Best and Most Speedy.

People of this age desire promptness fully as well as certainty. When they seek relief they want it at the earliest possible moment, and especially when the case is important, Rev. D. G. Pennecker, D. D., pastor of Grace street M. E. church, Williamsport, Pa., says: "I have used Thompson's Diphtheria Cure in my family and regard it as the best and most speedy remedy for diphtheria, colds and sore throat that I have ever known. I unhesitatingly recommend it to the public as a sure cure for all it claims." Sold at Kirin's drug store at 50 cents a bottle.

Coal to Go Up.

It is reported that arrangements have been completed for another advance in anthracite coal prices, the change in tide-water prices to be announced on the 27th inst., and for the line and city trade on September 1. One company, presumably the Reading, is to make the first change, and the other companies are to follow.

Ex-Senator M. C. Watson Married to Miss Costello at Ashland.

Hon. M. C. Watson, of Ashland, and Miss Anna J. Costello, daughter of one of Ashland's leading merchants, were married this morning by Rev. McGottigan, in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, at Ashland, before a large attendance of relatives and friends. Dr. M. J. Costello, of Philadelphia, a cousin of the bride, was the groomsmen and Miss Katie Mendenhall, of Ashland, the bridesmaid. After the church ceremony there was a reception at the residence of the bride's parents, followed by an elaborate dinner. The presents were numerous and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Watson left Ashland on the noon P. & R. train for a wedding tour that will include visits to Atlantic City and Philadelphia. Upon their return they will locate in this town.

GIBBONS-QUINN.

A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at 9:30 o'clock, when according to the rites of the Roman Catholic faith, Rev. Naylor, of the Annunciation church, united in wedlock Miss Katherine Quinn to Michael J. Gibbons, both of town. The groom was attended by Edward Morton, of Philadelphia, and the bride was supported by Miss Mary Monaghan, of town. Immediately after they had been pronounced husband and wife a reception was tendered to the guests in the shape of a wedding dinner at the home of the bride's parents, on North West street, which was partaken of by the intimate friends of the contracting parties. They were also the recipients of a number of beautiful presents. The newly married couple left on the 12:40 P. & R. train for Philadelphia and Atlantic City, where they will spend the honeymoon. Upon their return they will take up their residence at the home of the bride's parents.

Jeanesville Outraged.

The people of Jeanesville were on Saturday last subjected to a new form of coercion. On that day the new butcher, who is employed by Henry Dryfoos, drove to the houses of the employees at Jeanesville with the meat wagon, accompanied by one of the store clerks, and informed them that they would be expected to patronize "the company butcher." Less than a score of the employees were deluded into consenting to be thus coerced, and others expressed their belief that the order was not issued by the consent or knowledge of the Laidlaw Valley Company, but was a little scheme between the butcher and some official of greater or less authority.

Surprise Party.

A surprise party was held last evening at the home of Miss Cleo B. Lessig in honor of her guests, Misses Florence Erb, of Hazleton, and May Estler, of Ashland. Those who attended were Misses Crislie Burkhardt, Florence Kline, Margaret Beldall, Ida Williams, Miss Rosineman, of Pittston, Lizzie and Anna Heebner, Bertha Newhouse, and Messrs. Richard Rowe, Burton Davis, Harry Pratt, John Stein, Clyde Glover, Charles Neiswender, Lee Straub and Frederick Hutten.

The decision of the Newton Coal Company to abandon the work of rescue at the Twin Shaft has aroused the relatives of the entombed men, many of whom claim that if the mine is safe enough to mine coal, it should be safe enough to push the work of rescue for the recovery of the bodies of the victims. Monday afternoon a delegation of nearly twenty widows of the entombed men called on General Manager Law and asked about the company's intention to continue the work. Mr. Law assured the committee that the work would be prolonged if those engaged in it would agree to relieve the company from responsibility in case of accident. The committee will consult legal advice to ascertain if the company cannot be compelled to continue the search.

The new All Saints' church property is being connected with the water main on West street and also with the sewer on the same street.

Refused to Pay Fare.

Jeremiah Brown, whose home is at Shoemakers, was a passenger on a Lehigh Valley car, and when called upon by conductor Butler refused to pay his fare. He was ejected from the train, when he threw a stone through the car window. The missile struck Henry Fahr, the baggage master, inflicting an ugly cut. A search was made for the offender but he escaped. He was afterwards arrested, and brought before Justice Neal Brennan, in his newly acquired office on the boundaries of Mahanoy City. In default of $500 bail, on two charges, Brown was committed to the Pottsville jail yesterday.
