ROUTED THE PICKED NINE.

Hazleton, Jeanesville and Mahanoy City, Combined, Fall Victims.

AND SHENANDOAH DID IT!

With Their Little Bats They Cut Down the Ambition of One of Their Old-Time Rivals.

Three hundred and-eyed, disappointed and humiliated Mahanoy City patrons of the diamond wended their way home from the Trotting park yesterday afternoon, taking with them the defeated players of a picked team which the people over the hill brought to town as invincible.

While base ball lasts it will be Mahanoy City's uppermost wish to wipe up the diamond with the Shenandoahites and it was that wish which led the aforesaid disappointed patrons to come to town with a combination of players picked from the Hazleton, Jeanesville and Mahanoy City clubs, each club contributing three players.

The visitors came here primed with confidence. They had with them three pitchers who have won fame upon the coal region diamond—Ruekel, Keener and Rothemel, and they found use for all of them before the game ended. It took the Shenandoahs but two innings to knock Ruekel out of the box; Keener struggled through five innings and Rothemel pitched the eighth and ninth innings.

With all the changes and hard work the Mahanoy City aggregation was unable to cope with the home team in any stage of the game. The latter scored in every inning up to the eighth, knocking the ball in all directions and getting around the bases on a canter through errors when the hits failed to fit in.

Musser was the favorite of the day. He went to the bat five times and made four hits, two of them being home runs, one in the first and one in the second. On one of the home runs hit he brought in three runs beside his own and on the other hit, two. His work at third was also very good. Ross distinguished himself by making two nice catches. O'Hara commended his work in left field with an error, but took the five subsequent chances.

Connell and Jordan took the honors on the Mahanoy City side. The former made a most difficult catch of a foul fly and was heartily applauded for it. During the progress of the game the Mahanoy City rooters gave vent to many lamentations. One man who entered the park in a most enthusiastic spirit said in the fourth inning: "If I survive this, I'll take to drink." He was awful sore.

The visitors were completely over-matched. They succeeded in getting only 35 men at the bat, while 50 of the Shenandoah men got there. The fourth inning was the only one in which the visitors gave signs of life at the bat. Rothemel, Brown and Keener made hits in succession and filled the bases, but not a run was scored. In the sixth inning an effort was made, but was spoiled by a double play.

The Mahanoy City people went home sadder, but wiser. They must not believe all they hear about the Shenandoah team. It has not been showing up very strong in the state league, but it can reduce the head swelling of any club outside the league and with a couple of strong pitchers it would rapidly improve its standing in the league. DIAMOND DOTS. The Louisville National League club is playing at Pottsville to-day. Baldwin and Milligan, late of King Kelly's Allentown nine, have been signed by Pottsville.

To-morrow Pottsville will make its first appearance of the season on the Shenandoah grounds.

The Pottsville management had a nerve to try and get to-morrow's game by transferring to Pottsville after the treatment the Shenandoahs received in the last game there.

Potts made a very satisfactory umpire yesterday. If all the men on the Pottsville team were like Potts that team and the Shenandoahs would get along more like two brothers.

Easton and Shenandoah are not fast enough for the company they are in, and the league officials would do well in making some substantial effort to strengthen them.—Reading Eagle.

Previous to yesterday's game with Shenandoah Manager Zerr told his boys that he would give each member of the club a copy of the large club photograph if they succeeded in shutting out their opponents, and further that he would present each pitcher with a five-dollar gold piece in the event of Shenandoah being shut out both batters. It was a hard war for the boys, but they went manfully to work to win and having the will they found the way, at least for the first game, Shenandoah being retired nine successive innings without getting a man across the plate that represents home, sweet home.—Reading World.

Funerals. The funeral of Frank McCormick, the fire boss who was killed in the explosion at the Gilbert colliery on Friday last, took place this morning from the family residence on South Gilbert street. The Phoenix Fire Company and a large number of friends and relatives attended. High Mass in the Annunciation church and the interment at the Annunciation cemetery.

The remains of the late George Wilde were laid at rest in the Odd Fellows' cemetery this afternoon. There was a large attendance at the funeral, which took place from the residence of one of his sons, G. A. Wilde, on East Coal street.

Another Victim Dies. Louis Bollinski, one of the men who suffered in the explosion at the Gilbert colliery on Friday, died at his home on South Main street at noon to-day. It was reported that Henry Buchanan, another victim of the same disaster, had died at the Miners' hospital, but the report was contradicted by a message from the hospital. Buchanan is in a critical condition, however.

Telegrapher Resigns. John J. Goff, a gilt-edged telegrapher employed in the Trainmaster's office at Mahanoy Plains, has resigned his position. He will leave for Philadelphia on September 1st and enter the Pierce School, where he will take a business course, also learning shorthand and typewriting. Mr. Goff intends permanently locating in the Quaker City.

Pottsville vs. Shenandoah. A clash of two great rivals. Game called at 4 p. m.

How About This. If the borough authorities will walk along East Coal and North Emerick streets they will find them in a horrible condition. The mounds of earth left on Emerick street by the sewerage company have been mistaken for ash dumping grounds and the people are using them accordingly.

Dunkle and Messitt will be the Shenandoah battery to-morrow.

The Monument Committee. A regular meeting of the Soldiers' Monument committee will be held in the Council chamber at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening, when the several sub-committees will make reports on the progress they are making towards completion of arrangements for the great picnic to be held on Business Men's Holiday, Sept. 30th.

See the great Baldwin and Milligan at the Trotting park to-morrow.

Leg Cut Off. Andrew Toboski, a laborer employed at the new reservoir of the Pottsville water works, fell while attempting to get on moving coal train at Frackville on Saturday and one of his legs was cut off at the knee. He was removed to the Miners' hospital.

Pottsville vs. Shenandoah. A great game. Will be called at 4 p. m.

The Opening Attraction. Little's "World" is coming with its magnificent scenery, beautiful singing, entrancing dances and the great actress of male character, Miss Edith Mall as the sailor boy. At Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening, August 31st.

Pottsville vs. Shenandoah. Greatest game of the season. Trotting park at 4 p. m.

Did. LEAHY.—On the 25th inst., at Shenandoah, Pa., Cornelius Leahy, aged 48 years. Funeral on Tuesday, 28th inst. High mass will be celebrated in St. Mary's church, at Mahanoy Plains, at 10 a. m. Interment at Frackville. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. 8-27-94.

A Fiend Caged. Henry Strobel, of Ashland, has been sent to the Pottsville jail to await trial on a charge of having attempted to commit a criminal assault on a five-year-old child named Clara Manhart.

WHITEHOUSE COMES BACK.

He Arrived Here Saturday Night in Custody of Police.

TAKES THE CASE CALMLY.

Pleads Guilty and Regrets That he Ran Away—How he Was Tracked and Placed Under Arrest.

Joseph Whitehouse, late assistant outside foreman at the Shenandoah City colliery, was an involuntary visitor to town Saturday evening. He arrived here from Trenton, N. J., in the custody of Capt. Daniel Christian and James Daniell, of the Coal & Iron police force, and was at once taken before Justice T. T. Williams. Arriving there he pleaded guilty to the charges against him and waived a hearing.

Justice Williams fixed the amount of bail at $2,000. Whitehouse, in the company of Mr. Daniell, searched for 9 o'clock until 12 o'clock in town for bail, but failed to secure it and was taken down to Pottsville by Christian and Daniell yesterday morning on the 2:10 P. & R. train. Edward Mendlow, of Fishback, subsequently became his bondman.

Whitehouse does not seem to be worried by the trouble he has brought upon himself. He was not at all nervous or excited while before the justice and expressed but one regret. He was sorry he ran away and said he would have remained and faced the storm had it not been for the advice of others. He refused to say who had advised him.

Whitehouse appreciates the fact that he has prejudiced his case by running away, in that he put the P. & R. C. & I. company to considerable trouble and expense in getting him back. He says that when he got as far as Black Creek last Monday night he felt inclined to return to Shenandoah, but had no money with which to pay his fare.

It required considerable red tape business to bring the fugitive back. The P. & R. company first learned of the charges last Saturday. The next two days were occupied in investigation of the company's documents to verify the charges. On Tuesday Capt. Christian came here and swore out a warrant before Justice Williams for the arrest of Whitehouse on charges of forgery, making false entries, embezzlement and tampering with evidence.

After the warrant was issued Daniel Bedea was left in charge of the Shenandoah end of the case, Capt. Christian took the Pottsville end, and the jaunt was assigned to Daniell. The latter went first to Philadelphia and put guards on all the out-going steamers. Then he went to Trenton and put a guard on the house of Whitehouse's mother-in-law. Finally Daniell went to New York City and put a guard on the steamers in that port.

The man in charge at Trenton was Detective Charles Pilger, who spotted Whitehouse last Tuesday, but was not sufficiently certain in the identification to make an arrest. On Wednesday Whitehouse came out of his mother-in-law's house, having secured the necessary certified copies of the warrants issued by Justice Williams. Armed with these Christian went to Harrisburg and secured a requisition for the extradition of Whitehouse. Having secured these Christian and Daniell went to Trenton, and had the papers countersigned by Governor Veris, whereupon Whitehouse was arrested and brought back to Shenandoah.

It is impossible to approximate at the present time what amount of money Whitehouse secured through his dealings on fictitious names. The P. & R. company has only commenced the investigation, but checks making a pile about three inches high are in evidence. It is impossible to tell how many more checks will be brought out by the investigation, which is still going on.

Whitehouse's system, it is said, was to turn in time for men whose names had got on the books of the colliery by previous employment. He would then take the checks for distribution and send them by Polish messengers to a Pole in whom he had confidence. This Pole would sign the fictitious checks and send them back to Whitehouse, who would then present them at the pay office and collect the money on the pretense that the men entitled to it were sick, or otherwise kept away.

Mrs. Bridgman's classes in piano, cello and violin will open September 1. 8-15-94

McCibenny's Bill of Fare. Snapper soup, Oyster and clam soup, Hard shell crabs, Devilled crabs, Devilled clams, Lobster salad, Little neck clams, Fresh and salt oysters.

Thrown from a Carriage. Matt Rogers and Frank Narasawicz, of the First ward, were thrown from a carriage on East Centre street yesterday afternoon. Their horse ran away upon being started by an electric railway car. They were not seriously injured, although Narasawicz sustained a painful cut above the right eye by being thrown against a telegraph pole.

The Pottsville team will make its first appearance here this season in to-morrow's game.

Insurance Claim Paid. We were exceedingly pleased the other day to see a check of $1,000 in the hands of the Napoleon of insurance, H. L. Talley, President of the Home Friendly Society of Baltimore. The check was for Mrs. Scheubing, of West Coal street, on the death of her husband, who was recently killed in the mines. The Home Friendly is rapidly forging to the front in the industrial insurance line.

The Other Day

We saw an advertisement wherein a tub of butter is represented as a living being, and strong enough to hold out a 500 pound weight at arm's length. That's not the kind of butter we sell, ours is not strong. It's sweet, and we have lots of it.
