

MAHANAY CITY.

MAHANAY CITY, Oct. 9, 1894. H. P. Mellie is visiting friends at Philadelphia. Miss Maud Houghton drove to Pottsville yesterday. Jacob Merges and family left for Philadelphia this morning. M. J. Muldoon, of Shenandoah, visited town friends last evening. Mrs. Frank, of East Centre street, is visiting relatives at Black Ridge. "Our Irish Visitors" will be produced at Kaiser's opera house on Oct. 11th. Harry Krebs, druggist at Philadelphia, is visiting his parents at the Windsor hotel. A party will be held in honor of Miss Annie Dilal, of East Pine street, this evening. Samuel Patterson has returned from the South to pay a visit to his mother, on Spruce street. A good audience was at the opera house last evening to see Lillian Kennedy in "She Couldn't Marry Three," which was well produced. Morris J. Litch, accompanied by his wife, returned from Philadelphia yesterday. Mr. Litch looks as good as ever and was cordially greeted by his many friends.

BRUTAL TRAIN WRECKERS.

Sawed the Piles of a Bridge, but Only the Fireman Was Killed. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 9.—Nothing but unaccountable work had prevented the worst passenger wreck of the year on the New York. The Boston Minneapolis limited, west, went through a trestle between Hoffer Junction and Bradley. The stringer and piles had been sawed after the east bound limited passed the place an hour and forty minutes before. The rails were left with no support and the engine crashed through. They were going thirty-five miles an hour, and instead of stopping into the opening, the engine struck the solid track beyond and turned clear over the embankment. The engineer, James Ditch, of Minneapolis, was thrown twenty feet ahead. He sustained a broken leg, lost consciousness and a badly bruised body. He will recover. Charles Gotterhill, the fireman, was pinned under the heavy engine, which was terribly smashed, and instantly killed. He leaves a wife and two children at Minneapolis. The baggage car and sleeper left the track, but none of the occupants were badly hurt. The trestle is some twenty feet high.

The MacIntyres Dead Not Guilty.

CAMDEN, N. J., Oct. 9.—Andrew MacIntyre, his wife, Margaret, and his sister, Mrs. Sarah Fessell, were called upon in the Camden quarter sessions to plead to seven indictments, charging them with the burning of the handsome MacIntyre mansion at Merchantville in the early summer. Two of the indictments charged the three with arson and one charged Mrs. Fessell separately. The other indictments charged the three with arson and an attempt to defraud various insurance companies, and to defraud Joshua Griffith, mortgagee. All pleaded not guilty. Mrs. Fessell's bail was increased from $1,000 to $1,500.

Shipwrecked Passengers Rescued.

ABRILADE, Australia, Oct. 9.—The passenger steamer London was wrecked Saturday on Pallock reef, forty miles south of Cape Arid. There were on board 100 passengers, while the crew numbered thirty-six. All hands made their escape to the reef over the bows of the steamer. After getting on the reef rafts were built of wreckage, and on these everybody embarked and slowly sailed and rowed to an island twenty miles north of the reef, where all but four passengers, who are missing, landed in safety. Some time afterward the schooner Grace Darling requested all hands from the island.

Mrs. Emmett Wins Her Case.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Gilbert M. Spier, as referee, has made a report to the supreme court recommending that Daisy Way Emmett be entitled to a decree of absolute divorce from her husband, Joseph K. Emmett, the young actor, and that he be compelled to pay her $10 a week for her support and maintenance, and an additional $10 a week for the support of their child, Eleanor Elizabeth Emmett. The evidence shows that the actor lived with Miss Lytton in a boarding house at Canadensis, Monroe county, Pa., as husband and wife.

International Typographical Union.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 9.—In his report to the annual convention of the International Typographical union, President Prescott stated that the membership of the organization has increased during the past year by over 1,000, exclusive of 1,000 German speaking printers, who affiliated in accordance with the agreement approved by the plebiscite. Nearly every principal city in the country is represented by the new chapters. Financially, the union is in excellent shape, the general fund continuing to accumulate.

The Dispensary Law Constitutional.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 9.—The decision of the supreme court in the dispensary cases was held last night. Justices Pope and Gary declare the law constitutional, while Chief Justice McEvie dissents. The effect of the decision will be that Governor Tillman will bring warfare against the "blind figures." What the saloon men will do is problematical. It is more than likely that some kind of a case will be gotten up which will finally bring the question to the courts.

An Ex-Consul Under Arrest.

VIENNA, Oct. 9.—Dr. Poltschick de Palmfros, whose removal from his office of consul general at New York of Austria-Hungary was announced a few days ago, was arrested last evening charged with malversation while consul and also while Austria-Hungarian commissioner to the Chicago Columbian exposition. A loaded revolver was found in one of his pockets, and it is supposed that he intended to commit suicide.

Three Killed by Explosion.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Three men were killed by an explosion in the Illinois Steel works, and five injured. The accidental explosion of a steam pipe, the fragments of which were scattered in every direction, caused the deaths. The dead are: William Miller, aged 30, single; A. B. Sparren, single, and John Holstrom.

Blown to Shreds by Dynamite.

BUFFALO, Oct. 9.—Through heedlessness Joseph Kosminski was blown to shreds by dynamite. He was working on a sewer job, and punched the cartridge with a crowbar. He went up with a shower of stones and came down with not a whole bone in his body. He had a large family.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

A hurricane of terrific force is raging on the Gulf of Mexico coast. The big Atlas distillery (anti trust) started up at Peoria, Ill., this morning. Congressman Lewis Sperry was renominated by the Democrats of the First Congressional district. Mrs. Lillie Langtry, the actress, will sail Oct. 27 from Southampton for New York on board the American line steamer Paris. John A. Gougharty, a 14-year-old New Orleans boy, while boxing with his cousin, Ed Turner, about his own age, was struck over the heart and dropped dead. Massachusetts Democrats nominated ex-Congressman John E. Russell for governor by acclamation. The balance of the ticket is as published yesterday in these columns. Throughout Holland last week there were sixteen new cases of cholera and eight deaths from the disease, of which number six new cases and one death were in Amsterdam. For disobedience of orders at Evanston, Ill., resulting in a collision explosion, Captains Vos and Grimes, of the regular army, are being tried by court martial at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. Governor Flower and Pattison were honored a banquet by citizens of Binghamton, N. Y., last night. Both spoke at the laying of the corner stone of the Commercial Travelers' Home today.

VICTORY FOR THE READING.

Judge Dallas Decides That Wilkinson Has No Standing in Court. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—The case of the Reading railroad employees who are members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, against the Reading Railroad Company, which was brought before the United States district court on Friday, was continued yesterday before Judge Dallas, and after a brief argument was postponed until Friday of this week, when the real merits of the case will be argued. Counsel for the employees presented a petition signed by Stephen K. Wilkinson, of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, of the Brotherhood of Railroad and George H. Ruppel, who are employees of the Reading Railroad Company, setting forth that there are 150 members of the organization, a majority of whom have been members seven years; that on the 15th of August of this year the members were notified by Superintendent Switzgard that they would have to renounce their allegiance to the brotherhood before Oct. 8 or be dismissed from the employment of the company. Later, on Sept. 3, they were further notified that they must surrender the charter of the organization or every member would be dismissed. Superintendent Switzgard stated that he was simply carrying out the wishes of his superior officers. Judge Dallas decided that Grand Master Wilkinson has no standing before the court, and dismissed him as a petitioner.

Attacked by Italian Brigands.

PARIS, Oct. 9.—The Chateau St. Pierre des Portes de Hyeres, an ancient residence that is usually rented by foreign visitors to the Riviera, was the scene last night of a desperate attack of Italian brigands. The attacking party attempted to carry the place by assault, using scaling ladders in their efforts to reach the interior of the building. There were a number of servants in the house, who, badly frightened by the boldness of the attack, made a desperate resistance, and succeeded in holding the brigands outside the walls. While the fight was being waged a number of gentlemen approached the place, whereupon the brigands fled.

A Respite Just in Time.

TURKHA HONMA, I. T., Oct. 9.—Silas Lewis, one of the Wilburton Chockraw political prisoners, was to have been shot to death here Saturday, 9 p. m., being the hour set for the execution. The prisoner, heavily manacled, with arms folded, had taken his seat on the death box, and the two guards stood ready, when a courier rode up with an order from Judge Holson respiteing Lewis for thirty days, according to instructions from the interior department. Had the rider been one minute later his order would have been useless. This is the fourth respite Lewis has had.

Correcting Cardinal Gibbons.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Dr. Julia Hahn Smith, Democratic nominee for trustee of the Illinois State university, in an interview on Cardinal Gibbons' attack on woman suffrage said: "In support of his idea the cardinal recites the words of a Grecian ruler: 'I command Athens, Athens rules the world, and my wife rules me; therefore she rules the world.' Had the cardinal investigated his Grecian history more carefully he would have discovered that it was not the wife that ruled or governed. The man whom Aspasia governed had a wife and family at home."

Cookran to Retire from Congress.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Congressman W. Bourke Cookran will not be a candidate for renomination. He yesterday announced his determination to Mayor Gilroy, saying: "My private affairs have been sadly neglected for the past year, and I feel it incumbent upon me to decline a renomination. Until election day, however, I shall have no other occupation than that of laboring with all the energy at my command for the election of David B. Hill." There has been no candidate decided upon to succeed Mr. Cookran.

Thawed Giant Powder in the Stove.

INWOOD, Mich., Oct. 9.—John Ravell, a farmer near here, together with his family of five, were blown up by an explosion of giant powder yesterday. Ravell and a 6-year-old son were killed outright, the bodies being mangled in a frightful manner. Mrs. Ravell and a 6-year-old daughter will undoubtedly die. The others were not dangerously injured. Ravell was thawing out giant powder in the oven of a stove, preparing it for blasting stumps.

A Deputy Marshal Shot.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Oct. 9.—Deputy United States Marshal Otto Ray was shot at Albia, after arresting George Johnson for boot legging. Johnson had boasted that any man who took him would be liable to get shot. One of Johnson's pals did the shooting. In the confusion that followed both the prisoner and the assailant escaped. Ray's condition is serious.

Sullivan Believes in Fitzsimmons.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 9.—"What do I think of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons nuzzle?" said John L. Sullivan as he sat in his dressing room at Holliday Street theater. "Why, I believe that Fitzsimmons has a very fine chance of winning. He is only a trifle smaller than Corbett, and he has fought men at a time when he only weighed a few pounds less than Corbett weighs."

A Question of Religion.

BERLIN, Oct. 9.—Owing to the probability of the crown of Wurtemberg passing to the Catholic branch of the family through the failure of male issue, a bill will be submitted to the diet arranging for the transfer in that case of the religious prerogatives of the crown to an ecclesiastical commission.

Showalter Now Leads.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Albin opened the fifth game of the chess match in the presence of a large crowd at the Manhattan Chess club yesterday afternoon. After sixty-six moves the game resulted in a win for Showalter. The score now stands: Albin, 2; Showalter, 1.

To Increase Production.

READING, Pa., Oct. 9.—Anticipating an improvement in trade the Reading Iron Company has decided to build at once a large rolling mill, which will be equipped with the most modern machinery and give employment to a large number of hands.

Over Two Tons of Fish Killed.

READING, Pa., Oct. 9.—Over two tons of fish were killed in the Tulpehocken creek and taken out dead, in consequence of the flow of sulphur water from a nearby industrial establishment.

A Church Thief Arrested.

LEHANNON, Pa., Oct. 9.—The police here arrested Thomas Cover, a stranger, on the charge of robbing churches in Philadelphia. He confessed and will be taken to that city.

THE WAR IN THE ORIENT.

A Reported Rebellion of Chinese Subjects Against the Emperor. LONDON, Oct. 9.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that rumors are current there that a rebellion has broken out in the district of Jehol, in the province of Chihli, the object of the rebellion being to overthrow the Manchu dynasty. No details have been received, and the rumors are officially discredited. For the purpose of checking the depredations of the Chinese marauders the Russian government has decided to promptly send to the frontier five battalions of Siberian troops, two sotnias of Cossacks and three batteries of artillery. This force will be under the command of General Nezhok. A dispatch to The Standard from Berlin says that The Reichsanzeiger states that Japan decreed the creation of naval prize courts on Sept. 20, and that one of these courts has actually been sitting since Sept. 21. The supreme court sits at Tokio. It is semi-officially stated in Paris that the dispatch of French warships to China is by virtue of an international agreement to which Great Britain, Russia, Germany and France have already adhered. The advance guard of the Japanese army has crossed the Yalu river and formed a new camp. A battle is believed to be imminent.

Ex-Governor Curtin's Funeral.

BELLEFOUNTAIN, Pa., Oct. 9.—The arrangements for the funeral of ex-Governor Curtin are as follows: Public meeting of citizens and their associates at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, body to lie in state in the court house from 10 to 1:30 o'clock; funeral services at 2 P. M. in the grand parlors will be Governor Pattison, Hon. John Dean, Hon. John Scott, ex-Senator Wallace, General Beaver, General Hastings, General Taylor, Colonel A. K. McClure, Colonel William B. Mann, Judge Furst, Thomas Collins and E. C. Humes. The coffin bearers will be four members of the Pennsylvania Reserve association; four of the Soldiers' Orphans' organization and four members of the G. A. R. The War Spirit Spreading. LOUISVILE, Ky., Oct. 9.—A Portuguese official has returned here after visiting Chief Gungunhana. He passed through the disaffected country in safety. Gungunhana's people are quiet, but the war spirit is spreading fast. All the natives in the Portuguese territory are in arms. The women and children have been sent north and the men are manning in thousands on the banks of the Incomati river. All the ships in the country districts have been looted and the arms and ammunition abandoned by the Portuguese are now in the hands of the natives.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended as Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

Hardly a family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor's bill. Proves a good remedy at once and you will never regret it. For sale by Grubler Bros.

Mysterious Double Tragedy.

MIDDLEBORO, N. Y., Oct. 8.—A mysterious murder and suicide, or double murder, occurred in this city yesterday. John Tierney was found with a bullet hole in his right temple. His wife was lying near him with a pistol ball in her left breast, while a pistol lay a few feet away. What at first appeared to be a murder and suicide now looks to the authorities like a double murder. Tierney married Mrs. McGuire, a widow with one son, Thomas, five weeks ago. Thomas was very angry at the marriage and left the house, but remained away only two weeks. Mrs. Tierney owned a cafe, which previous to her marriage it was believed would go to Thomas when she died. This was not likely, however, after she married Tierney. Thomas Tierney gives it as his opinion that his mother was murdered by her husband, who, he asserts, committed suicide.
