MISS WHITNEY WEDDED

The Ex-Navy Secretary's Daughter Becomes Mrs. Paget.

MANY DIGNITARIES PRESENT.

President Cleveland, Secretaries Herbert and Lamont and British Ambassador Pauncefote Among Those at St. Thomas' Church and at the Wedding Breakfast.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—At noon today Miss Pauline Whitney, daughter of the ex-secretary of the navy, was married at St. Thomas' church to Mr. Almer Hugh Paget, youngest son of the late General Lord Alfred Paget, and grandson of the first Marquis of Anglesey. The service at St. Thomas' church was most impressive. There was vocal and instrumental music, and several clergymen were in the choir, among them the Rev. Dr. J. Wesley Brown, rector of St. Thomas', and Bishop Potter, who performed the ceremony.

Among the distinguished people who were present at the wedding ceremony and the breakfast were President Cleveland, Secretary Herbert, Secretary Lamont, Governor and Mrs. Levi P. Morton, Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador; Lord Westmeath and Mr. H. Bax-Ironside, of the British embassy; Mavroyd Bey, the Turkish minister, and many others of the diplomatic corps from Washington and leading families of New York and Washington society.

Miss Whitney's bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Vanderbilt, Miss Emily Vanderbilt, Miss Sloan, Miss Beatrice Bend, Miss

ALMER HUGH PAGET AND HIS BRIDE.

Azuba Barney and Miss Susie Dimock, her cousin, and Miss Edith Blake Brown, of Boston.

Mr. Paget's ushers were Messrs. Winthrop Rutherford, John C. Furman, William Cutting, Jr., Henry Payne Whitney, a brother of the bride, and H. Maitland Kersey, all of this city; Jarrett Howe and Crawford Livingston, of St. Paul. Mr. Paget's next older brother, Mr. Gerald Paget, was his best man.

Mr. George W. Warren presided at the organ, and Tomlin, the harpist, and the church choir assisted. In addition, Mr. Edouard de Reszke and Mme. Nordica sang, and Herr Frank Ondricek, who is to make his public debut at the first philharmonic concert, played the violin. Nah Franko led a large stringed orchestra.

Mme. Nordica's first selection was the "Ave Marie" of Gounod, which was given with violin obligato by Naham Franko. Edouard de Reszke and Mme. Nordica were heard in "The Crucifix" by Faure. Edouard de Reszke also gave the aria from Faure's oratorio and selections from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," Handel's "Largo" was rendered by harp, organ and orchestra.

The order of the bridal procession was the same as usual. The ushers led the way, and were followed by the flower maidens, and they, in their turn, by the bridesmaids. Miss Pauline Whitney, the bride, walked up the aisle with her father, Mr. William C. Whitney.

The reception and wedding breakfast which followed at Mr. Whitney's house, No. 2 West Fifty-seventh street, was attended by nearly four hundred people. The reception was held in the beautiful drawing room, at the northeast corner of the house. At the breakfast all the guests were seated. The bridal table, of crescent shape, was placed at the west end of the ball room, and small tables were placed in that room and in the dining room, library and the spacious hall. The musicians were stationed in the upper hall.

Miss Whitney's trousseau is extensive and magnificent, nearly all of it having been made by Worth. Her wedding gown is a marvel of elegance and extreme simplicity. The full trained skirt of ivory white satin is perfectly plain, save for a cord which runs around the edge. There is not even a flounce of lace on it; neither embroidery nor passementerie. The waist is seamless and close fitting, and with nothing to break its symmetry, not even a fall of lace. The high corsage is finished with a stock collar of pleated satin, covered with point lace, which finishes in a rosette at either side. The very full sleeves are pleated into the armhole, and are finished from elbow to wrist in gauntlet style, with a narrow frill of lace at the wrist. The only other lace on the corsage falls over the puffs of the sleeves from the shoulders. This lace is exquisitely fine, with a design of roses and true lover's knots. A cluster of orange blossoms is fastened at the left side of the waist line. The veil is a splendid piece of point lace, which extends almost to the end of the train.

This is not the first Paget to choose an American bride. The present Marquis of Anglesey married an American, formerly a Miss King, of Georgia, and Mr. Paget's brother, Colonel Arthur Paget, married Miss Minnie Stevens, only daughter of the late Mrs. Paron Stevens, in 1878.

Mr. Paget expects to take his bride to St. Paul for a short period, and later abroad. Very possibly they will winter in Egypt.

"Mr. Mary Lease" Violates Law.

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 12.—Charles Lease, druggist and husband of Mary E. Lease, the noted campaign speaker, is constructively a prisoner in Wichita, having been arrested on complaint of the president of the state board of pharmacy for violating the state pharmacy law, in that he refused to pay the annual fifty cent fee prescribed by the statutes for the support of the board. Mrs. Lease advised her husband that the law was unconstitutional, and she will defend him in court.

Dr. Fraker Critically Ill.

RICHMOND, Mo., Nov. 12.—Dr. G. W. Fraker, a cluster of insurance swindler, is confined to his bed in the Ray county jail with Bright's disease. His only hope for securing his liberty is that the court will order his release as a humane act to save his life.

The Situation in Cuba Critical.

MADRID, Nov. 12.—Advice received from Havana indicate that the situation in Cuba at the present time is very critical, and that general alarm over the existing state of affairs is felt.

KEEP PREPARED.

The Slogan of the Business and Professional Man.

The Sure Hope of the Busy Brain-Worker.

The Only Protection of Those Who Work and Toil.

Keep Yourself Strong, Vigorous and Well.

By Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy.

Nothing contributes to success like preparation. In every department of human activity this truth is constantly illustrated. During the war of the rebellion the issues of battles were quite as often decided by the relative conditions, as by the strength of forces. The general or commanding officer who was best prepared gained the day; the surprised army was generally routed.

So in our daily affairs, the professional or business man who is constantly prepared for emergencies conquers his circumstances, emerges from every difficulty triumphant, and in a success; while the men and women whom events find unprepared are overcome or injured in their several ventures. Preparation is half of any battle in life.

So it is in regard to our health. If we keep our system in a sound condition to meet the various conditions of weather, the prevalent possibilities of contracting disease, and especially the great strain, wear and fatigue of our hurrying, rushing daily life, we are always prepared against these dangers.

The first requisite is pure blood and strong nerves. They command health, and exempt us from the liability of sickness.

Don't neglect it. Don't think because you are comparatively well you are safe. It is not so. The blood needs constant attention. It requires tuning, needs correcting, often before it gives any sign. The nerve force, nerve energies and strength are being constantly used up in business, pleasure or dissipation, and our brain and nerves require strengthening and invigorating. Keep well and strong by taking Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy, for its chief merit is that it not only cures weakness and disease, but it is a sure preventive of breaking down from overwork or other causes; a sure renewer of strength, power and vigor. It is recognized everywhere as the greatest medical discovery of the age because of this grand quality. It makes you well and keeps you well.

Frederick P. Coggeshall, the veteran bookseller of Lowell, Mass., used it and it made him well and kept him strong to work, vigorous to think and to plan, full of power, energy and ambition. He says:

"My trouble was an affection of the head. I would go to bed and sleep like an infant all night, but would waken in the morning with a terrible pain in the head, which utterly incapacitated me for business. Getting no relief from remedies tried, a friend recommended me to take Dr. Greene's Nervura Blood and Nerve Remedy. I took the advice of my friend, and after taking it four or five days I began to experience great relief and was soon able to attend to business.

"If restless or troubled with insomnia at night, I always take a dose of Nervura and get immediate relief. The invigorating qualities of this medicine are simply marvelous and after four or five doses I feel all right again. Other members of my family have used the Nervura, and I strongly recommend it to all persons of a nervous temperament, or those suffering from undue mental or physical strain."

Why waste time in trying uncertain and untried remedies, when here is a physician's prescription, a discovery made by the greatest living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City. If you take this medicine you can consider yourself under Dr. Greene's direct professional care, and you can consult him or write to him about your case freely and without charge. This is a guarantee that this remedy will cure, possessed by no other medicine in the world.

THE TURKISH TURMOIL.

The Sultan Alarmed Over the Critical State of Affairs.

THE FATE OF KIAMIL PASHA.

As He Was Not Permitted to Bid Farewell to His Friends Before Leaving Constantinople, It Is Not Unlikely That He Has Been Assassinated.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—A dispatch to The Standard from Constantinople says that the Sultan is alarmed because of the present critical state of affairs. From Arabia, the most vulnerable point of the Turkish empire, news has arrived of a conflict between the Turkish troops and the Arabs near Senha, in which thirty persons were killed. Despite the reports of trouble in the Arabian provinces the last detachment of troops sent to Arabia was detained five days at Port Said for lack of money to pay canal dues.

A dispatch to The Times from Constantinople says that reports have been received there of the new disturbances at Mush. The British embassy at Constantinople is in possession of these reports, but so far no details have been received.

A dispatch to The Times from Constantinople says that Kiamil Pasha, just appointed to the post of vail of Aidin, after having raised strenuous objections to the representatives of foreign governments because of his appointment to the undesirable position of vail of Aleppo, is still very ill. He was suffering severely when he embarked on the steamer ordered to take him to Smyrna by the Turkish government, but members of his family received significant hints that it would be advisable for him to depart at once. Not one of his friends was allowed to approach the house or the boat for the purpose of bidding him farewell.

The Times publishes a letter from Constantinople explaining the situation throughout the Turkish empire. The writer says that owing to the rigid censorship exercised by Turkish officials the lower class among the Turkish people are quite ignorant. They believe that the Sultan inaugurated the policy of oppression, but to some extent it is stated that the Armenians believe the contrary. The Turks think the Armenians will be treated as they were twenty years ago, and besides this they entertain the idea that the Armenians are ungrateful.

Thus a feeling of hatred towards the Armenians prevails, and the ignorant Turks really appear to fear being massacred by the Armenians. The government officials, according to this letter, are directly responsible for disseminating the idea that it is the duty of the people to kill and plunder the Armenians. There is no reasonable hope that any improvement will take place through a change of public opinion. Turks and Christians alike seem determined to endure such scenes of unspeakable suffering as marked the Roman empire.

An official note was issued by the porte yesterday expressing the sultan's thanks for the "energetic measures taken by the imperial authorities in view of the disturbances and revolts which have broken out in certain provinces of Asia Minor, which were due to the seditious intrigues of Armenian agitators, and which have been everywhere suppressed."

The note adds: "Order has now been restored in all the districts which were recently the scene of riots and conflicts, and precautions have been taken to insure the maintenance of quiet."

Fled from the Sultan's Anger.

BRILL, Nov. 12.—The Frankfort Zeitung says that Kiamil Pasha recently presented a memorial to the sultan pointing out the dangers of the existing palace system of political government. The sultan became very angry when he saw the document and tore the memorial to pieces, shouting: "Traitor!" Kiamil Pasha fled from the palace, fearing that his life would be taken in consequence of his having dared to suggest the faults of the existing government to the sultan.

New York's Great Horse Show.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The eleventh annual horse show, which began yesterday at Madison Square Garden, bids fair to excel all its predecessors as an exhibit of the quadrupeds of the equine race and the bipeds of society. Under the management of the National Horse Show association this year has come to be one of the greatest social institutions of the year as well as a sporting event of great interest to admirers of horse flesh. The work of preparing for a show of this magnitude is enormous when it is considered that 1,300 horses have to be provided for, half as many hostlers and grooms, and a regular army of ring attendants, ushers, callers and special officers. All reserved seats for the week have already been disposed of.
