VISITING THE DAMS.

Councilmen and Others Spend Sunday Inspecting the Water Works.

SLIGHT REPAIRS REQUIRED

THE SECRET OF THE TROUBLE AT THE FOWLER'S RUN RESERVOIR HAS BEEN DISCOVERED.

An Inspection at Brandonville Leads the Councilmen to Believe That the Trouble There Does Not Amount to Much.

There was another Councilmanic jaunt to the public water works plants at Fowler's Run and Brandonville yesterday. The object of the trip was to examine the two reservoirs and ascertain what repairs and improvements are required. The visiting party consisted of Councilmen William McGuire, James Kane, A. D. Gable, C. T. Straughn, Patrick Hand, Andrew Meluskey, Jam's McElhenry, F. E. Magargle, Richard Reese, Ex-Councilmen E. F. Gallagher and Oscar Betteridge, Borough Solicitor Pomeroy, F. C. Reese and E. C. Brobst.

Some of the Councilmen went over in the morning, while others started in the afternoon. The latter paid a visit to the Fowler's Run reservoir, while the others limited the trip to the Brandonville plant. The Councilmen who visited the former place had a pretty rough ride over Locust Mountain to the pumping station from the reservoir on this side, but they got there in good shape.

The Councilmen say that the result of the trip was very satisfactory and that the cost of repairs will be very small, in fact very little work will be required. The trouble at the Brandonville reservoir is substantially as stated by Mr. Gable at the last Council meeting and the cost of making the repairs will be less than a hundred dollars.

The reservoir at Fowler's Run is also reported in good condition. It is true that some of the cement is peeling off, the Councilmen say, but it is surface peeling and such as occurs in nearly all work of that kind. It in no way affects the stability of the reservoir. The cause of the loss of pumping power has also been located. It is attributed to the water that is drained at the reservoir through a two-inch relief pipe. It is believed that the removal of that pipe will abate the annoyance that has been experienced through leakage. If this investigation can be relied upon, it is now settled that the steel pipe line leading from the pumping station at Brandonville to the reservoir on this side of the mountain is intact, and that there are no leakages.

There are no new developments in connection with the testing of the pipes in town further than that the Borough Council has secured a legal notice on Contractors Quinn and Kerns to proceed with the test. This indicates that Council does not intend to take any action in regard to the reserve fund of $8,000 at the present time. It is expected that important action in connection with the water works will be taken at the meeting of Council to be held next Thursday evening.

Clam Chowder.

You are invited to try the clam chowder lunch at the Scheffly House to-night. Free to everybody.

Up to Date.

There will be some decisive work on the new county bill this week.

The Congressional apportionment bill will be reported this week.

The Republicans of New York state are harmonizing and the Pratt and anti-Pratt forces will bury their differences.

The Hazleton Plain Speaker charges that $200 are being paid for votes against the new county bill. Too cheap, by half.

The Tammany office holders in New York city are being ousted by the handreds now.

Strouse, the reliable jeweler.

Caused Some Excitement.

A team of gray horses belonging to a First ward Polish grocer ran away and caused considerable excitement on West Centre street, Saturday night. They passed the sewer openings between Pear alley and Jardin street with safety, but collided with a heavy wagon and left the top of the grocer's wagon on the street. The horses continued at a mad pace until they became winded at Glover's hill. The team that ran away from the Kehley Run colliery, on Saturday morning, was not owned by William Neiswenter, but by John Roberts.

MORE WEDDINGS.

Andrew Elliott and Richard C. Knight Are Among the Latest Announced. Andrew Elliott and Miss Maggie Curry, both of town, were married at ten o'clock this morning in the Annunciation church, on West Cherry street. John A. Reilly, Jr., was the groomsmen and Miss Nellie V. Reilly the bridesmaid. The groom is the North Market street wheelwright.

Richard C. Knight, of Shenandoah, and Mrs. Rachel (widow of George N.) Hughes, formerly of Shenandoah, united in marriage at the residence of the bride at Coal Creek, Colorado, last Wednesday. Rev. D. L. Rader, of Pueblo, Colorado, officiated at the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Thickers acted as groomsmen and bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Knight are now on a bridal tour in Mexico and will remain there a month, visiting the cities of Mexico, Puebla, Guanajuata, Aguas Calientes, Zacatecas and Chihuahua. They will return to Coal Creek about May 30th. The bride and groom have a large circle of friends in Pennsylvania, and especially in this region, to whom the announcement of the wedding will be surprising news.

To-night.

Clam chowder lunch at the Scheffly House.

A Good Show.

Manager Ferguson promises the people of Shenandoah a rare treat on Thursday, May 2nd, when Fanny Rice will make her first appearance here in "Nancy." As the papers throughout the country have said so much of this excellent young actress it is almost unnecessary to dwell upon her ability, sufficient to say that "Nancy" has been a brilliant success wherever it has appeared, and as Lillian Lewis and Charles B. Hanford, proved such a success in "Antony and Cleopatra," which was the dramatic event of the coal region this season, so Miss Fanny Rice will prove the comedy event. This attraction should certainly draw a large house from Mahanoy City, Grandville and Ashland as Mr. Ferguson has arranged to bill this attraction in these towns on account of their only playing Shamokin, Shenandoah and Hazleton.

Strouse's watch charms are elegant and reasonable in price.

Who Owns the Coat?

About two weeks ago a young man named Frank Parry took to the house of his brother, James, who resides at 434 West Lins street, an overcoat which he said he procured at Mt. Carmel. Parry has since disappeared, leaving the coat at the house. The brother suspects that the garment was stolen and is anxious that anybody who has suffered the loss of that kind of an article should call at the address above given.

Strouse has a fine line of society emblems.

McElhenry's Popular Cafe.

A grand epicurean display was on exhibition at the above popular restaurant Saturday, in fact all last week. The bill of fare could not have been excelled in any of the large cities. It comprised hard shell crabs, fresh lobster salad, little neck clams and the finest prime oysters ever brought to the town, and Mr. McElhenry assures us that he will surprise the public with an increase of delicacies this week.

Strouse is the leading jeweler.

Flower Mission Report.

The following is the report of Miss Mattie Price, superintendent of the Flower Mission of the "Y," for the month of April: Distributed eight bouquets of flowers, two baskets of fruit, two baskets of cake, twenty baskets of provisions, sixteen pages of literature, made 22 visits and 10 poor families visited.

Free.

SHENANDOAH ON DECK

The Base Ball Season Will Open Here Next Wednesday Afternoon.

POTTSVILLE HAD A SCHEME

BOUGHT SHE HAD THE HOME TEAM IN A HOLE FOR TWO FORFEITED GAMES.

Manager Brennan is Now Determined to Play all Games According to Schedule and Has so Notified Other Clubs.

There is no more uncertainty about the opening of the State League base ball season, so far as Shenandoah is concerned. Our team will be on the diamond next Wednesday and will play its two opening games in Shenandoah. All negotiations for the transfer of the games scheduled for next Wednesday and Thursday to Pottsville have fallen through and our people may now prepare for the opening of the season on the old grounds at the Trotting park.

The Pottsville management has made an unsuccessful effort at sharp practice with the home management. When Manager Smith was here last Wednesday it was agreed that the first two games would be played at Pottsville. The only question was as to what Smith would pay the Shenandoah management for the four successive games at the county seat. From that time there was constant dickerings by Smith, but this morning Manager Brennan received a letter from Secretary Moyer, of the Pottsville club, stating that, on second thought, his club had concluded that it was better to open the season at Shenandoah and that the club would be on hand next Wednesday to play the first game.

The home management looks upon this notification as a consummation of a piece of trickery on the part of the Pottsville management, but it has failed to carry. The Pottsville people thought they had the home management in a hole. They dickered for the transfer of the games almost up to the last moment and then declared the negotiations off, supposing that the Shenandoahs would be without uniforms, that the fence of the grounds could not be replaced in time, and that by other embarrassments the home team would not be able to get ready to play here on Wednesday and Thursday, which would result in the first two games being forfeited to the visitors. In this the fall birds are foiled. The suits for the home team were shipped from Boston today and tomorrow a gang of men will put the fence at the grounds in condition. Everything will be in readiness for the first game to open at 3:30 next Wednesday afternoon.

The home management feels very sore over the trick that was attempted. Shenandoah is scheduled to play at Carbonate next Monday and Tuesday and at Hazleton on Wednesday and Thursday. The Pottsvilles are scheduled to play at Hazleton on Monday and Tuesday and at Carbonate the next two days. In an anticipation of a large crowd to be attracted by the Wild West show to its town next Monday, the Pottsville management tried to get Shenandoah to play Hazleton on Monday and Tuesday, so that the Carbonate club could play the two days at Pottsville. Manager Brennan tactfully agreed to this, but now has notified Manager Smith that the schedule is a good thing to stand by and has notified the management at Carbonate that his club will be at that place next Monday and Tuesday to play the scheduled games. By this decision the Pottsvilles will have to play away from home next Monday and Tuesday, unless they can induce the Hazletons to change their schedule.

William Ford, of Augusta, Georgia, has been signed as catcher for the home team.

Kennedy, the Brooklyn catcher, telegraphed Manager Brennan this morning that he would return here this evening.

There is excellent reason for believing that Shenandoah will show up in excellent shape on the diamond this season.

A Wandering Woman.

A woman was found acting in a silly manner on the mountain side, near the Kehley Run colliery, this morning. Some women induced her to accompany them to a house on Bowers street, where she was made comfortable until Chief Burgess Burns took her in charge. The woman appeared demented. When first asked where she was going she said "To h—l." Subsequently she said she wished to drown herself. It was quite evident that the woman was demented. At one time she said her name was Howard and that she resided at Centralia. She also gave the name of Thompson, but later said her name was McGrail and that she lived at Brownsville. Chief Burgess Burns took her to the latter place this afternoon to see if he could locate her friends.
