THE POLITICAL FIELD VIEWED.

An Interesting Letter From Our County Seat Correspondent.

HOPES OF THE CANDIDATES

Turn Where You Will All the Candidates of Both Parties are Found Smiling and Confident.

Special HERALD correspondence.
 POTTSVILLE, July 19.—Bumm's vigorous fight for the Congressional nomination has added new life to the contest and as Hon. S. A. Loech has not been seen around here for several days past it is presumed he has been getting in his work in new pastures. I am certain Sammy has not taken to the woods; he is not of that kind.

Shomer's form is seen almost daily on Centre street and from this I have come to the conclusion that he has finished his tour and is now content to lie on his oars and await results.

The legislative fight is getting still more interesting and a number of new candidates have appeared this week. There will be many disappointments and I hope those who get left will swallow their defeat gracefully.

The many friends of Controller Severn are sorry he has been obliged to walk the plank by order of the Supreme Court. He made a very conscientious official and in the social circles of this city he became very popular. It is the opinion of many that a very graceful act would be the unanimous nomination of Mr. Severn for the Legislature in the First district. Lawyer Wilhelm has received credit for the result of the contest before the Supreme Court. He carries the honor meekly.

The fight for Sheriff seems to be overshadowing everything else just now. Davis still claims to be away ahead and sure of the nomination. Mr. Scott was here on Monday shaking hands with everybody. His loss feels confident of winning and if he doesn't say so his friends do.

Dr. Sallade is leaving no stones unturned to secure the Democratic nomination for this office and feels as certain of it as if it was already made. Higgins, of Shenandoah, comes down almost every day, en route for some of the farming districts and from appearances one is obliged to concede that everything favors him. But Frank P. Spigars is not dead, but sleeping, and he is willing to accept the nomination for Sheriff on the Democratic ticket, and it need not be surprising for one to learn that his friends have been working quietly and successfully for him in that direction. Frank should try and bag better game than this. Those who expected better things from him are disappointed.

Hon. Malachi C. Watson's candidacy for the Senate in the 30th district caused the chills to run down the backs of Francy's friends. Malachi owes Francy a grudge for assisting in knocking him out four years ago and he intends to get even, no matter at what cost. Ex-Senator Watson is in the fight to stay and his German friends on this side of the mountain, who are legion, will stand by him this time.

Graham, the china dealer of this city, is the latest candidate for the Legislature in this district. The Republicans have enough good material on hand to enable them to make up a winning ticket without the slightest trouble.

The friends of ex-Senator King, who are quite numerous down this way, feel confident that their favorite will win. There is a great electric railway scheme on foot here. The Shenandoah Electric Railway Company wants rights of way which will enable it to extend its lines through more populous sections of the city and abandon places where the grades are not desirable. If the rights are granted it will revolutionize the system and greatly enlarge and improve it.

In my opinion the Republicans in this district will make a mistake if they do not nominate, as one of their candidates for the Legislature, Dr. Cox, of Slatykill Kill Haven. He is worthy of their confidence and I am sure will make one of the best representatives ever sent to Harrisburg from this district. With Will E. Haring, of Palo Alto, and some other worthy gentlemen on it, the ticket would be a very strong one.

Five Straight.

The Shenandoah base ball team scored its fifth successive victory for this week yesterday by winning a well played and hotly contested game at Sunbury with the following score:

THE BOROUGH COUNCIL.

The Public Water Works the Principal Subject of Action.

A regular meeting of the Borough Council was held last evening, at which the following members were present: Messrs. McGuire, Gable, Stout, Kane, McElhenny, Lamb, Keras, Dougherty, Gallagher, Hand, James, Meluskey and Straughn. A. W. Schalk, Esq., of Pottsville, who is Council's special counsel, was an attendant during a part of the proceedings.

A petition by M. M. Burke, James Monaghan, James Grant, James F. O'Brien and Andrew Meluskey, asking permission to run a sewer line along Plum alley was granted upon the usual conditions.

M. M. Jones, Esq., stating that to save the borough expense he thought it will be well if a committee would be instructed to see what could be done in the way of a settlement of the HERALD case against the borough, in which a judgment of $2000 was secured, but which had not been paid more than was offered before the case was tried and the subject was dropped.

A letter from George M. Roads, Esq., of Pottsville, asking payment of the Gullid judgment of $300 recovered against the borough three years ago and now amounting to $384.77, was read and filed.

A request from Edmund Harris, asking permission to put a sewer line on South Main street from Cherry to Poplar streets, was granted upon the usual conditions.

The roads and highway committee reported in favor of paying the Britt bill for changing the grade on Pear alley and the Simmons bill for damage to a carriage by reason of a bad crossing at Main and Lloyd streets, but rejected bills of Oscar Bettebridge and Frank Bonin for damages to vehicles on account of alleged obstructions on and bad condition of West Centre street.

The lamp and watch committee reported that all the police are on duty again, the one who was off on account of sickness having recovered.

The survey committee called attention to the fact that Council had not elected an official surveyor and an election was taken up. Mr. Straughn nominated S. A. Beddall, Mr. McElhenny nominated Tennyson Hoover and Mr. Gable named William G. Gregory, the latter a recent student at Ashland and holding the position of civil engineer for the Gilbert Estate, as successor to Mr. S. A. Beddall. Mr. Gregory was elected, having received seven votes, while Mr. Beddall received four and Mr. Glover two.

Complaint was then made that the electric railway curve at the corner of White and Oak streets brings the track too close to the south side of the latter street.

Mr. McElhenny made a lengthy report on the sanitary requirements of the town and the Chief Burgess was instructed to attend to the cases he reported as having been located.

The construction committee was instructed to procure an estimate for cementing the entire floor in the basement of the Borough building and putting windows in for air and illumination.

The room and stationary committee was instructed to have the telephone and Board of Health ordinances republished as per usual bids.

Mr. Gallagher, chairman of the water committee, reported that he notified Contractor Quinn to proceed with work on the Fowler's Run reservoir and Mr. Quinn had said he would like to have some money.

On motion, Mr. Quinn was granted an order for $12,000 on account, with the understanding that the balance will be paid as soon as the committee appointed can determine the amount after an investigation.

The chairman of the water committee was instructed to ask Mr. Womelsdorf for an itemized statement of the amount of pipe laid in town and a classified statement of the different sizes. When the report is ready a special meeting of Council will be called to receive it.

Mr. Gallagher reported that Mr. McAdams had stated the Fowler's Run reservoir could be completed by the latter part of August, if all the pipe should be on hand.

Mr. Stout: Are we going to use up all of the $60,000 before we get ready to hold a special election. We have to give thirty days notice and then if we wait until after the election is over we will have the works idle for about two months, or more.

Mr. Gable: We can hardly tell about that until we get this information about the pipe. That is what we appointed this committee for.

Mr. James: The purpose of appointing these committees is to get this information. The Council can then determine what they have to do. I am satisfied something will have to be done.

The chairman of the lamp and watch committee was instructed to present the papers in the Sidgus police investigation case at the next meeting of Council.

THE VICTIMS BURIED.

Remains of the Eight Stockton Miners Are Interred.

Special to the HERALD.

HAZLETON, July 20.—The fragments of the unfortunate miners, who were killed by the explosion at Stockton No. 8 on Tuesday, were buried yesterday. The body of Anthony Norwitz, the Poleander, was taken to the Greek cemetery. There were no mourners following his bier and the burial excited little attention among his countrymen. The body of John Malofsky, John Primoo and John Krinock were taken to the Hungarian Catholic cemetery for interment. These bodies were followed each by large processions of friends and sympathizers, including a number of religious societies of which the men were members. The bodies of Andrew Sabol, John Brisson and John Kashead were taken from their late homes at Stockton and given a final resting place in the Greek Catholic cemetery here.

The funeral of Young O'Donnell also took place this afternoon. He having been married but a few months since, the circumstances surrounding his death were more pathetic and excited much sympathy. A large procession followed the corpse to the church, where the last rites were administered before the body was buried in St. Gabriel's cemetery. The coroner has not investigated the case, but will begin to do so to-morrow.

THE BAYNOLO MURDER CASE

Progress of the Inquest Before Deputy Coroner Fogarty.

MRS. BALLIETT'S STORY!

Little Important Information Gleaned Last Evening—James Tahaney Can Not be Found.

MAHANAY CITY, July 20.—The inquest in the case of Frank Baynole, the Italian who was murdered at Yatesville last Sunday evening, was continued before Deputy Coroner Edward Fogarty last evening. Several witnesses were examined, but very little testimony of importance was elicited.

It is generally believed here that the majority of the witnesses who have been examined are inclined to keep their mouths closed as much as possible. Irrespective of all sense of justice, the authorities are becoming impressed that there is a disposition to shield the guilty parties.

District Attorney Ryan was present last evening and conducted the examinations. It was announced last night that James Tahaney had disappeared. A warrant has been issued for his arrest but thus far the constable has not been able to execute it.

The case is not to be disposed of in a slipshod manner and it is only a question of time when all the guilty parties will be arranged before the bar of justice unless they succeed in getting into some secluded part of the earth and remain there, as the Italian consul at New York has taken an interest in the case and says his government will see that it is pushed vigorously. The consul's representative was here yesterday.

It seems difficult to get witnesses to attend the inquest. Last evening several who had been summoned failed to put in an appearance and for that reason the inquest has been again continued until this evening.

Mrs. John Balliett was the first witness examined last night. She testified: Q. State what you saw.

A. I was coming out to the railroad track and saw a crowd waiting for an electric car. All at once I heard a crack. The crowd ran away and I next saw two girls coming up the railroad track. Then I saw a man (Baynole) lying down and I went home to tell my husband.

John Balliett was next sworn: Q. Were you at Fowlers when this happened?

A. Yes, sir.
 Q. What time did you see Baynole alive?

A. Between 6 and 8 o'clock.
 Q. State what you know that occurred.

A. Well, I heard a great deal of noise at the colliery and I went with Mr. Knapp to see what the trouble was. I saw the Italian going around with a spread. He appeared very angry and was looking for a certain person.

Q. Where did you go then?
 A. Then I went home with Mr. Knapp, to my house, and we sat there for about three-quarters of an hour, until I heard that the man was lying on the road. Then we picked him up and laid him to one side and got a stretcher and took him to the slushy.

Q. Did you hear any person trying to talk to him?
 A. I heard him say something to Joseph McCarthy that English people kicked him on the head.

Q. Do you know who was around?
 A. I saw Thomas Galvin, the watchman, with a shovel in his hand.
 Q. Did you go there alone?

A. No, sir; the watchman, Mr. Knapp and myself.
 Q. Did you see anybody strike him?
 Q. Did you see Wherry there?

A. I cannot swear.
 Q. Was Bradley there?
 A. No, sir.
 Q. McGee?

A. I do not know him.
 Q. Who did you see?
 A. Patrick Lawlor.
 Q. Where does he live?
 A. Jacksons.

Q. Did you make an examination on the following morning?
 A. No, sir.
 Q. Did you go to see if any clubs were lying around, or see any signs of murder?

A. No, sir; I did not.
 Q. Where did you go next evening?
 A. I went to Mahanay City.
 Q. Were you told who struck Baynole?

A. No, sir; I only heard he had been kicked by Brennan.
 Q. Did you have any conversation relative to what took place at the slope?

A. Only that he (Baynole) was kicked in the chin; that was all.
 Q. You did not see who struck him on the head?
 A. I did not.
 Q. Mr. Moore, the Pottsville court stenographer is in attendance at the inquest, reporting the testimony from the District Attorney's office.

Mr. Ryan will be unable to attend the inquest this evening, but will be represented by Deputy District Attorney McLaughlin.

NOTES ABOUT TOWN.

Facts of Interest Grouped so That They May be Quickly Read.

Have you noticed the new style caps the boys are wearing—those with the long peaks? They are not very handsome, but we are told that they fill a "long felt want," protecting the eyes from the glare of the hot sun. In them looks doesn't get but as long as they are useful they will become more popular than ever. 'Tis a pity they did not discover this long ago and save the eyes of so many who are now compelled to wear glasses.

If Dick Amour, the electric railway special officer, would station a man, with a good whip, at several points along the road for a few days, he would soon stop the practice of boys jumping on and off the cars at the risk of their lives. A good switching will cure them, if anything will, and he will receive the thanks of parents for his kindness.

Squire Bailey is now in his ninetieth year and a more active and supple old man than he is hard to find. No one seeing him walking and taking interest in town sports would judge him to be over fifty. It seems as if he has taken a new lease of life. Last winter he was in poor health and almost every one predicted he would not last much longer.

Since his retirement from the Supervisoryship some time ago Gerald McKernan has been leading an easy life in his comfortable home on East Coal street. Mr. McKernan was always a good citizen and is on record as being one of the oldest subscribers of the HERALD, having taken it, and paid for it, ten, since 1870.

Michael Curley is another worthy citizen of town and with the exception of one short interval has been a member of the special police force from the time he first located here, which was a time when it was worth one's life to act as a policeman.

The citizens of East Centre street have started to put in a sewer line from Emerick street to the sewer near the P. & R. depot, and thus another piece of work in the interest of better sanitary regulations is put on foot. The people of the First ward are deserving of commendation for the earnestness in this connection. They were the first to start private sewerage and to all appearances, intend to be the last in the field, unless they find themselves without room for any more pipe.

The name of Fred V. Heisenberger was unintentionally omitted from the list of jurors in the Tobak-Early case in the report yesterday and one of the jurors has called attention to the fact that the rent Tobak accepted from Early he took under protest and with the understanding that he waived no rights by doing so and it was that kind of acceptance that left Early, in the eyes of the jury, unable to claim that his payment of rent created a new tenancy.

Niagara Falls Excursion Via The Lehigh Valley R. R.

Passengers leaving on "The Niagara Falls" excursion at 9:15 a. m. to-morrow can take their meals on the train, as the new Lehigh Valley Lunch car, of which so much has been said recently, will be attached to this train. This will be a first class train in every respect, notwithstanding that the fare for adults will be but $5.00 and $3.75 for children.

Wyatt's Candidacy.

Of the Republican candidates in the field one of the most active and popular seems to be Joseph Wyatt, of town, who is seeking the nomination for the Legislature in the First district. His friends are numerous and scattered all over the district, so that when the proper time comes it will not be surprising should he develop great strength. Joe is a genial, good-hearted fellow and has a head which would count in the Legislature.

A Successful Affair.

The bazaar of nations, held in Robbins' opera house last evening under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U., was quite a novelty in the line of entertainments. The drilling of twelve young ladies in gay costumes was a feature of the evening and the fortune tellers caused considerable amusement for the young folks. The entertainment will be repeated this and to-morrow evenings.
