the game between Philadelphia and Boston. The outcome of the whole affair was that Tucker had his jaw bone broken by a blow, and several other Boston players were roughly handled.
The game was a close and exciting one from the beginning, and at the end of the seventh inning the score stood 2 to 1 in Boston's favor. At this juncture the weather became threatening.

The home team went in and by hard hitting scored seven runs in the eighth inning. After the seven runs had been scored the Boston players began throwing the ball about the field and jumping out of the way of easy ground hits, evidently playing in the hope that rain would stop the game and give them the victory. Umpire Campbell warned Captain Nash to cease his ballyhoo actions and play ball.
Umpire Campbell, after waiting a few minutes for the Boston players to proceed with the game gave the home team the victory—9 to 0.

One of the crowd jostled Tucker as he was leaving the field. This was the signal for the riot. Some one in the mob struck Tucker on the left cheek, breaking the bone.

The crowd then turned their attention to the other players, but were dispersed by officers, who escorted the players to their coach. As the coach proceeded down Broad street it was followed by 1,000 men and boys, who hooted and jeered the players.

William Leonard and Lewis Saylor, two of the crowd who surrounded the Boston players, were arrested and locked up in the station house near the grounds. Both men deny that they had anything to do with the assault on Tucker, and they will probably be released.

Walked Out of Bloomingdale.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Edward T. Hartley, the Harlem merchant who has been confined in Bloomingdale asylum since June 19, walked out of Bloomingdale yesterday. Having helped himself to a key from the pocket of Night Keeper John C.
Wilson, of that institution, he slipped across the river to Fort Lee, where he is staying at Bunkelster's hotel. He talks rationally, laughs at the idea of his being lunatic, and says that his confinement is a piece of oppression because he would not stand in with Tammany Hall. He says he will stay in New Jersey until he gets satisfaction.

Soldiers' Narrow Escape.

POND CREEK, O. T., July 18.—Troop A, U. S. A., of Fort Reno, under command of Captain Mackey, which has been detailed to guard the Rock Island road, missed death at the hands of the Pond Creek train wreckers by less than 300 feet.
Two explosions of dynamite occurred within 300 yards of the southern outskirts of the city immediately after the special train carrying the troops from Erid to Pond Creek station had passed. One of the shots exploded immediately under the train, but did no damage. The other blew out a cattle guard and shattered the rails.

A Plot to Murder the New Sultan.

LONDON, July 18.—A dispatch to The Times from Mequinez, Morocco, says:

who was formerly minister of war, and two others who formerly held high court positions have been arrested and impris-

Victims of a Practical Joker.

RED CLIFF, Colo., July 18.—T. A. Hawley, a practical joker, took up a loose plank in a bridge at Edwards, twenty miles below here, and when Minnie and Clarence Fieck and William Burnison drove upon the bridge, the horse became frightened and backed off the bridge, throwing all in the water below. Hawley rescued the girl. He went back for the brother and both were drowned. Burnison swam out.

with honors in the class of '94, Syracuse university, has been declared insane, and was taken to the state insane asylum at Ogdensburg. He has been ailing for some time. Overwork is thought to be the cause of his condition, and it is thought he will recover.

Steamboats in Collision.

NEW YORK, July 18.—In a dense fog the steamboat Cetus, of the Iron Steamboat line, collided with the Cepheus, of the same line, yesterday afternoon, just off Coney Island Point. The bow of the Cetus made a deep hole in the vessel's hull. Two hundred passengers were on the Cepheus, but all were safely put on the Cetus.

largest ever earned by a vessel.
