

CENTRALIA, Sept. 25.

John J. Langhlin, our popular Justice of the Peace, was in Bloomington on business yesterday.

James J. Colihan, one of our popular knights of the razor, is around again after a short spell of sickness.

Joseph Hill, one of Shannondah's bright young men, accompanied by a young lady, drove through town on Sunday.

Miss Ellen Malley, one of Lost Creek's fair young belles, returned yesterday after a few days' visit to town friends.

The Centralia football team will hold a ball on Hollow Evening, Oct. 21st. All young people should attend, and assist the boys.

Robert Farrell and Christ Connors, who were supposed as witnesses on the Corrigan case, went to the county seat yesterday.

The Big Mine Run colliery, which is operated by L. A. Riley & Co., has started to stop coal. Quite a number of townspeople are engaged about the works.

Miss Katie Barrett, one of our popular young ladies, yesterday went to Chicago, where she will reside in the future. She has many friends here who wish her success in her new home.

Miss Sallie Walsh and sister, Jane, two of our popular and pleasing young ladies, today went to Philadelphia, where they will reside for sometime. Both were well known young ladies and have many friends who join us in extending wishes to their success in the Quaker City.

Rumor has it that the electric road officials will send a force of men to commence work in our town on Monday. Whether this is true or not remains to be seen. The grant of the borough giving them the right of way through our town provides that they shall commence work by Oct. 1st, or lose their right. We sincerely hope for the former and the rapid completion of the road.

The foot ball team commenced practice on Saturday and Captain Cuff is well satisfied with the work the team puts up. They plainly showed that they had lost none of their vim and dash. All new men did well and we can expect to have one of the best teams in the region in the class the boys belong to. If any of our neighbors have anything in the line of a team or boys would be pleased to hear from them. Forward all communications to C. McBrearty.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Autumn Novelties for Ladies' Gowns.

Woolen goods for autumn wear are light in weight, a desirable feature—as skirts of dresses are now so generally lined and interlined that they become too heavy for comfort even in midwinter, if made of weighty fabrics. Plain colors, mixtures of two or three colors and clouded effects are seen among the new goods. Small figures are preferred to large. Narrow stripes lengthwise, hedges and diagonal, neat checks or blocks, and some plaids are shown in dull and to light colors though not in Scotch tartans. The peculiar blue called blast appears in all materials and there are many bronze shades, with green prevailing in some and brown in others. Capes will be worn again and must continue in vogue while large sleeves are used. For general wear the golf type of cloth with Scotch plaid lining will be chosen. The McDowell Fashion Journal, from which the above information is gathered, contains in their last issue a great variety of novelties for the coming season. They offer besides, by means of coupons, patterns of the very latest styles at very moderate prices. "La Mode de Paris," and "Paris Album of Fashion," cost $3.50 each per annum, or 35 cents a copy. "The French Fashion Maker" is $2.00 per year, or 20 cents a copy. "La Mode," which is considered the best family journal, with colored plates, cost only $1.50 per year, or 15 cents a copy. The three first mentioned publications offer each a worth of coupon patterns and "La Mode" offers a worth of the same as a premium for a yearly subscription. If you are unable to procure any of these journals from your newsdealer do not take any substitute from him, but apply by mail to Messrs. A. McJowell & Co., 4 West 14th street, New York City.

Irving W. Larimore, physical director of Y. M. C. A., Des Moines, Iowa, says he can conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm to athletes, gymnasts, bicyclists, foot ball players and the profession in general for bruises, sprains and dislocations; also for soreness and weakness of the muscles. When applied before the parts become swollen it will effect a cure in one half the time usually required. For sale by Grubler Bros.

Coming Events.

Sept. 24 and 25.—Ice cream and peach festival at Bender's hall, Wm. Penn, under the auspices of our Band.

Sept. 28.—Musical in M. E. church, under the auspices of the church choir.

Oct. 16th.—Annual supper of the English Baptist church in Robbins' opera house.

A. M. Bailey, a well known citizen of Eugene, Oregon, says his wife has for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea and used many remedies with little relief until she tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has cured her sound and well. Give it a trial and you will be surprised at the prompt relief it affords. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

Now or Never.

People who have not secured copies of the exquisite photographs of the World's Fair embraced in "The Magic City," and superb photographs of famous men and women and scenes in every land as incorporated in "Voyage Around the World," should apply for them at the HERALD office without delay, as only a few copies are left and the supply will not be renewed. No household should be without a complete set of these marvelous productions.

While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, Iowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or breathe, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had had colds followed his example and had a dozen papers ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by Grubler Bros.

COLONEL CIENFUEGOS IN PERIL

Declares He Will Never be Taken to Salvador Again.

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 25.—Lieutenant Colonel Juan Cienfuegos, the young Central American patriot whose extradition to San Salvador on a charge of attempted murder has been ordered by Judge Morrow, is still in a cell at the Alameda county jail. He said that he was confident of regaining freedom as soon as his case is brought before the president, and declared that he would commit suicide rather than be extradited.

"I expect to be free in four or five days," said Cienfuegos in Spanish, "for Keeta and others have started for Washington in my behalf. Not knowing a word of English makes it very difficult for me to be understood and very hard to be locked up like this in a foreign country. I have several friends here, however, who call to see me.

"Go back to San Salvador? Never. I would rather die a thousand deaths. Rather anything than have my enemies, who are waiting to assassinate me, get a chance to triumph over me."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—If General Ezeta's object in coming to Washington is reported to intervene in behalf of Colonel Cienfuegos, who was held by Judge Morrow for extradition on a charge of murder, his visit is likely to prove fruitless. While the secretary of state is not absolutely bound to grant extradition papers by the action of a United States commissioner or court, his power to revise their findings is rarely exercised, and only in cases where a very strong case is made out for the accused or new evidence is produced.

Deadly Fight Among Poles.

SCRANTON, Pa., Sept. 25.—During a fight over a disputed game of cards in Mike Rotoski's saloon, said to be unlicensed, at the Ridge, near Archibald, Sylvester Rotoski, a brother of the saloonkeeper, struck Jo Klucik on the head with a stone, crushing his skull and causing death within a half hour. The others of the card players kept on fighting, and Rotoski tried to separate them. They turned on him, and he rushed behind his bar and grasping a double barreled gun fired both loads at Joseph Bidlo. Both charges took effect in Bidlo's body, and his injuries are regarded as fatal. The Rotoskis were arrested. All the parties are Poles.

Probably Killed by His Wife's Parasuit.

ALLEGAN, Mich., Sept. 25.—The coroner's jury is holding secret inquest upon the remains of Ira Hurd, who was shot at his home by his wife, as the latter claims through accident Saturday night. Mrs. Hurd claims that her husband entered her bedroom at midnight, and supposing it to be a stranger she fired, killing him. The revolver with which she claimed to have fired the fatal shot, it transpires, was not discharged at all, but one bullet had been extracted. The general belief is that the shot was fired by another person who was with Mrs. Hurd at the time.

English Cricketers Win.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25.—Lord Hawke's English cricketers won the first cricket match by 131 runs. The visitors finished their second inning yesterday morning remarkably short order and quick time. To their score of 179 made Saturday afternoon they added enough to make the total for the second inning 235, and this put Philadelphia to the test of making 254 to win the game. This they failed to do, the score at the finish being: England, 422 America, 291.

Church Destroyed by Incendiarists.

TUNEBROOK, Pa., Sept. 25.—The Methodist Episcopal church at Orcutt's Grove is in ashes, the result of the work of incendiarists. The church has had a hard time financially since it was built a few years ago. Last spring the building sold the building and about a week ago leveled upon and disposed of the furniture. Strife and dissensions arose which probably led to the destruction of the building.

Failed to Break the Record.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—R. P. Searies, the bicycle rider who attempted to lower the road record between Chicago and New York, arrived at the Hotel Pomeroy, having been eight days and three hours on the road. He failed to accomplish his task—that of covering the 1,000 miles in five days and five hours, or of breaking the existing record of seven days and twenty-two hours.

A West Virginia Patriotic.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Sept. 25.—Walker Rollins, a prominent lumberman of Wayne county, was shot and killed by his brother William. Both men were married and prominent in business circles, and have occupied the same residence for some time. Jealousy is supposed to have caused the shooting. The murderer made his escape, and is now in Kentucky.

Victoria's Premier Resigns.

MELBOURNE, Victoria, Sept. 25.—The premier, Hon. J. B. Patterson, has resigned, owing to the result of the elections, a feature of which was the annihilation of the free trade party. Mr. Patterson was re-elected, but his party and his policy did not receive the support he expected. The leader of the opposition, however, was defeated.

Threw Her Child to the Dogs.

BEVERLY, W. Va., Sept. 25.—Mrs. Emma Ware, a young widow, whose husband has been dead two years, is in jail, charged with infanticide. It is alleged that a week ago she threw her newly born infant from a second story window into a pen of half a dozen dogs. The child was completely devoured.

Major Moore Convicted.

BUFFALO, Sept. 25.—The verdict of the jury in the case of Major Bowen Moore, pension claims agent, indicted for collecting illegal fees, finds the defendant guilty on all five points of the indictment. He will be sentenced tomorrow.

Denouncing Maryland's Senators.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25.—The Democrats of Carroll county, in convention assembled yesterday, passed resolutions strongly denouncing Senators Gorman and Gibson, and advocating the election of senators by direct vote.

The Crew Rescued.

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—A dispatch from Yarmouth, N. S., states that the brig Daylight, from New York Sept. 15 for Halifax, with coal, has been wrecked and is a total loss at Green Island. Her crew is safe.

Minister White's Letters of Recall.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 25.—Andrew D. White, the United States minister to Russia, has gone to Munich, Bavaria. He will return here in October in order to present his letters of recall.

Got Value for His Presents.

ALPENA, Mich., Sept. 24.—George Rose was engaged to Marie Gage, and in the early part of their engagement he gave Marie many presents, among them a valuable diamond ring. George's love grew weak, and he left Marie for more agreeable company. She demanded the ring back, and when Marie refused to give it up he sued her. At the trial the judge asked him if he had kissed and embraced Marie while engaged. When he admitted that he had the judge threw the case out of court, telling Rose he got value for his presents and had no reason to complain.

They Were After Green Goods.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Leo Wendenbreit and Henry Schieman, two nurses; men of Danvers, Ill., who came here in response to a green goods circular, and who were locked up in the house of detention at witnesses against Henry Blumenthal, the operator of the scheme, were released from custody yesterday. When they were arrested they had about $1,000 in cash. They learned while detained that by depositing $200 each they would be released, and this amount was placed in the hands of the hands of the city chamberlain. They will remain here until the case is tried.

The Columbia's Stricken Season.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The United States steamship Columbia, which has been on guard at Bluefields with the Marbled for several months, arrived at Port Limon yesterday. She has several men aboard sick with malarial fever who will be shipped by the first steamer to the United States. It is believed by the navy department that the men contracted malaria while the ship was by log in the Delaware, and that it developed under the tropical sun of Nicaragua. The Columbia will return to Bluefields.

New Jersey's Tomato Gist.

BRIDGEPORT, N. J., Sept. 25.—There is a glut in the tomato market in South Jersey. The canning factories of this city and county are refusing tomatoes. Three hundred wagon loads in this city alone were thrown away on Saturday last, and many of the tomatoes being packed are sour. The canning factories have not yet completed their contract with the farmers, but tomatoes are coming in too fast.

Shorthills to be Tried Tomorrow.

MEDIA, Pa., Sept. 25.—The witnesses in the case of Professor Swirtha G. Shortidge, who murdered his wife here in December last, appeared at court yesterday, but by consent of the attorneys for both sides the case was postponed until tomorrow, when Mr. Shortidge will be brought from the Norristown insane asylum, where he is confined, and will be put on trial.

Accident at a Christening Party.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25.—At a christening party at Patapesc Neck John Bend took up an old army musket, supposed to be unloaded, and proceeded to explain how it was used during the war. The gun exploded, killing a child named Charles Ziegler and dangerously wounding the mother.

He Is Monsignor McMahon Now.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Archbishop Sattoli, on behalf of Pope Leo, has conferred on the Rev. James McMahon, of the Catholic hierarchy, an appointment as a prelate of the Holy See, with the title of monsignor.

Peculiar Landmarks.

"In the states where there was no government sectional surveys descriptions of land are very peculiar," says M. J. Peters. "I bought a tract of timber land in Tennessee and went down to look at it. The description read: 'Beginning at a stump in John Smith's neighborhood, road, thence east 1,000 rods to a white oak tree, thence south 1,000 rods to a creek, thence west 1,000 rods by the creek as it meanders, thence north 1,500 rods to an owl's nest, thence to the place of beginning.' The owl has been abandoned, the tree cut down, the creek dried up, and the owl moved away. I remained two weeks trying to locate the land and give it up. There was no way to distinguish it from a hundred other tracts."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Never Dedicated.

The monument commemorating the surrender of Burgoyne to Gates and Schuyler at Saratoga, which stands in a beautiful location at Schuylerville, N. Y., has never been formally dedicated. Congress has never seen fit to make the necessary appropriation for the expenses of the dedication, and as the monument association has no money the ceremony has been postponed. The monument stands on a hill overlooking the Hudson and is a stately granite shaft, with bronze figures of Gates, Schuyler and Morgan in niches above the dome on three sides, the niche on the fourth side, where Arnold's figure would properly come, being left purposely empty.—Springfield Republican.

Elephants in Africa.

The elephant of Africa is still a tolerably abundant animal. Its numbers, though doubtless diminished by more than one-half within this century, are probably to be counted by the hundred thousand. Nevertheless in less than 100 years the field which is occupied has been greatly reduced, and between the ivory hunter and the sportsman, armed with guns of ever increasing deadliness, it will certainly require another century of free shooting to annihilate the African species.—Philadelphia Press.

On the wall of the south aisle of Hereford cathedral, in England, is preserved the celebrated "Mappa Mund" (date circa 1280-1300). The map is chiefly filled with ideas taken from ancient historians.

For the last 40 years the Academy of Philadelphia has been assiduously making a collection of human skulls, which now number well up into the thousands. It is the finest collection of the kind in the world.

LOST IN THE CYCLONE

Many Persons Still Missing in the Track of the Storm.

FOREST CITY, Ia., Sept. 25.—Friday night's cyclone passed over this section, devastating everything in its path. It came from the southwest and divided south of Buffalo Center, this county. The largest and most destructive portion went south and east. The other portion went northwest. In Eden, this county, many buildings were destroyed and six or eight persons thus far reported killed and fifty or more wounded. In the track of the other portion, which swept up with dire destruction through Hancock and Cerro Gordo counties, more than a dozen persons are reported killed and probably ten wounded.

As an illustration of the power of the cyclone Dick Gamble's iron pump was blown out of his 100 foot well in the twinkling of an eye and carried a distance of ten rods. Great excitement prevails all along the track of the cyclone, as many children and grown persons as well, are missing and cannot be found.

A Telegrapher's Fatal Carelessness.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Sept. 25.—A. W. Hodgkins, the West Portal telegrapher who is alleged to be responsible for the recent railroad tunnel collision, was given a hearing yesterday before the district court. Hodgkins pleaded not guilty to the charge of manslaughter. Operator Crozier, who was called as a witness, and was cross examined by Hodgkins' counsel, put in certain testimony which may lessen the chances of Hodgkins being held for the grand jury. Crozier admitted that he had been discharged on two occasions in the past four months, once for sleeping at his post, thereby delaying a train for thirty-five minutes. On the night of the accident in question he admitted he had been reading a newspaper. He stood with the paper in one hand, the other hand on the lever ready to give the signal as express train No. 19 went into the tunnel. He resumed reading and forgot to report No. 19 to West Portal. The evidence created considerable excitement.

Still Undecided.

TRENTON, Sept. 25.—The editorial proceedings brought by the Democrats of Newark to suit to nullify the redistricting of the ward lines of that city by the commission appointed by Mayor Leichter, in pursuance of an act passed by the last legislature, were argued yesterday in the supreme court before Justices Dixon, Abbott and Reed. The case was not decided, and the court refused to vacate Justice Deane's stay preventing the city clerk of Newark arranging for the election on a basis of the new ward lines fixed by the commission. The case may yet be decided in time for election.

Favoring Railroaders' Federation.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25.—The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen concluded its business yesterday and adjourned. A secret session was held at Hazards hall in the afternoon. A system of federation uniting the organizations of the trainmen, engineers, conductors, firemen and telegraphers was discussed by Mr. S. E. Wilkinson, grand master of the trainmen; Delos Everett, third grand engineer, and Alfred E. Brown, vice grand master of the engineers. The sentiment of the trainmen is for the proposed federation, but no action on the plan was taken by the meeting.
