THE HOME BASE BALL TEAM BEATEN BY THE POTTSVILLE.

NOT IN IT AT ANY STAGE!

Superiority Shown by the Visitors in Batting, Fielding and Every Other Point of the Contest.

To tell the story of yesterday's base ball game with the Pottsville club at the Trotting park is to recite a tale of woe which brings tears tinged with disgust. After all the claims the home team made about unfair treatment on the Pottsville grounds our people braced themselves for a battle of vindication on the home grounds and despite the poor showing the club has made since its admission to the league many still retained the hope that it had the ability to vindicate itself against Pottsville, but the showing made yesterday effectually blasted such consolation.

The conservative spectator could see when the two clubs appeared on the diamond for practice yesterday afternoon that in general appearance the county seaters were head and shoulders above the Scranton heirs. The former are heavy set, brassy fellows, with skin full of confidence. The Shenandoahs, with the exception of Welkert, are comparatively dwarf and nervousness seems to mark every action. This was particularly noticeable and the visiting players did not fail to observe and make capital of it.

The defeat of the home team was not a surprise, but that the Pottsvilles should win so easily caused some caustic comment. Up to the seventh inning the coal diggers were no more in the game than the tariff is in favor with the people and at that point it looked as if about out was a certainty.

Dunkle was a failure in the box. He seemed wholly unable to control the ball and kept Messitt jumping about like one on a red-hot plate. Two two-base hits and a single netted two runs in the fourth inning and a three-bagger, a double and a single, garnished with a wild pitch and three errors by the infield, ran the score up to 6 to 0 in the second inning.

Yeager was put in the box in the third and succeeded in holding the terrific bat down pretty well until the seventh inning, when he was hit for five singles and a two-bagger.

It was in the seventh inning that the home team broke the ice which was fast extending to them, and the work came from an unexpected point. Ashenbach, Welkert and Musser were looked to for the batting of the day, but it fell to the lot of Messitt to carry off the honors, by bringing Welkert home and landing O'Hara at third on a good single in the seventh, and bringing in O'Hara with a two-bagger in the ninth.

At no stage of the game were there incidents to arouse genuine enthusiasm. When Messitt made his hit the home people among the spectators became somewhat jubilant, but that enthusiasm which is born of admiration, was lacking and every degree of hope was quenched when the Pottsvilles went to the bat in the seventh and increased their score to 13.

One Shenandoah man took a charitable view of the game, and he was Councilman Archie Lamb. "It only goes to show," said he, "how courteous Shenandoah is to visitors. It gives them everything to make them happy and I am sure if the players could carry the grounds with them we would not withhold the gift."

Great Day at Mt. Carmel. The American Demonstration Association at Mt. Carmel is booming the arrangements for the demonstration at that place on Saturday in royal style. Special low rates for transportation have been secured from all the railroads and the citizens committee, through Superintendents Reighler, Clements and Williams, have succeeded in changing the pay day in that district to Friday, so that the people will be free and have money with which to enable them to enjoy the festivities of the day. The town is already artistically decorated and will excel all previous efforts to make Labor Day this year one of the greatest events in the history of the town. Governor Pattison and his staff have assured the committee that they will be in attendance.

THE BIG MOKE SMILES.

Crowds From Shenandoah and Mahanoy City Entertained by the Minstrels.

The big, breezy dancing pavilion at the Columbia park was filled to overflowing last night by visitors from Mahanoy City and Shenandoah, who went to laugh at the "breaks," songs and "hoe-downs" of the Georgia Minstrel Troupe. At nine o'clock the show was concluded, when the announcement was made that the troupe's orchestra would play for dancing. The remainder of the evening was whittled away in the giddy waltz and square dance.

The entertainment was free. It was given by the Lakeside Railway to draw traffic over their road and to popularize the pleasure resorts along the line. The fun was well worth the fare.

Anticipating an immense crowd, a full complement of cars were ready and waiting at the foot of Centre street. On the foremost car stood an official, smiling broadly at the crowd he could see streaming down the hill. The company would do well—they would carry 500 people and would be paid for the expense incurred in employing the minstrels. He wrung his hands in delight. But lo! The crowd passed by; they were going to walk.

After the performance about eighteen people were carried to Shenandoah in one car, but toward Mahanoy City the traffic was better. Shenandoah people on the part, say that the distance is hardly worth the riding, after walking from Main street to the terminal, but for all that others paid fare because they believed the Lakeside line deserving of patronage for their enterprise and willingness to give Shenandoah people a cheap summer entertainment.

STREET GLEANINGS.

They Are Brief, But Will Be Found Very Interesting.

A regular meeting of the Board of Health will be held on Friday evening.

Stray coupling pins, bolts and pieces of iron picked up along the local branch of the Lehigh Valley Railroad yesterday formed a load for two flat cars.

The mounds of earth and heaps of ashes still remain on Emerick street in spite of the fact that the attention of the borough authorities has been called to them.

All work on the extension of the Lakeside Electric Railway has been suspended pending the disposition of the injunction proceedings instituted by Mrs. Yodkois.

The entertainment given by the Georgia minstrels at Columbia park last night drew a large audience. The minstrels will appear at High Point park again tonight.

Frank Porta, one of the best bicycle riders in the town, has been making such excellent sports of late that several of his friends are urging him to prepare for a trial record and he is seriously considering the proposition.

The dry weather has caused the dust to accumulate upon the streets to a depth of several inches and the people are complaining loudly but the fire companies owning the sprinklers find themselves handicapped by the drought.

One thing Policeman Walatta wants to learn is that his uniform does not give him a license to indiscriminately wield his authority of a police officer, but in exercising it he must exercise judgment, and if he fails to do that he will get himself twisted.

Two Men Injured and One of Them May Die.

Michael Ollabach and William Shostock, two Polish miners, were victims of a powder explosion in the Shenandoah City colliery to-day. Ollabach was badly burned on the head and body and may die. Shostock was burned on the head and neck, but not dangerously. Both men were removed to the Miners' hospital.

The explosion was caused by a spark from Ollabach's lamp dropping into a keg of powder.

A Select Party.

A select party was held at the residence of Robert A. Glover, on South Jardin street, in honor of Misses Nellie and Gertrude Kerns, two charming young ladies of Norfolk, Va. Among those in attendance were Misses Kate, Mabel and Jessie Glover, Annie Saeger, Ida Lewis, Lizzie Williams and Ruby Yost; and Messrs. Arthur Hoover, Tennyson Glover and Alfred Kerns. A four-seater excellent instrumental selection by Miss Yost, refreshments were served. The Misses Kerns have been the guests of town friends for a week past and will return to Norfolk on Friday.

The Monument Picnic.

The committee in charge of the monster picnic to be held in Columbia Park on Business Men's Holiday, September 20, met last night and made excellent reports. It was decided to have a big programme of sports during the day and a grand display of fireworks in the evening. There will also be a grand business men's party in connection with a parade of all societies of this and neighboring towns.

Removal.

Musser & Beddall have removed their grocery from 38 to 55 East Centre street; the place recently vacated by Miss McGinness, and are fitting up the store to make it both attractive and convenient for their patrons. Messrs. Musser & Beddall are among the most successful firms in the town and their success is due to the sale of first-class goods at reasonable prices.

At the Theatre.

Don't fail to see Little's "World." It is grander than ever, full of new beauties. The audience laugh and cry and are thrilled with the startling and beautiful scenes and situations. The dances and songs are the latest novelties of the theatrical season. At Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening, August 31st.

Caught in a Rush.

Robert Delowry, of town, was caught in a rash of coal in a breast at the Boston Run colliery this morning and had his legs badly cut and bruised. He was taken home in an ambulance.

DOINGS AT THE COUNTY SEAT

Interesting Correspondence From a Close Observer.

MR. BRUMM IS ENCOURAGED

Several Republican Leaders at Washington Pledge Assistance for His Campaign.

Special HERALD Correspondence.

POTTSVILLE, Aug. 28.—The selection of Burd W. Payne, of Ashland, as chairman of the Republican party of this county may be a wise one and the very thing needed, since, I am told, he is not mixed up with any of the factions; but had either Leach, Davis or Shoener been selected I believe all factions would have been united and the satisfaction would have been more general. It would have been an olive branch. As it is, I have heard it intimated that Mr. Payne's appointment will not be of a very great benefit to the party, the Republican candidate for the Legislature in the Second District. Why it should be injurious to him no one seems disposed to say. But the choice has now been made. Ashland has county representation and it is the duty of every Republican to get down to work, so that if the new chairman is made of the stuff required the party may go to the goal of victory, which is in sight and can be reached with little trouble.

One thing should be remembered: As the candidates must pay the piper it was no more than right that they should name the gentleman who is to handle the campaign. If he fails to come up to their expectations the lack of foresight will rest with those who selected him. Meanwhile Mr. Payne should be given a fair show and the hearty support of the party.

It is not too early to commence active campaign work. The Democrats have had the start and much of their preliminary work is under way. When Mr. Reilly returns from Washington on Friday the procession will move.

Mr. Brumm has returned from Washington, where he spent several days in consultation with the Congressional campaign committee. He is very much encouraged and will go into the campaign with promises of assistance from several of the most able Republican speakers in the county, among them Hon. Tom Reed, of Maine. Mr. Reed will draw large audiences at all points.

This place has become one of the most enthusiastic base ball cities in the country. Everybody seems wrapped in the spirit of the season, from the toddling tot to the man of years, who has heretofore apparently ignored the sport. The addition of Baldwin and Mulligan to the team has set the admirers of the game almost wild with enthusiasm and if the State League pennant does not come here it will be a real shock to the town.

Our city has been very dull since the political conventions were held, but business will brighten up again next week, when original court will open. The calendar of cases is a long one and many very interesting suits are among them.

Toomey is the Groom.

The statement that Louis Boltuski, one of the Gilherton explosion victims, was married on his death bed was incorrect. James Toomey, of Turley Run, was the one married. When he was first injured it was feared he would die and the wedding ceremony took place on his bed last Saturday, the day after the explosion. Toomey has since made rapid progress towards recovery and it is hoped he may live to enjoy many happy years with the faithful young woman he has made his bride.

Saturday Next a Legal Holiday.

Postmaster Mellot has been advised by the postoffice department that the act of congress making the first Monday of September a legal holiday as Labor Day, has reference to the District of Columbia only, and not to the various states, so that Saturday, September 1st, will be observed in this postoffice as designated by the Legislature of this State, as a holiday, and not Monday, September 2nd.

We saw an advertisement wherein a tub of butter is represented as a living being, and strong enough to hold out a 500 pound weight at arm's length. That's not the kind of butter we sell, ours is not strong. It's sweet, and we have lots of it.
